SALVADOR ALBERT LIBERTO, 856 Matador, Gretna, Louisiana, telephone number 367-3020, advised that he was born [redacted] in New Orleans, Louisiana. On January 22, 1954, at New Orleans, he married PATRICIA KRELLER and has one son and three daughters. For the past thirteen (13) years, LIBERTO has been employed as a checker at the West Trucking Company, New Orleans.

LIBERTO stated that sometime just before the MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., assassination, exact date unrecalled, he telephonically spoke to his brother, FRANK LIBERTO, in Memphis, Tennessee. LIBERTO made this telephone call from his mother's residence. The purpose of this call was to borrow $200 from his brother. LIBERTO did not make this call from his own residence, as he did not want his spouse to know about the loan. His brother, FRANK LIBERTO, wired him $200 in care of his mother's residence in New Orleans.

While on the telephone with his brother FRANK, FRANK invited him to visit him in Memphis, or to meet him at Hot Springs, Arkansas. LIBERTO advised that his brother, FRANK, follows the race horses and likes to go to a race track at Hot Springs, Arkansas, and bet horses. FRANK LIBERTO discussed his winnings and loses on the telephone with SALVADOR LIBERTO. SALVADOR LIBERTO does not recall the exact amounts of money he discussed.

LIBERTO viewed photographs of JAMES EARL RAY and WALTER TERRY RIFE and advised that he did not know either of these individuals and he did not believe that he had ever seen either of these individuals.

He is currently retired and living alone at this address. He formerly worked for a 17 year period with Viking Truck Lines, but for medical reasons was forced to retire. He stated that he is a diabetic with a heart condition. For that reason he cannot do strenuous labor. He stated that he has not been in telephonic contact with his brother, FRANK in Memphis in several years and the only member of his immediate family residing in New Orleans who may have possibly been in touch with FRANK would have been his mother, Mrs. EMMA LIBERTO, who resides at 2219 Almonaster.

He viewed a photograph of JAMES EARL RAY stating this individual looked familiar but he could not identify it.

He stated that his brother SALVATORE lives some where on the West Bank of the Mississippi River, exact address unknown; however, his telephone number is 367-3020. The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent PATRICK J. COLLINS, JR.:

Mrs. JEANNE R. KELTON, Kelton Antiques, 635 St. Ann Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised she was born on [redacted] at Waco, Texas. Her husband, HORACE W. KELTON, died in Tampa, Florida, on May 12, 1953. At the time of his death he was executive vice-president of American Desk Company in Tampa, Florida. Since his demise she has resided at 635 St. Ann Street and operated her antique business.

At about 7:00 p.m., April 16, 1968, an unknown man walked up to her in front of her shop on the street. She described this unknown man as male, white, 5' 5" tall, slender build, sandy hair brushed to the right side, dressed in yellow short-sleeved sport shirt and blue-green trousers. She stated this man was about 35 years old and had a tattoo on the lower left forearm almost at the wrist. She believes this was a U. S. Marine Corps tattoo; however, she is not sure. She stated this individual was clean-shaven and physically clean, however, his clothes were filthy.

This unknown man told her that he had been on a one-week drunk and that by occupation he was a seaman. She stated he carried a napkin and had about 15 slices of ham in the napkin. This unknown man sold her the ham for fifty cents, which he said he needed to get out of town. He told Mrs. KELTON that he was given the ham by the cook at the Roosevelt Hotel, where he had just finished washing dishes for the day. They spoke for one minute about all the ships' horns blowing on the river at that time, as Mrs. KELTON wanted to know why all ships' horns were blowing at the same time.

The unknown man stated that he was on the river a week ago when MARTIN LUTHER KING was killed and it was noisy on the river then. He stated he did not know anything about KING's death.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agents RONALD G. HINKLE and WILLIAM B. WOOD on April 20, 1968, at New Orleans, Louisiana:

Miss DOREN CHISHOM, Assistant Manager, Royal Orleans Hotel, St. Louis Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised this date that she had received today a wanted flier on ERIC STARVO GALT. She stated GALT's picture resembled an individual whom she had seen in the lobby of the Royal Orleans Hotel sometime during the past week. She could not recall any information regarding the individual other than the fact that his eyes and nose resemble the picture in wanted flier on GALT. Miss CHISHOM showed the wanted flier to WOLFGANG S. SALINGRE, Room Clerk at Royal Orleans Hotel, and he remarked that he had seen the name ERIC STARVO GALT on a rack slip a few days ago. WOLFGANG had told Miss CHISHOM that he recalled the name because when he viewed the rack slip the name STARVO reminded him of a name of a character in a James Bond novel.

Miss CHISHOM attempted to recall any additional information regarding individual whom she believed was similar to Galt, but stated that inasmuch as she views hundreds of people daily in the Royal Orleans Hotel, she could not recall any specific information.

WOLFGANG S. SALINGRE, 3217 $\frac{1}{2}$ Louisiana Avenue Parkway, Front desk clerk, Royal Orleans Hotel, this date advised he was pulling rack slips, which are slips of paper containing names of guests at the Royal Orleans Hotel. He stated that he recalled seeing a rack slip with the name ERIC STARVO GALT on it and had called the name to the attention of MARK WELLS BOYD, another room clerk, pointing out to him that the name STARVO was similar to the name of a character in a James Bond novel. SALINGRE believed he viewed the rack slip with GALT's name on Monday, April 15, 1968, as he was off Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. WOLFGANG viewed the photograph of GALT and the wanted flier and stated he had never seen any individual similar in appearance.

MARK WELLS BOYD, 2833 St. Charles Avenue, Apartment 29, Front Desk Clerk, Royal Orleans Hotel, advised on this date that he recalled when WOLFGANG SALINGRE remarked about a rack slip that had been pulled on Monday, April 15, 1968. WOLFGANG made the statement about an ERIC SARVO (Last Name Unknown). WOLFGANG had stated that the middle name SARVO was similar to a character in a James Bond novel. BOYD stated he could not be sure whether WOLFGANG had said STARVO or SARVO. BOYD stated he did not view the rack slip and therefore, did not see the name itself. BOYD advised he had not seen any individual resembling the picture of ERIC STARVO GALT in the wanted flier. BOYD stated he recalled that he believes WOLFGANG made the above observation on Monday, April 15, 1968, because BOYD was off duty Tuesday through the rest of the past week.

Miss CHISHOM and WOLFGANG SALINGRE advised that rack slips are made for each registration card filled out at the Royal Orleans Hotel. The rack slips are pulled after a guest has left the hotel.

The registration cards and the rack slips for the month of April, 1968, were checked by the above writer and Special Agent WILLIAM B. WOOD for the following names with negative results:

ERIC STARVO GALT;

HARVEY LOWMEYER;

JOHN WILLARD;

JAMES EARL RAY.

Miss CHISHOM also advised that she personally did not trust the veracity of WOLFGANG SALINGRE as he has lied on several occasions in the past. She furnished this information to interviewing Agents in view of the fact that no rack slip or registration card could be found in the name of ERIC STARVO GALT and in view of the fact that SALINGRE states he recalled the full name of ERIC STARVO GALT.
