On November 8, 1968, MM T-3 advised SA JOHN A. OGDEN that HALPERN had gone to Las Vegas, Nevada in the past and gambled at an unidentified casino. Informant stated that HALPERN lost a considerable amount of money and that subject's visit to Atlanta was to collect the debt owed by HALPERN to the Las Vegas casino. Informant advised that HALPERN worked out an arrangement with subject but informant did not know the details thereof.

MM T-3 maintained that no threats or force of any kind was used by ROTHMAN in an effort to collect these debts.

On October 31, 1968, SA WILLIAM B. WATTS, JR., determined from R. G. Cox, Manager, Admiral Benbow Inn, 1470 Spring Street, N. The second receipt indicated ROTHMAN called area code 305 - telephone number 757-1695 and talked for three minutes for total charges amounting to $1.32.

It has previously been reported that a Cadillac bearing 1967-68 Florida license 6WW-6273 has been observed in the area of the Albion Lounge on frequent occasions.

CIA INFORMANT ~~(S)~~

1. On July 24, 1965, CIA provided in memo form information received from a reliable source. This source was later identified as ^(u)~~(S)~~ LUIS POSADA CARRILES. ~~(S)~~

^(u)~~(S)~~ POSADA advised that DIEGO BORGES was acting as an agent for three Americans who were seeking to buy pistols, explosives, blasting caps, hand grenades and silencers. The identity of the Americans was not known to POSADA although ^(u)~~(S)~~ he believed they were members of the Ku Klux Klan or possibly the John Birch Society. ~~(S)~~

[POSADA] ~~(S)~~(u) provided the following background information concerning individuals involved with BORGES in the procurement of arms and munitions by the three Americans: ~~(S)~~

HERMINIO DIAZ, 732 NW 3rd Street, Miami, Florida, sold sixty hand grenades (USMK II) to BORGES for delivery to Americans. DIAZ received from BORGES three hundred sixty dollars for grenades but delivered only forty. Subsequently, BORGES asked source to go to DIAZ and either pick up other twenty grenades or the one hundred twenty dollars in cash which they represented. ~~(S)~~(u)

RAMON ESCARDA, 620 SW 9th Street, who served in the US Army, 1958-1959, was supposed to obtain one hundred pounds of pentolite for delivery to BORGES for $320-350. ~~(S)~~(u)

FRANK TAMAYO, 3213 SW 8th Street, Miami, active in anti-CASTRO activities, sold .622 caliber silencers to Americans for $1,000. ~~(S)~~(u)

Source gave descriptions of the three Americans and also recorded license plate of car utilized by group ~~(S)~~(u)

On October 23, 1965, [POSADA] ~~(S)~~(u) interviewed by Bureau Agents ~~(S)~~(u) [POSADA] readily admitted he had been in contact with three Americans who were seeking to purchase hand grenades, weapons, silencers and explosives. He had been placed in contact with these Americans by DIEGO BORGES. He confirmed DIAZ, ESCARDA and TAMAYO were also involved in this transaction. [POSADA] ~~(S)~~(u) said shortly after he established contact with Americans, his CIA contact gave him several photos in attempt to identify Americans. [POSADA] ~~(S)~~(u) said he identified one of the photos as that of FRANK ROSENTHAL. Immediately after he identified this photo, CIA instructed him to break off all contact with these three Americans and to have nothing further to do with them. ~~(S)~~

~~(S)~~(u) [POSADA] said that six silencers which had been manufactured at the home of TAMAYO had been given by BORGES to ROSENTHAL. He said ESCARDA was looking for pentolite but did not know whether material delivered to ROSENTHAL. ~~(S)~~

(u) ~~(S)~~ On November 5, 1965, Bureau Agents exhibited photo of NORMAN ROTHMAN, FBI #152 585B, to [POSADA] ~~(S)~~(u) [POSADA] identified ROTHMAN as one of Americans with ROSENTHAL. He was of the impression that ROTHMAN was personally known to BORGES and had introduced ROSENTHAL to BORGES. It is noted ROTHMAN was arrested April 9, 1959, and was later convicted of violation of the National Stolen Property Act. He was sentenced to five years in prison and ten thousand dollar fine. ~~(S)~~

2. By similar communication, dated June 15, 1967, CIA advised the Miami Division that [POSADA] ~~(S)~~(u) had been contacted by FRANK ROSENTHAL during the month of October, 1966. ~~(S)~~

(u) ~~(S)~~ ROSENTHAL told [POSADA] ~~(S)~~(u) that all silencers he had purchased from [POSADA] were pieces of junk and he felt ~~(S)~~(u) [POSADA and] BORGES were responsible for this and maybe his friends would kill [POSADA and] BORGES. ~~(S)~~

(u) ~~(S)~~ ROSENTHAL stated although he was out $5,000 from his ~~(u)~~ previous purchases, he did not want money from [POSADA] ~~(S)~~ ROSENTHAL said he knew [POSADA] ~~(S)~~(u) was working for CIA and he wanted some CIA equipment. [POSADA] ~~(S)~~(u) allegedly refused to do this but [POSADA made a number of fuse devices which he gave to ROSENTHAL.] ~~(S)~~(u)

(u) ~~(S)~~ This same memo reflects ROSENTHAL contacted [POSADA] in early June, 1967. ROSENTHAL stated the fuse devices were no good which were previously furnished and made a request for more CIA fuse devices and remote control unit for detonating explosive charges. ~~(S)~~

On June 12, 1967, [POSADA] stated ROSENTHAL contacted him on June 11, 1967. ROSENTHAL asked for requested equipment and told source he would get him if he did not deliver. [POSADA] refused to do anything more for ROSENTHAL. (S) (u)

3. On June 22, 1967, SAs JAMES J. O'CONNOR and WARREN R. WELSH met with [LUIS POSADA] at Dinner Key, Coconut Grove, Florida. (S) (u)

[POSADA] at this time, reiterated his past dealings with FRANK ROSENTHAL from the time of the Spring of 1965, through June 12, 1967. [POSADA] made one additional remark concerning his involvement with ROSENTHAL during 1965. He stated that he did not directly furnish ROSENTHAL any of the explosives, et al, which he requested although he was introduced to ROSENTHAL as an expert in the field of explosives. For his expertise knowledge he was given $500 by ROSENTHAL sometime during the month of May, 1965. [POSADA] indicated that he gave this money to CIA, who in turn at a later date gave this money back to him. (S) (u)

4. On June 23, 1967, SA JAMES J. O'CONNOR was telephonically contacted by [POSADA]. POSADA related that on June 22, 1967, he met with FRANK ROSENTHAL. Subject requested 250 pounds of C-4 explosives, a large quantity of pencil type devices and a remote control explosive apparatus. ROSENTHAL stated to source that money was no problem and he would pay twenty-five times the original cost if this was necessary. (S) (u)

ROSENTHAL further related to [POSADA] that there would be at least twenty more bombings and additional corpses would be appearing in the Miami area. Subject stated that he would be out of town for several weeks although he requested a meeting with source on June 29, June 30, or July 1, 1967. (S) (u)

On this date, POSADA was shown a photograph taken by the Dade County Public Safety Department, Miami, Florida, of an explosive device found at the apartment residence of MICKEY ZION, 7501 East Treasure Drive, North Bay Village, Miami, Florida. This device was intended to go off in the bedroom area of ZION's apartment on May 30, 1967. POSADA identified the explosive material as pentolite. Source indicated that during the morning of this date he met with DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA. At this meet he promised to furnish ECHEMENDIA with the various materials requested by ALBERTO LARRAIN-MAESTRE. Source quoted ECHEMENDIA a price of $10 a pound for C-4 and $150 per silencer without the pistol. (S)(u)

Source further advised that ECHEMENDIA told him that he was to meet at midnight, June 29, 1967, with NORMAN ROTHMAN at the Albion Hotel Lounge, Miami Beach, Florida. The purpose of this meet, according to source, was to obtain an okay on the price of materials which were to be provided to the Chilean. (S)(u)

(u) 10. On July 5, 1967, SA WELSH met with LUIS POSADA in the Dinner Key area, Coconut Grove, Florida. (S)

Source stated that he was trying to analyze in his own mind the various meetings he has had with FRANK ROSENTHAL, NORMAN ROTHMAN, DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA and ALBERTO LARRAIN-MAESTRE. From all indications it appears that ALBERTO LARRAIN-MAESTRE is performing the bombings for FRANK ROSENTHAL. (S)(u)

He reflected that the original contact between ECHEMENDIA, ALBERTO LARRAIN-MAESTRE and himself came about through a mutual friend by the name of LUCIO CABRERA. He described the latter individual as a former gunsmith in the 20506 Brigade. CABRERA was first contacted by DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA to obtain various explosives for a Chilean who was a close associate of NORMAN ROTHMAN. He stated that CABRERA contacted him as a potential source of these explosive devices since he had only had one previous contact with DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA. (S)(u)

Source stated that he had obtained a remote control explosive device for ROSENTHAL although he could not at this time obtain all the C-4 or pencil (S)(u)

ROSENTHAL, in a very amiable mood, reflected that he would be leaving town either next Tuesday or Wednesday, and would need his explosive materials by that time. He further requested two grease guns with silencers and two M-2 carbines. ROSENTHAL said that he would make contact with source sometime during July 10, 1967, for the time of delivery. (S) (u)

Source stated that the cost of the grease guns would be $175 per gun and the price of the carbines would be $120 per unit. He also indicated that during the above described meeting there was an unknown individual sitting in ROSENTHAL's car. (S) (u)

Source also related that he had had a two hour talk with DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA on July 6, 1967. - ECHEMENDIA told him that the Chicago mob was contemplating the takeover of the gambling business in the Miami area. DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA stated that a representative of this group came to his house several nights ago and discussed the gambling situation. ECHEMENDIA stated that he was to receive an influential position with this group for the purpose of controlling the Cuban bolita operators. (S) (u)

EHEMENDIA further stated that on the evening of his meet with NORMAN ROTHMAN at the Albion Hotel Lounge, Miami Beach, Florida, ROTHMAN had previously been in contact with MEYER LANSKY. (S)(u)

EHEMENDIA also commented on a Cuban bolita operator by the name of EVARISTO GARCIA VIDAL. 13. SA WELSH contacted [LUIS POSADA] in person at the Dinner Key area, Coconut Grove, Florida, on July 11, 1967. (S)(u)

In conversation with DOMINGO EHEMENDIA he ascertained that MARGOSA was well pleased with the silencers which he was testing for the Peruvian. (u)(S)[POSADA] stated that he was going to charge the Peruvian $150 per silencer, $15 per pencil and $10 a pound for C-4 explosive. (S)

(S)(u)[POSADA] was instructed at this time regarding the tenure of conversation he should have with ROSENTHAL at their next contact. He was requested to make up a (S)

story concerning a dummy customs raid at his residence and the fact that because of this raid he could not produce the requested explosive devices for ROSENTHAL. (X)

(u) (S) [POSADA] During the late evening hours of July 11, 1967, telephonically contacted SA WELSH and advised him that he had just been contacted by his CIA supervisor. He informed him that he was no longer in the employment of CIA due to an order emanating in Washington, D.C. He was told that this action by CIA headquarters in Washington had nothing to do with either his previous work record with CIA or his present contact with the FBI Office in Miami. (X)

(u) (S) [POSADA] further stated at this time that ROSENTHAL had contacted his home at approximately 10:45 PM at which time his wife explained that her husband had been in trouble and that he would contact ROSENTHAL tomorrow. (X) (u)

14. SA WELSH contacted [LUIS POSADA] via telephone on July 12, 1967. (X)

(u) (S) [POSADA] stated that at approximately 10:30 AM on this date he contacted ROSENTHAL at his residence. ROSENTHAL would not talk on his home phone and requested [POSADA] to contact him at a pre-arranged number and time. (X) (u)

After making this telephonic contact, [POSADA] indicated that ROSENTHAL was extremely aggravated over the stalling tactics of [POSADA]. [POSADA] gave [POSADA] an ultimatum to either produce the material in ten days or forget about everything. (X) (u)

(u) (S) [POSADA] also related that on this date, DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA had contacted him and he informed ECHEMENDIA that the [customs had raided his house] the previous day. ECHEMENDIA stated that this [raid] meant nothing and he (X) (u) should not be worried about it. ECHEMENDIA stated that ALBERTO LARRAIN-MAESTRE was not presently in the Miami area. (S)(u)

15. On July 13, 1967, SA WELSH contacted AUSTIN HORN, CIA, Miami. (S)(u)

HORN stated that [LUIS POSADA CARRILES] was no longer an employee of CIA. He stated that the decision to release [POSADA] came from their Washington headquarters in view of the fact that [POSADA] had without authorization withdrawn himself from an anti-CASTRO group [called Resa]. (S)(u)

HORN commented that [POSADA] was instructed to continue his cooperation with the FBI Office in Miami and that he would be paid through September, 1967, as long as he cooperated with this other Federal agency. (S)(u)

16. On July 14, 1967, SA WELSH met with [LUIS POSADA] at Dinner Key, Coconut Grove, Florida. (S)(u)

[POSADA] stated that he had conferred on this date with DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA and ALBERTO LARRAIN-MAESTRE was not in town. ECHEMENDIA told [POSADA] that he was not going to place a specific order of explosives with [POSADA] until he found out exactly what MAESTRE and the Peruvian wanted, insofar as volume of explosive material. (S)(u)

[POSADA] said that he had heard nothing more from ROSENTHAL. (S)(u)

He further indicated that inasmuch as he is not presently employed in the Miami area he was contemplating a trip [to Venezuela] in order to secure a permanent type job. (S)(u)

MM 92-1870

On September 26, 1967, Phoenix advised that JONATHAN CURTIS, former PCI and CI of the New York Division, who resides at 1500 Bay Road, Morton Towers South, Apartment 1406, Miami Beach, Florida, was in contact with the Phoenix Division on three recent occasions. He advised on September 25, 1967, that he is presently on assignment for NORMAN ROTHMAN, owner, Albion Hotel, Lincoln Road, Miami Beach, Florida. ROTHMAN is acting as a "buffer" between SANTO TRAFFICANTE, JR. and CURTIS to bring a reported six million dollars in "hot" securities of jewelry into the United States through Nogales, Arizona, in the immediate future.

CURTIS contends he will be staying at the El Dorado Hotel, Nogales, Arizona, and is to await contact from an unknown individual or individuals whom he is to act as a bodyguard for, in bringing "hot" items to undisclosed destination in the United States. CURTIS recalled he has been paid $2,000 to date by ROTHMAN and allegedly is to receive $8,000 upon completion of the assignment. CURTIS advised ROTHMAN has been giving him instructions by "bits" and therefore he is not in a position to furnish additional details.

On September 27, 1967, Phoenix advised that JONATHAN CURTIS was interviewed on the evening of September 26, 1967. He again claimed that his "principal" gave him $2,000 as advance on this deal but claimed that he is a compulsive gambler and that he lost most of the money at a dog track in Phoenix. He again demanded that the Bureau advance him money in this matter and was advised that he could only be paid on a C.O.D. basis. CURTIS then stated he planned to forget the whole deal and would call his "principal" in Miami and try to give him some excuse for asking him for money to enable him to return to Miami. He stated no one had contacted him to date regarding this deal.

In view of the possible Customs violation, Phoenix disseminated this matter to U. S. Customs, Nogales, Arizona.

SERGIO CASTRO is presently incarcerated in the Hudson County Jail, Jersey City, New Jersey, for bank robbery. There is also a case on CASTRO in New York on federal counterfeiting charges.

This case was placed in a pending inactive status on June 22, 1967, and Departmental Attorney WALLACE H. JOHNSON, JR. advised that agents of the Federal Narcotics Bureau in Miami, Florida, would conduct an investigation in Miami relative to the possibility of ROTHMAN being engaged in narcotics and that the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit would conduct an investigation of the Albion Lounge. REMAINS UNCLASS PER DOJ ON 6-17-98

The Federal Narcotics Bureau in Miami conducted an investigation of ROTHMAN and is still conducting its investigation in an effort to prove that ROTHMAN is engaged in narcotics. SDJ/KSR 6-23-98 (JFK)

On December 12, 1967, ROBERT NICKOLOFF, Agent in Charge of the Miami Branch of the Federal Narcotics Bureau, advised that ALBERTO LARRAIN-MAESTRE had been arrested in Spain on or about December 4, 1967. A copy of the interview of this individual will be furnished to the Bureau.

The Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit did not conduct an investigation of the Albion Lounge.

DETAILS:

RESIDENCE

On December 14, 1967, it was determined that ROTHMAN continues to reside at 425 Surfside Boulevard, Surfside, Florida.

HANGOUTS

On June 6, 1967, MM T-1 advised that ROTHMAN occasionally visits the Fontainebleau Hotel and is a good friend of MAX EDER. He occasionally cashes checks at the Fontainebleau Hotel.

EMPLOYMENT

On August 24, 1967, MM T-2 advised that ROTHMAN was no longer connected with the International Lithographers Company.

On October 2, 1967, MM T-4 advised that NORMAN ROTHMAN travelled to Las Vegas, Nevada, on September 27, 1967, for the purpose of meeting with ED HUMMELSTEIN and GENE EDWIN, both of Memphis, Tennessee. HUMMELSTEIN is the president and founder of Faith Memphis Plates, while EDWIN is a building contractor in that city. This trio met for the purpose of finalizing the organization of junket flights to the New Frontier Hotel and Casino, Las Vegas, Nevada. They will be equal partners with one-third each, however, ROTHMAN will not be carried on the books as a member of this organization.

ROTHMAN's function is that of making the proper connections with the people in Las Vegas to honor these junkets. He is also working on trying to obtain the junkets for Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas.

On November 3, 1967, MM T-2 ^{Nevada} advised that he heard that ROTHMAN acquired IRVING BRENNER's interest in the Albion Hotel Lounge. ROTHMAN paid BRENNER a certain amount of money but owes BRENNER a considerable sum which ROTHMAN will not pay.

CRIMINAL ACTIVITY

DE CRESTOFARO is still pushing and collecting shylock money for NORMAN ROTHMAN who in turn works for PATTY TERRA. ^{FIA}

On November 1, 1967, ^{FIA} MM T-7 advised that his knowledge of SANTO TRAFFICANTE dates back to the BATISTA regime and up to 1963. He continued that he was closely associated with OSCAR ECHEMENDIA and MARTIN FOX, co-owners of the Tropicana Casino, Havana, ^{Cuba}. During his days in Havana, Cuba, OSCAR ECHEMENDIA hired him on occasions as a bodyguard and chauffeur. He stated he learned through OSCAR that Italian racketeer, SANTO TRAFFICANTE, had a large interest in the Tropicana Casino, and that he was considered one of the "big bosses" there.

MM T-7 advised that prior to the revolution, he was contacted by an American, named NORMAN ROTHMAN, who was allegedly a close friend of SANTO TRAFFICANTE. He met

ROTHMAN at an expensive motel in Havana, Cuba, with another Cuban and ROTHMAN offered them $5,000.00 to kill an unknown American, who was to arrive in Havana, Cuba. MM T-7 did not know ROTHMAN, and he refused to make the "hit" for ROTHMAN. MM T-7 did not know if this "hit" was ever made.

Sometime during 1961, he met OSCAR ECHEMENDIA in Miami, Florida, where informant was now living. OSCAR hired him again to drive him around on occasions. He added most of his trips with ECHEMENDIA were at night, since OSCAR enjoyed drinking and partying. He learned at this time that OSCAR's partner was still MARTIN FOX, and that they had the largest Bolita bank in Miami, Florida. This business had been made possible through their friend, SANTO TRAFFICANTE. ECHEMENDIA told informant that SANTO received a percentage of their weekly Bolita operation for protection against police or anybody moving in. MM T-7 added that he believes ECHEMENDIA's operation took in about $50,000.00 or $60,000.00 weekly in Bolita gambling. ECHEMENDIA often told informant that if it was not for SANTO TRAFFICANTE, he would not have anything nor could he possibly operate.

MM T-7 advised that he observed SANTO TRAFFICANTE, sometime in 1962, at the Bel Air Hotel Cocktail Lounge, Miami Beach, Florida, with owner of this club, NORMAN ROTHMAN. SANTO was with a big Cuban politician named MACHO GEENER, who was an important Cuban during the Batista regime. Informant learned at this time that ROTHMAN was very close to SANTO TRAFFICANTE and that ROTHMAN was also involved in many illegal activities. Informant stated that ROTHMAN at this time was allegedly masterminding big robberies of wealthy homes in the Miami area, which involved large jewelry thefts. ROTHMAN would hire Cuban holdup men, who would take all their orders from him on the particular home to be hit, and then ROTHMAN would fence the hot "goods" or "ice."

MM T-7 further advised that he attended a big wedding reception given by NORMAN ROTHMAN, in 1962, for his son. MEYER LANSKY was seen at this party with other big shot hoodlums from the Miami area.

MM T-7 advised that OSCAR ECHEMENDIA received large shipments of Puerto Rican lottery tickets weekly through the U. S. Mails. Informant stated he personally observed RAFAEL LORETO (deceased), during 1963, pick up a large package addressed to him at the Post Office in Miami, Florida, which contained a large shipment of the above tickets. LORETO told him that ECHEMENDIA assigned about eight of his operators to handle these tickets, but each one was given a different week to pick up the shipment at the U. S. Post Office. Other known operators for ECHEMENDIA were RAUL FERNANDEZ; OSCAR's son, DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA; PEDRO FOX, brother of MARTIN FOX. He continued that since OSCAR and MARTIN FOX's deaths, PEDRO FOX and DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA were left the bolita business. He advised that he doubts if DOMINGO ECHEMENDIA can handle this operation, since he does not have the knowledge or personality to handle such a large operation. FLA

MM T-7 stated that other large Cuban Bolita operators, during 1963, in Miami, Florida, were MIGUEL ANGEL CANO and his brother, ARMANDO CANO. He added that these Cubans owned a large hotel, which contained the Toledo Restaurant. He stated that ARMANDO has been arrested for gambling, but he believes MIGUEL CANO, may still be a big operator in Bolita and the Puerto Rican lottery.

TRAVEL

On June 7, 1967, MM T-2 advised that around May 10, 1967, NORMAN ROTHMAN went to New York City reportedly to handle some business for PATTY ERRA. He stated that ROTHMAN usually checks into the Americana Hotel. MM T-2 further advised that ROTHMAN went to Pittsburgh to attend the funeral of SAM MANNARINO.

On June 16, 1967, MM T-2 advised that ROTHMAN went to MANNARINO's funeral with PATTY ERRA.

Files Passport Office, Department of State, reviewed by SA KENNETH J. HASER on July 3, 1967, disclose that NORMAN ROTHMAN was last issued passport G-308507 at Washington, D. MM 92-1870

It is pointed out that, under passport regulations, ROTHMAN may use passport for lawful travel within period of its validity whenever and as often as desired without further notification to Department of State or other government agency. Passport Office does not receive information as to whether or when a passport is used for foreign travel.

On July 7, 1967, MM T-2 advised that NORMAN ROTHMAN and ALBERTO (last name unknown) left Miami on June 27, 1967, for Las Vegas, Nevada, and returned to Miami on July 1, 1967. Informant stated that ROTHMAN and ALBERTO spent considerable time at Caesar's Palace Hotel and Gambling Casino.

On July 7, 1967, MM T-3 advised that he heard that ROTHMAN makes several trips a year to visit BATISTA in Spain.

On July 17, 1967, FRANCIS SMITH, Internal Revenue Service, advised that an informant had advised him that NORMAN ROTHMAN was to leave for Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on the night of July 17, 1967. United Airlines flights 578 departed Miami at 6:40 p.m.; 598 departing Miami at 12:55 a.m. and 454 departing Miami 1:10 a.m. were checked and ROTHMAN was not among the passengers.

On August 24, 1967, MM T-2 advised that NORMAN ROTHMAN has not been travelling as much as he did in the past.

On September 14, 1967, MM T-6 advised that on September 12, 1967, ROTHMAN had stayed at the Caesar's Palace Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada.

ASSOCIATES

On December 5, 1967, MM T-2 advised that PATTY ERRA and NORMAN ROTHMAN have been seen together on several occasions at the Hilton Plaza Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida. Informant further advised that the opening of the Hilton Plaza Hotel will be on December 15, 1967, and that PATTY ERRA, MAX EDER and NORMAN ROTHMAN have reservations for the opening.

The following investigation was conducted by
SA MICHAEL E. DILL:

AT EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, FLORIDA

On September 20, 1967, JOSEPH SUMMERS, Records Office, Eglin Federal Prison Camp, furnished the prison file for NORMAN ROTHMAN, number 389EF. This file reflected the following background and descriptive data concerning the subject:

ROTHMAN was convicted in the Western District of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on February 4, 1960, for conspiring, aiding and abetting to transport stolen property in interstate and foreign commerce, and using interstate and foreign wires to defraud. ROTHMAN was sentenced to five years and a $10,000 fine on this charge. ROTHMAN began serving his sentence at the Federal Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia, on August 28, 1961. On July 10, 1962, he was transferred from Atlanta to Federal Correctional Institution, Tallahassee, Florida. On September 12, 1963, subject was transferred to the Eglin Federal Prison Camp, Eglin Air Force Base, Florida, where he remained until his release on February 18, 1965. ROTHMAN's file contained a copy of a letter, dated September 22, 1961, from the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, which reflected that on November 4, 1958, inspectors of the Immigration and Naturalization Service and state officers detained an airplane which had landed at the Morgantown Airport, Morgantown, West Virginia. The pilot of this aircraft was determined to be STUART SUTOR.

A search of this aircraft reflected that there were 135 rifles and guns located on the aircraft. Subsequent investigation revealed that 121 of these weapons had been stolen from the National Guard Armory in Canton, Ohio. As a result of the seizure of these weapons, investigation resulted in a conspiracy case being presented against SUTOR, NORMAN ROTHMAN, and others. Upon his arrest, SUTOR reported that the aircraft he was piloting had been rented from DuPont Air Interest, Miami, Florida.

Further investigation into this matter revealed that in August 1958, JOE and SAM GIARUSSO had contacted a LEONARD RICCI, a licensed firearm dealer, and told him they had a contact from Florida who wanted all the United States Army type rifles he could get. In October 1958, ROTHMAN, who was described as a well known gambler formerly of New Kensington, Pennsylvania, and who allegedly represented the Mannarino Gambling Interest in Cuba, contacted a Doctor LEWIS C. PESSOLANO in Miami Springs, Florida. ROTHMAN was reported to have asked PESSOLANO to purchase an airplane for the purpose of going north to pick up a load of firearms and to obtain the services of a pilot who could be trusted for the flight. A short time later, PESSOLANO contacted STUART SUTOR and made arrangements for SUTOR to pilot this plane. SUTOR was subsequently introduced to JOSEPH MEROLA at Miami, Florida, who with SUTOR left for Pennsylvania to pick up the weapons. On October 26, 1958, SUTOR and MEROLA landed their plane at the Alleghany Valley Airport, near New Kensington, Pennsylvania, where they were met by three men who arrived at the field in a 1958 Oldsmobile and panel truck with the name S and S Distributing Company written on the side. The stolen weapons were apparently transferred to SUTOR's plane at that time.

This letter further reflects that GABRIEL and SAM MANNARINO, who were listed as co-conspirators in this matter, were the owners of the S and S Distributing Company and that their truck was used to transport the stolen weapons. MANNARINO was reported to have made a telephone call to PESSOLANO a short time later and inquired if SUTOR would keep his mouth shut in reference to the law enforcement officers. ROTHMAN was reported to have described SAM MANNARINO as a "very dear friend."

In June, 1966, he received information that the International Lithographers, 1771 West Avenue, Miami Beach, telephone 538-7871, was chartered as a Florida corporation on April 21, 1966. The International Lithographers originally began in 1948 as a partnership of BEN LEVIN and members of his family; in 1953, he incorporated as Personally Yours Press Inc., which was subject to a great deal of litigation and suits all of which allegedly took place after BEN LEVIN, the principal, left the firm; and it was under the operation of LEVIN's divorced wife, MILDRED LEVIN. In 1963, Personally Yours Press, Inc., was discontinued and the premises were occupied by Mastercraft Printers who in turn sold the assets to the present owners of International Lithographers, which are BEN LEVIN, Mrs. OLIVE LEVIN, wife of BEN LEVIN, and JOSEPH MALEK.

BEN LEVIN was born in 1910 at Fargo, North Dakota. For a number of years prior to 1940, he operated as a manufacturer's representative; 1940-1941, was in the US Armed Forces; 1941-1942, he again became a manufacturer's representative, but returned to the Armed Services from 1942-44. He came to Miami in 1944, and promoted Chefs Frozen Food Products and other frozen food lines, but discontinued this in 1948. He then organized the partnership known as Personally Yours Press.

JOE MALEK is a local attorney, and OLIVE LEVIN is listed primarily for corporate purposes.

LURIE stated he recently received a letter from NORMAN ROTHMAN, who was in the Federal Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia, telling him that he, ROTHMAN, had made a statement to the FBI in Atlanta, that he had loaned PATSY ERRA approximately $100,000. LURIE stated that he prepared a mortgage for ROTHMAN to cover a loan from ROTHMAN to ERRA in 1959. LURIE stated that he knows of no other loans made by ROTHMAN to ERRA, and that he has no record of any other loans made by ROTHMAN to ERRA.

Recorded in Official Record Book 1503, Page 35, Records of Dade County, Florida, is a mortgage deed executed June 26, 1959, by PATRICK ERRA and FRANCES ERRA, his wife, Mortgagors, to NORMAN ROTHMAN, Mortgagee. On February 3, 1967, MM T-9 advised that he understands NORMAN ROTHMAN is extremely close to BEN LEVIN, owner of Copa City, and International Lithographers and that ROTHMAN is making trips out of the city, reasons unknown, in connection with his association with LEVIN.

CRIMINAL ACTIVITY

On July 25, 1952, MM T-11 advised that the gambling concession at the Sans Souci Nightclub in Havana, Cuba, was backed by the money of SAM and GABRIEL MANNARINO of

MM 92-1870

New Kensington, Pennsylvania, and that the front name for the concession was NORMAN ROTHMAN. SAM and GABRIEL MANNARINO are reported members of the LCN.

On November 16, 1955, MM T-12 advised that SANTOS TRAFFICANTE, JR. had taken over the Sans Souci Nightclub in Havana, Cuba, and left ROTHMAN in as manager.

On October 10, 1955, CARL HACKER furnished the Albany Office of the FBI with the following information:

He is former international representative of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees & Bartenders International Union. Information which HACKER has furnished has been accurate and reliable.

HACKER stated he was sent to Miami Beach in May, 1954, as International Representative to take over Local 255, which local was in trusteeship.

He stated he was approached by one NORMIE ROTHMAN and ROTHMAN told him that it was necessary for him and his associates to control the political situation in Miami Beach. ROTHMAN propositioned HACKER as follows:

ROTHMAN would be appointed International Representative of the Hotel Workers Union, and three organizers, of ROTHMAN's designation, would be appointed in Local 255. These individuals were to be on the Union payroll. ROTHMAN and these organizers would then organize for the Hotel Workers Union in Miami Beach. ROTHMAN stated that he and his associates had "something" on every hotel operator in Miami Beach and they would be forced to permit him to organize their workers. ROTHMAN indicated that he and his associates would benefit in that they would have the sizeable block of votes which could be controlled through the union. ROTHMAN indicated at the end of a one-year organizational period he and his associates would expect a fixed annual contribution from the Hotel Workers Union.

HACKER said he listened to the proposition only to ascertain the extent of ROTHMAN's interest in muscling in on the Hotel Workers Union. He said he then presented this proposition to JACK WEINBURGER, formerly Organizational Secretary, now General Secretary of the Union. WEINBURGER stated that this must be discussed with ED MILLER, who agreed with the proposal, except the appointment of ROTHMAN as International Representative. MILLER indicated he would get around this somehow. In December, 1954, HACKER was telephonically contacted by ED MILLER and instructed to turn over the affairs of Local 255 to one ALBERT BERLIN, a former associate of the gangster element. This appointment in HACKER's opinion indicated ROTHMAN had gotten to MILLER, apparently through ROGER LEBENNER, Business Agent for Local 133 of the Hotel Workers Union, and that MILLER was working with ROTHMAN. HACKER stated he could never work with MILLER and resigned on December 13, 1954. HACKER stated that in April, 1955, the first hotel in Miami Beach was struck by the Hotel Workers Union, and the strike which presently involves 22 hotels is still going on. The Hotel Workers Union is pouring $120,000 a month into this strike. He can only conclude the hotel operators did not accede to ROTHMAN's shakedown. He is convinced, however, that ROTHMAN made the attempt, and that MILLER is cooperating with him.

On July 30, 1956, AL MANHEIM advised that ABE GOODMAN was in the bolita business in Cuba with ELI QUAIN and NORMAN ROTHMAN.

On July 30, 1956, NORMAN ROTHMAN, Chicago, Illinois, shipped 32,800 pounds of gambling equipment to NORMAN ROTHMAN, Miami, Florida. The equipment arrived in Miami, Florida, on August 3, 1956, and was located at Tamiami Tours, Inc., Transport Company. The U. S. Attorney, Miami, Florida, authorized the seizure of this equipment; and the equipment was seized on August 6, 1956, and turned over to the US Marshal on August 7, 1956. Prosecution of ROTHMAN was declined by the US Attorney's Office, Miami, Florida, and the gambling equipment was destroyed.

In December, 1957, MM T-13 advised that NORMAN ROTHMAN controlled all of the slot machines in Cuba with the exception of those in Havana.

The Brockville Trust and Savings Company located at Brockville, Ontario, Canada, was burglarized between the hours of 7:30 PM, May 3, 1958, and 8:30 AM, May 4, 1958. Taken in the theft were bearer bonds, registered bonds, jewelry and cash. A Federal Grand Jury at Chicago returned a suppressed indictment against ROTHMAN on June 30, 1959, charging him with aiding and abetting on one count of Title 18, Section 2315, US Code, and all counts of Title 18, Section 1343, US Code. Warrant was issued by the US District Judge, Chicago, and bond set at $5,000. ROTHMAN was apprehended by Bureau Agents, Miami, Florida, on July 2, 1959, and released on $5,000 bond. He was not convicted on these charges.

MM T-6 also advised that he received information that ROTHMAN as either a representative of ERRA or EDER or both, has some arrangement whereby items which are taken as security from time to time when a shylock loan is made are pawned. MM T-6 stated he further learned that stolen jewelry enters into the picture but could furnish no additional information regarding this phase of the business. Reportedly, EDER, ERRA and ROTHMAN deal with the Simpson Pawn Shop, North Miami Avenue, Miami, Florida.

MM 92-1870

On December 12, 1966, and December 13, 1966, MM T-18 and MM T-19 respectively advised that NORMAN ROTHMAN of Miami, Florida, had been in the Caesars Place Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada, and was receiving "favored treatment" by the Caesars Palace Casino executives and that ROTHMAN was some important person who was reportedly in the market for, or had already obtained, some undisclosed interest in a Las Vegas gambling operation.

On April 22, 1966, MM T-6 advised that NORMAN ROTHMAN and his friends wished to purchase the Albion Hotel Lounge, Miami Beach, Florida, but would not pay the price asked by RALPH SORRENTINO.
