On 4/16/68, JAMES POWELL, 3533 S. Georgetown, Montgomery, Alabama, advised SA GERALD O. GRAYBILL that the following items were found AM, 4/16/68, on the side of the Bell Road, Montgomery, approximately $\frac{1}{2}$ mile from the intersection of Highway 80 East:

1. A map of the City of Memphis, Tennessee, which indicates that the map was distributed by the National Bank of Commerce, Memphis.
2. Holiday Inn Passport, 2/1/67 - 5/31/67, which is a directory of Holiday Inns throughout the U. S.
3. Eastern Travel Guide, a booklet listing Eastern and Western motels throughout the U. S.

He picked up these items and wanted to turn them over to the FBI as they might have some connection with captioned case.

Item #1 has a penciled circle, approximately $1\frac{1}{2}$ " in diameter, around a residential section, approximate center of which would be intersection of Scenic and Highland Roads, which appears to be about seven miles from center of city. Several numbers with alphabetical prefixes, possibly telephone numbers are written on back of map.

On 4/15/67, BOBBY R. HARDEN, TROOPER, AST #38, Dothan, Ala., advised he arrested one HERSCHEL C. GANT, 1879 Portland, Memphis, Tenn., on 4/10/68 for driving 85MPH in a 60MPH zone. He stated that GANT resembled the drawing of the subject that appeared in a Birmingham newspaper. Harden was shown a photograph of a likeness drawing that was prepared by the FBI; he stated that the photo did not look like GANT. GANT was described as a white male, DOB 175 lbs., 5'10", and sandy hair. Harden said that GANT appeared before David West, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, on 4/13/68.

On 4/15/68, Mrs. DAVID WEST, DOTHAN ALA., advised that the photograph of the likeness of the subject did not look like HERSCHEL C. GANT, who appeared at the WEST residence on 4/13/68 and paid a fine of $22.75. Mrs. WEST stated that her husband DAVID WEST was not at home when GANT paid the fine.

POSSIBLE SUSPECT SUGGESTED BY
MILTON (NO MIDDLE NAME) LAMOUREAUX,
135½ E. SPEEDWAY, TUSCON, ARIZONA

On April 6, 1968, MILTON (NO MIDDLE NAME) LAMOUREAUX, 135½ E. Speedway, Tuscon, Arizona, advised the Phoenix Office of the FBI that on or about January 29, 1964 he was staying at Smitty's Motel, Hartford, Alabama, when he was beaten and robbed and left unconscious on top of a heater in his room. He said that prior to the beating he was with the owner of the motel, SMITTY (LAST NAME UNKNOWN), when he observed a white male, age 31 to 33, 5'10" to 6' tall, dark blond hair, medium build, 165 pounds, regular style haircut, neatly combed, very clean and dressed neatly, to wit, a white uniform, possibly a laundry truck driver. He said that this individual presented an excellent likeness to an artist's sketch of the assassin of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., which he had observed on April 6, 1968.

The following investigation was conducted by SA RAYMOND J. MAXWELL:

AT HARTFORD, ALABAMA:

On April 8, 1968, HOUSTON A. SMITH, owner and Operator, Smitty's Hotel, advised that he remembers MILTON LAOUREAUX of Tuscon, Arizona, staying at his hotel for two days around January, 1964. He stated that when LAMOUREAUX checked into the hotel on a Saturday night he was very dirty and told him he had been beaten by three men at Leon's Restaurant, Dothan, Alabama. He advised that after this person checked in on Saturday night he did not see him over the weekend. He went to LAMOUREAUX's room on Monday morning and found him passed out on the floor with the heater in the room turned up all the way with no windows open for ventilation. LAMOUREAUX had been drinking and taking some sort of pills. He was taken to a hospital and subsequently released to his mother who came from Arizona.

SMITH stated LAMOUREAUX subsequently tried to bring suit against him, charging he had been beaten and robbed at his, SMITH's hotel, but investigation showed he was not beaten in Hartford, but was involved in a fight at Dothan, Alabama. Dr. SAM WINDHAM of Dothan had treated him.

SMITH stated he recalls no one coming to the hotel wearing a white uniform. He stated that on occasions he obtains linen supplies from the Pensacola, Florida, Linen Supply Company, but the drivers for this firm do not wear white uniforms. He stated they wear regular clothing. He advised he has no idea who LAMOUREAUX might be referring to as a person resembling the artist's conception of the killer of KING. He stated he, SMITH, saw this sketch in the Montgomery Advertiser, and it did not look familiar to him.

Memphis has requested that All Offices submit communications using a caption which will aid in handling the communication. This is needed because of the large volume of material being submitted to Memphis in this case. Memphis noted that for example, should an Office have investigation to report in connection with a specific suspect, it would be of assistance if before entering into the body of the text that we utilize a sub-heading after the reference such as, "Suspect, JOHN ALLEN DOE" or another appropriate caption might be, "Laundry Checks".

Accordingly the dictation of letters, teletypes, airtels or inserts should bear an appropriate sub-heading in order to assist the Memphis Office

RE: ERIC STARVO GALT

This is to record that at approximately 2:15 PM, 4/16/68, HARRY McDONNELL, Reporter for the Mobile Press Register, advised me that he had been advised by PETER F. SHEA, Harbor-master, City of Mobile, that he, SHEA, on 4/15/68, had received a telephone call from a reporter in New York. SHEA thought the caller was with the New York Times but was not sure. In any event, the caller wanted to know if the ship named "Red Star" had ever been in Mobile and SHEA advised the caller that he did not recall such a ship but would look it up in Lloyds Registry. He advised the caller that a check of Lloyds Registry did not indicate a ship by the name of "Red Star", but did indicate a Red Star Barge Line based in New York City.

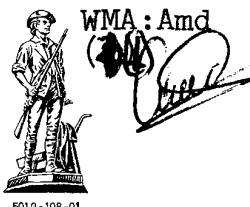

The caller then requested to know whether or not approximately a year ago there had been some trouble aboard a German ship anchored at Mobile, and Mr. SHEA advised the caller that he could not recall any such trouble.

McDONNELL stated that he, McDONNELL, recalled, and refreshed SHEA's recollection, that on 1/18 and 19/68, the German cargo vessel, SS RHINE ORE, had been in the Port of Mobile and there was a suspected case of TB aboard the vessel and the entire crew had to have chest examinations at the X-Ray Mobile operated by the Tuberculosis and Health Unit of Mobile County.

McDONNELL produced a picture from the Mobile Press of Friday, 1/19/68, of the crew of said vessel lined up awaiting X-rays. In the forefront is one WERNER DREWS of Hamburg, a crewman aboard the German cargo vessel, who entertained his shipmates at the Port of Mobile while they were waiting for chest X-rays.

McDONNELL also produced artist's conception of ERIC STARVO GALT made by the artist at Mexican Police Hdqtrs. and it was McDONNELL's opinion, as well as others at the press, that there might be some similarity between the picture of DREWS and the artist's conception of GALT.

McDONNELL indicated that he was sure the call from the newspaperman in New York was prompted by a UPI story which indicated that the German translation of ERIC GALT meant "Red Star."

Appropriate action should be taken to determine, if possible, whether or not DREWS is still aboard the ship and whether or not he might be identical with suspect GALT.

However, BUBBA JONES did not see the rifle. But he did see a revolver, cal. unknown in the belt of AYRES.

MANN stated that he just wanted to pass this along with the other information as he feels that Ayres may be a good suspect.

On 4/14/68, FLOYD MANN, Shawmut, Ala., telephonically contacted the writer at home and advised that he had observed an article in the Montgomery Advertiser, regarding "Uninvited Usher at Kings Funeral". It went on to state that BUBBA JONES was with him and stated that FLOYD BUDDY AYRES, who was identified in the article as the uninvited usher who is an encyclopaedia salesman, was arrested about two months ago in Lanett, Ala.

On 4/14/68 BUBBA JONES, stated he was a lowyer in Lanett, Ala. and had defended AYRES who had been arrested for DWI and viol. of prob. laws in Lanett, Ala. Jones stated that he had occasion to talk to Ayres and that Ayres appeared to him to be mentally unbalanced. During the talk Ayres talked of killing any SOB in the country with a high powered rifle and a scope. He also talked of how easy it was to kill some prominate person. He also seemed to be insenced with the racial problems. In his opinion JONES stated that AYRES was dangerous, an itinerant and a floater. He stated that the outcome was that he called Atty. Vennable in Atlanta who said to tell Ayres to get in his car and get back to Atlanta. Jones described Ayres as 37-38, 5'11" - 6'; 190 - 195 lbs, Hair light brown. Jones stated that Ayres should be considered a suspect in the King killing.

Above was furnished to Supr. Connors on 4/14/68 at which time a check of the indicies revealed that Atlanta was already aware of Ayres and that the Atlanta office would be aware of the univited guest//at the funeral and the Background of Ayres.

White Usher At King's Rites Just Limelighter

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Despite the security precautions surrounding Vice President Hubert Humphrey, the white man who did much of the ushering at the funeral of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was not present by design of the arrangements committee.

The King family thought he was a Secret Service man, the minister in charge of arrangements thought he was an aide of some governor, and presumably the Secret Service figured he had clearance.

But it was learned Friday that the prominent usher was an encyclopedia salesman named Floyd (Buddy) Ayers of Stone Mountain, Ga.

'SECURITY HERE'

It was Ayers who seated former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and who led Sen. Robert Kennedy, D-NY, to a pew with the words: "Come right this way, Robert, we have security here."

The words were overheard by an Associated Press reporter who first met Ayers when the salesman attended a murder trial with the defense counsel, James Venable, who heads the National Knights of Ku Klux Klan, Inc.

Ayers busily seated many of the dignitaries before sitting down himself. He gave up his seat to basketball player Wilt Chamberlain later and stood near the casket of King.

Federal sources confirmed the identification of the reporter, and it was learned that the FBI had studied Ayers and had concluded that he was merely seeking the limelight in his actions at the funeral.

King's brother, asked about the incident, said he thought the man probably was a Secret Service agent.

THOUGHT AIDE

The Rev. Wyatt Tee Walker, minister at the Canaan Baptist Church in Harlem, who had charge of arrangements, said the white man who ushered was, he thought, an aide to governor.

He said the man came in with the party of one of the governors and "other dignitaries knew him." He thought he might even have been with the wife of Arkansas Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, who indeed was accompanied by a bodyguard-aide but not Ayers.

The FBI declined comment but a spokesman pointed out that the FBI had nothing to do with security arrangements at the funeral service.

The Secret Service chief here, A. B. Wentz, declined comment. Ayers himself couldn't be reached for comment.

His wife, telephoned by a newsman who asked about her husband's actions at the funeral, said: "You'd better talk to him about that. I don't think he would want it in the newspaper."

RE: WILLIAM MADISON LEONARD
Former Inmate, Draper
Prison, Elmore, Alabama

ALTON LEWIS ABSTON, a prisoner in Los Angeles County Jail, Los Angeles, California, on April 13, 1968, advised that in 1957 or 1958, he was a cellmate in Draper Prison, Elmore, Alabama, with one WILLIAM LENNARD or WILLIAM LENNORD. He said that the profile photograph of the suspected killer of MARTIN LUTHER KING which appeared in the Los Angeles Times newspaper fits LENNARD "to a 'T'." He said that LENNARD had been in prison on a murder charge in Alabama for shooting a Negro. He described LENNARD as a white male, 35 - 36, 5'11" to 6', 175 to 180 pounds, brownish-red hair, home address, Birmingham, Alabama.

The following investigation was conducted on April 15, 1968, by Special Agent SPENCER H. ROBB:

On April 15, 1968, M. S. DEAN, Identification Officer, Alabama Board of Corrections, Montgomery, Alabama, made available his file on WILLIAM MADISON LEONARD, JR., Number 78492, which he stated was only former convict of this name or similar name he could locate in his files. He also made available a photograph of LEONARD made in 1965.

A review of this file reflected the following background data:

The file reflects LEONARD was convicted of first degree murder in Jefferson County, Alabama, and sentenced to ten years imprisonment. The offense report reflects LEONARD and two other men were reportedly forced off road in their car by three Negroes in another car. LEONARD then drove alongside the Negroes' car and fired a .32 automatic into the driver's side; this car then stopped, and LEONARD shot and killed one of the Negroes who he allegedly thought was reaching for a gun.

The file reflects LEONARD was paroled on July 13, 1959, revoked March 11, 1960, paroled February 10, 1964, revoked March 16, 1965, and was discharged November 10, 1965. He had a record of escape and several disciplinary actions while in prison.

He served at Draper Prison during the early part of his confinement in 1956 and 1957.

RE: 1965 Mustang, two door, white,
VIN 5F09C291191, reported stolen January 24, 1968, at Montgomery, Alabama

The following investigation was conducted telephonically by Special Agent DAN O. STEPHENS at Montgomery, Alabama, on April 15, 1968:

KEN HALLFORD, Communications Center, Alabama Department of Public Safety, advised that a 1965 Ford, Mustang, two door, white, VIN 5F09C291191, bearing 1968 Alabama license 51-5454, according to his files, was reported stolen January 24, 1968, and is unrecovered. Car was reportedly owned by JOE GAULDIN, Route 1, Tyler, Alabama. He stated that his files contain no additional information concerning this theft.

Detective WALTER CRAFT, Auto Theft Detail, Montgomery Police Department, advised as follows:

His files reflect that above described car was reported stolen January 24, 1968, at Montgomery, Alabama. Subsequent investigation by Detectives J. D. RUSSELL and J. O. DARDEN, resulted in the location of the car in a body repair shop located on Malvern Street, Montgomery, Alabama, which is operated by CARL WAYNE DOWNS and STEVE DOWNS. It was determined that the owner, GAULDIN, had requested proprietors of this shop to pick up his car and make some repairs on it. File further indicates that car had been picked up without owners knowledge and he had assumed that it was stolen.

As a result, theft report on this car was cancelled, but through inadvertance, no discontinue was given to Alabama State Troopers and NCIC.

In view of the foregoing, no further investigation was conducted.
