Memorandum

TO : SAC, ST. LOUIS

DATE: 4-4-68

FROM : SPC, JOHN HAUBRICH

SUBJECT: Assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. R.M.

10:00pm

A call was received from SA Klager of Kansas City who was advised to call this office and forward the following info.

George Moore of the Racial Intelligence Section set forth the following message.

In view of possible racial disturbances arising from the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr., all offices should (1) Take all necessary precautions re personnel proceeding to and from offices tonight, tomorrow and over the weekend. Be sure personnel are most judicious as to where and when they travel dependant of course on local conditions. Each SAC exercise prudence and issue appropriate instructions under the circumstances. (2) Each SAC must understand that he is responsible to have adequate man power on duty to handle any emergency which might arise during critical hours ahead.

King Slaying Sparks Negro Riot at Jail

BY RICHARD LOTT AND CHARLES OSWALD
Globe-Democrat
Staff Writers

The assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King touched off a riot by 96 Negro prisoners in the City Jail at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, authorities reported.

Police used tear gas to quell the rioters on the fifth floor of the jail at Clark avenue and 4th street. Warden A. J. Graves said damage was extensive, including a broken television set on which the inmates had received news of Dr. King's death.

SMALL FIRES

They ripped out plumbing, electrical wiring and fixtures and broke windows. Several small fires were started, but did not spread.

Police had the riot under control by 10 p.m. and removed the rioters to holdover cells of the Central Police District. Two were taken to City Hospital, one suffering a cut foot and the other complaining of stomach pains, police reported.

Arthur J. Kennedy, city director of public safety, said the riot was due to "years of frustration and denial for the Negroes."

He said the disorder started when Negro prisoners started yelling, "They've killed our leader."

DENIED RIGHTS

Mr. Kennedy declared that Negroes are denied equal rights in courts and cannot afford lawyers, so they are made to sit and wait for trial. The overcrowding of City Jail was partly to blame, he said.

He added that he anticipated trouble at the jail following Dr. King's murder, and said that the superintendent of City Workhouse "is presently sitting on a powder keg."

The Mobile Reserve was summoned shortly after the riot started. They started using tear gas at 9:35 p.m. to subdue the rioters.

During the riot, smoke was observed in the northeast side of the jail. Firemen were called to the jail, but the blaze caused only minor damage. They later used ventilating fans to clear the gas from the building.

PRISONERS TRANSFERRED

Police brought out the prisoners, many of them with clothes torn, coughing and crying from the tear gas. They were handcuffed with their hands behind their backs, and were loaded into police cruisers for transportation to holdover cells.

As they were brought out of the jail, several prisoners shouted obscene remarks to police and reporters. They declared they would restart the riot.

Police kept a tight security on the jail, during and after the riot, refusing to permit newsmen to enter.

JAIL ASSAILED

Overcrowded conditions at the jail have been assailed recently by several grand juries.

The February term grand jury called the jail "an archaic, dilapidated, grossly overcrowded relic of the early part of the century — totally inadequate to meet the needs resulting from increased population and the relentless escalation of the crime rate."

That jury reiterated the need for immediate action leading to the provision of a new and adequate jail. The December term jury called for a study of a bond issue to pay for construction of a new jail.

426 CAPACITY

Built in 1913, the jail has a capacity of 426 inmates. In recent months, its population has exceeded 400 on several occasions. Grand Jurors have noted that exercise and recreation programs for prisoners are non-existent.

The jail has been the scene of numerous disturbances. Last Nov. 27, an outbreak of rioting in the jail resulted in injuries to two prisoners and a policeman.

That disorder was touched off when guards sent to remove two men from the "bullpen" on the third floor were rushed by other prisoners.

GRIEVANCES LISTED

A list of grievances submitted by the rioters in November blamed the disturbance on tension created by allegedly insufficient food, overcrowding, "unfair" treatment by the courts and racial prejudice by jail personnel.

In November 1966, about 40 prisoners protested about evening meals and set fire to two mattresses. In both instances, guards put out the fires.

Arson, Looting in Nation

19 Dead, HundredsHurt in Riots

By JAMES C. MILLSTONE

Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch

WASHINGTON, April 6

Federal troops patrolled the nation's capital today after a second night of arson and looting that left four persons dead and nearly 700 injured.

Nineteen persons have died in racial disorders since the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King was killed Thursday night, including nine in Chicago and five in Washington. Washington and Chicago were heavily damaged by fires Friday night.

Two youths died in Detroit, one in Tallahassee, and in Minneapolis police said a Negro killed a white neighbor Thursday night. In Memphis, a young Negro man shot (by police Thursday night died today.

Looting and arson began to increase again in Washington after an all-night curfew expired at dawn.

Capitol Closed

The Capitol and the Library of Congress were closed to visitors but tour groups went through the White House. A Marine Corps unit was moved to guard the Capitol shortly after midnight, freeing an Army force for deployment elsewhere.

Sniper fire, looting and new blazes broke out at midmorning in Chicago.

Brig. Gen. Richard T. Dunn, commander of 6000 guardsmen mobilized to quell disturbances, asked for additional troops, for "an early show of strength."

Smoke still hung over sections of Washington, long after officials reported that they had brought the worst of the rioting under control.

Long corridors of residential and commercial property, nearly all of it in northwest Washington Negro areas, were devastated. Entire blocks were burned to the ground. Shattered glass and rubble littered the streets and sidewalks.

Police said there had been 29 separate fires, and some of them still were burning. As the city struggled to return to normal, new reports of looters and new fire calls reached police.

At Chicago, National Guard troops and police restored a measure of calm today, after a night of firebombings, shooting and looting that caused extensive damage.

At least 6000 federal troops were deployed at Washington and there were reports that others were standing by.

The troops moved into the city with rifles unloaded but with ammunition in their belts. Their bayonets were sheathed.

Machine-gun emplacements were set up at the White House and at the Capitol by troops who ringed the national buildings. Others moved into the worst trouble spots, moving along to the chant of "March, March, March." Small contingents dropped off at each intersection in the riot-torn areas.

By this morning, as reinforcements were moved in from other bases, soldiers could be seen in other areas of the city.

Mayor Walter E. Washington ordered a 13-hour curfew last night, between 5:30 p.m. and 5:30 a.m., and announced that it would continue until further notice. His order forbade sale of alcoholic beverages, firearms, ammunition and gasoline that was not pumped directly into motor vehicle tanks.

Former Deputy Defense Secretary Cyrus R. Vance was assigned to co-ordinate the Federal operation. He and other Pentagon officials joined the Mayor in frequent inspections of the trouble area.

Persons who viewed the city from the air late yesterday said Washington looked like "a city on fire."

Looting was widespread, and was done by men, women and children. Groups of men drove up to some stores in trucks, piled into the establishments and emerged with armloads of goods, loaded them aboard the trucks and drove off.

Women filled shopping bags and carts at supermarkets and groceries. Children left battered shops with wastebaskets full of goods. One boy, no more than 7 years old, walked down a littered street carrying an Easter bunny nearly as large as himself. People hauled away clothing, often still on the hangers.

For the most part, the looters ignored photographers recording their actions, occasionally waving and grinning at the cameras. Police watched some of the looting without moving to prevent it. Officers obviously had instructions to use as much restraint as possible to avoid bloodshed.

When looting became particularly heavy or crowds grew threatening, police used tear gas. By 6 a.m., police reported 207 persons had been arrested in the two nights of violence. Six of every seven were adults.

looting a liquor store. Other details were not available.

The third Negro to die in the night was Harold Bentley, 34, buried under the collapsing wall of a burning building.

A white man, George Fletcher, 28, was reported beaten to death by Negro youths in the rioting Thursday night.

Among the injured were seven policemen and six firemen.

Although most of the disorder was confined to Negro areas of Washington, which has a population about 60 per cent Negro, looting spread to downtown sections and reached major department stores and specialty shops within three blocks of the White House.

Government workers were sent home early as city officials urged everyone to return to their homes. The result was one of the worst traffic jams ever to occur in Washington. Starting about 3 p.m. and continuing beyond nightfall, bumper-to-bumper traffic clogged most major arteries out of the city.

At Chicago, Brig. Gen. Richard T. Dunn, emergency situation commander of the guard, reported, "The situation is under control." Mayor Richard J. Daley, who had remained in his office most of the night, announced, on leaving that "everything is under control."

Three thousand Guardsmen, their weapons loaded and fixed with bayonets, patrolled streets on the west and near northwest sides, two areas hit hardest. About 3000 troops stood by on alert in city armories.

The looting and firebombing began last night on West Madison street, about three miles from the downtown area. When Guardsmen moved in, the violence moved 12 blocks south to West Roosevelt road. Early today, looting and sniping broke out on the northwest side, two miles from downtown.

Guard spokesmen reported sporadic outbreaks of looting before dawn in all the affected areas.

Police reported that 343 persons were arrested in various sections of the city, including 40 juveniles and 20 women.

The dead in Chicago included two men shot by snipers, one shot in an exchange of gunfire with police, three found shot to death behind stores, and one found shot on the balcony of his northwest home.

One man bled to death. Police said he may have cut his leg by falling through a glass door or window or by falling on broken glass which littered the area. One man was found dead in a burned store.

In some blocks, both sides of West Madison street appeared to be a solid mass of flames and dense smoke, and in others there was scattered looting and some minor fires.

Crowds in the area taunted police and firemen, yelling, "A white man killed Martin Luther King."

There was sporadic shooting through the night as police tried to chase looters from stores. Patrol dogs were used to guard a handful of buildings along West Madison, including a sporting good store that police said had a large supply of weapons. The trouble began as school opened yesterday on the South Side when several thousand pupils failed to report to classes and many youngsters milled outside school buildings. Fires were set in waste baskets and several false alarms were turned in.

Board of Education spokesmen said classes were canceled in 19 high schools, including nearly all schools in Negro elementary schools also were closed. Many of the initial closings were to allow pupils to attend memorial services for the Rev. Dr. King.

National Guardsmen were also backing up police in Detroit and the Boston area. A unit of 500 Guardsmen moved into Pine Bluff, Ark., to keep peace after police and Negroes exchanged sporadic gunfire in the night.

Guard troops operating from armored personnel carriers in Nashville flushed snipers from buildings and the campus of Tennessee A&I University. Two students were wounded, neither seriously.

Five policemen and National Guardsmen were injured in an exchange of gunfire with snipers near the predominantly Negro North Carolina A&T State University in Greensboro. Guard troops also were called to Raleigh and Durham.

Some windows were smashed in midtown Manhattan as groups of Negro youths moved into the Times Square-theater district area of New York, but the Harlem and Bedford Stuyvesant areas were relatively peaceful after sporadic violence the night before.

Trouble was reported also in Philadelphia; Pittsburgh; Wichita; Oakland and Palo Alto, Calif.; Denver; Hartford, Conn.; Freeport and Buffalo, N.Y.; Toledo, O.; South Bend, Ind.; Trenton, N.J.; Portland, Ore.; Kalamazoo, Mich.; and Atlanta.

Four Deaths

Of the four fatalities, three were Negroes, one a 14-year-old boy. He was Thomas Williams, who police said was shot when looting a clothing store. Police said the shooting was accidental and occurred when an officer's revolver discharged as he grappled with several youths.

Ernest McIntyre, 20, was shot to death by a policeman when

Police Use Tear GasRiot at City Jail; 'They Killed Our Leader'

Police used tear gas and smoke grenades last night to quell a riot by prisoners at City Jail over the assassination of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King.

Authorities here also attributed to the death of the civil rights leader a minor fire, an unsuccessful attempt to use a Molotov cocktail and several broken store windows.

The disturbance at the jail broke out among 97 prisoners confined on the fifth floor about 8:30 p.m. Most were Negroes. They tore plumbing fixtures from the wall, broke toilet bowls, beat on bars with cups and hurled objects from the windows.

Newspapers were rolled up, set afire and thrown through windows. The Fire Department extinguished the blazes.

Arthur J. Kennedy, director of welfare, whose jurisdiction includes the City Jail, was unsuccessful in efforts to quiet the prisoners.

"I tried to talk to them," he said. "I tried to calm them down, but they wouldn't listen to reason. All they did was shout: 'We want to die, they killed our leader'."

Three police officers and eight prisoners were taken to City Hospital for treatment of minor injuries. Sgt. Sanford Suffin suffered a laceration to the right hand, Sgt. William Wilson was treated for an abrasion of the right knee and Patrolman John Boehmer suffered a sprained right hand.

The disturbance, except for a small fire on the third floor, was confined to the fifth floor, where the damage was extensive. Two television sets were demolished and recreation rooms were left in a shambles. An inch of water from broken plumbing covered the floors.

The rioters were taken to the holdover cells in Police Headquarters because of lack of room at the new Workhouse.

Kennedy, declining to estimate the damage to the jail, said: "We have had an overloaded condition in the jail for over a year now. That's one of the causes of our problem."

About 110 police officers responded to the riot call. Capt. Edward Harper, who was in charge of the operation, and Assistant Chief James Chapman inhaled some tear gas but were not disabled.

There were other scattered disturbances last night.

An attempt was made to set fire to a former fire station at 3934 Enright avenue that neighboring Negroes have unsuccessfully sought for a recreation center. Someone splashed gasoline on the east side of the building and set fire to it. Firemen put out the blaze.

Molotov cocktail was thrown at the front window of a grocery at 812 Academy avenue but a heavy screen deflected the missile and no damage was done.

Windows were broken in five stores in the 1300 block of North Kingshighway.

Police reported that bricks were thrown through the windows of automobiles belonging to Ronald Odette, 8852 Cozzens avenue, Jennings, and Aroba Newton, 25 University street, last night. The incidents occurred at the intersection of Jefferson and Cass avenues where the drivers had stopped for a traffic signal.

Windows were reported broken at Al's Food Market, 1307 North Jefferson avenue, Harry's Market, 1979 Burn avenue, and Spot Linoleum Co., 5510 Easton avenue.

16 Firms Here Hit With Firebombs

Sixteen business establishments were targets for flaming Molotov cocktails and windows were smashed in 35 other stores in the city last night and early today, police reported.

The Fire Department answered more than 40 alarms, some false, after 10 p.m. Two fires were accompanied by explosions.

Firemen reported extensive blast and fire damage to a food store at 1447 Arlington avenue. A bomb was thrown into the store.

A two-story building at 5556 Easton avenue was damaged by a bomb thrown onto the roof. Occupants of a second-floor apartment escaped injury. The explosion started a fire that spread to a store on the first floor.

The violence, which came after the assassination of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, occurred in two police districts, Page boulevard and Lucas avenue, with several exceptions. Eighteen attacks were to buildings on Easton avenue and intersecting streets. Police and firemen reported damage to 14 establishments on Easton, between Clara and Hodiamont avenues.

Compared with other large cities, last night's activity was minor, police said. In several instances police were able to extinguish cloth wicks in firebombs before the contents of the bottles ignited.

At Fehlig Bros. Box & Lumber Co., 1909 Cole street, police discovered a firebomb that failed to ignite.

Extensive fire damage was caused at the Swiss-American Importing Co., 4354 Clayton avenue. Witnesses said the fire started after a man threw a flaming object through a window at 1 a.m. The arsonist fled in a car with two companions.

The House of Prayer For All People, 1701 O'Fallon street, was the target for a firebomb. Damage to the building was slight.

Extensive fire damage was reported at a grocery and liquor store at 5600 Easton avenue, at 1:30 a.m. Window smashings were reported in stores on Wells, Arlington, Semple, Shreve and Blackstone avenues. There was damage, also, to a building at Jefferson and Park avenues. A firebomb was thrown into the American Auto Body Co., 3412 Delmar boulevard.

Police were called to the Doy Electric Co., 4027 West Florissant avenue, at 9 p.m., after looters began helping themselves to television sets from a display window.

Officers saw a group of four carrying away a large television set after a window was smashed. A stolen set was dropped by several youths who fled.

A 19-year-old youth was arrested after he was alleged to have smashed a window in a confectionery at 2870 McNair avenue last night.

Windows in 10 homes occupied by white persons in a Negro neighborhood were broken during the night, police said. Several motorists reported their cars were pelted with stones on North Vandeventer avenue and North Grand boulevard. No injuries were reported.

In East St. Louis windows were smashed at 11 business firms. Automobiles were damaged by missiles and a car at a service station was set on fire.

Alton police were called at 3:30 p.m. yesterday to Alton Senior High School, 2200 College avenue, after fights broke out between racial groups on the parking lot. Chief of Police William Petersen attributed the melee to an earlier incident in which a white student suffered a broken jaw. The victim, Fred Zahn, 18 years old, a senior, was struck by a Negro student in a classroom, Petersen said. The assailant, who lives in Godfrey, was booked suspected of assault. Zahn, two other boys and a girl were treated at Alton Memorial Hospital.

MARCH SPONSORED BY MID-CITY COMMUNITY CONGRESS
FROM 1:30 PM TO 5 PM, APRIL 7, 1968,
ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 5, 1968, that on Sunday, April 7, 1968, there would be a march sponsored by the Mid-City Community Congress, which is an organization in the mid-St. Louis area sponsored primarily by various church groups and organizations for the purpose of improving the entire situation in the mid-city St. Louis area, including racial and social. This source advised the initial planning meeting for this march was called at 12 midnight to 2 AM on April 5, 1968, and it was to be a march as a memorial to Martin Luther King. This source advised there was much disagreement as to the composition of the march, as well as the route of the march. This disagreement primarily had to do with the attitude of the more militant Negroes, as compared to that of the responsible civil rights organizations. This source stated that the more militant Negroes, of which there were only two present, Henry Thomas and Percy Green, desired that the march be composed of all Negroes and go through the Negro section of St. Louis. Other leaders representing such organizations as the St. Louis Committee on Racial Equality (CORE), the Urban League, and the NAACP felt this would be most improper and the march should represent the unity of the St. Louis community, consisting of both the Negro and white population. Subsequent planning meetings were proposed.

This source advised on April 6, 1968, that it was agreed by compromise between opposing groups and individuals that the march would originate at the Gateway Arch in St. Louis, Missouri

MARCH SPONSORED BY MID-CITY COMMUNITY CONGRESS FROM
1:30 PM TO 5 PM, APRIL 7, 1968,
ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

at 1:30 PM, April 7, 1968, and proceed west on Franklin Avenue, which is primarily Negro, and continue west on Enright Street to Union Avenue, and south on Union Avenue to Forest Park where memorial speeches would be held. This source advised that as a precautionary measure to prevent difficulties, those Negroes who might by even remote possibility create a disturbance were assigned positions of marshals to preserve order during the march. These marshals, of which it was hoped to have five hundred, would be stationed along the street on each side of the marchers. Their assignment would be carried out with the assistance of planning through the St. Louis Police Department.

Officials of the St. Louis Police Department advised on April 7, 1968, that the march began promptly at 1:30 PM, continued throughout the planned route to Forest Park, where various individuals gave speeches with the memorial terminating at 6 PM. The march began with approximately one thousand individuals but picked up participants along the way and by 3:45 PM it was estimated that twenty-five to thirty thousand participated. The maximum number of participants was indicated at thirty thousand.

Officials of the St. Louis Police Department advised that there were no incidents in connection with this parade, however, at four locations in the City of St. Louis - Seventh and Pine, 5225 Delmar, 5189 Delmar, and 5040 Delmar, individual windows were broken in either vacant buildings or stores. There were no lootings, and four youths, all juveniles, were arrested at the Seventh and Pine window breaking, with one other eighteen-year-old arrested for breaking a window at another location.

This march went one block from the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis where representatives from ACTION, a dissident group of CORE, picketed from 2 PM to approximately 3 PM, with the maximum number of pickets during this period being five. There were no incidents at this location.

On April 8, 1968, a second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that possibly one of the influencing factors preventing disturbances is the utilization of those Negroes who appeared to be more militant as participants to maintain order throughout the march.
