Re Memphis teletype to New Orleans dated 4/9/68, which asked for check of Louisiana License 292028 supposedly on car occupied by HUBERT E. CONTENCT.

MARY CLAIRE BROWNING, Motor Vehicle Bureau, Louisiana Department of Public Safety, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, advised the writer on 4/9/68, that the only Louisiana license number which has been issued to date going as high as 292028 would be one issued by Troop B, the number being 292B028. This license is issued to a 1965 blue four-door Falcon registered to JOHN A. GERHOLD, 1912 Center Street, Arabi, Louisiana, who is employed as an X-ray technician. BROWNING said Welsh, Louisiana is in territory covered by Troop D but the numbers issued by that troop have not gone this high.

MARGIE DUNCAN, Supervisor, Drivers' License Bureau, Louisiana Department of Public Safety, Baton Rouge, advised the writer on this date that she has no driver's license for the name of HUBERT C. CONTENCT or any name similar to this.

Memorandum

TO : SAC (157-10673)

FROM : ASAC SYLVESTER

SUBJECT: MURKIN

DATE: 4/10/68

On the evening of 4/9/68, a call was received from the ASAC at Birmingham advising that Memphis, in checking motels and looking for a white Mustang, came up with the registration card for ERIC STARVO GALT; they also have his name spelled ERIC SERVO GALT.

Memphis advised Birmingham that this man registered at the Rebel Motel on 4/3/68, and checked out on 4/4/68. He apparently had a 1966 white Mustang, MN 6T07C190647, with 1968 Alabama license 1-38993.

Investigation by Birmingham re this particular case reflected that GALT had been in Birmingham in August and September, 1967. Their check reflected that GALT was a white male, DOB [REDACTED] 5' 11", 175 lbs., blue eyes, brown hair. In applying for his license, according to Birmingham, he indicated he had a previous Louisiana license. Allegedly he worked on a tugboat and/or barge between New Orleans, Mobile and St. Louis.

Birmingham investigation reflected this man is a real neat dresser, quiet spoken, would wear dark business suits, did drink merely from the smell of alcohol on his breath; nothing about female companions.

He rented a safety deposit box in the name of KARL GALT in St. Louis. Everything checked out re above names has been completely phony. The Bureau checked the Coast Guard, National Maritime Commission, Baltimore Source 4, and all Government agencies looking for employment.

A teletype came in from Birmingham on the night of 4/9/68 giving information that GALT indicated he was divorced; bank records where he rented a safety deposit box in December, 1967, and answered the bank demand by saying he was moving to Louisiana; the letter came from Baton Rouge, La.

GALT claimed to have worked in shipyards in Pascagoula, which was checked out with negative results.

They do have handwriting at the bank for GALT. They are trying to get additional handwriting and photographs immediately. He fits description of the UNSUB. Birmingham has handwriting on the receipt of purchase of gun, which was purchased in name of HARVEY LOWMEYER, in Birmingham. (JOHN WILLARD was name used in registering at flop house in Memphis).

According to Birmingham, this man came in on 3/29/68, purchased a rifle, and returned on 3/30/68 saying words to effect "I talked this over with my brother and this won't do", and traded the Remington for a 30.06 and had a sight put on it which took three hours. He paid $248 and paid in twenty dollar bills.

According to Birmingham, when checking into the Memphis motel (under name JOHN WILLARD) he paid with a twenty dollar bill.

Supv. INGRAM, Jackson, advised that the Laboratory advised there was one shell in the automatic; this matches ballistics. The gun was wrapped in a blanket. The Lab has checked out the blanket and bag. Laundry marks being checked out on shorts found in bag.

They have eight latents; off the gun and off the pair of binoculars which was purchased on 4/4/68.

In preparing inserts, they are to be prepared on the day of investigation. If 302s prepared, read them, SA ALDERSON will coordinate paper work. They should be broken down under suspect's name. Twentyfive copies of each are to be prepared, to be sent by airtel to Memphis. The airtel will contain the suggested synopsis for the report.

Variations for name LOWMEYER (which was used on receipt in signing for gun) are LOWMAYER, LOWMIER, LOWMEIR, LOGHMEYER, LOGHMYER, LOMYER, LOMAIER, and LOUGHMAYER.

The following leads were assigned on the morning of 4/10/68:

Memorandum

TO : SAC, NEW ORLEANS (157-10673) (P)

DATE: 4/10/68

FROM : SA REED W. JENSEN

SUBJECT: MURKIN

Captain S. A. JENNINGS, District Ship Operations and Government Aid Officer, US Maritime Administration, Room T-14028, 701 Loyola Avenue, advised that some coastwise towing companies are unionized and their employees would be hired through the inland boatman branch, SIU Hall, 630 Jackson Avenue, New Orleans, and the person to contact would be LINDSEY WILLIAMS.

Captain JENNINGS advised that in some cases where a tow involves the transportation of gasoline or explosive materials, some of the bargemen, such as tankermen and the like, are required to have seamen's papers through the US Coast Guard. Captain JENNINGS stated that the most logical places to check nationwide for an individual having Coast Guard seamen's papers of any type would be through contact of the United States Coast Guard Merchant Vessels Personnel Division, 1300 East Street Northwest, Washington, D. C.

Captain JENNINGS said that probably the majority of individuals working on tow barges on the Mississippi or coastwise are probably non-union. These individuals obtain a job by merely going to a barge towing company or a Captain of one of the barges giving his name, address, and two or three references as to previous employment. The company of the Captain will verify this employment and the individual would be hired.

Captain JENNINGS stated that the only towing barges or vessels that sign articles with the Maritime Commission are inter-coastal voyages in such as a trip from the east coast to the west coast of the United States or overseas.

Captain JENNINGS could think of no further names of checking out an individual employed on a Mississippi or coastwise barge operation. He provided the following names of major towing concerns:

Re Bureau teletype 4/9/68, (serial 51) which has to do with checking laundrys in regards to laundry tags.

This is to advise that approximately 10 AM this date, I talked with SA LEE QUICK of the Syracuse, New York RA.

SA QUICK stated that for the past two days, two Special Agents have been at the Textile Marking Machine Company, Syracuse, and obtaining a list of outlets in each state that uses this machine. This machine is a thermo seal marking machine.

He said that they had already completed 24 states and it was possible they would have Louisiana done this morning and that he would telephonically furnish the information when it was received.

As a matter of note, SA QUICK stated that it was possible that it would be found that laundrys using this machine may have sold the machine to another laundry in the state.

FROM : SA ROBERT LOUIS WERTMAN

SUBJECT: MURKIN

DATE: 4/10/68

On this date JAMES SCHMIDT, JR., Auditor, New Orleans Bank and Trust Company, telephonically advised that he received information from his brother-in-law, ALEXANDER P. McLACHLAN, Director of one of the branches of the Department of Agriculture in New Orleans, who advised that on Monday he noticed a white Mustang bearing 182B551 Louisiana license, parked in the vicinity of 1441 Canal Street, New Orleans. He called Mr. SCHMIDT to determine what he should do about it inasmuch as he had heard they were looking for a white Mustang used as a getaway car in the murder case in Memphis, Tenn. Mr. SCHMIDT stated he advised McLACHLAN to call the police department and report the car, which he did and the police subsequently placed a parking ticket on the vehicle. Mr. SCHMIDT believed this car was reported stolen by its owner, name unknown, who resides in the French Quarter area.

Mr. SCHMIDT said he was furnishing this information for whatever good it may be.

At 12:30 p.m., 4/10/68, Father BARNES, 1231 Caffin St., Lower 9th Ward, New Orleans, La., Tel. # 947-2853, telephonically advised that at approximately 7:10 p.m., he was raising the windows of his church at that address when he noticed an unknown white male walking near Bud's Flower Shop, located at the Corner of LaManche and St. Claude streets. The white male stopped abruptly when he saw Father BARNES, and he hastily went to the back of Bud's Flower Shop. Father BARNES does not know if he went into Bud's Flower Shop or if he just went behind the store. Father BARNES said the man was carrying a light colored AWOL bag and that he man had a prominent nose (described by Father BARNES as a DANNY THOMAS nose); 5'10" to 5'11" tall; 180 to 190 lbs.; Father BARNES thinks he had dark hair; and Father BARNES thinks he was wearing a suit coat or jacket. Father BARNES has not seen the man any more.

Father BARNES related that it is well known in the Lower 9th Ward that Bud's Flower Shop for the past few years has been a "hot bed" for white citizens' council meetings. He said he does not know the full or last name of the person who owns or operates Bud's Flower Shop.

Father BARNES stated he was furnishing the foregoing to the FBI because he feels it could possibly have something to do with the murder of KING. He said the reason he thinks it might possibly have some connection is because the man stopped very quick when he saw him and hurriedly departed behind Bud's Flower Shop.

Father BARNES was thanked for the information and that he would be contacted if the FBI needs to talk with him further concerning this matter. He said he would report any additional information he receives that he thinks may be connected with the KING murder case.
