BOOK FOR TODAY— STORING REVIEW PROGRAM (Vana regularly. If he missed Castro's bitter diatribes against the U.S. and its leaders on the radio, he could frequently read them in full in

Even Star 29 Oct 70

ASSASSINATION OF JOHN H. KENNEDY, THE REASONS WHY. By Albert I. Newman. Clarkson N. Potter, Inc. 621 pages. $10.

any reader of murder mysies knows the importance of ablishing a motive in deterning the identity of the mur-cer. It has been recognized some time that one of the ious weaknesses of the irren Commission Report is its failure to show clearly by Lee Harvey Oswald inted to kill John F. Ken-

Albert H. Newman, a veterjournalist, recognized that a failure of the Warren Comission to establish a convincg motive for Oswald's action is responsible for much of e suspicious reaction to the mmission's conclusions. Newman has written this ok to show why Lee Harvey wald tried first to murder en. Edwin Walker, a passione advocate of the far right in By REED J. IRVINE political philosophy, and then murdered President Kennedy, who represented a very different segment of the political spectrum. In doing so, he has produced a brilliant piece of detective work, one that would do credit to a Perry Mason or Sherlock Holmes.

Like any great detective, Newman recognizes the im-portance of trying to understand exactly how the mind of the murderer functioned. This requires careful examination of all the factors that influenced his thought and action. Newman set out to obtain as accurate a picture of the way Oswald thought as he possibly could. He did this by sifting with great care the mass of material assembled by the Warren Commission and by adding to this analysis of the material that Oswald was reading and listening to with his short-wave radio.

Developing a very credible map of Oswald's mind, New-man deduces how his overt acts were triggered by what he read in the papers and by what he heard on the radio. Oswald's consuming interest in life was politics, or more specifically the politics of Marxism. While the Warren Commission suggested that he was motivated to kill the President by his maladjustment to his environment, his hatred for American society, his de-sire to be a great man and his commitment to communism, it failed to make a credible case for any of these factors as motives for murder.

Newman painstakingly unravels the mystery of Oswald's peculiar conduct from the time he returned from the Soviet Union in June 1962 until he was shot down by Jack Ruby on Nov. 24, 1963.

Newman clearly establishes the fact that Oswald, after his 32-month sojourn in Soviet Russia, became a devotee of the Trotskyite brand of communism. He was disillusioned with communism as he had seen it in Russia, but Marxism remained his religion. He tried to join the Trotskyite Socialist Workers Party, and he subscribed to its publication, The Militant. He came to share its ardent admiration of Fidel

Newman shows, quite per-suasively, that Oswald's decision to murder Gen. Walker was triggered by Walker's strongly hawkish position on Cuba and his designation by the Communist press which Oswald read as America's leading "fascist."

Newman develops some in-teresting evidence that Oswald had several accomplices in his effort to kill Walker. For example, a snapshot that Os-wald made of Walker's home in preparation for the murder attempt shows an automobile, and for some reason Oswald made a hole in the picture to obliterate the license tag. The inference is that Oswald was driven to the Wellson and the control of the Wellson and th driven to the Walker residence by an accomplice, since he himself had no car and could not drive. Newman does not think these presumed accomplices were involved in the attack on President Kennedy, but he strongly criticizes the Warren Commission for not doing more to try to establish their existence and their identity.

The Warren Commission did not attach the same signifi-cance to Oswald's attack on Walker as does Newman. Newman shows that many of Oswald's seemingly inexplica-ble actions fit into a carefully conceived plan to murder Walker, flee to Cuba and be accorded a hero's welcome for having done away with this leading "fascist." Newman is convinced that Oswald continued to plot the murder of Walker even after his initial unsuccessful attempt. In fact, he believes that after killing the President, Oswald set out with his pistol to shoot Walker. By sheer chance police officer J.D. Tippit ended up being shot by Oswald instead.

But why the murder of John

But why the murder of John F. Kennedy? Newman shows that Kennedy too was a great enemy of Fidel Castro's. Shortly after Oswald returned to the U.S., the Cuban missile crisis broke out. The outcome was a defeat for Castro. Radio Havana was constantly heaping abuse on the United States and its President.

Newman points out that the Warren Commission was so unconcerned about the kind of ideas Oswald was ingesting that they did not even estab-lish the fact that the radio he nows, quite perit Oswald's deciit Oswald's deciit Oswald's deciit Oswald's deciit Oswald's radio did have a shortwave band, Newman discovered, and his habits suggested that he listened to Ha Wid'ow Wins

A federal appeals court has awarded $17,729 to the widow A rederal appeals court has awarded $17,729 to the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald for property seized during the FBI's investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, ruling that Oswald's diary and other papers have historical importance.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals reversed a Texas federal district court finding that Marina Oswald Porter was entitled to only $3,000 — the stipulated market value of property similar to that seized.

The items taken by the government for use in the compilation of the Warren Commission report consisted mainly of Oswald's personal effects, such as letters, a diary, family photographs, a marriage license and other personal effects.

The appeals court said it agreed with Mrs. Porter's claim that the items taken by the government had souvenir or collector's value and that items taken by the government had souvenir or collector's value, and that in order to properly compensate her for her loss, she should receive the fair market value of such collector's items. — UPI quently read them in full in The Militant.

There is a weakness in Newman's presentation in that it is not clear what led Oswald to abandon his long-range plan to kill Walker and escape to Cuba in favor of a plan to kill both Walker and Kennedy with almost no hope of escape.

I think Newman did not give adequate attention to the contents of The Militant, Oswald's favorite reading matter.

He should have noted that this publication was not only publishing Castro's inflammatory denunciations of Kennedy, but it was also caricaturing missed ribes its leadould frefull in in Newhat it is Oswald ige plan cape to in to kill edy with not give )swald's ted that not only flammalennedy. caturing

the con-

Kennedy as "a determined partner" of Mississippi Sen. James Eastland and as one who was "clinging" to the "Dixiecrats."

"Dixiecrats."

Newman suggests that the only thing Oswald had against Kennedy was his Cuba policy, but The Militant, which strongly influenced Oswald's thinking, played on many keys to inspire hatred of the President. And strangely, Newman, for all his attention to detail, overlooked a very significant passage from a Castro speech printed in a copy of the Milipassage from a Casto speech printed in a copy of the Mili-tant that was found among Os-wald's possessions. C a s t r o said: "With the rifle and the work tool, the work tool and the rifle, with these both we must bring about our victory."

Newman points out that Oswald once told a friend that in reading the Communist papers you could tell what they want-ed you to do by reading be-tween the lines. Here was his tween the lines. Here was his idol, Castro, denouncing John F. Kennedy and in the same speech suggesting the use of the rifle to achieve victory. There was surely a message there for expert rifleman Lee Harvey Oswald. At least, that was the way he took it.

Even if one does not accept all of Newman's deductions and theories, his book makes highly interesting reading. It highly interesting reading. It is a valuable contribution not only for the light it sheds on the slaying of John F. Kennedy, but for its demonstra-tion of the impact that ideas have on human conduct.

Russell Says He Never Believel Oswald Alone Planned Killing

By Don Oberdorfer Washington Post Staff Writer

Sen. Richard B. Russell, tho was a member of the varren Commission which investigated the assassination of President John F. ennedy, says he never between that Lee Harvey Osald planned the assassination alone.

"I think someone else orked with him (on the anning)," the Georgia Demrat said in one of a series taped television interews to be broadcast next onth by WSB-TV, an Atlantelevision station.

There were too many ings—the fact that he (Osald) was at Minsk (in the oviet Union), and that was the principal center for eduting Cuban students... me of the trips he made Mexico City and a number of discrepancies in the idence, or as to his means transportation, the lugge he had and whether or it anyone was with him—nat) caused me to doubt at he planned it all by mself," he said.

Russell appeared to be in cord with the commission's conclusions that Ossild was the man who fired e shots at Kennedy, and at he acted alone. "I think at any other commission u might appoint today ould arrive at that conclu-n," he said.

Due to his doubts that Osald planned the act alone, issell said he insisted on a sclaimer sentence in the ial report before he would In it. That sentence in the port, which was issued in ptember, 1964, says that ecause of the difficulty of oving negatives to a cerinty the possibility of oth-s being involved with ther Oswald or (Jack) by cannot be established tegorically, but if there is y such evidence it has en beyond the reach of all investigative agencies d resources of the United ates and has not come to attention of this com-

The majority of the sevenimber commission, headed then-Chief Justice Earl arren, "wanted to find", at Oswald planned and ted alone, Russell said. I Some 25 hours of interiews, which constitute the est extensive memoir yet allable on the long public

Associated Press

Sen. Richard B. Russell, member of the Warren Commission that investigated the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, will expound his own views of that tragedy in a television interview in Atlanta.

career of the 72-year-old Georgia senator, will be condensed to three one-hour programs for broadcast in Atlanta Feb. 11, 12 and 13.

Cox Broadcasting Co., owner of the Atlanta station, will present 30 minutes of program highlights at a Washington Hilton reception here Feb. 10. The members of the U.S. Senate, senior members of the House, administration officials, family and friends of Russell are being invited. Though the senator has been in ill health with emphysema and lung cancer, it is expected that he will attend.

Now president pro tempore of the Senate and the chairman of its Appropria tions Committee, Russell has granted only rare interviews during recent years. None of those published have delved

Letter rrom Minsk

A 1962 letter written by Lee Harvey Oswald in Minsk, Issia, to his mother has been auctioned for $1,250 and a iter to Adolf Hitler from his wife sold for $500 here at an ction at Charles Hamilton Galleries.

Both purchases were made by an unidentified New York ysician, the gallery said.

The letter from Hitler's wife, Eva Braun, is believed to be irrst to be auctioned in the United States, a gallery spokesan said. It is addressed to "Dear Friend" and was written pt. 23, 1931, just after the suicide of Hitler's niece, Geli ubal. — AP so deeply into his relationship with Lyndon B. Johnson, his Senate protege and later his close friend in the White House.

The relationship between the two men has been "one of the most peculiar in American history" say the Georgian in the taped interviews, evidently referring to their division of opinion on civil rights and many issues in later years which somehow did not prevent a continuing close friendship.

After Mr. Johnson became President, he would frequently summon his old friend and Senate mentor to the White House in the evenings. "I'd go down and we'd have a highball and eat supper and talk about things and people," the senator recalled. "He was always interested in people and what they were doing, the people up there on the Hill, without getting into any arguments about the matters that we differed over

"He would call me about things, well, like the Dominican incident and things like that, the Panama Canal controversy. He never did stop advising with me on things like that. It was just on these domestic spending issues that he made so many mistakes... (he) made every conceivable mistake almost from the standpoint of administration and organization," Russell said.

Both Russell and Mr. Johnson were strongly opposed to U.S. military intervention in South Vietnam when it was first proposed in 1953. Once the U.S. became committed, Russell said in the taped interviews, he could not criticize Mr. Johnson for sending additional forces.

"My complaint with him was not for sending others in, but because we didn't go on and win the day by closing up the ports of North-Vietnam. He let the timid souls in the State Department talk him out of that," said the senator. "He could have ended that war in six months any time."

kay Apers Piot Ineor

By RICHARD STARNES

MEMPHIS, March 11 — It was a case without conclusion, tried in a courtroom with no winows, dealing with a murder to which there has en no final solution.

With swift precision yesterday the state of ennessee packed James Earl Ray off to the penitentiary at Nashville to start laying the days end to end that would someday add up to 50 years of a 99-year sentence.

JAMES EARL RAY

But there were few in Judge W. Preston Battle's airless courtroom who felt that the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King had been finally and totally resolved.

Judge Battle, prosecutor Phil M. Canale, deise attorney Percy Foreman — even Ray him-f — all tacitly conceded that Ray may well ve been trigger man in a conspiracy to murder . King.

CONSPIRACY POSSIBLE

But if conspiracy existed, any breath of its otle dimensions was smothered in the clock-rk choreography of the ritual trial that began d ended yesterday morning in Shelby County

Ar. Canale told reporters after the trial: There was some indication that he (Ray) was racist and that that was the motive for the isked if he thought conspiracy ever would be wen in the case, the prosecutor answered:

I learned a long time ago not to rule out thing.

Earlier, Mr. Foreman, a big, shambling, genial n told the jury of 12 men that "it took me a nth to convince myself that there was no con-

AY HINTS

Iltimately, Mr. Foreman continued, he had ched the same conclusion earlier voiced by th luminaries as FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover former U.S. Attorney General Ramsey That there was no evidence that the murof Dr. King was the product of conspiracy.

lut when Mr. Foreman had finished his rerks to the jury, Ray almost upset the carefulvrought agreement to barter his guilty plea for rison term.

I don't want to change anything," he said, iding to his earlier agreement to the plea, just want to say that I don't accept Mr. rk's theory.

was Ray obstinately insisting that he was not ne in the murder of the Negro civil rights ler, and for a moment it looked as if his eat would overturn the bargain and mean end-, weary weeks of a full-dress murder trial.

ut Judge Battle patiently led Ray back to the question he had asked him earlier: "Do you guilty to murder in the first degree because killed Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., under such umstances that verdict of murder in the first ree would be justified?"

eekly Ray answered, "Yes, sir," and the criwas averted.

I LEAST 50 YEARS

ears old. The only way he could be released a prison earlier, apparently, would be to be toned by a Tennessee governor.

r. Oanale opened the state's starkly abbreviatcase against Ray by explaining to the jury , despite the defendant's decision to changeplea to guilty, Tennessee law required a jury l, and it required the jury's agreement in the alty that had already been decided by proseon, defense and the court.

There have been many rumors that Ray was upe, a fall guy," Mr. Canale said, gingerly ing the quicksand of conspiracy implicit in the property in all frankness we have no proof other than that Martin ter King Jr. was killed by James Earl Ray, by no one else.

ve have examined over 5,000 pages of testi-

James Earl Ray's attorney, Percy Foreman, left, talked with newsmen after leaving the Memphis court house, and Trial judge Preston Battle, right, looked wash, Daily News relieved after pronouncing sentence. 11 Marc 69 mony," Mr. Canale continued, "and we have ex- If — in spite of the lack of evid amined over 300 physical bits of evidence, and I say to you that we have no evidence that any conspiracy ever existed."

If, the soft-spoken Mr. Canale added, evidence of conspiracy is "ever presented" that will be prompt, vigorous action - you have my assurance on that.

At the conclusion of the pro forma trial, Judge Battle also addressed himself to the widespread rumors of conspiracy.

- in spite of the lack of evidence conspiracy did actually exist, Judge Battle warned: "No member of such conspiracy can ever lie down in peace and security. In this state there is no statute of limitations on capital crimes."

As an additional warning to any unnamed conspirators lurking in the shadows that still enfold so much of the case, Judge Battle quoted Hamlet: "Murder, tho it have no tongue, will speak with most miraculous organ."

Ray Conspiracy Panel Urged 🗵

Warren-Type Probe Urged

By TED KNAP

Scripps-Howard Staff Writer

Rep. Charles C. Diggs Jr., D-Mich., said today he will ask President Nixon to appoint a Warrentype commission to investigate a possible conspiracy in James Earl Ray's murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. 🗀 🛼

Rep. Diggs, a Negro, said he is "inclined to believe there was a conspiracy." He said Mr. Nixon should appoint a presidential commission to investigate the King assassination the way the Warren Commission investigated the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Dr. King's widow, Mrs. Coretta King — more than ever convinced of conspiracy — issued a statement saying that Ray's plea of guilty yesterday "cannot be allowed to close the case, to end the search for the many fingers which helped pull the trigger.'

The Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, Dr. King's successor as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, told a news conference in Atlan-ta that "my belief in the conspiracy has been strengthened."

PROBE 'OPEN'

ay would not be eligible for parole under his into possible conspiracy "is still open and the ence for 50 years, by which time he would be FBI probe is continuing."

A Justice spokesman said a Federal conspiracy warrant filed by the FBI in Birmingham, Ala., April 17 has not been dismissed.

Ray, pleading guilty to avoid possible death sentence, said in open court that he agreed to the 99-year prison term, "but I don't agree with these theories on the conspiracy." That referred to the statements of the prosecutor and defense attorney that there was no conspiracy.

'ALL SIGNS'

Rep. Diggs said "all signs appear to point in the direction" of a conspiracy. He referred to reports that Ray had received money, transportation and identification papers from outside sources.

Rep. Diggs said if a conspiracy is proved, he might not object to less than full disclosure of its details; in the interest of the public good.

I just don't know if it should be made public," he said in an interview. "There could be consequences from these revelations. Whole groups might be targets of hostility."

'Mystery Man' Link to King Plot Cited

By POWELL LINDSAY

A shadowy "mystery man" known only as "Raoul" stands today as the only link on the public record which ties James Earl Ray into a "conspiracy" plot in the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

In two articles published in Look Magazine last Nov. 12 and 26, author William Bradford Huie quotes Ray about his flight to Canada after escaping Missouri State Penitentary and of putting out "the word" in a Montreal bar that he needed money and identification papers in order to flee to South America.

This "word" led to a contact with a man Ray identified as "Raoul," who Ray said was a "blond Latin" in his mid-30's, according to Mr.

Huie. 'In August, 1967, Mr. Huie wrote, "Raou!' came up with this proposition:

After a few smuggling jaunts across the U. S.-Canadian border, Ray would go to Birmingham, "lie low," and await instructions.

As promised, Ray is quoted, "Raoul" appeared in Birmingham, gave Ray $2,000 with whilch to buy a white 1966 Mustang and $500 for "living expenses," and again told Ray to await instructions.

In December, 1967, Ray was summoned to New Orleans and told there was "one more job to do" in "two or three months" and that then Ray would be "finished" and would "for sure" get "complete travel papers and $12,000," the article quotes Ray.

In March, 1968, Ray was summoned from California to Selma, Ala., where Dr. King was to appear, and on March 23, Ray went to Atlanta, Mr. Huie reported OUNTERPLOT, By Edward Jay Epstein. Viking. 192 pp.

y Edwin M. Yoder Jr. Febra Febra

At this writing, New Orleans District Attorney Earlg Carothers (Jim) Garrison, who stands six-foot-six id is known to friends as The Jolly Green Giant, has nally brought to trial a "suspect" in the alleged coniracy to murder President Kennedy. The accused is prominent New Orleans entrepreneur, Clay Shaw. He said to be smoking a lot these days, and no wonder.
or if Mr. Epstein's incisive study is right Mr. Shaw have be the victim of one of the great American legal hads.

Sifted of its red herrings, bleached of shadowy New leans intrigue, Garrison's case is easily summed up. late 1966 Mr. Garrison accompanied Senator Russell ng on a plane ride from New Orleans to New York. nator Long being no slouch at conspiracy theories, y mused skeptically together about the Warren Rert's "single-assassin" theory and the conversation inired Garrison to go back and reopen his file on Lee wald's New Orleans activities. From that probe sprang lot of theory and even more publicity, but only one rest — Mr. Shaw's.

By Epstein's account the district attorney seems to ve run up several blind alleys and indeed had almost lled it quits when in February 1967 the New Orleans ess broke the story to the world. Not long afterwards irrison arrested Shaw and impounded many of his rsonal papers and effects—including a sinister-look-g Mardi Gras costume and an address book with which irrison can do more exercises in number mysticism an a medieval alchemist.

Mr. Epstein, while researching a piece for The New rher (where portions of this book appeared), grew eptical when Garrison allowed him in violation of a urt order to rifle the largely unexplored Shaw papers. hy, he wondered, would the D.A. "risk having his se thrown out of court on a technicality by letting outlers go freely through the evidence"? Was it in hopes at free-lance sleuths, who had swarmed around Garion in plenty, might find a damning clue?

Mr. Garrison needs clues, all right. For unless Mr. ay Shaw is the shadowy "Clay Bertrand," who has ver materialized, the case collapses. And the chief tness to that effect, a confidential informer named rry Russo, did not say so in his initial deposition of 500 words. Not until Russo was hypnotized on the day ter Shaw's arrest (March 2, 1967) did he mention law or the alleged meeting at which "Bertrand," Osald and another plotted to kill the 35th President. It as a very helpful hypnosis, to say the least:

A transcript of Russo's first hypnosis session, ... reveals that many of the details of Russo's story were developed under hypnosis...Dr. Esmond Fatter . . . told him to imagine a television screen in his mind . . . "Look at the picture and tell us the story that you see." Russo talked about some of Ferrie's friends but said nothing about an assassination plot or conspiratorial meeting. . . . Then Dr. Fatter instructed Russo to let his "mind go completely blank" and again "notice the picture on the television screen." Dr. Fatter suggested, "There will be Bertrand, Ferrie and Oswald and they are going to discuss a very important matter and there is another man and girl there and they are talking about assassinating somebody. Look at it and describe it to me." The story that Russo then told is similar to the one he told in court about overhearing an assassination plot.

dwin M. Yoder Ir. is the editorial page writer of the reensboro [N.C.] Daily News.

New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison at play

If Garrison's case depends on coached witnesses, why has it come to trial? A technicality of law permitted a three-judge court to find "there was evidence that merited judgment" but in no sense did this finding suggest the legitimacy of the evidence.

It is now almost two years since Clay Shaw's arrest. As skeptical taunts arose, as the New Orleans spectacle came under attack, Garrison passionately defended himself, boldly evolving the theory that the government and the "establishment" press are out to foil him. He has outrageously traduced President Johnson as "the man who profited most from the murder." He has charged that the C.I.A. was "deeply involved in the assassination." He has cavalierly misrepresented the federal establishment's whole attitude towards certain assassination documents placed in the National Archives. By Mr. Epstein's count he has alleged that as many as 16 gunmen were operating that awful day in Dallas, one from a sewer manhole.

If the D.A. is caught up in Fu Manchu, he has also taken Antonioni's Blow-Up to heart as well: "Most of the assassins," writes Epstein, "were identified only as projections of connected dots in enlargements of photographs of trees and shubbery" — including one "assassin" who turned out to be Mr. Epstein's book is his Inquest, scrupulously feels the real mystery is n New Orleans but what himind to give Garrison an from Edward Shils, sugge a profound fear of secrecic life, ready to be tappe tapped in the early Fiftie

To that astute speculati what has been missing a of the assassination is the or two, schooled in mode more wide-ranging and that of lawyers. A histor Warren Commission, we suspicion of skuldugger after Lincoln's assassina have been less likely that get subtle factors of publified if a horrendous ever lation and, in New Orle, ery.

New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison at play

Garrison's case depends on coached witnesses, why it come to trial? A technicality of law permitted a judge court to find "there was evidence that merjudgment" but in no sense did this finding suggest egitimacy of the evidence.

is now almost two years since Clay Shaw's arrest. keptical taunts arose, as the New Orleans spectacle under attack, Garrison passionately defended himboldly evolving the theory that the government and 'establishment" press are out to foil him. He has ageously traduced President Johnson as "the man profited most from the murder." He has charged the C.I.A. was "deeply involved in the assassina." He has cavalierly misrepresented the federal establent's whole attitude towards certain assassination ments placed in the National Archives. By Mr. Ep's count he has alleged that as many as 16 gunmen operating that awful day in Dallas, one from a r manhole.

the D.A. is caught up in Fu Manchu, he has also a Antonioni's Blow-Up to heart as well: "Most of the sins," writes Epstein, "were identified only as proms of connected dots in enlargements of photoms of trees and shubbery" — including one "assassin" who turned out to be a newsman who'd fainted.

Mr. Epstein's book is pitiless, devastating and, like his Inquest, scrupulously clinical. After reading it one feels the real mystery is not what happened in Dallas or New Orleans but what has happened inside the public mind to give Garrison an audience. Epstein, borrowing from Edward Shils, suggests that it has much to do with a profound fear of secrecy in the higher reaches of public life, ready to be tapped by a Garrison now as it was tapped in the early Fifties by a Senator Joe McCarthy.

To that astute speculation, I would add one other: that what has been missing all along in responsible probes of the assassination is the presence of a good historian or two, schooled in modes of disciplined inquiry at once more wide-ranging and less formally conclusive than that of lawyers. A historian, strategically placed on the Warren Commission, would certainly have recalled the suspicion of skulduggery in high places that lingered after Lincoln's assassination. And I suspect he would have been less likely than lawyers and statesmen to forget subtle factors of public skepticism that must be satisfied if a horrendous event is not to feed endless speculation and, in New Orleans, self-promoting demagoguery.

Oswald's Widow Tells Shaw Trial of Life With JFK's

By John P. MacKenzie Washington Post Staff Writer NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 21 .

Oswald's two children, was the lead-off defense witness in the if believed by the jury, would time in New Orleans in 1963 close of the State's case.

Marina Oswald Porter. Rus-Iclear Shaw of ever conspiring during the summer preceding R. Russo, and other prosecu-| sheriff has sworn that Oswald ened her with deportation sian-born 27-year-old mother of with him. the murder. thon evidence.

But by dramatizing once Accompanied here by her She said her husband was that after his capture he told Marina admitted changi The widow of Lee Harvey Os-conspiracy trial of Clay L. again, as she had in her War-second husband, Dallas bar-away from home only one police, "That station wagon be-the date of her departure from home only one police," wald came back to this city Shaw.

ren Commission testimony, tender Kenneth Jess Porter, dight between May and late longs to Mrs. Paine. Don't New Orleans to Dallas fro today and recalled once again Speaking almost inaudibly how little she really knew her Marina was called to the wit. September, 1963, when they drag her into this." the troubled married life she in a thick accent, the frail discontented, brooding hus ness stand after Judge Edward lived together in New Orleans, Marina's testimony, 45 min after a consultation with I shared here with the accused pretty witness related many band, Marina fell far short of A. Haggerty denied a defense and on that night he was in assassin of President John F. details about Oswald which, accounting for all of Oswald's motion to acquit Shaw at the Iall. This would have given utes under questioning by mond during a recess, but s trict Attorney Jim Garrison of former airline pilot, or to have Assistant District Attorney of her second daughter. S plotting with Oswald and the conspired with Shaw and James L. Alcock, was deliv- also has a son by her seco late David W. Ferrie to murder Ferrie at Ferrie's apartment the President. There were in mid-September.

and personal secretary at the went unshaven for very long in FBI interviews and three Alcock bore down me International Trade Mart, and never looked like a beat-appearances before the War- heavily on Oswald's failure where the defendant was man-nik. Russo said Ferrie's room-ren Commission. aging director for 19 years, ex-mate, "Leon Oswald," was beplained the business reasons whiskered, dirty and shabbily most absent-minded manner, rina knew about what 1 for a trip from New Orleans dressed. to the West Coast that Garrison contends was taken to con-Denies Going to Clinton nation in Dallas.

• FBI ballistics expert Rob-could drive. She denied that the FBI and the Commission. posed. ert A. Frazier, who had been they ever went to Clinton, La. "I didn't lie," Marina pro- Not Very Friendly' subpoenaed and dropped as a Prosecution witnesses placed tested. She admitted failing prosecution witness, began expressed to tell FBL agents at first. The witness said she new plaining the investigative work and early September, some-about her husband's attempts had seen Shaw and had new he did to help the Warren times with his wife and child to reach Cuba by way of Meximum times with his wif Commission find that Oswald in an automobile. sometimes ico, but she insisted that she Oswald would have known alone perpetrated the crime with Shaw or Ferrie or both. told the truth when she testi he had met Russo or Ferr with rifle fire from above and She testified that, at the fied before the Commission.

Oswald no time to have been defense attorney F. Irvin Dy-said her memory was Shaw, 55, is accused by Dis the roommate of Ferrie, a mond and twice that long by freshed by the date of bli behind the Dallas motorcade moment of the assassination, Dallas Interrogation a Rambler station wagon bewitness, book salesman Perry urb. A former Dallas deputy she denied that they had threat be alone." They rarely spc escaped in such a vehicle and she didn't cooperate.

ered with weary tones. Her marriage, brief answers seemed repeatthese other trial developments: She said her husband never edly to recall unhappy memo- Communist?" Alcock demai • Shaw's former employer used the name "Leon," never ries tracked over many times ed. "No sir," Marina repli

She began in a relaxed, all work, stressing how little I occasionally biting her lip and husband was doing in the d becoming agitated only when time. He suggested that Alcock's cross-examination ac- wald had lost his job a mor ceal Shaw's role in the assassi- She said that neither she cused her of suddenly chang- before telling her about nor her husband had a car or ing her testimony and lying to not a few days as she had si

Much of Marina Porter's longing to her friend Ruth She conceded that she had "He never had ma testimony ran sharply counter Paine was parked outside Mrs. not liked the FBI men who in friends," she said. "He w to that of Garrison's chief Paine's home in a Dallas sub-terrogated her in Dallas, but not very friendly. He liked tell his wife he was out

But she had to admit she si ply didn't know anybody e her husband knew either.

swald's Widow Tells Shaw Trial of Life With JFK's Assassin

n P. MacKenzie on Post Staff Writer LEANS, Feb. 21 Harvey Os

sian-born 27-year-old mother of with him. Oswald's two children, was the lead-off defense witness in the conspiracy trial of Clay L.

ed married life she in a thick accent, the frail, discontented, brooding hus ness stand after Judge Edward lived together in New Orleans, e with the accused pretty witness related many band, Marina fell far short of A. Haggerty denied a defense and on that night he was in President John F. details about Oswald which, accounting for all of Oswald's motion to acquit Shaw at the lail. This would have given utes under questioning by mond during a recess, but she manager from 1946 until his Speaking almost inaudibly how little she really knew her Marina was called to the wit September, 1963, when they drag her into this." if believed by the jury, would time in New Orleans in 1963 close of the State's case.

the President. There were in mid-September.

for a trip from New Orleans dressed. to the West Coast that Garrison contends was taken to con- Denies Going to Clinton • FBI ballistics expert Robwith rifle fire from above and She testified that, at the fied before the Commission.

tion evidence.

late David W. Ferrie to murder Ferrie at Ferrie's apartment

• Shaw's former employer used the name "Leon," never ries tracked over many times ed. "No sir," Marina replied, a crash program during the and personal secretary at the went unshaven for very long in FBI interviews and three Alcock bore down most late summer and early fall of International Trade Mart, and never looked like a beat appearances before the War-heavily on Oswald's failure to 1963 to arrange financing for where the defendant was man-nik. Russo said Ferrie's room-ren Commission. aging director for 19 years, ex-mate. "Leon Oswald." was beplained the business reasons whiskered, dirty and shabbily most absent-minded manner, rina knew about what her testimony brought out that nor her husband had a car orling her testimony and lying to not a few days as she had supcould drive. She denied that the FBI and the Commission, posed. ert A. Frazier, who had been they ever went to Clinton, La. "I didn't lie," Marina pro-Not Very Friendly subpoenaed and dropped as a Prosecution witnesses placed tested. She admitted failing prosecution witness, began ex-Oswald there in late August to tell FBI agents at first. The witness said she never W. Halleck said that a court plaining the investigative work and early September, some about her husband's attempts had seen Shaw and had never order directing the National he did to help the Warren times with his wife and child to reach Cuba by way of Mex heard of a number of people Archivist to appear as a prose-Commission find that Oswald in an automobile, sometimes ico, but she insisted that she Oswald would have known if cution witness—with pictures alone perpetrated the crime with Shaw or Ferrie or both, told the truth when she testi he had met Russo or Ferrie, and X-rays of the Kennedy

behind the Dallas motorcade moment of the assassination, Dallas Interrogation a Rambler station wagon be-

Marina Oswald Porter, Rus-clear Shaw of ever conspiring during the summer preceding R. Russo, and other prosecu-sheriff has sworn that Oswald ened her with deportation if about anything and Oswald escaped in such a vehicle and she didn't cooperate. But by dramatizing once Accompanied here by her She said her husband was that after his capture he told Marina admitted changing reading books. again, as she had in her War second husband. Dallas bar away from home only one police, "That station wagon be the date of her departure from ren Commission testimony, tender Kenneth Jess Porter, dight between May and late longs to Mrs. Paine. Don't New Orleans to Dallas from witnesses were Lloyd J. Cobb.

> ered with weary tones. Her marriage. the President. There were in mid-September.
>
> these other trial developments: She said her husband never edly to recall unhappy memo-Communist?" Alcock demand-

Much of Marina Porter's longing to her friend Ruth She conceded that she had "He never had many (Thus, the autopsy materials testimony ran sharply counter Paine was parked outside Mrs. not liked the FBI men who in- friends," she said. "He was and other assassination artito that of Garrison's chief Paine's home in a Dallas sub-terrogated her in Dallas, but not very friendly. He liked to facts will remain in the ar-late August to late September president of the International Marina's testimony, 45 min- after a consultation with Dy- Trade Mart where Shaw was ose of the State's case.

Oswald no time to have been defense attorney F. Irvin Dy-said her memory was re-retirement in 1965, and Goldie Shaw, 55, is accused by Distine roommate of Ferrie, a mond and twice that long by freshed by the date of birth Naomi Moore, Shaw's persontrict Attorney Jim Garrison of former airline pilot, or to have Assistant District Attorney of her second daughter. She at secretary during those plotting with Oswald and the conspired with Shaw and James L. Alcock, was delivalso has a son by her second years.

tell his wife he was out of She began in a relaxed, al- work, stressing how little Ma- the new Trade Mart. Their occasionally biting her lip and husband was doing in the day- Shaw's trip to Portland, Ore., becoming agitated only when time. He suggested that Os- for a speech on Nov. 22 was Alcock's cross-examination ac- wald had lost his job a month to keep a trade promotion ceal Shaw's role in the assassi- She said that neither she cused her of suddenly chang- before telling her about it, commitment arranged in early witness, book salesman Perry lurb. A former Dallas deputy she denied that they had threat be alone." They rarely spoke chives.)

But she had to admit she sim- autopsy-no longer stands beply didn't know anybody else cause the prosecution has finher husband knew either.

spent long hours at home

Also called today as defense

Both said Shaw's long working hours were consumed by September.

(In Washington, General Sessions Court Judge Charles ished its case.

Show Shinning Mary SHAW JURY TOLD, OF OSWALD FLIGHT

By John P. MacKenzie Washington Post Staff Writer

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9-With only three days of the Clay Shaw trial under its belt, this city of charm and diversity is well on its way to accepting the trial as one... of the two great circuses in

The other one, of course, is the Mardi Gras celebration that is building to a high point a week from Tuesday.

Unlike past years, Shaw-isnot taking part in the annual festivities. It would be "most imprudent," he said declining to elaborate be-cause of trial restrictions on newspaper interviews.

Friends of Shaw, less reticent and admittedly less charitable toward Shaw's accuser, say the reason is that "Jim Garrison would find a new way to frame Clay."

Garrison, the District Attorney for Orleans Parish, has mustered the full powern of his office to bring Shaw to trial on a charge of conspiring to murder President Kennedy.

His investigation has both terrified and entertained much of New Orleans, where Lee Harvey Oswald lived in 1963 and where Garrison says plots were hatched.

Mixed Credibility

Garrison's prosecutors have offered testimony of mixed credibility placing Shaw with Oswald and the late David Ferrie, two men whom Shaw denies knowing, in the same rural section near Baton Rouge the sumbefore the assassina-

They have sprung a surwitness and seen him backfire, a plausible-seeming man whose destruction under cross-examination inevitably brought to mind the court-martial testimony of Capt. Queeg in "The of Capt. Queeg in "The Caine Mutiny." The witness was Charles I Spiesel, who was unsuccessful in peddling his story of a party attended by Ferrie and Shaw until Garrison bought it and put him on the stand.

It is still far from clear Garrison happened to fasten on Shaw with the charge that the prominent social figure and business promoter used the alias "Clay Bertrand" or "Clem Bertrand" in conspiratorial dealings with Oswald and

Lawyer's Story

As reconstructed by Edward Jay Epstein, a harsh critic of Warren Commis-sion but now an even harsher critic of Garrison's methods, the prosecutor worked from a story by a New Orleans lawyer who claimed, and later denied, that a Clem Bertrand had sought legal help for Oswald after his arrest in Dallas.

In Epstein's new book, "Counterplot," the author says Garrison theorized that: the lawyer was covering up for "a wealthy client with homosexual associates."

Shaw, 55, who built this ort city's International port Trade Mart after World War II and pioneered the restoration of the French Quarter, is widely respected in easygoing New Orleans as an able, genial man whose personal life is strictly his own business.

Yet there is an undercurrent at the trial and some. apprehension that the prosecution intends to get rough. Garrison investigators executed an open-ended search warrant at Shaw's home after arresting him two years ago and made much of the seizure of a chain, pieces of leather and rope, a black hood and cape.

Shaw's friends make no apology for his personal life—though they complain of terribly exaggerated rumors. -but they insist that the confiscated items are irrelevant to it. The reason: They has filed a $5 million damage suit against Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison and others for accusing him of a conspiracy to kill President John F. Kennedy.

Juit for $5 Million Filed by Clay Shaw Even Star 28 For to NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Clay Shaw Star Orleans (AP)—Clay Shaw

A Criminal District Court jury acquitted Shaw of the charges last March 1. His suit, filed in U.S. District Court yesterday, contended that his constitutional rights were violated by the defendants and that Courteen (included by the defendants) and that Garrison "misused and abused the prosecution powers of his office."

Garrison could not be reached for comment about the suit.

The suit contended the charges against Shaw were part a scheme by Garrison and the other defendants "to conduct an illegal, useless and fraudulent investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy" and "to obtain a judicial forum for his (Garrison's) attacks upon the Warren Commission and other government officials."

Shaw, 56, was a retired New Orleans businessman and former managing director of the International Trade Mart in New Orleans when he was charged by Garrison.

Also named defendants in Shaw's suit were Perry Raymond Russo, Dr. Esmond A. Fatter, Joseph M. Rault Jr., Willard Robertson and Cecil M. Shilstone. The suit also named as defendants certain persons identified by fictitious

OF OSWALD FLIGHT

Ex-Deputy in Dallas Says a Second Man Drove Car NYT 15Feb 69 By MARTIN WALDRON

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 14 — A former Dallas, Tex., deputy sheriff testified at the Clay L. Shaw conspiracy trial today sheriff testified at the Clay L. Shaw conspiracy trial today that he had seen Lee Harvey Oswald leave the scene of President Kennedy's murder in a green Rambler station wagon. shortly after the shots that killed the President were fired. shortly

£,

1.

-5

.Z 🖖

81 1

a), ż.

killed the Freshoth.

The witness, Roger Dean
Craig, said that the station wagon was being driven by very dark complected, La very dark complected, Latin-looking man Dark hair. Very muscular. Bull neck. He had a strong face."

Oswald had come running from a grassy strip near the from a grassy strip near the Texas School Book Depository Mr. Craid said, and had jumped into the old station wagon as it was doubled parked at the curb on Elm Street in front of curb on Elm Street in front of the depository.

Mr. Craig said that traffic speeding along the street had prevented him from stopping the station wagon.

The former deputy said that he gave a description of Oswald at the time as "five feet nine inches tall, 150 pounds, sandy-haired, a Caucasian" to the Dallas police department.

Late that afternoon, after Oswald had been arrested in a Dallas movie, he was brought Dallas movie, he was brought to the Dallas police station, where Mr. Craig said he identified Oswald as the man he had seen jump into the station wagon.

Testimony by Deputy

"He [Oswald] said that the station wagon belonged to Mrs. Paine, 'Don't try to drag her into this'," Mr. Craig recalled. "He leaned back in his chair "He leaned back in his chair and said 'Everyone will know." and said, 'Everyone will know' who I am now

On Nov. 22, 1963, the day that President Kennedy was shot, Oswald's wife, Marina, was living with Mrs. Ruth Paine was fiving with Mrs. Ruth Falls in Irving, a suburb of Dallas.
The entire testimony today was devoted to the President's murder. The name of Clay Shaw, who is charged with conspiring in New Orleans to murder Mr. Kennedy, was not mentioned once.

Mr. Shaw, a retired businessman, sat quietly smoking dur-ing the day while his lawyers fought to keep the Dallas testimony out of the record.

Several times, Mr. Shaw's mony out of the record.

Several times, Mr. Shaw's chief counsel, F. Irvin Dymond, took angry exceptions to the rulings, of the trial judge because the judge had said during two years of court hearings leading to Mr. Shaw's trial that the President's murder had no bearing on the conspiracy case.

Mr. Dymond also objected vigorously when Criminal District Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. allowed the prosecution to show the jury for the fourth and fifth times a motion picture film of the President's ture film of the President's murder.

Mr. Craig, who resigned from the Dallas Sheriff's office in July, 1967, said he had lived in New Orleans since December, 1967. He has been employed by Willard Robertson, a regional Volkswagen dealer in New Orleans when beloed fi New Orleans, who helped fi-nance-District Attorney Jim Garrison's investigation of the assassination.