identified his father as GEORGE SNEYD and his mother as GLADYS KILNER, which are the correct names for the real SNEYD's parents.

The real SNEYD said he has lost no identification. The MTPD is in the process of searching SNEYD's residence on a consent search and interviewing SNEYD in depth. THEY HAVE ASKED THAT SNEYD'S NAME BE KEPT UNDER WRAPS.

On 6/4/68, when the RCMP tried to obtain the original negative from the Arcade Photo Shop, the woman wanted $5. On recontact 6/5/68, she wanted $20. RCMP is going to seize it by search warrant.

ASAC CAMPBELL said that because of restrictions on the use of the SNEYD name open inquiries are handicapped.

ASAC CAMPBELL noted that the fictitious SNEYD now has a valid birth certificate in that name.

He requested that a photograph of RAY's fingerprints received from the Bureau this date be sent special delivery to RCMP headquarters, attention Inspector CARL DOEY, 3 Sullivan St., Toronto, Ontario, Canada, which was done.

ASAC CAMPBELL requested that the Laboratory be telephonically contacted to determine the results of the comparison of the handwriting on the letter SNEYD wrote to the travel bureau with RAY's handwriting.

A telephone call was placed to the Laboratory and SA WILLIAM D. GRIFFITH advised that a positive identification had been made by the Lab showing that the person who wrote this letter in the name of SNEYD to the travel bureau is identical with JAMES EARL RAY. He said a teletype was in process.

SA GRIFFITH said the Bureau was "pulling out all stops" on this phase of the investigation and that there was information RAY was going to Rhodesia. He said that if there were any policy questions whatsoever there should be no hesitation in telephoning the Bureau and talking to Mr. ROSEN or Mr. MALLEY (ph.) or Mr. MC GOWAN.

At 3:35 p.m., 6/5/68, ROBERT JENSON of the Memphis Office was in telephonic communication with SA GABRIEL R. MARTINEZ. JENSON inquired as to the status of the investigation in Toronto and was furnished with the above information. During the course of the conversation he was also advised of the positive identification received by SA EDDY from the Laboratory. JENSON was of the opinion that the subject was en route to Rhodesia and suggested that the travel clerk, Miss SPENCER, be interviewed to determine whether or not the individual obtaining the ticket from her had made any inquiry as to how to extend the ticket or any means of making any interconnecting flight, especially to the Central Africa Airlines, which fly to Rhodesia. JENSON related that they have been talking to EDMUNDSON, who was apprehended in Canada and is now in Missouri State Penitentiary, and that he had furnished them with information to the effect that there is an escape route through Canada where passports, birth certificates and other identification can be obtained for $50. He stated that inasmuch as RAY had been an inmate at the Missouri State Penitentiary that he may have been in possession of the procedure to utilize in an escape through Canada and therefore JENSON felt that the identification of SNEYD would have been a simple task for the subject to obtain.

At approximately 3:10 p.m., 6/5/68, ASAC WASON G. CAMPBELL telephonically contacted the Buffalo Office from Toronto. He advised that they had just finished interviewing Miss LILLIAN SPENCER, travel agent for Kennedy Travel Bureau. She told them that the man using the name of RAYMON GEORGE SNEYD first contacted her on 4/16/68. She made out most of his passport application for him although he signed it. He showed no identification or birth certificate. She felt he must have given her the return date of 5/21/68 because this plane was for a 21-day excursion and he was showing his return before the 21 days would have been up.

In his passport application SNEYD shows PAUL BRIDGMAN as the person who would always know his whereabouts. This is the name that SNEYD used when he stayed at the Ossington address.

On the application it has to be shown that the traveler has a smallpox vaccination. She does not recall how she verified SNEYD had one.

Miss SPENCER said that SNEYD wrote her a letter saying he was going to a community in northern Ontario on a business trip but would be back. He came back on 5/2/68 at which time he paid for his ticket with $345 in Canadian currency. She did not recall the denominations but it was for a round trip ticket. Miss SPENCER said that normally if he cashed in the unused return trip ticket it would be returned to the travel agency where he purchased it but this is not an iron-clad situation.

Miss SPENCER could not identify our photographs of RAY although she identified the photo on the passport as that of SNEYD. She said there was nothing outstanding about him in her mind and described him as a "milk toast" type who looks more assertive in the passport photo than he impressed her in person. He sat with his hands folded in his lap, as she recalled. There was nothing about his accent or demeanor that made her think he was not Canadian. He wore no hat, and an ordinary suit. She could recall nothing unusual about his clothing. He wore his glasses naturally and did not act like a person wearing glasses for the first time.

Miss SPENCER said he did not have to have a birth certificate because he said he was a native of Toronto.

ASAC CAMPBELL said he and SA MC MAHON had been at a one-hour conference in the morning with MTPD Chief JAMES MACKEY, A Deputy MTPD Chief, the Superintendent of the RCMP, an RCMP Sergeant and Corporal and an MTPD Detective.

ASAC CAMPBELL said that the following material had been recovered which had been in SNEYD's possession which has been previously reported in memorandum:

- 5 packages of film
- Gray metal strongbox
- Miscellaneous band-aids
- 3 paper bags, one size 16
- Empty cardboard box which had contained plastic material used for laminating identification
- Jar of Stein's cold cream, theatrical type
- 3 maps, one of Montreal, one of all Canada and one of Toronto

All had been processed with silver nitrate and one latent was developed on the box.

ASAC CAMPBELL did not know at this time what was going to happen to the evidence recovered.

With regard to the real RAYMON GEORGE SNEYD, the subject had his correct date of birth. SNEYD cannot explain how the subject got it. The RCMP and MTPD went to the Bureau of Vital Statistics where they found a letter from the subject dated 4/16/68 enclosing a money order for $2. In this letter he

SUBJECT: MURKIN

DATE: 6/5/68

EACH AGENT IS REQUESTED TO CAREFULLY READ THIS MEMORANDUM AND TO BE ALERT TO DISCUSS THIS CASE WITH EACH PERSON CONTACTED. SINCE THIS CASE IS RECEIVING NATION-WIDE PUBLICITY, IT IS OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE THAT EVERY AGENT TAKE EVERY POSSIBLE STEP TO BRING THIS CASE TO A SPEEDY SOLUTION.

REWARDS

The Bureau has advised that a number of rewards have been issued for the apprehension of JAMES EARL RAY. This money now totals at least $100,000.00.

The Bureau desires this information be handled in a discreet and tactful manner and THE FBI SHOULD NOT BE PUBLICIZED AS THE SOURCE OF THIS REMINDER.

The Bureau's continuing policy is to encourage the public to furnish information to law enforcement authorities as a matter of good citizenship, but it is recognized that monetary rewards are often necessary to motivate some individuals. The knowledge of the existence of the substantial rewards available in the MURKIN case could possibly prove of value in a solution of this case.

In the event of inquiries regarding the identity of the sources of the reward money, established sources MAY BE CONFIDENTIALLY ADVISED that according to a compilation set forth in the April 27, 1968 edition of the "Commercial Appeal," Memphis Tennessee, $25,000 each has been offered by the "Commercial Appeal" and "Scripps-Howard Newspapers," and that in addition, businessmen and citizens in Memphis have offered several thousand more. The Memphis City Council has underwritten the reward up to $100,000.00.

CONTACTS WITH PROSTITUTES AND "STREET BUMS"

The Bureau has advised that JAMES EARL RAY is known to consort with prostitutes and "street bums." The photograph of RAY wearing dark glasses, which has been furnished to all Agents, was obtained from a prostitute in Mexico.

The Bureau has instructed that in daily contacts with informants, officers of the Vice Squad, and prostitutes, this information should be borne in mind.

CONTACTS WITH ROOMING HOUSES,
SALVATION ARMY, AND OTHER CHARITABLE TYPE MISSIONS

Investigation in this case has developed that RAY is known to stay at "flop houses" and lower class rooming houses.

Agents in contacts with rooming houses, as well as the Salvation Army and other charitable type missions, will make available to appropriate persons the Identification Order (IO) of RAY or a photograph of him. Additional copies of the IO or of RAY's photograph can be obtained from SA R. GORDON EDDY.

DESCRIPTION

There is set forth hereafter a composite description of JAMES EARL RAY. Attached hereto is a Xerox photograph of RAY, which Memphis says is the best likeness. It will be noted this photograph shows a distinct cleft in RAY's chin, which should be a key factor in identifying him:

deals with all four captioned matters. Two copies of LHM are enclosed for Memphis as OO in MURKIN case, and three copies of LHM are enclosed for New York, since it is alleged locus of plots set forth, with one of these copies being for New York file on WILLIAM MCSSES KUNSTLER.

For info of Bureau, information previously received on various matters from TAYLOR CALDWELL has been set forth in following communications to Bureau:

(1) Buffalo let to Bureau, 7/23/62, captioned "AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, RM."

(2) Buffalo let to Bureau, 8/15/63, captioned "MRS. JANET T. C. REBACK, aka, INFO CONCERNING."

(3) Buffalo let to Bureau, 12/18/63, captioned "TAYLOR CALDWELL, aka, INFORMATION CONCERNING."

(4) Buffalo let to Bureau, 9/16/64, captioned "WILLIAM KUNTZLER, aka, SM-C," (Bureau file 100-106670).

(5) Buffalo let to Bureau, 4/30/65, captioned "TAYLOR CALDWELL, aka, INFO CONCERNING."

(6) Buffalo let to Bureau, 10/27/65, captioned "TAYLOR CALDWELL, aka, INFO CONCERNING."

(7) Buffalo airtel to Bureau, 11/18/66, captioned "ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, 11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS."

These communications have been itemized so Bureau itself can better evaluate Miss CALDWELL and information furnished by her.

The above communications and a review of Buffalo Office files reflect that TAYLOR CALDWELL (whose true name is Mrs. JANET T. C. REBACK) is a world famous novelist, that she is an inveterate letter writer, possessed of a vivid imagination, and is inclined to intermingle fact with fiction indiscriminately; that she is prone to carry on literary battles through the mails and in publications

with various and sundry persons throughout the world; and that she has a proclivity for furnishing information to other government agencies in addition to the FBI.

The information set forth in the LHM is being furnished to the Bureau and interested Offices, principally because of the serious nature of the charges, Miss CALDWELL's prominent position, and the possibility that she may at some future time claim she furnished pertinent information to the FBI, which received no attention.

Buffalo is making no local dissemination of the LHM, and whether or not any dissemination should be made at Washington, D.C., is being left to the discretion of the Bureau.

No action, other than possible dissemination at the Seat of Government to Secret Service because of intimation of threats of harm to President JOHNSON and Vice President HUMPHREY included in the material furnished by Miss CALDWELL, is recommended, on the basis that prior experience with Miss CALDWELL reflects she is unreliable and possibly demented. It would appear that a person in her position would place the welfare of the U.S. above an alleged loyalty to a correspondent, whom she has never met, and that she would disclose the identity of her correspondent so he could be located and questioned if he does, in fact, exist and if he did in fact send her the information she claims to have received.

It is pointed out that in the telephonic interview conducted with Miss CALDWELL by SA THADDEUS J. SZYMANSKI on 6/4/68, it was suggested to her that in the future she send any letters received from her friend to the FBI, deleting his signature if she feels so obligated, but so the FBI would have his exact wording for purposes of evaluation. She first replied this would be a violation of her promise to destroy her friend's letters. She then stated possibly she could Xerox the letters, and send the Xerox copies to the FBI, and then destroy the originals, which would mean she was honoring her promise. Finally, she stated that doing this would bother her conscience, and that anyway she felt her friend would not write anymore because he sounded

so terrified in his last letter. Miss CALDWELL's responses throughout the telephonic interview of 6/4/68 emphasized her unwillingness to be interviewed in person concerning this matter, and reflected a desire on her part to go into great detail on extraneous matters rather than on the alleged plots.

It is acknowledged by the Buffalo Office that there is considerable detail in the LHM dealing with Miss CALDWELL herself and prior FBI experiences with her. It is felt this data is essential to an appropriate evaluation of the serious charges contained in her letter should the Bureau feel compelled to disseminate the LHM.

Unless advised to the contrary by the Bureau, the Buffalo Office will make no further effort to personally interview Miss CALDWELL re instant matters, and will simply acknowledge receipt of any further data from her in this matter without incorporating the information into LHMs for the Bureau.

POOR PEOPLE'S CAMPAIGN

On June 4, 1968, there was received at the Buffalo, New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a letter, dated May 31, 1968 from TAYLOR CALDWELL, 34 Audley End, Buffalo (26), New York, the contents of which will be set forth below.

TAYLOR CALDWELL is a world famous novelist, whose true name is Mrs. JANET T. C. REBACK. She is referred to from time to time in news articles as an outspoken foe of Communism. She is known as and admits to be an inveterate letter writer. She has frequently engaged in literary battles with persons who opposed her private and public statements. Close associates have described her imagination as vivid, and many of her statements as tending toward exaggeration.

On one occasion, Miss CALDWELL wrote an article which appeared in the October, 1960, issue of "The American Mercury," in which she alleged that an unnamed, American-born distinguished professor, in one of the large universities, was a Communist. When an attempt was made by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to arrange an interview with Miss CALDWELL concerning this story, her husband, MARCUS REBACK, a former official of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service, and who scheduled appointments for Miss CALDWELL, stated it would serve no purpose for the Federal Bureau of Investigation to interview Miss CALDWELL regarding the article in "The American Mercury" because the unnamed professor was non-existent, a figment of Miss CALDWELL's imagination and a hypothetical situation employed by Miss CALDWELL to provoke public opinion.

On another occasion in September, 1964 when Miss CALDWELL was being interviewed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the presence of her husband concerning an occurrence she had brought to the attention of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Miss CALDWELL's husband flatly stated that the true circumstances of the occurrence were completely different from the version given by Miss CALDWELL, after which the latter materially modified her earlier statement.

The above mentioned letter received from Miss CALDWELL on June 4, 1968, reads as follows:

"As I am always wary of giving you any information which even vaguely sounds 'kooky' to me, I now deeply regret that I did not inform you of something which my terrified Negro businessman friend in New York wrote me last October. It still disturbed me, however - though it sounded very improbable - that I incorporated

it as a sort of warning in my article in the Buffalo Evening News concerning events of 1968, earlier this year, which you may have read, yourself. ESP had nothing to do with that!

"He wrote me, if I remember accurately - as I immediately destroy his letters at his urgent request - that a meeting was held in New York
the latter part of last September, in which plans were laid to 'throw the country into chaos and revolution.' It was suggested that a prominent Negro leader be assassinated, or at least badly injured, in early 1968, 'as a start to revolution.' He said that New York lawyer and novelist, about whom I have written you before, discussed this at length, and then remarked the matter would be given considerable thought - later. My friend was not invited
'later,' for some reason or other which alarmed him. But he was able to gether together a few facts last October and write me about them.
He did not give me the source of his information.

"The man finally chosen was a white man, between the ages of 25 and 30, named Robert W---, some simple name such as Watson or Watkins or Wellock or Wilkins, from the vicinity of New Jersey, a crack shot, of fair complexion, light eyes either very light brown or blue-gray, medium brown hair, long thin face, very agile - and a 'Marxist.' My friends say you have had a dossier on him for several years in either New Jersey or New York. He followed Martin Luther King for several months before the assassination, which was scheduled for early March, not April, but the opportunity did not arise. 'They' wanted a larger city than Memphis, especially Washington. 'They' had thought of Carmichael or Brown, then settled on King. It was remarked that they had 'failed' with Mr. Kennedy, because they had thought to start nationwide riots against 'right wing extremists,' and a general blood-bath, and nothing happened. 'Only Oswald got caught,' they remarked, which led my friend to believe that others were implicated, too, in the Marxist assassination. Apparently 'they' don't believe in the Warren Commission Report, either, for good and sufficient reasons.

"Now he writes that 'something much worse' is 'going to happen soon.' He doesn't know what it is, because he is being included less and less in 'conferences,' and is very frightened. He had asked me to write you last October about the planned assassination, and I did not, and he now wonders 'if I can trust you.'

"He writes that a woman will be the focus-point of the 'much worse,' and almost immediately, but does not know who the woman is. She is a Negro, however. He also writes that the man you are looking for is working either in New Jersey or 'just outside of New York,' and is or was in the Army and received a 'discharge without prejudice,' whatever that means, though not an honorable discharge. I thought they were the same. At any rate, he is often in New York at 'conferences.' Then it was decided to send him to Washington with the 'Poor People,' and is probably there now. (By the way, he had accomplices in Memphis.)

"He never liked Martin Luther King, my friend wrote last September, but reproaches me that if I had written you in October you might have prevented him from being murdered.

"This new information is also vague, but it may serve some purpose, though I don't see how. But remembering that letter of last October I thought it only right to let you know now. My friend also says that Mr. Johnson and Mr. Humphrey 'had better not' show themselves too openly in Washington, or be too available, in the very near future, but what threatens them he does not know. He just overheard 'hints.'"

"He fears, now, that he is suspected, so if you do any investigation on this information, don't try to find him or question him. He has a family. I know I will do all I can to protect him.

"Sincerely,

"(Miss) /s/ Taylor Caldwell

by private nurses. I brought a specialist from New York to see him recently, a Dr. Donald Louria; he told me frankly that my husband's destruction of mind and body had led to his present dying condition. If I knew who the thugs were I'd kill them, myself, so that some 'rule' of Earl Warren's would not set them free again to murder over and over.

"N.B. By the way, the Internal Revenue Service Center at Andover, Mass., has been opening letters addressed to me from all over the country, and then stamping the envelope: 'Opened by mistake.' I thought they were genuine 'mistakes,' and threw away all letters but one - and you may see it if you wish. For instance, how could a letter addressed to me by a fan from Syracuse, N.Y., find its way to Andover, Mass.? That was the one I kept. I can't imagine what the rascals are up to, but I have long had reason to suspect them, as files in your office will show."

On June 4, 1968, a telephone call was made to Miss CALDWELL by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, requesting an interview with her for any additional details she might be able to furnish in connection with the contents of the above letter.

Miss CALDWELL stated she is extremely busy and upset, that her husband is at the brink of death in the hospital, that she is in the midst of preparing two speeches for delivery in California later this month, and that she would have no time for a personal interview for at least two weeks or perhaps longer. She stated all the facts known to her are set forth in her letter. She pointed out that under no circumstances would she disclose the identity of the friend who had supplied her with the information set forth in the letter. She said she no longer has any of his letters because in keeping with a promise made to him, she burns them immediately after reading them.

When asked for the name of the New York lawyer she mentions in the second paragraph of her letter, Miss CALDWELL replied that this lawyer's name is WILLIAM KUNSTLER, adding she had previously advised the Federal Bureau of Investigation that KUNSTLER in her opinion is a Communist.

Miss CALDWELL was then asked if she could furnish any data on the source of her information which would aid in evaluating the reliability of this source. She then replied she has never met this source, but that he is a person who started writing to her about five years ago after reading one of her books. He has described himself in his letters as a Negro businessman who owns a business in Harlem. He has written to Miss CALDWELL from four or five different addresses, which she states indicates to her that he has had to move around for fear of his life. She has written back to him on several occasions, and two or three of her letters were returned to her marked "Unknown at this address," but most of her letters were delivered. On several occasions when she knew she was going to be in New York City, she wrote to her friend requesting that he come to see her at her hotel, but he never came. She recalled that one address he had given her was somewhere on West 114th Street.

Miss CALDWELL added she believes her friend is a member of the John Birch Society, because he has made reference frequently to articles she has written for the publication of this society entitled "American Opinion." She added that when this man first started writing to her, the letters were merely friendly and pleasant, expressing admiration of her writing and dealing with general political observations of World War I and World War II. However, commencing in the Fall of 1967, he began writing about his knowledge of the assassination plot of a prominent Negro leader, ultimately designated as Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

She said her first reaction was that his statements along this line sounded "kooky" so she ignored them, except for the fact that in a newspaper article she wrote in October, 1967, which was not published until February, 1968, and in which she made a predication of major events to occur in 1968, she did predict the assassination of a prominent Negro leader, being influenced in this predication by what her friend had written to her.

Miss CALDWELL was then asked whether she would suggest to her friend that he contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation in New York City. She replied she knows he would not do so, because he had written to her in the past that about four years ago he had contacted the Federal Bureau of Investigation to furnish information that "an FBI under-cover agent in an organization" was under suspicion. However, according to the friend, the Federal Bureau of Investigation wanted more and more information, so he broke off contact with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The friend also claimed that shortly after contacting the Federal Bureau of Investigation, he had begun to receive anonymous threatening letters, making him realize that his contacts with the Federal Bureau of Investigation had been observed. Miss CALDWELL stated that based on the letters received from her friend, she believes him to be a very intelligent man, but who is now completely terrified by the plot of which he is aware and also apparently by the fear that he himself is under suspicion, as indicated by a comment in one of his letters that he was not even invited to "Resurrection City" and cannot understand why, unless it is because he is no longer trusted.

Miss CALDWELL stated at one point in the conversation that she had just received another letter from her friend "yesterday," but when questioned about the contents, completely ignored the questions and then reverted to a statement that the last letter from her friend arrived a few days before her own letter to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Miss CALDWELL then proceeded to state that because of her husband's confinement, everything at her residence is in a state of chaos and that she is "simply going out of my mind." She said that previously her husband had taken care of all her business affairs, that she is killing herself going back and forth to the hospital, that she has had to give up her whole career to take care of her husband, and that "all this is too much for me." She said she herself is under constant medical care and does not know why she has "to put up with all of this mess."

Miss CALDWELL continued by stating her husband's critical condition and the resultant "messaging up" of her own life is all the fault of "Warren of the Supreme Court who let all those criminals loose," and made it possible for them to viciously attack her husband and rob their house.

In this connection, it is noted that according to articles which appeared in the local press, two armed men had broken into Miss CALDWELL's residence on March 20, 1967 when she, her husband, and their housekeeper were all present, had demanded jewelry, and beaten and attempted to smother Miss CALDWELL, but then had fled empty-handed.

On March 27, 1967, Miss CALDWELL had written a letter to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in which she related the circumstances of the above break-in, and in which she stated that the man who had seized her husband at the time of the break-in had forced him down on the stairs with a gun at his back, but "made no effort to otherwise hurt my husband." Miss CALDWELL in the letter said she believed the objective of the break-in had not been robbery, but an attempt to kill her because of her anti-Communist activity.

deals with all four captioned matters. Two copies of LHM are enclosed for Memphis as OO in MURKIN case, and three copies of LHM are enclosed for New York, since it is alleged locus of plots set forth, with one of these copies being for New York file on WILLIAM MCSSES KUNSTLER.

For info of Bureau, information previously received on various matters from TAYLOR CALDWELL has been set forth in following communications to Bureau:

(1) Buffalo let to Bureau, 7/23/62, captioned "AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, RM."

(2) Buffalo let to Bureau, 8/15/63, captioned "MRS. JANET T. C. REBACK, aka, INFO CONCERNING."

(3) Buffalo let to Bureau, 12/18/63, captioned "TAYLOR CALDWELL, aka, INFORMATION CONCERNING."

(4) Buffalo let to Bureau, 9/16/64, captioned "WILLIAM KUNTZLER, aka, SM-C," (Bureau file 100-106670).

(5) Buffalo let to Bureau, 4/30/65, captioned "TAYLOR CALDWELL, aka, INFO CONCERNING."

(6) Buffalo let to Bureau, 10/27/65, captioned "TAYLOR CALDWELL, aka, INFO CONCERNING."

(7) Buffalo airtel to Bureau, 11/18/66, captioned "ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, 11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS."

These communications have been itemized so Bureau itself can better evaluate Miss CALDWELL and information furnished by her.

The above communications and a review of Buffalo Office files reflect that TAYLOR CALDWELL (whose true name is Mrs. JANET T. C. REBACK) is a world famous novelist, that she is an inveterate letter writer, possessed of a vivid imagination, and is inclined to intermingle fact with fiction indiscriminately; that she is prone to carry on literary battles through the mails and in publications

with various and sundry persons throughout the world; and that she has a proclivity for furnishing information to other government agencies in addition to the FBI.

The information set forth in the LHM is being furnished to the Bureau and interested Offices, principally because of the serious nature of the charges, Miss CALDWELL's prominent position, and the possibility that she may at some future time claim she furnished pertinent information to the FBI, which received no attention.

Buffalo is making no local dissemination of the LHM, and whether or not any dissemination should be made at Washington, D.C., is being left to the discretion of the Bureau.

No action, other than possible dissemination at the Seat of Government to Secret Service because of intimation of threats of harm to President JOHNSON and Vice President HUMPHREY included in the material furnished by Miss CALDWELL, is recommended, on the basis that prior experience with Miss CALDWELL reflects she is unreliable and possibly demented. It would appear that a person in her position would place the welfare of the U.S. above an alleged loyalty to a correspondent, whom she has never met, and that she would disclose the identity of her correspondent so he could be located and questioned if he does, in fact, exist and if he did in fact send her the information she claims to have received.

It is pointed out that in the telephonic interview conducted with Miss CALDWELL by SA THADDEUS J. SZYMANSKI on 6/4/68, it was suggested to her that in the future she send any letters received from her friend to the FBI, deleting his signature if she feels so obligated, but so the FBI would have his exact wording for purposes of evaluation. She first replied this would be a violation of her promise to destroy her friend's letters. She then stated possibly she could Xerox the letters, and send the Xerox copies to the FBI, and then destroy the originals, which would mean she was honoring her promise. Finally, she stated that doing this would bother her conscience, and that anyway she felt her friend would not write anymore because he sounded

so terrified in his last letter. Miss CALDWELL's responses throughout the telephonic interview of 6/4/68 emphasized her unwillingness to be interviewed in person concerning this matter, and reflected a desire on her part to go into great detail on extraneous matters rather than on the alleged plots.

It is acknowledged by the Buffalo Office that there is considerable detail in the LHM dealing with Miss CALDWELL herself and prior FBI experiences with her. It is felt this data is essential to an appropriate evaluation of the serious charges contained in her letter should the Bureau feel compelled to disseminate the LHM.

Unless advised to the contrary by the Bureau, the Buffalo Office will make no further effort to personally interview Miss CALDWELL re instant matters, and will simply acknowledge receipt of any further data from her in this matter without incorporating the information into LHMs for the Bureau.

POOR PEOPLE'S CAMPAIGN

On June 4, 1968, there was received at the Buffalo, New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a letter, dated May 31, 1968 from TAYLOR CALDWELL, 34 Audley End, Buffalo (26), New York, the contents of which will be set forth below.

TAYLOR CALDWELL is a world famous novelist, whose true name is Mrs. JANET T. C. REBACK. She is referred to from time to time in news articles as an outspoken foe of Communism. She is known as and admits to be an inveterate letter writer. She has frequently engaged in literary battles with persons who opposed her private and public statements. Close associates have described her imagination as vivid, and many of her statements as tending toward exaggeration.

On one occasion, Miss CALDWELL wrote an article which appeared in the October, 1960, issue of "The American Mercury," in which she alleged that an unnamed, American-born distinguished professor, in one of the large universities, was a Communist. When an attempt was made by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to arrange an interview with Miss CALDWELL concerning this story, her husband, MARCUS REBACK, a former official of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service, and who scheduled appointments for Miss CALDWELL, stated it would serve no purpose for the Federal Bureau of Investigation to interview Miss CALDWELL regarding the article in "The American Mercury" because the unnamed professor was non-existent, a figment of Miss CALDWELL's imagination and a hypothetical situation employed by Miss CALDWELL to provoke public opinion.

On another occasion in September, 1964 when Miss CALDWELL was being interviewed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the presence of her husband concerning an occurrence she had brought to the attention of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Miss CALDWELL's husband flatly stated that the true circumstances of the occurrence were completely different from the version given by Miss CALDWELL, after which the latter materially modified her earlier statement.

The above mentioned letter received from Miss CALDWELL on June 4, 1968, reads as follows:

"As I am always wary of giving you any information which even vaguely sounds 'kooky' to me, I now deeply regret that I did not

inform you of something which my terrified Negro businessman friend in New York wrote me last October. It still disturbed me, however - though it sounded very improbable - that I incorporated
it as a sort of warning in my article in the Buffalo
Evening News concerning events of 1968, earlier this year, which you may have read, yourself. ESP
had nothing to do with that!

"He wrote me, if I remember accurately - as I immediately destroy his letters at his urgent request - that a meeting was held in New York
the latter part of last September, in which plans were laid to 'throw the country into chaos and revolution.' It was suggested that a prominent Negro leader be assassinated, or at least badly injured, in early 1968, 'as a start to revolution.' He said that New York lawyer
and novelist, about whom I have written you
before, discussed this at length, and then remarked the matter would be given considerable thought - later. My friend was not invited
'later,' for some reason or other which alarmed him. But he was able to get together a few facts last October and write me about them.
He did not give me the source of his information.

POOR PEOPLE'S CAMPAIGN

"The man finally chosen was a white man, between the ages of 25 and 30, named Robert W---, some simple name such as Watson or Watkins or Wellock or Wilkins, from the vicinity of New Jersey, a crack shot, of fair complexion, light eyes either very light brown or blue-gray, medium brown hair, long thin face, very agile - and a 'Marxist.' My friends say you have had a dossier on him for several years in either New Jersey or New York. He followed Martin Luther King for several months before the assassination, which was scheduled for early March, not April, but the opportunity did not arise. 'They' wanted a larger city than Memphis, especially Washington. 'They' had thought of Carmichael or Brown, then settled on King. It was remarked that they had 'failed' with Mr. Kennedy, because they had thought to start nationwide riots against 'right wing extremists,' and a general blood-bath, and nothing happened. 'Only Oswald got caught,' they remarked, which led my friend to believe that others were implicated, too, in the Marxist assassination. Apparently 'they' don't believe in the Warren Commission Report, either, for good and sufficient reasons.
