Mr. Patrick Carpentier
Office of the Legislative Counsel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Carpentier:

In September, 1977, the Select Committee on Assassinations received a manuscript written by Mr. Antulio Ramirez Ortiz. The manuscript was subsequently turned over to the Central Intelligence Agency for translation and evaluation of selected portions. With reference to that manuscript, the Select Committee on Assassinations makes the following requests:

- 1) Any and all files and/or information possessed by the CIA pertaining to the following individuals:
  - a. Martin Granda
  - b. Juan Laverde aka C. J. Fortes
  - c. Olga Korchunova
  - d. Juan Valverde
  - e. Carlos Enrique Rodriguez
- 2) Photographs of all individuals mentioned in the manuscript or in the CIA analysis of the manuscript.
- 3) CIA analysis pertaining to the existence of a "color-coded" filing system as described in the manuscript. Can the existence of such a filing system be confirmed?
- 4) Any and all information relative to an association between Castro and Carlos Prio as described in the manuscript. If such an association did exist, CIA analysis of the type and number of people who would have known about it.

FEB 21 1978

Mr. Patrick Carpentier
Office of the Legislative Counsel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Carpentier:

In connection with the investigation of the House Select Committee on Assassinations into the death of President John F. Kennedy, I am writing to request that by March 1, 1978, the Central Intelligence Agency provide a statement explaining in detail the reasons for which a 201 file may be opened. This statement should address the following possible criteria, individually or in any combination, as well as any other possible criteria not specifically listed:

1. Possible and actual sources of intelligence information;
2. Possible and actual intelligence agents, assets, or contract employees;
3. Travelers, particularly travelers to communist or unfriendly countries;
4. Individuals who defect or have attempted to defect to communist or unfriendly countries;
5. U. S. servicemen or former U. S. servicemen who pose counterintelligence dangers by revealing, offering to reveal, or threatening to reveal military or intelligence secrets to communist or unfriendly countries;
6. Individuals whose suspected counterintelligence activities precipitate changes in United States military or intelligence codes, methods, sources or procedures;

7. Individuals who have been contacted by communist or unfriendly intelligence organizations or instrumentalities thereof;
8. Individuals who have received money or other items of value from communist or unfriendly governments or instrumentalities thereof; and
9. Possible and actual foreign intelligence agents or employees.

Please address this statement to the time period 1958-1964 in particular, and indicate whether there were any changes in such criteria during these years. Finally, would you please specify in your response under which criteria, or combination of criteria, if any, the opening of a 201 file was considered to be mandatory during this period.

Sincerely,

G. Robert Blakey
