MEDIA RELATIONS
 RESPONSE TO CRITICISM OF FBI
 CONCERNING ACTIONS TAKEN AGAINST MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

During the recent past, there have been many allegations in the media concerning the FBI and actions taken by the FBI against Martin Luther King, Jr.

In order to assist you in responding to inquiries, not only from the media but also to questions posed to you during public appearances, I am setting forth some of the more frequent allegations, together with responses which have been made in regard to these allegations. You may feel free to utilize these responses whenever the subject of Martin Luther King arises.

In responding generally to questions and criticism regarding the FBI's investigation of King, it should be noted that our investigation should be viewed in context of the time involved--the early and mid-1960's--not today. Those were years of considerable racial strife throughout the Nation when subversive and other disruptive elements were attempting to capitalize for their advantage on the social awakening in our country on the civil rights issue.

Media, congressional and public criticism of our investigation of King have occurred in the following major areas:

RE: MEDIA RELATIONS

ALLEGATION: The FBI had no valid basis for investigating King.

RESPONSE: This is not true. The FBI had a valid basis for investigating King to determine the extent of communist influence being exerted upon him. However, for reasons of national security and ongoing investigations, the FBI is unable to provide any specifics. It can also be pointed out that this communist influence was of concern not only to the FBI, but also the President and Attorney General of the United States, who spoke personally with King concerning the matter. It should be noted that the bona fide civil rights activities of King were never under FBI investigation.

ALLEGATION: That the FBI conducted illegal electronic surveillances of King.

RESPONSE: This is not true. All electronic surveillances of King were legal.

ALLEGATION: The FBI mailed an anonymous tape and letter to King. According to interpretation by various individuals in the media and the Senate Intelligence Committee, contents of this letter suggested King commit suicide.

RESPONSE: There is no record in the official FBI files to verify that any mailing of anonymous letter or tape recording to King was an official FBI action or with FBI approval. As to the suggestion that the letter sent to King urged his suicide, we can find no basis for any conclusion that the anonymous letter urged King's suicide and we do not know what the letter urged. All we do know is that the draft, or original of what might have been the letter, was found in papers left at the FBI by a former Bureau official.

ALLEGATION: The FBI played tapes of monitored King conversations to persons outside the FBI.

RESPONSE: There is nothing in the files of the FBI to substantiate such an allegation.

Airtel to SAC, Albany
RE: MEDIA RELATIONS

ALLEGATION: Information developed during our investigation of King was disseminated outside the Executive Branch of Government.

RESPONSE: This is true. Although our primary dissemination regarding King was made within the Executive Branch, there was some limited dissemination to other U. S. Government elements such as Congressmen. In several instances, on a highly selective basis, dissemination was made outside the Federal Government to leaders in religious, academic and news media fields. Dissemination did not include playing of any tapes.

ALLEGATION: The FBI conducted a campaign to discredit and neutralize King.

RESPONSE: The FBI during its investigation of King initiated actions, including several under our Counterintelligence Programs, to neutralize and discredit King. There was no statutory basis for such actions. As to the possible motive for the activity, because of reasons of privacy and delicacy, possible motive is not proper subject for public discussion.

ALLEGATION: That the FBI was in some way involved in the assassination of King.

RESPONSE: False. There is no evidence to support such an allegation.
