For Osagyefo from KWESI ARMAH.

I have just returned from Washington to London. All went well at the funeral of President KENNEDY and your noble gesture in sending me to represent you was much appreciated by Mrs. JACQUELINE KENNEDY who would like me specially to express to you how deeply touched she was by your kind message and to thank you most warmly for your gracious demonstration of keen interest in, and affection for, her and her family in this hour of sorrow. She would like me to reciprocate your kind wishes and to extend to you and your family her warmest thanks and regards. She intends writing to you after sometime.
