FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1

Date 11/18/68

JOSEPH C. MYER, Laneswood Inn, 3515 Inwood Road, employed as a field engineer for Recognition Equipment Company, Dallas, advised he is attending a computer school in Dallas sponsored by the Recognition Equipment Company. He formerly resided at 306 North Ninth Avenue, Picayune, Mississippi. While residing in Picayune, an incident occurred about two weeks prior to the murder of MARTIN LUTHER KING in Memphis. The details of that incident are as follows:

He and his son went fishing near Picayune on a Sunday morning between about 8:00 AM and 9:30 AM. They were approaching a small fishing lake on Ridge Road when they noticed a man laying behind a light colored Ford Mustang shooting a rifle into a target on a tree about 40 yards away. He and his son parked their car at the small lake nearby and began fishing. The man with the rifle, which he observed to be a lever action and either new or very well taken care of, came up to them and started talking to him. The man said he was here sighting the rifle, but he wished his brother was there because he was more experienced at this. They talked of fishing, hunting and general topics. The man did not talk with an accent and gave the impression of not being from that area.

The man was dressed in canvas field hunting clothes. He was about 5'10" to 11" tall, 175 pounds, dark wavy hair, well groomed. MYER has observed photographs of JAMES EARL RAY and he stated that some of the photographs definitely do not look like the man he saw, but one of the photographs he recently saw in Look Magazine, the one without glasses, in some ways resembles the man he saw firing the rifle. He said he does not believe he would be able to identify the man he saw even if he saw him again.

MYER thought nothing of the incident until he heard of the shooting of MARTIN LUTHER KING. Then he thought there might possibly be some connection, but he did not report the matter to the local police because he was afraid they would only laugh at him. ¹⁵⁷⁻⁹⁵⁸⁶⁻⁶³⁶ ~~He said he would~~ ^{SMALLER} ~~back to the area that the man was firing and was unable to~~ ^{find any cartridges. Greenville
Man Is Shot In Memphis

MEMPHIS (AP) — A Time-Life magazine reporter, identified by police as William Sartor of Greenville, Miss., was shot in Memphis Saturday night during an apparent robbery attempt.

Chief Insp. Joe Gagliano said the shooting took place in the downtown area and quoted Sartor as saying a man he could only identify as a Negro shot him after robbing him.

He filed dispatches from Memphis during the riots that followed the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on April 4 and has been covering subsequent developments in the King case.

Sartor is also credited with being the man who started trouble with an article in Time that referred to Memphis as a "decaying Mississippi backwater town."

Sartor was hospitalized at St. Joseph Hospital, the same hospital in which King died.

Gagliano said an early report from doctors indicated Sartor was not in serious condition.

Re Bureau airtel to Memphis and Jackson, dated 9/26/68, with attached interview of Mr. BILL SARTOR.

Indices check at Jackson disclosed the following:

A review of Jackson file 157-7945 captioned "JAN SARTOR, Aka, Jan Scudder, Johnna Lou Scudder - RM" disclosed that on 5/3/67, one JAN SARTOR contacted the Greenville, Mississippi, Resident Agent of the FBI where she provided the following information:

She is (at that time) the Greenville reporter for the Memphis "Commercial Appeal" (a daily newspaper from Memphis, Tennessee) and also writes free lance for other papers and magazines. She has written articles under the name of JAN SCUDDER for Sepia, a Negro magazine produced at Fort Worth, Texas. Her husband, WILLIAM SARTOR, writes free lance for Time and Life Magazines.

In August, 1966, she attended a conference of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) in Jackson, Mississippi, and later wrote an article for Sepia Magazine concerning this conference. During the period she covered this conference, she was not accompanied by her husband and registered at the King Edward Hotel in Jackson as JAN SCUDDER.

Shortly after her return to Greenville from Jackson, she received a telephone call from an individual who said he was calling long distance from a pay telephone which she assumed was in Jackson, Mississippi. This individual furnished his name as either ED or JAMES FLEMING. He said he had attended the SCLC Conference at Jackson and had seen a man taking a photograph of her standing in front of the King Edward Hotel with two Negro males. He stated he was trying to determine the identity of the photographer, as his picture had also been taken at that time. This individual asked her several times why she was there and asked her whether or not she was a member of SCLC.

A few days later she received another long distance telephone call and the operator said the unidentified caller was trying to reach ED HAMLETT. Mrs. SARTOR said she was not aware of it at that time but later learned that ED HAMLET is a Negro who is a member of the Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC), which is a branch of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

Mrs. SARTOR alleged that the man's voice in the background sounded similar to the same man who had called her previously.

She received no further telephone calls until last week (5-10-67) when she received another telephone call wherein the operator asked for BILL SARTOR. During this incident the operator said she was trying to reach ED HAMLETT through Mr. SARTOR. She heard the same man's voice giving the number to the telephone operator. This was also a long distance telephone call, city not known.

JN 157-9586

Prior to 5/17/67, the telephone operator called and told her they were trying to locate Mrs. SARTOR's mother and the operator requested the name of her mother, and where she could be reached. During this call the same man came on the telephone and said he was calling from Nashville, Tennessee. He indicated his name was JAMES MASON and that he was calling for JAMES FLEMING. He stated he thought they might be related and he was trying to locate relatives.

Mrs. SARTOR alleged that she did not give this man any information. Later, the same day, she received another telephone call wherein the operator said she was trying to locate Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Mrs. SARTOR inquired from the operator the identity of the calling party and she heard a man say that he did not want to give his name. The operator then told her the telephone call was from a public telephone in Memphis, Tennessee.

Since the last incident, her maid, her neighbor, and her employer, the "Commercial Appeal" have all received telephone calls inquiring about her relatives, husband, type of work, and other personal information. She said the telephone call at the "Commercial Appeal" was concerning her association with Sepia Magazine, which she had not told her employer at the "Commercial Appeal" about, and whether or not her husband wrote articles for Ebony Magazine.

During the above interview, Mrs. SARTOR said she was concerned about the harassing nature of the telephone calls and that she was unable to determine the purpose of such calls. She said she felt that someone may be mistakenly identifying her as a civil rights worker because she attends numerous civil rights functions in an official capacity for her employers. She indicated she does not and never has belonged to any civil rights organizations. She said that one of the editors of the "Commercial Appeal" suggested to her that the originator of these telephone calls could be one EDGAR DOWNING a self-styled investigator and a "nut" known to the Memphis area.

The following description and background data was obtained through observation and interview:

Name:	Mrs. WILLIAM G. SARTOR
Aliases	Jan Sartor Jan Scudder Johnna Lou Scudder
Sex	Female
Race	White
Date of birth	[REDACTED]
Place of birth	Pilot Point, Texas
Height	5' 11"

The file further reflected that on 5/19/67, EDGAR DOWNING contacted the Jackson FBI Office in person seeking information concerning JAN SARTOR. DOWNING indicated he has been making an investigation concerning the activities of this woman. No information was furnished to Mr. EDGAR DOWNING.

JN 157-9586

APWR, HINDS COUNTY
CHAPTER

APWR met as usual on Tuesday night, 9/17/68,
at Byrd's Truck Stop, and the following were in attendance:

ROY and JO CAMPBELL
Dr. and Mrs. E. A. COPELAND
PAT and NELL THOMAS
Mr. and Mrs. SIDNEY BARNES
GUS BOBBITT
JOE DENVER HAWKINS
Mrs. EVELYN MORGAN, Secretary
BILL PICKEL

HARRY KELLEY, JOHNNIE HAWKINS, and L. E. MATTHEWS were noticeably absent from the meeting, and they were apparently having some type of private meeting concerning JOE DANIEL HAWKINS' bond and trial for bank robbery in Memphis, Tennessee.

Most of the meeting was taken up about funds for the HAWKINS family.

Mr. BARNES has apparently moved to Jackson from Mobile, Alabama, and he gave the closing prayer, with the last few sentences or words being in some language other than English, which source could not understand.
Source pointed out that Mrs. BARNES usually gives the closing prayer, and the last few words are in Latin source believes. He noted that neither Mr. or Mrs.
BARNES put an Amen on the end of the prayer.

Jackson, Mississippi
9/20/68

Source advised that he had conferred with L. E. MATTHEWS on 9/19/68. Apparently there was something on local television about the jury in the Dr. MEYER's abortion case being possibly tampered with and it was being called back in session. MATTHEWS indicated he was quite concerned about this jury being called back and questioned about JOE DANIEL HAWKINS' trial in the Blackwell Bombing and the jury in the possession of explosives trial of J. L. HARPER. He indicated that at least one or two on the HARPER trial were depended upon to render a hung jury, and that one for sure on DANNY's trial knew that he would have to bring about a hung jury, this being the only chance for keeping HAWKINS out of jail.

Jackson, Mississippi
9/20/68

MINUTEMEN

Source advised that he had been in contact with L. E. MATTHEWS on 9/19/68 at which time he indicated that a high official in the Minutemen had been in Meridian, Mississippi, either Saturday or Sunday, and conferred with THOMAS ALBERT TARRANTS, III. MATTHEWS inferred that this official had contacted SAM BOWERS, Mr. SIDNEY BARNES, and L. E. MATTHEWS.

Source asked MATTHEWS a direct question, "Did you see him," whereupon MATTHEWS stated, "I may have."

Source pointed out that MATTHEWS made a trip last Friday, 9/13/68 for the weekend, but source would not know MATTHEWS' travels until his credit card tickets came in. Source further indicated that MATTHEWS, who usually confides in him, has been most secretive about the trip last weekend.

Source continued that this official had assured THOMAS ALBERT TARRANTS, III, that TARRANTS had nothing to worry about in his prosecution at Meridian, as the Minutemen Organization and funds were behind him.

MURKIN

Source stated that he had never heard of the following individuals being mentioned in Klan or APWR circles:

JAMES L. HINES
HERMAN H. GRIFFIN, JR.
BERNIE CRAMPTON

JOE DANIEL HAWKINS
BANK ROBBERY TRIAL

Source reiterated that the main topic of conversation at the APWR meeting was the efforts to free HAWKINS on bond for the two weeks remaining before his trial. Source reported it had come to his attention that L. E. MATTHEWS, the Imperial Wizard of the WKKKKOM, summoned to his residence on the night of 9/18/68, ELAINE SMITH PEEBLES. For hours he attempted to pressure her into putting up $25,000 cash toward the bond of HAWKINS. Source stated that ELAINE put up all types of excuses as to why she could not; such as her funds were tied up to prevent this type of thing, secondly that she could not draw from her account at Deposit Guaranty National Bank without the okay of her attorney, and various other excuses.

SMITH pointed out that JOHNNIE and CATHY HAWKINS were dressing in new clothes in exceptionally good taste these days, and further that CATHY is permitted to keep her gross receipts at the Downtown Coiffeurs, and that she can easily make and take home $70 per day.

It was pointed out by one of these persons that over $5,000 had been made, cleared, and turned over to the HAWKINSes from the sale of the GEORGE and LURLINE WALLACE Magazine.

At one point, ELAINE SMITH PEEBLES made a tentative offer to put up $25,000 of her money on the condition that JOHNNIE HAWKINS would let her hold the $20,000 plus taken from the Memphis Bank as security for ELAINE's part. MATTHEWS indicated that JOHNNIE HAWKINS might do this and generally inferred that he, MATTHEWS, had been in on the planning of the robbery and there was no doubt but what JOE DANIEL HAWKINS had robbed the bank with the knowledge of JOE DENVER and L. E. MATTHEWS. MATTHEWS concluded by stating that PERCY QUINN was sitting in a motel in Memphis waiting on ELAINE SMITH PEEBLES' decision re the $25,000.

In connection with the trial, MATTHEWS pointed out that they have six witnesses that will prove that DANNY was in Jackson and that he could not possibly have been in Memphis at the time of the robbery. He called no names of the witnesses nor did he mention any material company or other company whose records might be subpoenaed to show they had done business with money from the robbery.

Source pointed out that MATTHEWS discussed the fact that the witness that JOHNNIE HAWKINS had flown down from the Memphis bank did not go before the Grand Jury to indict DANNY. MATTHEWS made some incoherent statement about the eye witnesses, that is something said about doing something with them or words to that effect. MATTHEWS commented that the APWR is reimbursing JOHNNIE HAWKINS, JOE DENVER HAWKINS, and PERCY QUINN for any money they spend for the defense of JOE DANIEL HAWKINS. MATTHEWS indicated that Attorney PERCY QUINN has several things up his sleeve that may not be quite "kosher." One of these stunts that he plans to pull involves the pistol used by HAWKINS during the robbery. QUINN has had JOE DENVER HAWKINS purchase a pistol like the one HAWKINS used. QUINN indicated that the pistol and evidence would be lying on the table in front of the Judge. QUINN will pick it up and stick it under his coat, where he will have the pistol that JOE DENVER purchased hidden. QUINN will then pull out both pistols and try to confuse the jury as to how the jurymen could identify the pistol used in the robbery. QUINN has indicated that he has several other tricks and said he would be able to pull them before the judge caught on to what he was doing and it would have already made its impression on the jury, although the judge might not allow it as evidence.

2025 RELEASE UNDER E.O. 14176

L. E. MATTHEWS, JR.

Source advised that it had come to his attention that on the night of 9/18/68 MATTHEWS had the two same male visitors that had slipped into his back door the previous Wednesday night. Their arrival was announced by the dogs barking. MATTHEWS commented that he had visitors, and told ELAINE SMITH and his young son to stay where they were for a bit. SMITH went to the bedroom of MATTHEWS, and the boy stayed in the living room on the second level of the tri-level. MATTHEWS talked to the two men outside, they talked for awhile under the carport on the first level. Two doors were heard to close which were believed to have been the trunk and a door of MATTHEWS car. SMITH had her car parked in the rear of the house where it could not be seen by her husband or others.

During the conversation of the three men, the names "RED", BREWER, JOHN, PITTMAN, or PITTARD, DAVIS, "The Board", and SAM (BOWERS) were heard, but in what connection not clear at all. The larger of the men would raise his voice occasionally. This man is very broadshouldered. Source stated that these individuals' mode of travel is still unknown. They came up to the back door, as last week, and MATTHEWS walked them out front toward his mothers. No cars were heard to start, no lights were seen. In the period of 30 minutes after they were known to be gone, three or four cars passed on the road which is a couple hundred yards out in front of MATTHEWS' house.

It was not known by source whether or not the trip of last weekend had anything to do with these visitors. MATTHEWS said he saw someone in a wig over the weekend but it was not a woman. Source said the younger of the men possibly could wear a woman's wig and with proper dress could pass for a woman, but added this is merely speculation.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 4/9/68

M. C. HEMBREE, Ecru, Mississippi, former sheriff of Pontotoc County, Mississippi, advised that JOHN H. WILLARD was arrested in 1958 in Memphis, Tennessee, as a fugitive from Pontotoc County. He said the warrant was for arson and that when WILLARD was arrested in Memphis he was returned to Pontotoc County, where he pleaded guilty on the arson charge and received three years probation.

He said that part of the time while on probation WILLARD resided in Memphis, Tennessee, and the other part resided in Pontotoc County, Mississippi.

Mr. HEMBREE advised that WILLARD formerly resided in the Ecru community of Pontotoc County but now resides west of Pontotoc, Mississippi, on Highway 6 in a new home. He said WILLARD works in a factory either in Pontotoc or in a surrounding city, but he does not know the name of the factory. He said he considers WILLARD to be a person of good character and reputation and does not know of any criminal offenses for which he might have been charged since 1958.
