GUS ALEX

The Swiss Central Police Bureau, Bern, Switzerland, furnished the following information:

The Zurich Police have established the following:

ALEX arrived at Zurich-Kloten Airport from New York-Paris on December 20, 1964, by TWA Flight 802. DIETGARD FUEGER checked in at the Dolder Grand Hotel in Zurich on December 19, 1964. She was accompanied by her mother, who left Zurich again on December 21, 1964, by air for Munich, Germany.

On December 22, 1964, ALEX and FUEGER left Zurich at 10:00 a.m. by car in the direction of Pontresina. The car in question was a "Peugeot 404" which ALEX rented from Hertz AG. On leaving the hotel he hired a taxi stationed at the Dolder Grand Hotel, which acted as a guide in front of his car as far as the outskirts of Zurich.

The driver of this taxi was later interviewed by the Zurich Police. He stated that he had driven ALEX on various occasions, e.g. on January 27, 1964, to Kloten Airport. On said journey ALEX had been looking time and against to see whether any car was following the taxi. ALEX had then mentioned that he knew very well he was being watched by the police by order of his native country.

The driver also mentioned that after he had guided ALEX and FUEGER out of town on December 22, 1964, ALEX had asked him whether he would be available on January 5, 1965. He, ALEX, would return on that day to Zurich.

In this respect, Zurich Police informed that ALEX reserved two rooms at the Dolder Grand Hotel for January 5.

92-3182-1022 ENCLOSURE 8PH-1000A During the stay at the Dolder Grand Hotel, ALEX and FUEGER made the following telephone calls:
