1977 Inaugural Committee

February 7, 1977

Dear Ms. Johnson:

President Carter and Vice President Mondale have asked us to express their sincere appreciation to you for your most commendable efforts in support of the 1977 Inauguration.

The Inauguration of the President of the United States is a moment in history that serves as a vehicle to communicate to the world the commitment and spirit of the New Administration.

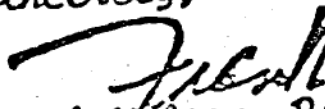

It is with this in mind that I forward this letter to you as a member of the Inaugural Security and Credential Committee. You displayed the highest degree of professionalism and dedication in many important tasks.

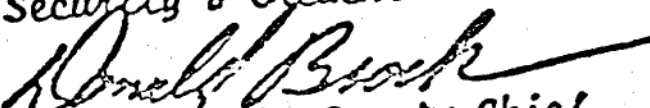

You were always willing and ready to work long hours, above and beyond the normal work day. You volunteered your services for almost anything asked of you.

Throughout the planning and implementation period, you were faced with an everchanging list of requirements. Your dedication to duty, understanding of the difficulties faced by the Inaugural Committee, and cooperative attitude are indicative of a true professional. Your overall manner of performance was truly outstanding.

If we had the power today, each of you would receive a tangible medal of citation for the highest award of Volunteer Action. Possessing only words, we say again, thank you for all the service given so unselfishly.

Sincerely,

Frank Wilson, Director
Security & Credentials Committee

I deeply appreciate your dedicated and untiring work on the 1977 inauguration. The inaugural program was a great success, open to all of our citizens. This would not have been possible without the unselfish help, cheerful spirit and long hours freely given by volunteers such as you.

You have helped to set an example of what we Americans can accomplish by sharing our talents and energies with each other. Many thanks.

Sincerely,

1977 Inaugural Committee

February 7, 1977

Dear Ms. Johnson:

President Carter and Vice President Mondale have asked us to express their sincere appreciation to you for your most commendable efforts in support of the 1977 Inauguration.

The Inauguration of the President of the United States is a moment in history that serves as a vehicle to communicate to the world the commitment and spirit of the New Administration.

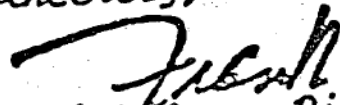

It is with this in mind that I forward this letter to you as a member of the Inaugural Security and Credential Committee. You displayed the highest degree of professionalism and dedication in many important tasks.

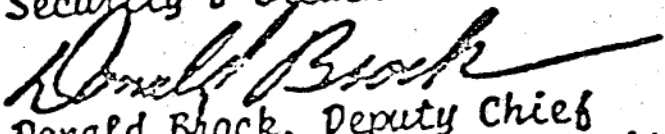

You were always willing and ready to work long hours, above and beyond the normal work day. You volunteered your services for almost anything asked of you.

Throughout the planning and implementation period, you were faced with an everchanging list of requirements. Your dedication to duty, understanding of the difficulties faced by the Inaugural Committee, and cooperative attitude are indicative of a true professional. Your overall manner of performance was truly outstanding.

If we had the power today, each of you would receive a tangible medal of citation for the highest award of Volunteer Action. Possessing only words, we say again, thank you for all the service given so unselfishly.

Sincerely,

February 7, 1977

Dear Ms. Johnson:

President Carter and Vice President Mondale have asked us to express their sincere appreciation to you for your most commendable efforts in support of the 1977 Inauguration.

The Inauguration of the President of the United States is a moment in history that serves as a vehicle to communicate to the world the commitment and spirit of the New Administration.

It is with this in mind that I forward this letter to you as a member of the Inaugural Security and Credential Committee. You displayed the highest degree of professionalism and dedication in many important tasks.

You were always willing and ready to work long hours, above and beyond the normal work day. You volunteered your services for almost anything asked of you.

Throughout the planning and implementation period, you were faced with an everchanging list of requirements. Your dedication to duty, understanding of the difficulties faced by the Inaugural Committee, and cooperative attitude are indicative of a true professional. Your overall manner of performance was truly outstanding.

If we had the power today, each of you would receive a tangible medal of citation for the highest award of Volunteer Action. Possessing only words, we say again, thank you for all the service given so unselfishly.

Sincerely,

Frank Wilson, Director

I deeply appreciate your dedicated and untiring work on the 1977 inauguration. The inaugural program was a great success, open to all of our citizens. This would not have been possible without the unselfish help, cheerful spirit and long hours freely given by volunteers such as you.

You have helped to set an example of what we Americans can accomplish by sharing our talents and energies with each other. Many thanks.

Sincerely,
