OO: Memphis
Bufile 44-38861

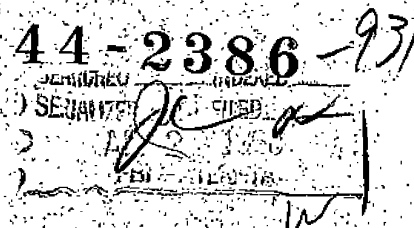

On 4/19/68 SAs ROBERT L. MC FALL and PAUL LEE MILLER contacted the Classified Ads Department of the Atlanta Journal in response to a telephone call concerning one of their ads. This ad reads as follows:

"NELLIE, please don't let me die.
I want to live. I love you."
RAY

It was determined through records that this ad was placed by a W. R. MOODY, 857 Meadow Rock Road Stone, Mountain, Georgia. The ad was to run from Wednesday, 4/17/68 through Sunday, 4/21/68.

SA ROBERT L. MC FALL contacted the Credit Bureau of Atlanta and determined that W. RAY MOODY, address same as above has lived in the Atlanta area for some time and has worked at the Post Office Department at the Federal Annex since April, 1960. His wife whose name is NELLIE is employed at Colonial Store, Ansley Mall, and has worked there since 1960 as a checker. Credit Bureau records also indicated that this couple was divorced in February, 1968, with the wife taking action against the husband and receiving custody of the couple's minor children.

TO : SAC, ATLANTA (44-2386) (P)

FROM : SA JACK M. WEBRECK

SUBJECT: MURKIN

DATE: 4/22/68

On 4/17/68, MANCO IRWIN, Brock Road, Rockmart, Ga., phone #684-6822, telephonically advised that on late Saturday afternoon, 4/13/68, he had gone to the residence of his ex-wife, ALVA LEE IRWIN, 12 Postel St., Cartersville, Ga. to give some support money to her for their daughter. He entered the residence and found an unknown man in the process of putting on his clothing and when this man saw him, he picked up a gun. Upon seeing this, IRWIN hastily left the residence. He did not recall what kind of a weapon it was other than it was a pistol.

On the preceeding night, he had seen the artist conception of the man allegedly responsible for the killing of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. and concluded that the man resembled the artist conception. He said that his wife works at EZ Mills on the first shift at Cartersville. He also advised that his son, BILLY JOE IRWIN, has been a Bureau employee-Clerk-in Washington, D.C. for approximately ten years.

On the morning of 4/18/68, MANCO IRWIN again telephonically contacted the Agent and advised he had seen a photograph of ERIC STARVO GALT on television and he was further convinced that the man he had seen at his wife's apartment bore a strong resemblance to GALT.

On 4/18/68, Mrs. ALVA LEE IRWIN was interviewed at EZ Mills, Cartersville. She advised that there was no doubt in her mind that her husband had made the telephone call or made the report. She described her ex-husband as being an alcoholic who has been making harassing telephone calls to her at all hours of the day or night. She said that she has been dating several different men, one of whom was HAROLD PHILLIPS, a 38-40 year old male, residence unknown but who works at Lockheed Aircraft, Marietta, Ga. and the man who had dated on the previous Saturday night was CARL COOK, a white male, in his early 30s of Acworth, Ga. employed at Days Chevrolet, Acworth.

She said that COOK is a small man about 5'6" in height, 130 lbs., in his early 30s and in her opinion bore no close resemblance to the picture of ERIC STARVO GALT published in that day's newspaper. She stated that COOK has been in the Acworth, Ga. area for a long period of time such as was the case with HAROLD PHILLIPS.

No further investigation being conducted on this aspect and this memo being submitted for information of file.

DARRYL LEE
MISCELLANEOUS

On 4/19/68 telephonic inquiry was made by one MR. NICK TOLBERT, the "Athens Daily News", 543-2512, Athens, Ga., regarding the above-captioned individual. MR. TOLBERT advised he had received information previously that DARRYL LEE had previously met with the FBI and had pertinent information re the KING case and other numerous alleged crimes based on a contact had with an unknown person in New York City by LEE.

Review of Atlanta indices fails to reflect DARRYL LEE is known to this office. Contact was had with SA RALPH E. WILLIAMS, Athens, Ga., RA, who advised that several days ago DARRYL LEE made an appointment to see him one afternoon at the Athens RA and simultaneously with this appointment a reporter of the "Athens Daily News" appeared also. SA WILLIAMS advised that he spoke with the reporter and she made inquiry concerning the FBI's progress in the KING case. She was informed that there was no comment to be made re this matter. She indicated that her paper had received an anonymous call from an individual who was a student at the University of Georgia was to furnish information that date relating to this matter and other matters of interest to the FBI. SA WILLIAMS advised following the departure of the news reporter he spoke with DARRYL LEE whose entire purpose for appearing at the FBI Office was to furnish information relating to a person he had met in New York City who had some unusual ESP and had predicted the death of KING and other crimes of national interest. SA WILLIAMS stated that LEE feared for his life and appeared to be in need of psychiatric care and in view of local newspaper reporters arriving simultaneously he felt that some unusual plot was being made to involve the FBI in some sort of news story. He advised that the results of the interview will be furnished the Atlanta Office in the immediate future.

FROM : SA ROBERT L. MC FALL

RM
OO: Memphis

On 4/19/68 in response to an anonymous phone call SAs ROBERT L. MC FALL and PAUL LEE MILLER proceeded to 674, Apartment A, Lindbergh Drive, NE, Atlanta, Georgia to contact a THERESA A. OSORIO, who was to have with her a person who resembled ERIC STARVO GALT now known as JAMES EARL RAY.

Upon arriving at 674, Apartment a, Lindbergh Drive, it was determined that the apartment was vacant.

Mr. LARRY FARMER, 674 Apartment B, Lindbergh Drive, NE, Atlanta, Georgia, advised that the apartment was vacated on 3/31/68. He further advised that the girl staying there identified as THERESA OSORIO was a rather loose woman morally, and had entertained several males guests over the past few months. He further advised that Mrs. OSORIO's husband was in the United States Navy and is presently serving on board ship somewhere in the Carribean. Upon viewing the photographs of ERIC STARVO GALT he stated that this was not one of the men he had seen in that area.

Miss JULIA M. BROWN, 690 Lindbergh Drive, NE, Manager of the apartment complex, advised that THERESA OSORIO lived at 674 Apartment A, Lindbergh Drive, and had vacated the apartment on 3/31/68. She further stated that this girl had three minor children and was currently employed as a waitress at the Downtowner Motor Inn. She stated that the girl was good looking and had on several occasions entertained men, who she identified as friends. Miss BROWN could not identify the pictures of ERIC STARVO GALT as being one of the friends of THERESA A. OSORIO.

JAMES P. RIORDAN, permanent address 97 Ward Street, Wallingford, Connecticut, presently residing in Room 316, Hotel Frances, furnished the following information:

He moved into Room 8 at 107 14th Street, N. E., Atlanta, Georgia, on March 17, 1968, and stayed there until April 1, 1968. He did not become acquainted with any other person at that address nor was he aware that anyone lived at 113 14th Street, N. E. It was his impression this building had just been painted and was vacant. He viewed a photograph of ERIC STARVO GALT and could effect no identification.

RIORDAN recalled that after he had been living at 107 14th Street, N. E., for approximately one week, he started seeing a white Mustang parked under a tree at the rear of 113 14th Street, N. E. He saw this car almost daily until he departed the premises on April 1, 1968. He could not recall specifically whether he saw this vehicle on March 30, 1968, or not. At that time, he was driving an automobile himself and was parking it at the rear of 107 14th Street, N. E., and noted that the white Mustang was most frequently parked under a tree behind 113 14th Street, N. E. He was surprised at this because birds used this tree and any vehicle parked under it would have numerous bird droppings on the roof of the car. He parked his car there on one occasion and the top was covered with droppings. He did not notice the license tag of this car nor did he ever see anyone getting in or out of the car. There was no particular reason to notice the interior of the vehicle and other than being able to state that it was a white Mustang, he could furnish no information.

Since the publicity concerning GALT has hit the papers and he realized that he had been probably living in the same vicinity with GALT, he has attempted to determine through cryptography what GALT's real identity is. In this regard, he stated that he was in the U. S. Air Force and worked in cryptography. He dropped the name of "STARVO" since, in his opinion, it is an unlikely name and formed a combination of the remaining letters, and came up with the name of CARL GEIST. He noticed in Atlanta newspapers that CARL GEIST is a Minister in Atlanta.

In addition to the above, RIORDAN pointed out that while living in the 14th Street and Peachtree Street, N. E., area, the only bars in that immediate area were Mike's Bar and the Redwood Lounge, both located in the 1000 block of Peachtree. He himself frequented these bars on a daily basis since he is a beer drinker and never saw anyone resembling GALT in these two bars.

HERSHEL THORNTON, Mortician, 3340 Gordon Road, 344-4471, called today at 10:35 am and advised as follows:

On night of 4-18-68 he received a phone call from a woman who asked how to get to his place from Chamblee. He gave her directions and about 11:00 pm a white male and a white female came to his funeral home. The man said he was Dr. EARL VAN DESS or DERS and was staying at the Holiday Inn between Atlanta and Marietta in room 210 E. He stated that he wanted to arrange for the funeral of Dr. HOWARD CLEVELAND, an old professor at Howard University who died from shock following the assassination of Dr. KING. CLEVELAND had lived at 223 East Capitol, Apt. 103 in Washington.

He told THORNTON that the funeral was to be a quiet arrangement to be attended by teachers and officials from Washington only and that no announcement was to be made in the papers. He stated he had $350 to pay for the funeral. He said he would call at 11:00 am on 4-19-68 to make final arrangements. THORNTON has not heard any more from this man.

THORNTON stated was suspicious of this man for several reasons. DESS talked about MLK's funeral and THORNTON stated that he did not handle it that it was handled by his brother, MARCELLOUS THORNTON, who has a mortuary on Jonesboro Road, phone JA5-1877. DESS stated he was born in Birmingham, Ala., and lived in Washington, D.C., and spoke with an accent that was partly southern. He ~~was~~ had dark red hair, red mustache, and wore glasses and had been drinking. The woman with him was short, round faced, wore lots of rouge, and had short dark brown hair. They were driving a 1968 white mustang and another woman was observed in the back seat of the car.

THORNTON stated he has drawn a mustache and glasses on newspaper photo of subject RAY and he appears identical with man using name DESS.

Mrs. Riley. "Three or four ladies got together and tried to decide who to call. I called the FBI last (Wednesday) night and they told me to talk to the Atlanta police."

Mrs. Riley said the police apparently arrived in the parking lot for a brief inspection Wednesday night and FBI agents followed Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Riley's estimate of the time the car arrived in the parking lot differed from Mrs. Payne's. She said she awakened Friday morning at around 5 a.m. and first spotted the Mustang out her kitchen window at around 7.

"We discussed it and watched it because we hadn't seen it before," said Mrs. Riley. "Most of the cars parked here are people who live here."

Mrs. Riley said a neighbor stopped in for coffee the morning after King's slaying and they talked over the previous night's tragedy in Memphis.

When the conversation got around to the car sought by police, Mrs. Riley made the joking comment: "Why, it's sitting out there in the parking lot."

When the FBI agents arrived—Mrs. Payne counted nine—they opened the car doors with a master key, but were unable to unlock the trunk.

in charge of the Atlanta FBI office, replied, "No comment," to several questions from a reporter, then summed it up with an expanded statement:

"All I can say is 'No comment.' We could talk all night and all I could say is 'No comment.'"

Mrs. Payne said she was sitting in her living room last Friday between 8:30 and 9 a.m. when the Mustang arrived and was parked with its rear toward the curb.

STEPPED OUT

A man stepped out of the car, locked it — "or fooled with the door somehow" — and walked away carrying only what appeared to be a small black book, she said.

Mrs. Payne was certain that the car bore an Alabama license tag, but didn't remember the number. WSB-TV reported, however, that the tag number of the car was 1-38993, the same number in the FBI bulletin.

A Birmingham reporter who went to Galt's address in that city Thursday night said that it was a rooming house. He said other residents said they had not seen Galt in about three months.

OWNER SILENT

Although one rooming house resident said a man answering Galt's description had lived there three months earlier, the owner of the place refused to talk with reporters and kept the door locked.

"I don't know him," the owner said through a closed window. "I'm sure he never lived here. I'm not going to open the door."

However, a telephone repairman who lives in the rooming house said:

"I've heard the name Eric Galt plenty the last week. The FBI has talked to everybody in this rooming house."

The repairman, Percy Strickland, said Galt lived in the bottom floor of the two-story, pale gray stucco building and was considered "one of the boys."

He added that boarders "come and go and its hard to distinguish," but he remembered Galt as "younger than the FBI description."

A 13-year-old youngster who lives in another apartment in the Atlanta housing project no-liced cigar or cigaret ashes all over the floor of the car said, the interior was covered with red mud, "like it needed vacuuming out."

The boy, Johnny Niesen, said two Mexican visa stickers on the windows labeled the car "tourista."

It was the stickers that prompted Johnny's mother, Mrs. John H. Riley, to call the FBI Wednesday night. The stickers had preyed on her mind since she'd heard on television, a couple of nights earlier that a man fitting the description of the suspected assassin had visited the Mexican consulate in Memphis prior to the murder and obtained visitor's pass.

However, Johnny said the stickers were for 1967.

"When I heard on the 11 o'clock news the night before last that he'd applied for a permit to Mexico, I got to thinking more and more about it," said

Eric Galt Is Object Of Search

Atlantans Tell Agents About Car

By JEFF NESMITH and
DUANE RINER

The FBI late Thursday night was searching for a Birmingham man in connection with the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. The man's car, a white Mustang, was found earlier Thursday in Atlanta.

The car, parked since early last Friday morning in a public-housing project only five blocks from the State Capitol, was registered to Eric Salve Galt, 37.

Galt has no police record in Birmingham, where he once lived at 2608 Highland Ave., or in Atlanta.

Residents of the housing project here, Capitol Homes on Memorial Drive SE, told The Atlanta Constitution Thursday night that a well-dressed man, whose description was similar to that given by witnesses to the Memphis slaying last week, backed the car into a parking space Friday morning, casually locked it and strolled away. He did not return.

The FBI, whose agents swarmed around the car most of Thursday afternoon, snapping pictures and taking fingerprints, had the vehicle towed to the Federal Building at Peachtree and Baker Streets where it remained behind locked garage doors.

PICKUP ORDER

An FBI pickup order was issued for Galt in Miami, Fla., and circulated on police teletypes Thursday night. The message was withdrawn at 10:30 p.m.

It had instructed police officers to locate Galt, who is 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs 175 pounds.

Earlier Thursday, Mrs. Ernest Payne of 151 Memorial Drive SE in Atlanta told reporters that the man who abandoned the car here last Friday was a "nice looking man," about 25 or 30, weighing 165 or 170 pounds and about 5 feet, 10 or 11 inches tall.

Mrs. Payne said she does not read newspapers and seldom watches television and therefore did not know that a similar description of the suspected killer was being circulated.

NO COMMENTS

FBI agents refused to comment on the impounded car in Atlanta and Special Agent John Hanlon in Miami refused to comment on the bulletin issued for Galt. Justice department officials in Washington refused to discuss the new developments as did FBI agents in Birmingham.

However, it was learned that no warrant has been issued for Galt, but that he is being sought for questioning.

Frank V. Hitt, special agent

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date April 8, 19681

Mr. FRANK MILLER, owner and operator of the Town and Country Motel (affiliate of Friendship) reviewed records and advised as follows:

This motel does not utilize Cashmere Bouquet soap for its guests. It uses Palmolive soap contained in a blue wrapper bearing white lettering "Town & Country Motel, U.S. 27 North, LaGrange, Georgia." This motel is located within the city limits of LaGrange, Georgia 30240.

Registration cards were examined from March 17, 1968 through April 4, 1968. There were no names similar to JOHN WILLARD, HARVEY LOWMEYER and WILLIAM J. LEHMEYER listed. There were no white Mustang automobiles listed.

Re: Rooming House at 113 14th Street,
Northeast, Atlanta, Georgia

GEORGE MARSHAL, Personnel Director, Atlantic Steel, 1300 Mecasin, Northwest, advised SA MARION E. CHEEK JAMES P. RIORDAN was in his office on March 20, 1968, at which time he gave the address of 107 14th Street, Northeast, Atlanta, Georgia. He listed a former address of 94 11th Street, Northwest, and a permanent address of 97 Ward Street, Wallingford, Connecticut. He listed his wife as LOUISE, prior employment with United States Plastics, Wallingford, Connecticut, and claimed to be a retired service man from the United States Army with service from 1940 through 1945 and 1947 through 1963.

RIORDAN is described as a white male, 49 years of age, 6'3" tall, 215 pounds. He was offered employment in a supervisory capacity and was to report on March 25, 1968. He did not show up for work and Mr. MARSHAL called his wife in Connecticut. She did not know where he was located.

Mr. MARSHAL, who is a Shriner, saw RIORDAN on Clermont Avenue in Decatur, Georgia, on April 6, 1968, when he, MARSHAL, was marching in a Shrine parade. RIORDAN has not recontacted Atlantic Steel and he has no idea as to RIORDAN's present whereabouts.

On 4/22/68, JIMMY D. GARNER was recontacted at his place of business, the Vista Grill, 1052 Northside Drive, N. W., Atlanta, Georgia. It was noted that GARNER was in a highly intoxicated condition and no effort was made to reinterview him in detail for this reason. Police photographs of JAMES EARL RAY were displayed to GARNER, and he commented that he did not feel these were a good likeness to the man he knew as ERIC STARVO GALT. He again observed the photograph of RAY which was taken at the time he graduated from bartender's school in Los Angeles in March, 1967. His comment at this time was "That's the man who stayed at 113 14th Street, N. E."

On the same date, A. M. SLOAN, Assistant Superintendent, Postal Substation C, 14th Street, N. E., Atlanta, Georgia (protect identity) was recontacted to determine whether additional mail had been received for ERIC STARVO GALT. SLOAN advised that no additional mail had been received to his knowledge, but he would be on the alert for any such mail and would promptly advise the Atlanta Office if additional mail is received.
