Memorandum

TO : SAC, ATLANTA (44-2386) (C)

DATE: 10/1/75

FROM : SA EDWARD A. SHEA

SUBJECT: MURKIN

On 9/18/75, JONATHAN PAUL VON NEWMAN, 331 D Lakemore Drive, Atlanta, Georgia, telephone # 255-0583, a student at Georgia State University (GSU), came into the Atlanta Office and talked to the writer.

Mr. VON NEWMAN, who appeared to be a sharp, bright young man indicated he is currently a student at GSU, Atlanta, Georgia, majoring in Physics and because of his class schedule he only had a few minutes to talk to the complaint agent.

Mr. VON NEWMAN then mentioned that back in the Spring of 1975, Mr. VON NEWMAN learned of a summer job opening at the Great American Silver Company and he was subsequently hired by this company for a sum of $3,000.00 for the Summer of 1975. This was an oral agreement and nothing was put in writing as to the agreed salary.

Mr. VON NEWMAN then started work for this company, which lasted for three months and during this time Mr. VON NEWMAN performed various functions for the company, including handling their bookkeeping at various times. Mr. VON NEWMAN learned during his brief period of employment that most of the people connected with this company were members of the John Birch Society. This company is set up to sell silver, but it seemed strange to Mr. VON NEWMAN that the company kept various films, literature, etc., dealing with the Birch society, the making of booby traps, etc. In addition, the company kept some ammunition and some weapons in a back vault, reportedly for protection.

Most of the people affiliated with this company were strongly against the civil rights movement and believe it is a Socialist movement.

Mr. VON NEWMAN mentioned the names of various people connected with the Great American Silver Company, such as JERRY ADAMS, BEN SUTHERLAND, JOHN NELSON, and a Mr. JIM RAMAGE, who invested $100,000 in the company. Mr. RAMAGE's son, JIM RAMAGE, JR., did some work for the company and in addition, he worked on the election campaign for LARRY McDONALD, who is a Bircher.

Mr. VON NEWMAN noted that the Great American Silver Company seems to be involved in all kinds of schemes, con jobs, etc., and have been in trouble with the Securities and Exchange Commission and Georgia Tax people. This company is in an insolvent state, but the company officials live high, drive big cars, run up big entertainment bills, floral bills, etc., even though the company has little money. Mr. VON NEWMAN worked for the company for three months and never received any salary and efforts by him to collect his $3,000 have been unsuccessful.

Mr. VON NEWMAN went on that he was giving the above for informational purposes to show the nature of the above company and its people and he intended to furnish the above in more detail to Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

Mr. VON NEWMAN then went on to give some additional information which he indicated was the main purpose of contacting the FBI. During this past summer of 1975, Mr. VON NEWMAN, while he was working at the Great American Silver Company, learned that members of the Atlanta Police Department Intelligence Squad were coming out to the company to interview JERRY ADAMS. This interview was to try to develop information about an alleged report received by Commissioner REGINALD EAVES, Atlanta, Georgia, that new evidence had been received about the killing of the Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., being a conspiracy. This alleged report had received considerable publicity by the Atlanta news media and the Atlanta Police Intelligence Squad detectives were checking out various aspects of this new evidence, which included interviewing JERRY ADAMS. Prior to the arrival of the Atlanta Police Intelligence Squad detectives to interview JERRY ADAMS, ADAMS took down all his marksmanship medals which he had on display in his office as ADAMS felt the police might attach some significance to medals of this type if they saw them inasmuch as they were investigating the shooting of Rev. KING.

AT 44-2386

Mr. VON NEWMAN was advised by the writer that his information would be made a matter of record in the Atlanta files and he was thanked for his interest in contacting the FBI regarding this matter.

King Plot Inquiry Pushed

By VALERIE PRICE

Two civil rights activists said Friday they will officially call for reopening the investigation into the 1968 assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. with a national demonstration at the White House on Thanksgiving Day.

Dr. Ralph David Abernathy, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and comedian-turned-civil rights activist Dick Gregory said they were calling for the new probe due to their "shock and outrage" at recent disclosures by the Senate Intelligence Committee "regarding the harassment, illegal wiretapping, surveillance and other intolerable actions perpetrated by the FBI against the late Dr. King."

"The disclosures brought out by that committee clearly indicate that violence was practiced by this agency against one of America's most distinguished citizens," they said in a prepared statement.

Gregory and Abernathy held a press conference at Hartsfield International Airport Friday evening minutes after both arrived from Washington where they said they had talked with congressional leaders about new information regarding the assassination of the late civil rights leader.

Part of that information involved photographs of a man Abernathy and Gregory identified as "Frenchie" or "Raoul" and who they said clearly resembles a man picked up after the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy. They produced photographs and an FBI sketch of a man who was wanted in connection with King's assassination, and who they said also resembles "Frenchie."

Abernathy said that possible connection indicates there was some kind of master conspiracy to assassinate John Kennedy, Robert Kennedy, Malcolm X and Medgar Evers, as well as King.

The civil rights activists said they also want the Justice department to investigate statements by Robert Watson, who has told authorities he overheard several men in Atlanta discussing a plot to kill King. Gregory said he fears for the life of Watson, who is serving a prison sentence on a drug conviction at Ashland, Ky.

State Rep. Hosea Williams, president of the Atlanta chapter of the SCLC, also appeared at the press conference.

Williams said that although he has been working in the civil rights movement for many years, recently he has been the subject of more harassment than ever before for his efforts to get the King assassination probe reopened.

"I've been in the civil rights movement for 18 years. But since working with Mr. Gregory to uncover this information and to pursue the activities surrounding Dr. King's assassination, the harassment has increased manifold," he said.

Also Friday, the Rev. Jesse L. Jackson, president of the Chicago-based People United to Save Humanity (PUSH) and a former associate of the slain civil rights leader, called for a reopening of the King assassination investigation.

Speaking at a news conference in New York, Jackson referred to the recent disclosure before the Senate Intelligence Committee of a letter sent by the FBI to King, then president of the SCLC, shortly before King was to receive the Nobel Peace Prize.

Jackson conceded that the evidence was circumstantial but said the letter—which King reportedly interpreted as suggesting that he commit suicide or face public exposure and embarrassment—implicated the intelligence agencies.

"This, then, is one more in a series of concrete revelations which reconfirm and give credence to our, and others', belief that the FBI and the CIA were involved in the assassinations of Dr. King, President John F. Kennedy, Robert Kennedy and Malcolm X," he said.

Earlier in Washington, Abernathy told a news conference that former Vice President Agnew and the late FBI director, J. Edgar Hoover, exchanged memos in 1968 agreeing that Abernathy was "one of the most dangerous of all black leaders and should be silenced."

Abernathy said he was shown the memos when Senate Intelligence Committee investigators interviewed him last weekend.

SEES CONSPIRACY

Probe Pushed By Mrs. King

By VALERIE PRICE

The widow of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said Thursday she believes investigations of her husband's assassination—which she said apparently was the result of a "government conspiracy"—should be reopened.

And Dr. Ralph David Abernathy, King's successor as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), called for a new investigation of the King assassination, to be conducted by "a committee of distinguished American citizens and private investigators."

Abernathy and comedian-turned-civil rights activist Dick Gregory led a demonstration at the White House Thursday calling for a renewed investigation into King's death in 1968 at the hands of a sniper in Memphis, Tenn.

Close associates of the late civil rights leader have been pressing for a new investigation in the wake of disclosures before the Senate Intelligence Committee of efforts by the FBI to discredit King.

And during a press conference Wednesday, President Ford endorsed planned reviews of the investigations of the assassinations of both King and President John F. Kennedy.

Mrs. Coretta Scott King, who made her statements in Nairobi, Kenya, said she does not have the basic facts to support her contention that her husband's death was caused by a government conspiracy.

But, she said, "the way he was documented and followed around by (the late FBI Director J. Edgar) Hoover and the CIA when he was abroad, it would have to have been attached to the forces of our government that felt was a threat to the system as it existed."

Mrs. King said she was encouraged by Ford's statements Wednesday that he abhorred the reported FBI harassment of King and that he would consult with U.S. Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi on what action should be taken against those to blame.

Levi Wednesday announced plans to examine the original FBI investigation of the King killing because of the Senate disclosures. Levi emphasized, however, that the reexamination of the FBI file should not be considered a reopening of the investigation.

"New evidence, confirmed evidence" from recent probes of the FBI and CIA indicate the need for "further investigation into the death of my husband as well as the assassinations of others, from the Kennedys on," Mrs. King said.

Also indicating approval of a new look at the King slaying was an attorney for James Earl Ray, King's confessed murderer who now is serving a life sentence for the assassination.

Robert Livingston said a new look at the case would prove that Ray was innocent of the murder and was set up by the real killers.

"Mr. Ray did not kill Dr. King," Livingston said. "He was not a willing part of a conspiracy. He was a dupe. He was used."

Rep. Andrew Young, accompanying Mrs. King on her three-nation African tour, called the reexamination "a good move on the part of the attorney general."

Young predicted that such a review will show that Ray had helped the afternoon King was shot while standing on a motel balcony in Memphis.

Just who will conduct the new investigation is what concerns Abernathy and state Rep. Hosea Williams.

"I would never trust the FBI to investigate itself," Abernathy said. The SCLC leader said a panel of "distinguished American citizens," both white and black, along with private investigators, should report its findings on the incident directly to the President.

Abernathy added that he believes the FBI withheld information about the King murder and that a second investigation will discredit the organization.

Williams was more emphatic in his criticism of the bureau. Allowing the FBI to handle the new probe would be "just like allowing a hungry dog to watch the meat house," he said.

Coretta King and the FBI Letter

The timing was quite coincidental. The headlines that morning told of the FBI's anonymous letter to the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his wife, a letter seeming to suggest that King commit suicide rather than accept the Nobel Peace Prize and full of threats of how he would otherwise be disgraced. And there, at noon on the same day, there was Coretta Scott King, the widow of the slain civil rights leader, holding a news conference.

But the news conference was not about the FBI or the vicious, cowardly, unsigned letter. No, in fact, Mrs. King issued a small statement at the beginning, saying firmly that she would have no comment on such matters until all the investigations are complete.

But she is not dumb, this handsome thoughtful woman who has seen so much of the South's and the nation's history at close hand, both the suffering and the triumphs. She knows the allegations about her late husband's personal life are scurrilous and nasty and unpleasant.

Yet she goes on with the already-scheduled press conference about other matters, calm and concerned and wanting to talk about them. She talks some about plans for the King Center and about her late husband, but mostly the topic is full employment in the nation. Mrs. King is currently co-chairperson for the Full Employment Action Council, a group pressing for such a national policy. Its board of directors includes some distinguished names: Leonard Woodcock of the United Auto Workers, I.W. Abel of the United Steelworkers, Vernon Jordan of the National Urban League, Peter McCollough, chairman of the Xerox Corporation, Los Angeles.

Mayor Thomas Bradley (also, interestingly, former Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter and LaDonna Harris, wife of former Sen. Fred Harris).

"I think jobs will come to be seen as a basic right, just as voting rights and public accommodations have come to be seen as basic," says Mrs. King.

A little leaflet printed by the Full Employment Action Council begins with a quote from President Harry Truman, just after he signed the Employment Act of 1946. "Full employment means more than jobs...it values ends as well as means; it values leisure as well as work; it values self-development as well as dedication to a common purpose; it values individual as well as group cooperation. Full employment means more than jobs...it means maximum opportunity under the American system of responsible freedom," said Truman.

The echoes intrigue. J. Edgar Hoover was director of the FBI in 1946 when Truman made those comments. He was still director nearly 20 years later when the scurrilous, threatening anonymous letter was mailed by the FBI to King. Mrs. King has to hurry a bit at the end of the news conference; she must catch a plane that afternoon to begin a three-nation visit to Africa, including the dedication in one country of a U.S. Information Agency facility named after her late husband. A few days later there is an Associated Press story from Kenya quoting Mrs. King suggesting that the investigation of her late husband's death be reopened in the context of CIA and FBI revelations. "I have always felt there was more to it than came out. I also felt somehow in the long run of history it would be revealed—just what did happen," she said.

She has seen a long run of history in her own life, has Coretta King. She is a strong and remarkable woman who has lived through a great deal without slipping into the twin traps of self-pity and personal bitterness.

New Inquiry . . .

There should be a congressional investigation of the 1968 assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the FBI's investigation of King's death.

The investigation is needed to clear up growing questions about the assassination of the civil rights leader April 4, 1968, in Memphis, Tenn.

Increasing support for a congressional investigation was evidenced by recent calls by Democratic leaders in the Senate and House for congressional inquiries into the tragedy.

Democratic whip Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., urged the Senate intelligence committee to conduct a "thorough review" of the original FBI investigation of King's death. And Rep. Phillip Burton, D-Calif., chairman of the House Democratic Caucus, said the House judiciary committee should conduct an investigation because of the "shocking and confirmed" disclosure that the FBI had attempted to discredit King before his death.

That is one of two major reasons why there should be a congressional investigation of King's assassination. No one has turned up evidence that the FBI did not conduct a thorough and unbiased investigation of the event. But recent disclosures have shown that the FBI, prodded by its director, the late J. Edgar Hoover, conducted illegal wiretaps and harassed and intimidated King and his family before his assassination.

Could this hostility toward King, an Atlantan, have affected the completeness of the FBI investigation of his murder? (The Justice Department is already looking into the original FBI investigation.)

The other major reason is that there have always been considerable doubts by many whether James Earl Ray, who pled guilty to shooting King, acted alone in assassinating the Nobel Peace Prize winner.

There was some belief that a conspiracy was involved, but the FBI concluded Ray acted alone. Ray, who was sentenced to 99 years, later tried to change his plea, however, and has hinted that others were involved. There have also been doubts raised about how Ray could have eluded the police in this nation and Canada before he was captured in London. And where did his means for such travel come from?

More than likely, a congressional investigation of King's assassination will confirm the FBI's investigation. The FBI, except for some recent, well-documented slips, is an outstanding organization. But the tremendous accomplishments of Dr. King in his 39 years of life demand that there be absolutely no unanswered questions about the way he died.

GODFREY WOULD GET THEM IN CONTACT WITH ANOTHER INDIVIDUAL WHO WOULD PAY THEM TO MURDER MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. approximately one week later a ~~6-004918-567833-2386-77534~~, A WHITE MALE CAME INTO THE BAR AND ASKED FOR THE POWELL BROTHERS.

CLAUDE POWELL TOLD RALPH THAT HE AND HIS BROTHER NEEDED TIME TO THINK IT OVER, AT WHICH TIME RALPH STATED, "IF YOUR MIND IS NOT MADE UP NOW I CAN'T DO BUSINESS WITH YOU." NOTHING ELSE WAS SAID. RALPH CLOSED THE BRIEFCASE AND LEFT. POWELL ADVISED THAT RALPH NEVER ACTUALLY STATED THAT THE MONEY BEING OFFERED TO HIM WAS TO KILL MARTIN LUTHER KING. LEON POWELL ADVISED HIS BROTHER IS NOW LIVING AT THE SCOTTISH INN IN MIDLAND, TEXAS. POWELL DENIED THAT HE OR HIS BROTHER WERE INVOLVED IN THE KILLING OF MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. AFTER SEEING THE ASSASSINATION DOCUMENTARY ON TELEVISION, HE DECIDED TO COME FORWARD AND FURNISH THIS INFORMATION. POWELL STATED THE REASON HE BELIEVES HE AND HIS BROTHER WERE CONTACTED IS BECAUSE HIS BROTHER, CLAUDE SERVED FIVE YEARS FOR ARMED ROBBERY AND AT THAT TIME IN 1967, HIS BROTHER HAD A REPUTATION FOR BEING AN EXPERT WITH A SHOTGUN. POWELL STATED HIS BROTHER, AT THAT TIME, CONSTANTLY CARRIED A SAWED-OFF SHOTGUN. LEON POWELL ALLEGED THAT PETE DAVIS, OWNER OF THE BAR, NOTICED RALPH (LNU) COME INTO THE BAR AND WOULD BE
