Tried to draw Galt into conversations during dancing lessons in Birmingham. Unsuccessful. He mentioned he had taken lessons in New Orleans but didn't indicate knowing Myers. He said he wasn't familiar with Birmingham. Didn't mention employment, but did say something about construction. He said he liked baseball.

Certain she would recognize him. Description: white male, 5' 11", brown hair in crew-cut, blue eyes, ruddy complexion, 35-36 yrs., 175-180 lbs; would wear shirt, tie, sport coat, occasionally turtle-neck shirt, clean-shaven, quiet.

Recalls Galt took New Orleans lessons.
Would have been June to Dec. 1964.

Galt took 4 lessons in B'ham. Mrs.
Myers recognized Galt as same who took lessons in New Orleans. Neither Galt nor Mr. or Mrs. Myers mention the New Orleans lessons.

Description: white male, early 30's,
5' 11 1/2", 165 lbs, sandy hair in crew
cut, medium build, fair complexion, light blue eyes, soft spoken with southern accent.

She tooked through New Orleans photos

During 1964 Eric Galt took 5 private dance lessons and about 3 months group lessons at Continental Dance Studios in New Orleans. Paid cash. Galt didn't have much money and had to budget lessons to 5 hrs/week. Galt left owing some money. Galt had years club membership at Continental, Louella Lutz in Calif. may have Continental records. Continental went out of business Oct. 1965.

Sept. 1968, Myers advertised dance lessons in Birmingham. Galt signed contract Sept. 2, 1967, gave address 2608 Highland Ave. Galt took group lessons Sept. 12 to Oct 3. on Tuesdays 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Galt attended four, did not attend 5th lesson. Rec'd letter from Galt saying he was leaving town. Lessons cost Galt $10.

Galt always alone. Myers thought rode bus, thought Galt might be construction worker, Galt never mentioned New Orleans lessons. Galt very interested but poor dancer. Myers thinks Galt would take lessons wherever he went. Galt quiet, weak handshake, wouldn't look you in eye. Galt may have spoken with Doris Ladner.
