MARTI executed a sworn statement, DA Form 2820 (EXHIBIT____) dated 26 March 1969, which states in substance as follows:

MARTI thought the communists were trying to take over the world and HE didn't go for it. SUBJECT had not participated in any Communist Party activities nor had no knowledge of ever associating with any members of the Communist Party. HE belonged to a stamp collectors' organization.

SUBJECT's father or mother had not been an influence on HIS political ideologies or activities. HE did not object to being in the military, but if HE didn't have to serve, HE wouldn't. HE liked serving in Vietnam better than in the United States. SUBJECT thought that the United States should be in Vietnam to keep communism from spreading.
