Unknown man came to store 1:30 p.m., 3/29/68, discussed various rifles.
Man asked whether Manasco had used a .243 caliber rifle. Man interested in bullet drop.

Description: white male, 30 yrs, 5' 8"-5' 9", 140 to 150 lbs, light brown hair, light complexion, sport clothes, no coat.

Had impression the man had been or was going to Long-Lewis Hardware.

Now recalls man visited store 3/27/68, not 3/29/68. Now recalls man in store several times; just looking. Did not handle weapons. On 3/27/68 man asked to see .243 caliber rifles. Manasco didn't have any and tried to sell a 30/60 caliber. Man said price too high on one shown. Man interested in bullet drop.

Gave man 2 booklets: "Winchester-Western, etc" and "Redfield '68 Scopes, etc."

Description: white male, 28-32 yrs., 5' 8"-5' 9", 140-150 lbs, slender build, light brown hair, light blue eyes, light complexion as if never in sun, looked directly into Manasco's eyes, high-pitched voice, no southern accent, physically weak, manicured nails.

Employed as cocktail waitress in bar er St. Francis. In mid-Dec. 1967, while working, met Eric Galt; her sister, Rita Stein, was present. She told Galt about needing to bring Rita's children from New Orleans; she introduced Rita to Galt, and the three talked about children. She jokingly asked Galt to make trip, and he agreed.
Also agreed to take Charles Stein.
He agreed on condition they would register for Wallace.

Next day he drove them in green Mustang to register, then back to Rita's

In Jan. 1968, he moved to St. Francis Hotel, where she also lived. He once asked her whether she needed money, and gave her a $20 bill.

About Valentine's Day he said he wanted to trade his console TV because he was going to travel and wanted to carry a TV with him. She traded her TV for his. Description of her TV: small, white portable, possibly G.E.

In Jan. or Feb. 1968, Galt said he was attending bartending school; she gave him a book on how to mix drinks.

Reinterview, reiterated details of her knowledge of Galt. Implied that, when Galt agreed to New Orleans trips he thought she would accompany him, then thought Rita Stein would go, then learned that Charles Stein would go.

Recalls that Galt used Spanish phrases. Recalls seeing Galt after return from New Orleans and that he mentioned friends who lived in Industrial Canal area or in Chef Menteur Highway, New Orleans. Recalls seeing girlie magazine in his room when they exchanged TV sets. Recalls that Galt, in response to a question, said he did not have polaroid camera. At that time, Galt said he was going to travel through the South, and agreed to take a package of clothing to Martin's mother in New Orleans.

About 2 weeks later Galt left some barbells at her apt. He said he was broke and expecting money from his brother.

Recalls that Galt once mentioned smoking marijuana but said it did nothing for him. Recalls showing Galt an ad in LA Free Press for "hot tempered man." Answered questions about Charles and Rita Stein. Said one was not romantically involved with Galt.
