Mrs. Bridges sent her children to school at about 8:30 a.m., Friday, April 5, 1968. Thereafter she looked out her apt. window and saw white automobile pull up in parking lot directly across from door to her apt.; car backed into parking space. She saw that license was out-of-state, and later learned that it was Alabama. She saw lone male occupant get out of car and walk across parking lot toward Memorial Drive; he then approached Memorial Drive by left-hand lane between two apt. buildings. She lost sight of him when he went between the buildings.

Her identification of man: 30-35 yrs.
old, 5'10" to 6', 165 lbs, medium build wearing navy blue suit and white shirt, dark hair; no hat, no luggage, no glasses.

Did not see his face.

Was in MSP from 4/60-6/65. First met Ray in 1963.

Heard Ray curse King after JFK shot. Said JFK was nigger loving SOB.

In Fall of 1963, heard Ray say he was going to get King when he got out. A cooley organization would pay $10,000.

Ray had sufficient money; gambled in yard with cigarettes or bottle tops. Said got money regularly from outside. Drank whiskey made in MSP. No knowledge of Ray or specific guards in drug traffic. Talked of going to Liberia where brother-in-law worked. Said Ray had cache of guns outside. Ray said B'ham was good town to steal in.

Brown said Ray's friends were Johnny Valenti, "Tick" Wilson, Johnny Johnson and others.
