DATE: 10-31-68

FROM : SA HUBERT J. O'HARA

SUBJECT: MURKIN

On 10-30-68 ALICIA GRAY, 920 W. Colonial Dr., Orlando called the Orlando RA. She stated that she had just read an article in the Orlando Sentinel regarding a magazine story on JAMES EARL RAY. She said the newspaper article mentioned a person named "RAUL" who RAY met in Canada while he was a fugitive. She explained that the article said RAY made a deal with RAUL to deliver a package to the U.S. and was to have been paid $12,000 by RAUL. She said the article described RAUL as a blond Latin who was a seaman.

ALICIA GRAY said that she knew a man named RAUL in San Francisco in about March or April 1965. She stated this man was involved in some kind of racket between San Francisco and Las Vegas, Nevada which she thought was extortion. She became involved with him while working as a hostess in the CHASE LOUNGE, on Ellis and Larkin Sts in San Francisco. On a night when RAUL was drinking in the lounge he became intoxicated and after flashing a large amount of money accused her of stealing $100 from him.

As a result of this RAUL embarked on a campaign to harass her. As a result of this she had him arrested and was told at a later date by an unrexalled person that RAUL had been deported to England. She now is certain this RAUL is the same person mentioned in the RAY article.

ALICIA GRAY could not give spacific answers to questions and became very evasive when questions were asked. She finally admitted that she had suffered a nervous breakdown while living in California. She was hesitant in identifying herself and stated she "did not want to get involved".

The above is submitted for information for whatever action is deemed appropriate.

MURKIN

On 10/30/68, ALICIA GRAY, 920 E. Colonial Dr., Orlando, Fla., telephonically furnished the following information:

She stated she had just read an article in the Orlando Sentinel newspaper regarding a magazine story on JAMES EARL RAY. This article mentioned an individual named "RAUL," who met RAY in Canada during the time he was a fugitive. She stated the article mentioned RAY made a deal with RAUL to deliver a package to the United States and was to have been paid $12,000 by RAUL. The article described RAUL as a blond Latin who was a seaman.

GRAY stated she knew a man named RAUL in San Francisco in March or April, 1965. This individual was involved in some kind of racket, either in San Francisco, Cal., or Las Vegas, Nevada, which she believed to be extortion. She became involved with him while working as a hostess in the Chase Lounge on Ellis and Larkin Streets, in San Francisco. One night, when RAUL became intoxicated, and after flashing a large amount of money, accused her of stealing $100 from him.

As a result of this incident, RAUL embarked on a campaign to harass her. As a result of this, she had been arrested and was told at a later date by an unrecalled person that RAUL had been deported to England. She is now certain RAUL is the same person mentioned in the RAY article.

During this interview, ALICIA GRAY could not give specific answers to questions and became very evasive when questions were asked. She admitted she had suffered a nervous breakdown while living in California and was hesitant in identifying herself, stating she "did not want to get involved."

Files of the San Francisco Office did not contain any reference in the name "ALICIA GRAY."

Files of the San Francisco Office did not contain any information identifiable with "RAUL" (per Tampa letter) or "RAOUL" (per "Look" articles).

The records of the San Francisco Police Department, Bureau of Identification, were reviewed on December 16, 1968, by SE GERALD E. ROSS and no arrest record was located in the name "ALICIA GRAY."

DELBERT W. CHASE, residing at 1759 Lake, San Mateo, California, home telephone number 345-5178, employed as a bartender at Cypress Hills Golf Course, South San Francisco, California, on December 17, 1968, advised SA MICHAEL T. GEARY that he owned CHASE's Lounge which had been located at 709 Larkin Street (Ellis and Larkin), San Francisco, California. He related he sold the lounge in the fall of 1967.

He advised the name "ALICIA GRAY" meant nothing to him. He advised he could not recall a hostess by that name and stated if she had ever worked for him, it should show up in his business records.

He advised he did not know anyone by the name "RAUL" or "RAOUL" and stated he knew of no patron who might have been deported.

CHASE stated STAN TOTARO was his accountant.

STAN TOTARO, Accountant, 1372 Ninth Avenue, San Francisco, California, telephone number 661-7969, advised on December 17, 1968, he would check CHASE's records for "ALICIA GRAY."

On December 18, 1968, TOTARO advised one ALICIA GRAY was employed by CHASE from February 1, 1966, to March 15, 1966, as a waitress. TOTARO stated ALICIA GRAY's Social Security Number was reported as [redacted] and her local residence as 684 Ellis Street, Apartment 522, San Francisco, California.

DELBERT W. CHASE on December 18, 1968, advised he still could not recall any employee named ALICIA GRAY and further advised he knew no one named "RAUL" or "RAOUL."

It is being left to the discretion of the Memphis Office to decide the desirability of a further interview of ALICIA GRAY to determine if she possesses any additional information regarding "RAUL" or "RAOUL" which could lead to his identification.

Re Tampa letter to the Bureau, 12/3/68 reflecting an interview with ALICIA GRAY of Orlando, Florida, who claims to have known man named RAUL, not otherwise identified, during 1965 at San Francisco, California.

Reference is also made to San Francisco airtel to the Bureau, 12/18/68 wherein they state that ALICIA GRAY was employed at Chase's Lounge, San Francisco, during 1966, as a waitress.

In view of the fact that ALICIA GRAY has admitted suffering a nervous breakdown and since there is absolutely no reason to believe that the man with whom she was associated in California in 1965 is identical with the RAOUL, who RAY claims to have associated with, it is believed that any additional investigation would be a complete waste of effort and without any hope of profit. Accordingly, Memphis recommends no further action on ALICIA GRAY's story.

Ray Held the Gun— But Was It Hired?

A MOSAIC of circumstantial evidence plainly depicted James Earl Ray as the assassin of Dr. Martin Luther King.

Ray yesterday admitted the crime, and pled guilty to first degree murder in return for a 99-year sentence instead of the death penalty.

But his plea in a Memphis courtroom leaves the case in an unfinished and unsatisfactory state.

What was his motive?

Was he hired to kill the civil rights leader, as he previously implied in statements sold to author William Bradford Huie, and if so who hired him?

AT THE HEARING before Judge W. Preston Battle yesterday, both prosecution and defense attorneys agreed that there was no evidence of conspiracy; that Ray acted alone.

Upon hearing their statements Ray stood up and told the judge:

"Your Honor, I'd like to say something. I don't agree with the theory there was no conspiracy."

But Ray was not asked to explain what he meant.

It is difficult to believe there was no conspiracy.

Ray was an escaped convict. After fleeing in April, 1967, from the Missouri state penitentiary, where he was serving 25 years for robbery, he spent time in Canada, in Mexico and in Los Angeles before the King murder on the evening of April 4, 1968. During that period he bought a car for $2,000 cash, paid $500 for dancing lessons, $225 for a course in bartending, $200 to a plastic surgeon for an operation on his nose. When caught, he was in London. Yet during all that time he was known to have been employed only two months, as a dishwasher.

Where did he get the money?

IN STATEMENTS he gave to author Huie, and published in Look magazine, Ray said that he got $800 in a robbery in Canada but that most of the money came from a man identified only as "Raoul".

According to Ray's account, he met Raoul at a waterfront bar in Montreal and agreed to make himself available for jobs to be done at Raoul's call. One service involved smuggling certain packages across the Canadian border into the United States in Ray's car, and later smuggling something, hidden in a spare tire, across the Mexican border. Ray implied that the contraband was narcotics.

During this time Ray said he received four payments from Raoul totaling $8,250.

But for a more important mission, to be detailed to him later, Ray's account — as given to Huie — said Raoul had promised him $12,000 and travel papers to get him out of the country.

In the last installment of Ray's story, published in the November 26 issue of Look, Huie said that Ray, in response to a summons from Raoul, had driven from California to Selma, Ala., stopped there overnight and then proceeded to Atlanta, where King made his headquarters. A subsequent article was to give the purported account of Ray's movements from that time until he was captured in London. It was held up pending the trial.

But Huie, who said he had personally checked out many of Ray's statements, offered his own conviction that the assassination was the result of a conspiracy.

"Dr. King was to be murdered for effect", Ray wrote in Look. "His murder was planned . . . by calculating men who wanted to use his murder to trigger violent conflict between white and Negro citizens.

"He was to be murdered during the election year of 1968.

"He was to be murdered by a white man, or white men, who would be described as 'Southerners' and 'racists'.

"Therefore, in this plot, Dr. King was the secondary, not the primary target. The primary target was the United States of America".

It is in the national interest that every investigative resource be used to confirm or disprove this conspiracy theory.

TO SAY that James Earl Ray, a fugitive, took the great risk of stalking and killing Dr. Martin Luther King simply to gratify a hatred of Negroes offers a wholly implausible motive. There has to be a better explanation — and the people will look to Federal investigators to find it.

MURKIN

William Bradford Huie has written a third article for "Look" magazine. The article appears in the issue dated April 15, 1969, but this issue was circulated on April 1, 1969. A review of the article reveals that James Earl Ray allegedly registered at the Travelodge Motel, Five Points, Birmingham, Alabama, on March 29, 1968; at a motel near Florence, Alabama, on April 1, 1968; and at a motel near Corinth, Mississippi, on April 2, 1968. It is to be noted that Ray, using the name Harvey Lowmyer, negotiated the purchase of a rifle at the Aeronarine Supply Company, Birmingham, Alabama, on March 29 and 30, 1968. On April 3, 1968, he was registered at the Rebel Motel in Memphis, Tennessee.

In an effort to establish whether or not Ray was in contact with any individuals immediately prior to the assassination, appropriate investigation should be conducted by the Birmingham and Jackson Offices. It should be understood that there is to be no indication made whatsoever that the following investigation has any connection whatsoever with the case involving James Earl Ray.

Birmingham and Jackson Offices should make inquiries of the motels in or near the cities indicated above to determine the identities of individuals registered during the period March 29 to April 3, 1968. Efforts should be made to identify all individuals listed, as well as obtaining descriptions and registrations for the automobiles of such persons. A review of such records might indicate whether any one individual might have accompanied Ray or been in contact with him during this period. Pertinent or questionable registration records should be obtained if possible for examination by the FBI Laboratory.

Memphis should insure that the Bureau is kept currently advised of pertinent developments in this case, particularly all aspects of court action since the death of Judge Battle on March 31, 1969.
