Says he knew Ray well, was working in Food Services when Ray escaped, and knew all about it. Another inmate planned the escape in the bread box, but he and Ray decided that Ray would go since Ray had longer sentence. The other inmate gave Ray money and clothing and "covered for him." Would not name the inmate because they were good friends.

On Friday, 3/29/68, early afternoon, Wood returned from lunch and observed U. L. Baker, another salesman, completing sale of a rifle to unknown man. Rifle was Remington, Model 700, caliber .243 Winchester, with 2x-7x Redfield Scope. Baker mounted and bore-sighted scope. Man also bought 20 rounds of .243 norma ammo. (This descriptive information obtained from sales slip prepared by Baker.) Purchaser left store with gun in cardboard box used by Browning Manufacturing Co. because, with scope, rifle would not fit into Remington box. Man also took empty Remington box.

Either later that day or early next day, man called on phone and said that, after talking with his brother, he decided he wanted a Remington, Model 760, 30.06 caliber. Wood said that exchange would cost an extra $5.00.

Approx. 9 am, Saturday, 3/30/68, man returned with the rifle he purchased still in Browning box. Wood stated that he would switch the scope from the rifle to a model 760, but it would take until 3 pm and to bring original Remington box for storing first rifle. Wood gave him the model 760 in, he thinks, the Browning box. Wood did not ask for $5.00 because in changing scope he used weaver base and rings rather than redfield base and rings, which made up cost difference. Wood exchanged the .243 ammo for 30.06 ammo, which, he believes, was Peters pose lokt, 150 grain, 20 rounds per box. Man left store carrying gun in the cardboard box. (Wood's statement does not say whether Wood switched the scope but implies that purchase did not return. Description of purchaser: approx. 5'8", 150 to 160 lbs, dark hair, wearing dark business suit with white shirt and tie, medium complexion. Gave name as Harvey Lowmeyer, 1907 South 11th Street, Birmingham, Alabama. Man stated his age was 36.
