Suspect in Slaying Of Dr. King Fled Pen in Missouri

Fugitive James Ray
Had Been Serving
20-Year Sentence
For Armed Robbery

By United Press International

WASHINGTON, April 19

The FBI today identified Eric Starvo Galt, sought in the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King, as James Earl Ray, an escapee from the Missouri State Penitentiary. A warrant was issued Wednesday for a man identified as Galt in the April 4 sniper slaying of Dr. King in Memphis, Tenn.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said a systematic search of latent fingerprints uncovered in the case against the prints of more than 53,000 persons led to the determination "that Galt and Ray are identical."

Mr. Hoover said Ray, 40, was reported missing from the Missouri State Penitentiary at Jefferson City April 23, 1967. He had been serving a 20-year sentence for armed robbery.

"Brother" Charged

As Galt, Ray has been the object of a cross-country search which extended into Mexico.

Dr. King was shot to death from ambush as he stood on the balcony of a Memphis motel.

The FBI, in a warrant issued earlier this week, charged Galt and an "alleged brother" with conspiracy in King's slaying. Memphis officials have sworn out a murder warrant for Galt.

The FBI released two front and side view photos of Ray apparently taken at the Missouri prison, where he had been an inmate since 1960. It said the photograph was taken in 1960.

The photograph was identified as that of James Earl Ray, also known as Eric Starvo Galt, Harvey Lowmyer, John Willard, James McBride, James Walton, W. C. Herron and James O'Conner.

John Willard was the name used by the man who checked into a Memphis rooming house from which the shot that killed Dr. King apparently was fired.

Discharged From Service

Mr. Hoover said Ray had a known arrest record dating back to 1949. Prior to his 1960 conviction in St. Louis, Ray was convicted of burglary in Los Angeles in 1949; armed robbery in Chicago in 1952; and forging United States postal money orders in Missouri in 1955.

The FBI said that in September 1966, while serving his sentence at the Missouri State Penitentiary, Ray was confined for a time in the maximum security ward at Fulton.

He also served time in the Los Angeles County Jail in 1949; state prisons at Joliet and Pontiac, Ill., from 1952 to 1954; and the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., from 1955 to 1958.

The FBI said Ray was an enlisted man in the army from February 1946 to December 1948, when he was given a general discharge due to ineptness and lack of adaptability for military service.

History of Memphis Suspect— Ruthless Man, Always on Run

By JOE CAPPO

Special to Buffalo Evening News

CHICAGO, April 20—The nationwide manhunt for ex-convict James Early Ray—believed by the FBI to be the real name of Eric Starvo Galt—seems to be a destined development in a life filled with trouble, crime and running.

The man accused of murdering or at least conspiring to kill Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. is described by the FBI as being a "luer" and a "drifter," not unlike some other names in recent history, names like Richard Franklin Speck and Lee Harvey Oswald.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said a systematic search of latent fingerprints uncovered in the case against the prints of more than 53,000 persons led to the determination "that Galt and Ray are identical."

Gun to Driver's Head

Warden Harold Swensen of Missouri State Prison, from which Ray escaped, said: "There is no doubt in my mind that Ray could be a paid assassin. He is extremely dangerous, coldblooded and ruthless."

Ray came to Chicago late in 1951 and moved into a North Side room in property owned by the McCormick Theological Seminary.

About 1:30 AM on May 6, 1952, Ray hailed a taxicab and ordered the driver to take him to State and Delaware Sts. in the Rush St. night club district.

When they reached the destination, the driver, Louis Knox said Ray put a pistol to his head and demanded money. As Knox turned over $11 to the bandit, a witness hailed a passing squad car.

Begged for Probation

The policemen chased Ray on foot. One fired at him. Winged in both arms, Ray was arrested and treated at a hospital before being transferred to jail.

Ray, then 24, pleaded guilty to armed robbery, but begged for probation, saying he "would get a job and never get involved with the law again."

Ray was sentenced to 1 to 2 years in Joliet Prison.

Reports made there indicate

JAMES EARLY RAY
He Promised to Go Straight

Ray had a "superior" mental range and an IQ of 120 to 128. But other sections of the report were not so favorable: "Use of alcohol: intemperate; personality rating: unstable; psychiatric prognosis: problematic to doubtful; social type: socially inadequate."

Arrested as a Vagrant

Ray was born March 10, 1928, in Alton, Ill. He attended a rural grammar school near Alton, but dropped out of school at about the 10th grade.

In February 1946 he enlisted in the Army, but was given a general discharge in December 1948 because of "ineptness and lack of adaptability for military service."

The next heard of Ray was in 1949, in Los Angeles, where he was arrested for burglary and spent 90 days in jail.

In 1950 he was arrested for vagrancy in Cedar Rapids, Ia., but released. The next year he was picked up in Alton, Ill., for driving without an operator's license.

Some time after that he came to Chicago and pulled the taxi holdup. Five months after his parole on the sentence, Ray was picked up in East Alton for burglary of a cleaning shop. The charge was later dropped.

Tried to Break Away

The record then points to Kansas City, Mo., where he was arrested for forging U. S. postal money orders and subsequently served 1955 to 1958 in the federal penitentiary at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

In 1959 Ray and an accomplice, James Owens, were convicted of the $120 armed robbery of a St. Louis supermarket.

He was sentenced to 20 years in prison on Dec. 17, 1959. On the way to court for his final hearing, Ray tried to dash away from guards, but was captured. He subsequently was sent to Missouri State Penitentiary at Jefferson City, where he made two unsuccessful escape attempts.

But on April 23, 1967, Ray was reported missing from the prison. There are no reports on how he escaped.

Long Auto Trips

Fbi agents know that he was living in a Birmingham, (Ala.) rooming house in September and October.

They know he paid $2000 cash for a white sports car and then purchased a rifle in a Birmingham gun shop. There is no idea where the money came from.

There are reports he took dancing lessons in Birmingham and New Orleans. Other reports say that he attended bartending school in Long Beach, Calif.

Other reports are of long auto trips — from Los Angeles on Dec. 15 to New Orleans, and back to Los Angeles by Dec. 21.

And then there's that last report, the one that alleges he fled from a Memphis rooming house after shooting Dr. King through the narrow window of a bathroom.

At about 6 p.m. on 4/4/68, while standing on the second floor balcony outside Room 306 of the Lorraine Motel, 406 Mulberry Street, Memphis, Tennessee, Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. was struck in the right side of the face by a single bullet fired from a 30-06 rifle. The bullet severed KING's spinal cord and death was almost instantaneous.

This investigation, predicated upon a specific request from the Attorney General of the United States, disclosed that the fatal shot had been fired from the bathroom of a cheap rooming house located at 422½ South Main Street, Memphis, which bathroom was located at the rear of the rooming house, and had a window overlooking the Lorraine Motel.

At about 3 p.m. on 4/4/68, an individual using the name JOHN WILLARD had rented Room 5-B in the rooming house at 422½ South Main Street and had paid one week's rent. After hearing the rifle shot at about 6 p.m. on that same day, other tenants in the rooming house observed a man presumably identical with WILLARD, fleeing from the rooming house carrying a large package which was subsequently abandoned by him on the sidewalk in front of the Canipe Amusement Co., 424 South Main Street, Memphis. A neighborhood investigation in the vicinity of 424 South Main Street disclosed that the subject had fled from the scene in a white Mustang.

Found abandoned in front of 424 South Main Street was a 30-06 Remington model 760 rifle which was determined to have been Investigation at Memphis disclosed that an individual had purchased a set of binoculars at the York Arms Company in Memphis on 4/4/68. These binoculars were among the material abandoned with the rifle and recovered in Memphis. Also recovered was a brown and green herringbone bedspread. The items abandoned in Memphis were all wrapped in this bedspread. The blue bag which was inside the bedspread contained numerous items, among which were the binoculars and a set of underwear consisting of a T-shirt and shorts. The T-shirt and shorts are those on which appears the laundry mark which has been a matter of interest in this case.

A search of motel records in the Memphis area disclosed that an individual using the name ERIC S. GALT had spent the night of 4/3/68 at the Rebel Motel, Memphis, Tennessee, and was driving a 1966 white Mustang bearing Alabama License 1-38993. Investigation at Birmingham disclosed that this automobile had been purchased by ERIC S. GALT on August 30, 1968, from a private person in response to a newspaper ad. He paid a total of $1995 cash. While in Birmingham he furnished the address of 2608 South Highland Avenue, Birmingham. This is also the address which appeared on a driver's license issued to him by the State of Alabama. The driver's license identifying data listed his birth date as July 20, 1931, his height as 5'11", his weight as 170 and his eyes blue and hair brown. P

The automobile in question, the white Mustang bearing the Alabama tags mentioned above, was recovered in Atlanta on 4/11/68 and determined to have been abandoned there prior to 9 a.m. on 4/5/68.

In connection with the evidence submitted by Atlanta, Birmingham, and Memphis, identifiable latent prints were recovered. It was on the basis of these latents that identification was made of JAMES EARL RAY. In handling future leads, all offices should be particularly interested in securing an identifying number, military, police, or FBI, in connection with suspects so that the necessary check can be made through the Identification Division.

On 4/17/68, AUSA R. MACEY TAYLOR, Birmingham, authorized the filing of a complaint charging ERIC STARVO GALT with a conspiracy to violate Section 241, Title 18, U. S. Code, and recommended bond in the amount $50,000. On that same date, SAC JOSEPH H. GAMBLE filed a complaint before USC MILDRED F. SPRAGUE, Birmingham, and warrant was issued that same date.
