233SITUATION INFORMATION REPORTACTIVITIES OF POSSIBLE INTEREST TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED FOR THE FALL
OF 1968

The "asterisked" items listed are either newly surfaced activities or are changed details on activities listed in previously printed calendars.

October 17      *New York City - Herman B. FERGUSON, black militant candidate for the U. S. Senate and a former NYC public school official, obtained permission to be freed from jail on bail of $25,000. He was found guilty June 15 of conspiracy to commit murder in the first degree and was sentenced to 3½ to 7 years in prison. He was one of the members of the Revolutionary Action Movement who had been accused of conspiring to murder Roy WILKINS, executive director of the NAACP, and Whitney YOUNG, Jr., national director of the Urban League. The permission for bail was granted by State Supreme Court Justice Joseph M. CONROY, who ruled that there was "reasonable doubt" that FERGUSON had received a fair trial. Basis was that the prosecution had mentioned before the jury, the assassination of Robert F. KENNEDY, which had occurred shortly after the trial began, and every American was filled with emotion over that terrible event.

The period 10/21 - 10/27, having been tabbed by dissenting groups as a week for increasing anti-war and anti-establishment activities, winds up with many events anticipated on 25-26 and 27 October. Those which have been disclosed to date are listed below, followed by those other events expected from 28 October through 20 January 1969 (Inaugural Day).

October 10-27      According to the London Times, Scotland Yard has uncovered a plot by armed extremists to seize Government buildings and the U. S. and Russian embassies during a planned anti-Vietnam War rally. The extremists reportedly are made up of American students and "draft dodgers" in Britain who are backed by "foreign capital." Senior Scotland Yard officials reportedly said the plot posed a situation "potentially as violent" as the student rioting in Paris the past spring. Scotland Yard officials declined comment when queried. The Times said simultaneous demonstrations were planned in France, Germany, and Italy. The extremists have no connection with the organizers of the demonstrations but merely plan to act during them. "The aims of the extremists seem to be to usurp authority and disrupt the administration," the Times quoted a government source as saying.

Leaflets circulated in London last week urged demonstrators to make grenades and firebombs and to assemble for a massive anti-Vietnam protest on 27 October.

*Authorities are seeking to ease the tension which has been building up by anti-war and student actions. They have urged the students to boycott the anti-war protest planned for 27 October.

October 21-27

*Johnson City, Tennessee - A petition was being circulated last week at East Tennessee State University in an attempt to get students and faculty members to participate in anti-war demonstrations during this week. Saturday, 26 October, was selected as the target date for more demonstrations in local areas.

The Austin, Texas, march and rally mentioned below is part of that plan. Other large demonstrations may be organized in the major cities in the country.

October 21-26

Austin, Texas - The University of Texas Committee to End the War in Vietnam, Austin, Texas, in cooperation with anti-war groups in Houston, Dallas, and San Antonio, Texas, reportedly are organizing a march and rally in Austin on 26 October as a support activity of Students Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam spon-

Oct. 31-Nov. 2

Boston, Massachusetts - SDS plans to disrupt CIA interviews in the Boston area.

November 1968

A "Monroe Court-In" is planned for Monroe, North Carolina, if Robert F. WILLIAMS, the radical black nationalist, returns to face trial on a kidnapping charge, etc. The protest and disruptive activity would be timed for the Presidential elections. It does not appear likely that WILLIAMS will risk returning to face trial although it is conceivable that his ego leads him to believe that the threat of violence from his supporters in The Revolutionary Action Movement, the Black Panther Party, and other black militants, if he were convicted, is sufficiently formidable that the court would treat him gently.

November 1-5

*National GI Week is being organized by the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam and SDS voted in their National Council meeting to support it. Reputedly four major aspects of the action are being planned.

1. Delegations will go to forty army bases across the country to relay the message that the anti-war movement supports soldiers. Some delegates will go for specific purposes: At Ft. Jackson, S. C., "to investigate the outbreak of spinal meningitis that killed many trainees last winter"; at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, to demand the release of Capt. Howard LEVY, the doctor court-martialed for refusing to teach Green Berets.

Clergymen will attempt to investigate conditions in stockades on army bases. They will try to talk with prisoners and find out why they are there, looking especially for political prisoners.

Other groups will hold love-ins outside bases, inviting soldiers out to enjoy rock music, poetry readings, and chicken dinners. A love-in is set for 3 November at Ft. Dix, N. J.

Women will visit bases with picnic baskets, carrying signs reading "we want our men back." Leafleting will be done at all forty bases.

2. A special delegation is leaving 24 October for Stockholm, Sweden, where they will talk with members of the American Deserters Committee (including several draft resisters) and with Swedish government officials. They will return to the U. S. 30 October and hold press conferences across the country beginning 1 November. The delegates have been chosen by region for that purpose. A nationwide speaking tour to raise the question of amnesty for the deserters and draft resisters living in Sweden is planned.

3. November 2 and 3 have been declared Vietnam Sabbath. Synagogues and churches will hold special services for and about GI's. Many Rabbis, Ministers, and Priests are trying to get Army Chaplains to conduct the services. Several also will declare their houses of worship sanctuaries for deserters and resisters.

4. Vietnam vets will hold teach-ins on the military and the Vietnam War on 20 or 30 major college campuses. They will show army training films and talk about military life, in an attempt to get students to resist the draft.

Rennie DAVIS, mobilization coordinator, and other activists state that their plans do not include blocking polling places or otherwise disrupting the election procedures. There have been, however, some prior indications that NMC may not be concerned that such disruption may occur and even if NMC does not have such intentions, some individuals among the YIPPIES, SDS, and other groups may have such ideas.

On Election Day, 5 November, the NMC expects about "a thousand demonstrations" across the country. 5 November is to be National Student Strike Day. Demonstrations are to include "strikes and walkouts" at colleges and universities and, possibly at New York City high schools; teach-ins; distribution of leaflets at polling places to urge people not to vote for the three major candidates; and picketing, particularly at the New York and Minnesota polling places of Richard M. NIXON and Vice-President HUMPHREY.

- November 1      Chicago, Illinois - The Chicago Peace Council has announced that Vice-President Hubert HUMPHREY will be the subject of a demonstration. Demonstrators will distribute leaflets and will picket outside the Chicago stadium where the Vice-President is to speak. Reputedly some sort of action within the stadium is also under consideration.

- November 2      Washington, D. C. - A "Washington Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam" handbill states there will be a rally at 12 noon at Lafayette Park. Speakers: Mario SAVIO (Sexual Freedom), Art WASKOW, and others. March - to Humphrey and Nixon Headquarters after the rally. "Demonstrate for Peace - Don't Vote for War. No opposition can be expressed at the polls."
- November 2      Austin, Texas - Indications are that SNCC will sponsor a dance at the University of Texas in coordination with "National GI Week."
- November 4-5      SDS, at its National Council Meeting 10/12-14, voted to participate in a week of election activities similar to those outlined by the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, in hopes of persuading voters that the Presidential election is a fraud. One proposal called for nationally coordinated local demonstrations on 4-5 November to include strikes by student groups. Also to mobilize large militant SDS regional demonstrations in major cities. New York, Milwaukee, Boston, Chicago, Washington, and Los Angeles were mentioned as possibilities by Bernadine DORN, one of three SDS National secretaries, who said no firm sites had been selected yet.

This plan was adopted over competing proposals to mount an Election Day march on the White House and to seek ways of educating the public without Election Day demonstrations.

[REDACTED]

The council voted also to accelerate their efforts to enlist high school students in the SDS radical causes.

The National Mobilization Committee sponsored series of demonstrations for "National GI Week" beginning 1 November, also includes plans for "strikes and walkouts" on Election Day, 5 November, at colleges and universities and possibly at N. Y. C. high schools.

The same group is advertising also that on Election Day 11/5 there will be a variety of anti-war actions throughout the country including leafleting at polling places and demonstrations at the voting places of the three "pro-war candidates" (Nixon votes in N. Y.) - and high school and college student strikes.

The Communist parties of the Soviet Union and fifty-seven other parties have just agreed in a meeting in Budapest to shelve plans for a World Communist Summit Conference in Moscow on 25 November. Another preparatory meeting has been called for 17 November to examine the date for calling the International Conference and the method of its further preparations. The decision to postpone the Moscow Conference appeared to be a bitter blow for the Kremlin who appeared to visualize the summit as a demonstration of loyalty to Moscow as the main center of the World Communist Movement despite the defection and "splitting tactics" of Communist China. The last World Conference, attended by seventy-eight parties, almost eight years ago, was an unsuccessful attempt to avert the historic rift between Moscow and Peking. Sixty-seven delegations, representing about 3/4 of the world's communist parties, attended a nine-day conference in February and March and agreed to call the Moscow summit for 25 November. Those parties which attended in February, but stayed away from the meeting which ended today, were those of Canada, Ceylon, the Dominican Republic, Jordan, Nicaragua, Nepal, Panama, Portugal and Norway. The Icelandic Party sent observers in February.

Six ruling communist parties, those of China, Albania, Yugoslavia, No. Vietnam, No. Korea, and Cuba - boycotted both gatherings but came back as observers to the meeting which has just ended. A low-level Czechoslovak delegation attended.

In Rome, officials of the Italian and Romanian communist parties ended a ten-day meeting with a call for the right of communist parties to decide their own political lines without outside interferences. Both the Italian and Romanian parties have criticized the Soviet-led invasion of Czechoslovakia.

November 18

Oakland, California - This date has been set for the trial of the seven young men under conspiracy indictment for their part in organizing the October 1967 demonstrations in front of the Oakland Induction Center. This meeting had earlier been indicated for 12-14 October. A planning meeting was held in Montreal on 7-8 September. A flyer issued in connection with the conference proclaims that approximately 2,000 people from throughout the hemisphere - over 1/4 from Canada will attend. Among the listed sponsors from the U. Delegations representing the Democratic Republic of Vietnam and the National Liberation Front will be present.

Initiated by a broad coalition in Montreal, the meeting will include activists from the U. S., Canada and many countries of Central and South America. Unification and expansion of the peace movements in these areas will reputedly be the conference's goal.

Washington, D. C. - The Administrative Committee of the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NMC) met on Oct. 12 and 13 at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts. Approximately forty people attended; including David DELLINGER and Rennie DAVIS, NMC leaders; Sidney PECK, a former member of the Communist Party; and Arnold JOHNSON, a member of the CPUSA national Committee. The Committee decided that there was need for tight security against FBI investigations of anti-riot law violations. A working committee was formed to make plans for a demonstration at Washington, D. C., during the Presidential Inauguration. The Committee announced its plans to send a group of Prominent Americans to Sweden and France to visit "exiled" U. S. military deserters. A press conference will be held upon the group's return. Wealthy sympathizers of the committee may be solicited for annual sustainers of $10,000. The administrative committee planned to meet again on 17 October at Washington, D. C.

There may be some encouraging news from the campuses this fall. A leading American educator recently forecast the possibilities of a campus reaction across the country against student activists who disrupt college and university functions. Heretofore silent students in the moderate center who feel their rights to an education are being denied in the confrontation between activists and administrators may insist on being heard. "There are many signs of a strong reaction on the part of the great mass of moderate students against the disruption on the campus. A general backlash from these students is possible. The great majority of American students are not activist about anything."

In Denver, Colorado, an organization called Student Welfare Organization (SWO) has been formed. It proposed to be a new voice on campus and to act as a "Third Party" in campus disputes to try to bring involved groups to a logical compromise and to act as a communicating body to finally bring understanding and peace within the campus walls. It states that it is going to:

Put Education back as the No. 1 objective in schools;
Bring back the democratic processes of dissent; and attempt to workout functioning committee groups made equally of students and university administrators to discuss pertinent issues. Further, it says, "Let this organization be a true test of the thousands of honest student dissenters and expose those student elements who are merely trying to undermine our American way.

The following items are additional activities disclosed too late to be included in the above calendar:
