Thinks Ray escaped in bread box.

Ray known as the "hide-out guy"
because he hid in prisone once. Ray
"got along" but not close to anyone.
Ray once said he'd go to South America.
Not unusually prejudiced against Negroes.

Mrs. Peters, manager of laundry, waited on white male who gave name Eric Galt on April 1, 1968, shortly before 10 am. He deposited 4 undershirts, 3 underdrawers, 1 pr sox, 1 wash cloth for laundry, and 1 coat, 1 trousers, 1 tie for dry-cleaning. Slip for laundry indicates EGC83 would be on laundry in indelible pencil. Slip for dry cleaning, indicates a tag with 8/755 would be stapled on dry-cleaning.

Description of clothing: black check suit coat with small check blocks, dark gray trousers, black tie with tan and brown diagonal stripes.

Description of Galt: in 30's, approx. 185 lbs, slightly more than 6' tall

Laundry and dry-cleaning picked up by same man between 9 am and 10 am (possibly closer to 9), on April 5, 1968.
