King Killing Wasn't Plot, Says Clark

United Press International

WASHINGTON, May 13. — The government, pressing one of the biggest manhunts in history, has rejected the theory that Dr. Martin Luther King's assassin was a heirling of conspirators.

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, who heads the government forces looking for King's killer, also says he believes the prime suspect in the slaying—escaped convict James Earl Ray—is still alive and will be captured.

Clark said:

"Our evidence indicates a man acting alone. This does not negate other theories. It would be impossible to rule out a conspiracy of the right or the left or the middle or any other type of conspiracy. But at this time, our evidence is that this man was acting alone."
