1. The Conseil de la Resistance in Cherbourg is composed of three main groups: the O.C.M., Liberation and the Front National:

The Chief of the Conseil de la Resistance, M. Groslin, is an O.C.R. leader and his organization holds the majority of seats in the Conseil. The O.C.M. is generally composed of merchants, landowners and notables who, prior to the armistice, were Rightists or extreme-Rightists.

Liberation, which claims to have been the most active and efficient movement in the Department, is led by and generally composed of Socialists and C.G.P. men. In fact all the Resistance Socialists and Union men are members of Liberation.

As in the rest of France, the Front National is here the Communist Party's resistance organization. It is not as influential here as it is reported to be in other regions.

2. The right hand man to M. Groulin is M. Bocher (Beauchet), who seems to be as well the most prominent labor leader of the Department. Bocher is at the same time secretary of the Regional Socialist Federation, secretary of the Merchant Sailor's Union, secretary of the Union des Syndicats, representative of the I.T.F. and head of the local Liberation movement. ^{over} He is a very efficient man and seems to be respected and esteemed by his political adversaries.

3. The enthusiasm in favor of the Allies described in the newspapers should not be overestimated. The Norman did not like the Germans and is glad that they have been thrown out. But a very great number of people here are suspicious of Resistance because of the presence of Communists and Socialists. Moreover, they are very reserved towards foreigners as a rule, and they are not sure of what the Allies intend to do. They are also puzzled about the currency which has been introduced. On the part of labor, there is a sincere enthusiasm for the victories of the democracies somewhat tempered by the way local problems are handled by military authorities. For example, the Army or the Navy have hired dozens of workers to repair the Cherbourg harbor, but ~~they have done it~~ without consulting the unions. (They have ~~thus~~ given work to ~~a lot of~~ former Todt workers, more or less reliable, while skilled workers who were in Resistance Movement are left unemployed. Instances of this kind are frequent.

The anti-Communist members of the NSC are enthusiastic over the possibility of Russian leaders who will not be in the far western sector after the agreement just reached between the two groups in the formation of the Central. of seasonal skilled workers in other trades. This plan of action was created by the CIO and was paid (sic) paid in order to secure labor in certain high-season jobs. For example, workers in the building trades are getting up to 10 hours per hour, while skilled workers in the same trades are only 12 francs per hour. Seasonal points out that it is not possible to raise all salaries to the level of seasonal workers by the Bureau, since this would cause an inflationary trend. Therefore, the CIO is faced with the delicate task of working out the plan for the future for a certain extent of core salaries and the raising of others.

1. Phragmites australis (Cav.) Trin. ex Steud.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a formal address, and it is the first of its kind since the signing of the Constitution. The President, James Buchanan, is addressing the Congress, and he is doing so in a very formal and dignified manner. He is discussing the state of the Union, and he is discussing the issues that are facing the country at that time. He is also discussing the role of the President, and he is discussing the responsibilities that he has as the President of the United States. The letter is a very important document, and it is a document that has been studied and analyzed for many years. It is a document that is full of wisdom and insight, and it is a document that is full of history. It is a document that is a testament to the greatness of the United States, and it is a document that is a testament to the greatness of the American people. 1. The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work of the Commission. It is followed by a detailed account of the work of the Commission in the various fields of its activity. The report then concludes with a summary of the work of the Commission and a statement of the Commission's views on the future of the country.

Index of Region

1. The life is full of local drama with many towers and decisions scheduled for next century. The Democrats and Republicans are the main parties of the political parties, and their strength must be as vigorously directed. The Christian Science Movement (Christian Science) is a large of the political place with the federal government's very important. In the the religious organizations, both the U.S. government and the religious (Catholic, Protestant, and other) are working closely together to help the people in the political life. It is difficult to estimate the extent of their religious influence. Many leaders in politics are unwilling to allow any figures in the political life, but they appear to be about equal in strength to the political organizations.

2. Political Party - According to Mr. Winterrowd, the British Labour Party has 300,000 members in London (as compared with 100,000 in the year 1930) and 3,000 in the district east of London (as compared with 100,000 before the war). He pointed out that the Labour Party is traditionally a party of "stronghold", of 32 constituencies generally. A more socialist and more democratic, he stated that if elections were held today, the Labour Party would come out second.

3. "Statement Book" that the political situation is controlled by the existence of the "United We" (U), and that since the work of the organization is over, these groups should disappear and give way to the political party. He maintains that the leaders of the U are motivated by a sense of personal interest, their object being to replace the old position and the old leaders. He states that the leaders of the organization carry with them the will not to be accomplished, and that individual members joined the U simply to strengthen the representation of their organization and to counter-balance the influence of the U.

1. "Com. Fr. Bismarck"; in private conversation, and in a speech, Socialist leader of Brazil, in his speech before the Congress of the Socialist Movement of the Americas, in October 1934, declared his need for holding the position of monarch. He pointed out that present circumstances of the Brazilian Republic were not representative of the will of the people and that accordingly he felt public opinion, before, to the contrary, said he felt he needed proof of popular support before he could permit the wide democracy which he considered necessary. The other states of Brazil - the former monarchy and the monarchs considered were heavily weighted in favor of the monarchists, and of all proportion to the monarchists and all other people. He said the typical monarchist of Brazil is a conservative of the monarchist, one member of the monarchist movement, a representative of the monarchist (almost always a monarchist), one of the monarchists, and the monarchist movement.

5. Financial terms: It is possible that the Government will agree to provide financial aid to the Government of the Republic of the Congo in order to enable it to carry out its obligations under the agreement. The Government of the Republic of the Congo is a developing country and it is in a position to receive financial aid from the Government of the Republic of the Congo.

6. The Socialists expect a certain part of the women's vote. They feel that the women are likely to be strongly influenced by the clergy when they go to the polls. Despite this fact, however, the Socialists want the elections to be held next February.

3. On the day of the accident, the owner of the Van, The District Scientist, member of the Department of the Interior, arrived in the city, in connection with the work of the administration of the Department of the Interior, and the District Scientist, member of the Department of the Interior, arrived in the city, in connection with the work of the Department of the Interior, and the District Scientist, member of the Department of the Interior, arrived in the city, in connection with the work of the Department of the Interior.

10. There was also a wide debate on the question of collaboration with the 11. Communist work. In the light of the "through question in France of opening his
 12. contacts with the Communist Party, the departed did leave with a clear mind
 13. and being unity between the two parties was killed. However, isolation was
 14. finally noted as completely opposing the continuation of discussions down it
 15. Paris and national point to being above unity of the working class, and dis-
 16. rupting the duties of the Communist Party for humanitarian reasons. With the re-
 17. sumption, the British could not be reconciled and no desire to be anti-Com-
 18. munist but expected, in return, that the Communists would not be anti-British.

that the CGP was not maintaining a sufficiently independent and apolitical attitude.

12. In discussing relations of the socialist party with resistance groups, J. Soldani, member of the Bureau Federal of the party for the far southwest of the CN, expressed his deep regret over the fact that fusion between the socialist party and the CN had seemed impossible. He said he had hoped this fusion of non-socialists of the CN with the best elements of the socialist party would constitute a great revolutionary socialist party of the future. During the debate on the subject, he took vigorous, almost explosive exception to an insinuation by Oct. Bistrail, member of the Bureau Directeur of the party, that the leaders of the CN were simply a group of activists who were trying to take advantage of the situation of une political power.

13. As for foreign policy, the Congress expressed itself as opposed to the hegemony of any one great power, whether it be Britain, the United States or Russia, and in favor of a system of collective security, with all the democratic nations of the world equally represented in an international association of nations. This association should have its own army, credit, transport, etc. in order to be able to guarantee the peace. Regarding the treatment of Germany, the Congress voiced its opposition to any dismemberment of the country, but approved a long occupation with a severe allied control of all German industry and commerce and a long-range program for the reeducation of German youth.

14. Communist Party: According to Fr. Riecher, secretary of the London section of the socialist party, the Communists claim to have 4,000 registered members in the CN. Communist leaders interviewed declined to quote any figures.

15. Fr. Riecher, prominent Communist member of the CN, maintains that the Communists have gained many new followers in the CN since the war, at the expense of the socialists. He claims that this results to a large extent from the Communists' nationalist policy and also from their young, vigorous leaders, as compared with the socialists who still have the same leaders representing the old regime. He stated that the policy of the Communist Party would remain nationalist in the future; that it would be difficult to return to a revolutionary program.

16. Riecher asserted that the Communists get along better with the Christian Democrats than with the socialists, since the latter - as he put it - place party interests above the national interests.

17. The Communists are opposed to the holding of elections next February. Their reasoning, ostensibly in a nutshell, is as follows: the elections were scheduled before the recognition of the Provisional Government by the Allies as a means of holding a popular referendum and thus showing the Allies that De Gaulle and the country behind him. Now that the Allies have recognized the De Gaulle Government, the pressing need for immediate elections no longer exists. Besides, it would be not fair to sit for the return of the three million prisoners and deportees before proceeding to the polls. According to Fr. Riecher of the CN, however, the real reason the Communists are opposed to the elections is their fear of losing some of the strength which they now hold on the various departmental and moral liberation committee. Incidentally, M. Adrien has still indicated his personal opposition to the holding of elections at the present time, since the women's vote constituted an experiment and he was not in favor of conducting such experiments while France was still at war. (Adrien may well feel that to hold elections now would mean a loss of strength for the Vichy as well as for the Communists.) Etienne Allegre, Communist municipal delegate, stated flatly that he believed the elections should be postponed, although the party is making its plans so as to have everything in readiness in case the elections are held in February.

18. Both Allegre and Pothier criticized the conduct of the war, M. Sevin, for not being vigorous enough in his handling of the affairs of the department, particularly the procurement of adequate food supplies. Pothier praised Sevin for his personal courage and for his active participation in resistance activities but pointed out that he was formerly secretary of the sous-préfecture at Toulon and that he had not broken away from the old habits of the plodding government functionaries.

19. Pothier described Admiral Lambert, Préfet Maritime of Toulon, as a reactionary of the old tradition - along with the great majority of higher naval officers at the Toulon naval base.

20. According to Allegre, the Toulon edition of Jeune-Fidi, the Communist paper published in Marseille, has a daily circulation of 12,000 and a Sunday circulation of 15,000.

21. Mouvement Populaire at Toulon: The Toulon section of the MP was formed about two months ago. Its officers are: M. Labrousse, president; M. Jouzian, attorney, secretary; M. Guenier, banker as the Raid Arsenal, treasurer. A departmental federation of the MP is in the process of organization; Labrousse hopes to have it organized before the end of the year. Labrousse claims a membership in the Toulon section of 1,000 - but this appears to be an exaggeration. Labrousse stated that the Toulon edition of the Christian newspaper, Le Journal, published at Marseille, has a local circulation of 2,000. This Toulon edition was started two weeks ago.

22. The Union féminine civique et sociale (UFC) is the women's adjunct of the MP at Toulon. As in Paris, the UFC in Toulon is making serious efforts to capture the women's vote. A series of three free weekly political lectures, starting 13 December 1940 had been organized by the UFC.

23. Radical-Socialist Party: It is universally stated that the Radical-Socialists are practically absent as a political force in the Var. No party headquarters has been established in Toulon, and aside from the brief newspaper announcement, no sign of any Radical-Socialist activity was discovered.

24. PPR and SF: Pothier, of the MP, is optimistic over the possibility of fusion between the MP and the SF in the Var section after the agreement just reached between the two groups in the department of the Gard. On the other hand, Arigé, of the SF, points out that many members of his organization are hesitant about uniting with the PP, because they see in this an attempt on the part of the VV to search the VVN. However, he states that discussions are still continuing between the two groups. He also asserts that although many members of the VV are not communists, all the positions of responsibility in that organization are held by communists.

25. According to M. Bessone, representative of the VV on the CIG, there were 2,100 registered members of the VV in the VVN in October 1957, an increase with 2,907 members in 1957. Bessone considered one of the most urgent problems before the VV in the VVN to be that of the mobilization of soldiers. Two workers are reportedly paid (including compensation for the soldier of equally skilled workers in other trades. This action of payment was created by the VVN which would pay well in order to attract labor to certain high-priority jobs. For example, workers in the building trades are getting up to 70 francs per hour, while skilled craftsmen and farmers earn only 10 francs per hour. Bessone points out that it is not possible to raise all salaries to the high level established by the VVN, since this would cause an inflationary trend. Therefore, the VV was faced with the delicate task of working out the best time for the reduction -- to a certain extent -- of some salaries and the raising of others.

Active and Military Units

26. Force Republicanne de Securite and Forces Armeees Republiques The Forces Armeees Republiques de Securite have a total strength of 500 officers and men in the VVN under the command of Lt. Colonel (RFA) Barrat. Their headquarters are at Hanoi, about 7 km. west of Hanoi, at the Chaatouh Regiment, a requisitioned private estate formerly occupied by the Vichyist 10 (Groupement Mobile de Reserve).

27. The two companies under Barrat form part of the RS of the 15th Military Region (Indochine, Haute-Alpes, Basses-Alpes, Alpes-Maritimes, Haute-Savoie, etc.) and are commanded by Regional Commissioner Barrat and placed under the command of General Gallot. The RS are an official, paid militia, working under the pretext in each department of the 15th Military Region, with the principal task of combating bandits, collaborationists and black marketeers and of maintaining order. In the past, the RS has the additional task of guarding the 10 political prisoners at the camp of Hanoi. Members of the RS in the VVN are all former VVN. The men are paid 2,000 francs monthly; officers and noncommissioned officers receive regular army pay.

28. Barrat stated that he is short of arms and equipment for his men. There are officers for only 10 percent of his 500 men, and their total arms consist of 100 German Panzers and 100 light machine guns. Barrat pointed out that it would mean a great deal for the discipline of his men if they could all be properly armed and equipped. He hastened to add that in spite of circumstances, discipline was good. An inspection tour of the quarters, however, revealed a rather undisciplined situation; the men lacked the military bearing and bearing of trained soldiers. German prisoners working on the premises were more prompt than the members of the RS to give attention and salute at the approach of Lt. Colonel Barrat.

29. Barrat stated that he had sent detachments out on expeditions against the

29. He also stated that he had newspaper clippings out on expositions against the French blame -- elements of which had been reported in various localities in the city -- but so far without success. The U.S. has not had much contact with the elements involved in the U.S. There also has been circulation in civilian clothes in London to help out the black market. Thus far, the U.S. has made 250 arrests in London, for all offenses.

30. He also stated, who was formerly departmental chief of the U.S. Intelligence, and who is still a member of the departmental committee of the U.S. Intelligence, Intelligence (Confidential Intelligence), claims to be directly for the U.S. in the U.S. He also stated that one of the U.S. was the same as those of the U.S. but that the former were special civilians detaching their spare time to this task.

31. He also stated that, Colonel Harris, and the remaining U.S. of the U.S. are located in the U.S. also located at U.S., under the command of Colonel (Capt) U.S. This unit consists of about 1,000 men, and is preparing to leave shortly for the front to join the U.S. In London, there are U.S. members have formed an U.S. according to one of the U.S. the U.S. has a total membership of U.S.

French-American Relations

32. American sailors stationed in London report a number of cafe flirts and appeared to outstep themselves and French men, principally over women. The feeling is chiefly general among American sailors at London that the French would overtake an American at every opportunity possible.

33. As their aids, the French are, to a greater or lesser degree, resentful over the American bombing of London, which destroyed a large part of the city; over American treatment of German U.S.; and over the fact that American food supplies to the civilian population have not arrived in greater quantities. One source in Cleveland, about 25, veteran of the last war and U.S. for over two years during this war) reported bitterly that American soldiers and sold cigarettes, rations and soap at high black market prices and had not even taken away, contrary to what was expected of them. Cigarettes were sold at 50 to 100 francs a pack; soap at 50 francs a cake.

34. He also stated, Communist member of the U.S. and director of U.S., stated that he noticed a general feeling of general indignation, and indignation to U.S. and continued relations with the U.S. Government and even after his recall; that Washington was not pleased with the U.S. Government and would have preferred a U.S. or a U.S. to be U.S.; that a report was circulating in U.S. newspapers circled to the effect that three days before the liberation of London, various diplomatic representatives had penetrated into the city and had discussed with U.S. officials the possibility of setting up a new French government to replace the U.S. Government.

INFLUENCIA DE LOS COMUNISTAS EN TOULOUSE

Los comunistas influyen totalmente en el "FRONT NATIONAL" y su diario "LE PATRIOTE", de Toulouse.

Asimismo en el COMITE FRANCE-ESPAGNE, cuyo Presidente Jean CASSOU, a pesar de no pertenecer al Partido Comunista, se deja manejar por el.

Igualmente en el Comite FRANCE-U.R.S.S.

Reported Replacement of "Front National" by a New Paper

The following report is from a member of the staff of "Front National" and is a close friend of Thorez. This information was disclosed directly to a well-tried source, who has extensive contacts in French press circles:

1. It appears improbable that "Front National" will continue to be published after the elections, because of the breaking down of this political formation, which is of no further interest - except perhaps a marginal one - to the Communist Party. However, until now, Thorez has been opposed to its disappearance.

2. At present the leaders of the CP are planning to replace it by a more effective organ, and are studying three possible solutions:

(a) A newspaper which might be called "Ce Matin", and which would be supplementary to "Ce Soir" which would be responsible for its publication. The directors of "Ce Soir", which is a successful paper, are opposed to this idea, because they do not see the necessity for placing an additional load on the budget.

(b) A paper exclusively for women and which would treat all questions interesting to women: the home, the factory, food, the child, clothing, education, etc. But it is wondered if women have not adopted the habit of reading their husbands' paper, and would not be reluctant to indulge in the expense of an extra paper.

(c) An evening paper which would sell for 3 fr., and which would be similar to "Le Monde" in form, and would be the leftist opposite number of that paper. This paper would be destined particularly for the elite, and would stress cultural matters, accurate documentation, etc. The difficulty lies in assembling a first rate editorial staff to handle the political, economic, financial and artistic departments of such a paper.

3. It appears likely that a decision will be reached before the end of May.

Although this report is based principally on information received from HOMOEDRAL, the chief facts have been confirmed by HOMESTRETCH and HOMOGONE. Much of the information, especially the excerpts from CADI reports, was taken from the original CADI documents which HOMOEDRAL lifted from the CADI files. (One of HOMOEDRAL's sub-agents got the char-woman who cleans the CADI offices to lift a few reports each night for a period of a week.) The Italian immigrant sent by this station to the CADI office is Ettore GUIDETTI.

1. The Comité d'Action et de Défense des Immigrés (CADI) was organized at Paris in November 1944 and operated overtly until ordered dissolved as a subversive group by a decree of the Ministry of the Interior in December 1948.

2. The principal organizations which joined to form CADI are as follows:

Parti Communiste Français
Confédération Générale du Travail
Conseil National de la Résistance Front National Union des Femmes Françaises
Union des Patriotes Soviétiques
Comité Italien de la Libération
Comité d'Unité de la Défense Juive
Union National de la Colonie Tchéco-Slovaque en France
Union Démocratique des Hongrois en France
Aide à la Patrie Polonoise
Front National Arménien
Italia Libera
Front National Roumain
Union de la Jeunesse Républicaine de France
Union Nationale Espagnole en France
Fédération des Espagnols Résidant en France

3. As the name CADI implies, the organization was formed to aid foreign immigrants in France. It was not ostensibly founded as a political organization, nor was it ostensibly designed to support any particular political party. Its apparent purpose was rather to give social and legal aid to any and all immigrants in France. Its social program was quite simple and was largely devoted to the distribution of food, clothing, shelter, and money to needy immigrants. Its legal program was two-fold: first, it offered legal assistance to the individual immigrants through its lawyers; and secondly, it sponsored a series of measures in the Chamber of Deputies which were designed to benefit the status of all immigrants.

4. The measures which CADI sponsored were officially known as the "résolutions pour la promulgation d'un Statut Juridique des Immigrés", and demanded the following benefits for the immigrants:

- a. That "Cartes de résidents privilégiés" be granted to all immigrants, without exception, after three years residence in France.
- b. That immigrants be allowed to choose their place and type of employment.
- c. That immigrants be granted all the social benefits to which a French citizen is entitled.
- d. That expulsion from France be made dependent on a court order, rather than on a decree of the Ministry of the Interior.

5. CADI sponsored the above measures for all immigrants. For those certain immigrants who had volunteered for service in an Allied army, or had taken part in the Resistance, or had been deported to Germany, CADI made the following demands:

- a. That naturalization be granted by judges of the peace upon simple proof of the immigrant's claim to be in one of the above categories, and that all other naturalization requirements be waived.
- b. That all invalids, deportees, and widows of men of this category be entitled to the same social benefits as French citizens of similar classification.
- c. That the term "Mort pour la France" be added to the titles of the deceased of all immigrants of this category.

6. For those immigrants of the above category (para 5) who preferred to maintain their original citizenship, CADI demanded:

- a. That they be allowed to choose their place and kind of work and that they be permitted to change their profession whenever they so desired.

- b. That they receive all social benefits granted to French citizens.

- c. That all "administrative measures resulting from their antifascist activity before and during the War be annulled." (Field comment: This is a direct translation from the French and refers to any legal actions taken against immigrants who, as Communists, refused to obey the orders of the French government between September 1939 and the German attack on Russia.)

7. CADI was largely successful in realizing its demands, for the Statute of Immigrants which was passed by the Consultative Assembly (the Statute was composed of the ordonnance of 24 March 1945, the ordonnance of 2 November 1949, the ordonnance of 19 October 1948, the ordonnance of 25 October 1948, and the decree of 25 December 1948) gave to immigrants an equality of rights approximate to those enjoyed by a French citizen. The most active supporter of the CADI measures in the Consultative Assembly in 1945 was Madeline BRAUN, prominent Communist and one of the leaders of the FRONT National. The Communist Party and the COT also heavily backed these measures.

8. Paragraphs 4 through 6 represent CADI's original program; it was overt, it was designed to benefit all immigrants, and it was supposedly non-political. To implement its program, CADI established branch offices throughout France in the cities which had large numbers of immigrants. These branch offices were known as Centres d'Action de Defense des Immigres. CADI also took the lead in organizing the annual National Congress of Immigrants (Congres National des Immigres), the first one of which was held in Paris on 25 January 1948. H. BERACHA, representative of the Ministry of Industrial Production presided. In 1949, CADI again sponsored the congress, now called the International Congress of Immigrants in France (Congres International des Immigres en France), which took place in Paris 15 February to 17 February. Some 15,000 delegates, representing 3 million immigrants of all nationalities, attended. Justin GODARD, president of CADI, made the principal speech. Louis BAILLANT, secretary-general of the COT and president of the CMI, was a member of the sponsoring committee and sat on the speakers' platform. The sponsors' committee for the 1947 Congress which was also held at Paris in February, consisted of Justin GODARD, Louis BAILLANT, Jacques CHOLQS, Albert RAYET (delegate of the Ligue des Droits de l'Homme), PINHEU (director of the Union de Jeunesse Republicaine de France), Madeline BRAUN, and Joseph LEMOINE (lawyer for the Lettres Francaises in the KRANCHECO trial).

9. Although the ostensible and apparent purpose and activities of CADI were those outlined in paragraphs 8 to 6, its true purpose and its clandestine activities were quite different. CADI was not the non-political organization that it professed to be, but was in fact a tightly controlled Communist organization. To be sure, the legislative measures it supported benefited all immigrants, but they were designed primarily to help Communist immigrants. Similarly, CADI's program of aid to immigrants was restricted solely to Communist or pre-Communist immigrants. The true purpose of CADI was to aid Communist and pro-Communist immigrants to enter France; to aid them in establishing themselves in France; to place them in industries, mining, and agriculture; to organize them into faithful followers of the Communist Party; and finally to control them.

10. In order to realize its true purpose, CADI embarked on a clandestine program which may be divided into three major parts: the supplying of certain necessary identification papers, to illegal Communist immigrants, the placing of these immigrants in certain jobs, and the organizing of these particular immigrants, along with all the foreign laborers in France, into submissive groups which would follow the orders of the COT and the Communist Party.

11. Evidence of this first activity is found in the CADI office in Marseille. This office is currently operating a program whereby any avowed Communist immigrant coming to the office is furnished a "carte de travailleur étranger", given a job in industry or agriculture, and, for the sum of 8,000 francs, is furnished with a naturalisation decree.

12. (Field Comment:

Having heard from two sources that CADI was operating such a program, this station sent on 10 March 1949 one of source's sub-agents, an Italian immigrant who had entered France clandestinely, to the Marseille CADI, at 8 Place de la Prefecture, to ascertain if these reports were true. At CADI our sub-agent was received by Georges LINIVER. Our sub-agent then presented himself as an Italian immigrant who entered France clandestinely and asked that he be given a "carte de travailleur étranger". LINIVER asked our sub-agent who had sent him to CADI, to which the sub-agent replied, "I am a Communist." LINIVER asked to see the sub-agent's Party card, and the latter showed it to him. LINIVER then asked the sub-agent if he had a job in France, to which the sub-agent replied in the negative. LINIVER told the sub-agent to return in two weeks at which time he would give him an "autorisation de séjour", and in three weeks, he would provide him with a "carte de travailleur étranger". LINIVER also promised to give our sub-agent an agricultural job in Sete (Hérault). Finally, LINIVER told our sub-agent that for 8,000 francs he would provide him with naturalisation papers. Our sub-agent replied that he wanted such papers, but that he would first have to acquire the money. The interview ended with both men raising their fists in the Communist salute.

13. From questioning our sub-agent, it appears that the papers CADI furnishes are genuine papers which they obtain through the connivance of certain individuals in the Marseille Prefecture.

The sub-agent's sister unfortunately died in Paris on 18 March. The sub-agent then left immediately for Paris and has not yet returned. Upon his return to Marseille, this station will send him back to CADI to claim his "carte de séjour" and "carte de travailleur étranger". We will also give him 5,000 francs with which to acquire his naturalization papers and we will direct him to accept the proffered job in Sète.)

14. Additional evidence that CADI is engaged in supplying these papers is found in the fact that on the 24, 25, and 26 of January 1949 four foreigners presented themselves at the office of the Confédération Générale des Internés et Déportés Politiques de la Résistance et des Victimes de l'Oppression Nazie et du Ràssisme where, thinking they were at the CADI office, they asked that they be given "cartes de séjour". These men were:

✓ HILLER, Robert - born in Baden, Germany
✓ JACOBSON, Carl - born in Hamburg, Germany
✓ GEORGES, Maurice - born in Seckelymshely, Hungary
✓ LASZLO, Alexandre - born in Mersvakehely, Hungary

These four had entered France clandestinely and each had been told before leaving his own country to apply to CADI for his French papers.

15. The following excerpts from CADI reports indicate CADI's activity in placing immigrants in industries and in agriculture.

a. "The Poles sent by CADI into the iron and coal mines number 40,000. In addition CADI has placed 20,000 Polish agricultural workers in France." (Field comment: From a report by LOUKA, delegate of the Conseil National Polonais en France.)

b. "In the large chemical and metallurgical factories of Marseille one-third of the employees are immigrants. In the Aciéries du Nord, 340 workers are foreigners; the Cotel Plant, 485 workers are immigrants. CADI has placed many of these men and will continue to place as many again." (Field comment: From a report of Guido ZAMIS, CADI secretary in Marseille.)

c. "There are 3,800 foreigners in the coal mines at Carmaux-les-Mines. CADI has placed 80% of these men." (Field comment: From a report of the CADI representative for the TARN department.)

16. The following excerpts from CADI documents indicate CADI's activity in organizing the immigrant laborers into submissive groups ready to follow CADI-COT-Communist orders:

a. "It is necessary that CADI take the lead in organizing these foreign laborers in strong and democratic unions. We must protect them from their capitalist oppressors and we must aid them in their struggle against their employers. In CADI and in the COT, the immigrant finds his strength." (Field comments: From a report by Louis PETIT, one of the organizers and national leaders of CADI.)

b. "It is through CADI that the immigrant masses are able to mobilize for the tasks which lie before the whole country. It is CADI which must educate the immigrants in the ways of true democracy and it is for CADI to lead them in their struggle." (Field comments: From a report of LAROCHE, secretary-general of CADI.)

c. "Before the war, the countries from which these immigrants came were under the control of Fascist and reactionary regimes. The immigrants left their homes without hope of returning. Now things have changed; the countries from which they came are today true democracies and they now have the problem of helping those of their former citizens who are now living outside their borders. It is CADI who, working with these democratic governments, is attempting to obtain the rights of liberty and democracy for these immigrants now in France." (Field comments: From a letter written by Louis PETIT.)

d. "We are proud to be from a region where the majority are immigrants, the immigrants who organized the great strike of 100,000 workers during the occupation under the leadership of Auguste LECORUR. In those times, all orders were executed clandestinely, and we will execute them today with the same enthusiasm. CADI must lead the way." (Field comments: From a speech by the CADI secretary in the Pas-de-Calais.)

e. "The control of the recruiting of immigrant workers must be done in a rigorous manner by CADI and the French workers. We must prevent the immigrant worker from becoming a tool in the hands of the capitalists." (Field comments: From a speech by GIOVETTI, (CNU), delegate of Italia Libera.)

17. Further evidence of CADI's activity in organizing the immigrant workers is found in CADI files. - Report after report from various CADI delegates throughout France list by nationality the number of immigrants in their areas, and in addition many of the reports note the number of these immigrants who are under CADI control. These reports are all similar, and it is sufficient to quote from one: "More than 50% of the miners in the Loire basin are immigrants; of these, the following percentages adhere to CADI: 98% of the Poles, all the Yugoslavs, 80% of the Portuguese, 80% of the Italians, and 75% of the Hungarians." (Field comment: From a report by CADI secretary from the Loire.)

18. Although supposedly dissolved by Ministerial decree in December 1948, CADI continues to operate clandestinely throughout France. Its present national president is Justin GODARD, former minister; FRYDMAN, (fnu), a member of the Comité d'Unité de la Défense Juive, is vice-president; LAROCHE, (fnu), is secretary-general. National Headquarters are located at 108 rue de l'Université, Paris. The principal organizations supporting CADI today are those listed in paragraph 9, except for those of these organizations which have ceased to exist.

19. CADI functions in conjunction with these organizations and in addition it has its own delegates scattered throughout France in the industrial and mining regions. Among the CADI delegates are the following:

HORCADO - delegate of the Federation des Espagnols
Résident en France
LOUKA - delegate of the Conseil National Polonais en France
GIOVETTI - delegate of Italia Libera
KOVACS, Muranyi - secretary-general of the Union
Democratique des Hongrois en France
PANAS - member of the Front National Hellénique
MILLIK - member of the Front National Arménien
VINCIGUERRA - president of the Union des Volontaires
Etrangers
SOBU - delegate of the Front National Roumain
CONTI, Mme. Germaine - secretary of the CADI in Paris
ZELINSKY - delegate of the Union Nationale de la Colonie
Tcheco-Slovaque en France
QUERRIERO - member of the Federation des Immigrés Portugais
HOLLAND - delegate of CADI on Eastern France
FRYDMAN - vice-president of CADI; delegate of the Comité

(Field comment: It is realized that some of the organizations of which these men are listed as delegates have been dissolved, notably Italia Libera and the Front National Armenien. However, the names of the individuals and their affiliations are shown exactly as they appeared on CADI documents.)

80. CADI is well-financed. Its principal financial support comes from the Communist Party and the OOF. (Field comment: CADI documents acknowledge unspecified contributions from these organizations. One of source's informants, the chief of the Foreigners' Section of the Marseille Prefecture, has stated that he knows the Marseille CADI has an undetermined quantity of rubles, presumably received from the Communist Party.)

81. In Marseille, the CADI office was established by Guido ZANIS and George LINIVER in March 1945. It was originally located on the Blvd. du Muy, but in September 1947 it transferred to 3 Marche des Capucins. In February 1948 it moved to 97 rue Longue des Capucins and then, after it was ordered dissolved, it continued to function clandestinely at 2 Place de la Prefecture, where it remains today. ZANIS remains the director of the Local CADI, assisted by LINIVER.

1. The first of these is the fact that the United States has a large and growing population of people who are not citizens of the United States. This is a result of the large number of immigrants who have come to the United States in recent years, and the fact that many of these immigrants are not naturalized citizens.

SPECIFIC: List of Allied Communist dominated organizations

1. Attached is a copy of a list given to Leon H. CHAMMAN recently by Jack West, Legal Attache. The attachment was originally given to West by Keith Angell, Security Office, ECA-OSI, Paris. Mr. Angell advised that he had received this list from a source in the Prefecture of Police, Paris, and that it is based upon information in Prefecture files and investigation by that agency.

2. It will be noted that this list is apparently of quite recent date in that these international organizations recently expelled from France (IPDU, WPDY, WFTU) are noted as "dissolved".

3. Mr. West also transmitted a copy of this list to Mr. William Crawford in the Embassy here.
