It is suggested in contacts with above establishments the actual operators of Thermo-Seal machines rather than supervisory personnel be contacted. It is further suggested, on the basis of consultation with Textile Marking Machine Company personnel that the letter "O" in instant tape may have been used rather than a dash for first character. If the code is recognizable by insertion of a dash instead of letter "O", or if the code is recognizable as it appears on instant tape, obtain sample of tape and immediately submit to FBI Laboratory for examination.

In Hunt for Dr. King's Assassin*Likelihood of False Identity Is Checked by FBIBy MARTIN WALDRON
© New York Times News Service

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been checking the possibility that a white man wanted for questioning in the murder of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., had spend several months in Birmingham last fall creating a false identity.

The FBI refused to comment on the case. But a source confirmed that agents had been exploring the likelihood that Eric Starvo Galt, who has been sought for several days for questioning, was an assumed name.

Apparently very little concrete information about Galt, whose age was given in an FBI bulletin Thursday night as 36 years, has been developed.

Lived in Boarding House

He showed up in Birmingham last summer and lived in the Economy Grill and Rooms, a two-story boarding house on Birmingham's South Side.

On August 30, 1967, Galt bought a white 1966 Mustang automobile from the sales manager of a Birmingham lumber company, paying the $2,000 in cash he got from a safety deposit box at a Birmingham bank.

On Sept. 6, 1967, Galt took a driver's test at Birmingham. The application for the driver's license said that Galt had been accompanied to the testing station by Peter Nichols Cherpes, the manager of the Economy Grill and Rooms.

FBI Clamps Lid

Cherpes has said that the FBI asked him not to answer any questions about Galt.

The driver's license was issued Sept. 30.

On the application for the license, Galt said that he had a driver's license in Louisiana in 1962.

Col. Thomas Burbank, director of the Louisiana State Police, said that Louisiana drivers' license records more than two years old are kept on microfilm in Baton Rouge and that the records room was closed Friday and this weekend for the Easter holidays.

Before the FBI agents had instructed residents at the Economy Grill and Rooms in Birmingham not to answer questions about Galt, a telephone repairman who lives there said that Galt had left the rooming house about three months ago.

Applies for Duplicate

Galt bought 1968 license tag 1-38993 for his Mustang last fall while he was still living at the rooming house, whose address is 2608 South Highland Ave. in Birmingham.

On March 1, 1968, Galt applied by mail for a duplicate of his driver's license and it was sent to him at 2608 South Highland Ave.

The FBI's desire to question Galt followed a check of records of the Remington Arms Co. at Bridgeport, Conn. The company records disclosed that a Remington .30.06 caliber rifle found on a Memphis street shortly after King's assassination had been shipped to a Birmingham gun store.

An FBI source emphasized that agents only wanted to question Galt. No charges have been filed against him, and may not be, the source said.

Made No Friends.
During the month that he lived in the rooming house in Birmingham, Galt apparently made no friends. Most of the residents at the Economy Grill and Rooms are transients, some staying only a day or so before leaving.

The rent on Galt's safety deposit box at a Birmingham bank expired in December and was not renewed.

On the driver's license application last September, Galt gave his occupation as merchant marine. A check has showed that no seaman's papers had ever been issued to an Eric Starvo Galt.

Galt's automobile was impounded on Thursday by the police and FBI agents in Atlanta. Residents of a nearby housing project said that the car had been parked there since early on Friday morning, April 5, about 13 hours after King was killed in Memphis.

FBI Withholding Drawing of Slayer

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The FBI is withholding nationwide distribution of a composite drawing of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s assassin, police sources said Sunday.

"They haven't given us anything but a physical description," said one police official. "They aren't handing out pictures of the man. The either don't have a good one, or they're going it alone."

Man Questioned

When Jacksonville, Fla., police questioned a Louisville, Ky., man Saturday night about the King slaying — the man since has been cleared of any connection — Police Lt. M. P. Richardson said, "It's a long shot, but he looks too much like the sketch of the man who is wanted in the King slaying."

Jacksonville police said Sunday the man was arrested after a resident noted a likeness to a composite picture which appeared in Florida newspapers. This sketch was prepared by a newspaper artist from the description given of the slaying. It was not released — nor endorsed — by the FBI.

Requests Rejected

Residents of the Memphis rooming house from which King was shot April 4 reported last week that investigators had shown them composite drawings. But they said the sketches were the same — or at least very similar — as those prepared by newspaper artists.

FBI officials rejected requests for a composite drawing of the man they are seeking in what perhaps is the most massive manhunt of modern times. They refuse to say whether they have prepared such a sketch.

Agents have a good physical description of the King assassin: 30 to 32 years old, 5 feet, 10 inches tall, weighing 165 pounds, with a receding hairline and long, thin nose.

They also have a good description of the white 1966 Mustang which witnesses said sped away from the Memphis rooming house minutes after King was shot. A white Mustang was impounded Thursday night from an Atlanta parking lot.

Car Impounded

The impounded car bore license tags issued in Birmingham, Ala., to Eric Starvo Galt, 37, who identified himself as an unemployed merchant seaman when he applied for an Alabama driving license last year.

At almost the same moment last week that they were impounding the car in Atlanta, the FBI sent over the Florida Teletypewriter circuit a request to locate Galt. The message was withdrawn four hours later with the explanation it was erroneous. The FBI refuses to say why it was seeking Galt.
