Rememo of SA ERVIN B. BRUNINGA dated 4/11/68.

The following investigation was conducted on 4/12/68, in an effort to locate JAMES ALTON POUNDERS, white male, born [redacted]

Miss JOANNE SEALE, Birmingham Police Department Records Section, advised their files contained no information on JAMES ALTON POUNDERS.

JOHN HOLCOMB, JR., Birmingham Recorders Court, advised their files contained no information on POUNDERS.

Records of the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office also failed to reflect any information on POUNDERS.

Mr. RICHARD LORENTZ, Veterans Administration Hospital, Birmingham, Ala., advised POUNDERS stayed in the VA Hospital for 100 days in 1966 and 1967. He advised he was admitted on October 14, 1966, and stayed until January 26, 1967. Mr. LORENTZ advised POUNDERS is a chronic alcoholic and tries to stay in VA Hospitals as long as possible. He said he also has stayed at the VA Hospital in Ft. Worth, Texas. Mr. LORENTZ advised he is a most unstable person who has received psychiatric care. LORENTZ advised he referred him to the Alabama Rehabilitation Center and, namely, to a Mr. G. G. HOLMES.

Mr. HOLMES was contacted and advised the only address he knows for POUNDERS is in care of his mother in Russellville, Ala. HOLMES also described POUNDERS as a chronic alcoholic who last came to him on 11/3/67. HOLMES told him to sober up and come back. POUNDERS, according to HOLMES, became mad and said he was leaving Birmingham. He has not been seen since, according to HOLMES. HOLMES advised he referred him to the Halfway House, 1825 - 12th Avenue, South, a home for alcoholics, and this is the only place he knew where POUNDERS could be located.

Mrs. MICKEY HAWKINS, Halfway House, advised POUNDERS stayed at her place from 10/3/67 until 10/15/67, and was asked to leave for being drunk. She advised he came back on 12/10/67, and left 12/11/67. She had no idea of his present whereabouts.

It is to be noted 12th Avenue South runs into Highland Avenue and POUNDERS placed a long-distance telephone call to Ft. Worth, Texas, on 10/22/67, from phone booth located at corner of 2600 Highland Avenue.

As all logical investigation has failed to locate POUNDERS and he apparently is no longer in Birmingham vicinity, no further investigation is being conducted re POUNDERS.

TO : SAC, BIRMINGHAM (44-1740) (P)

DATE: 4/12/68

FROM : SA J. T. ARNETT

SUBJECT: MURKIN
OO: MEMPHIS

SHIRLEY CARR, 3052 Lorne Drive, Birmingham, Alabama, advised on 4/7/68, that she is a barmaid in the Court Room of the Parliament House Motor Hotel, Birmingham, Alabama, and has been employed in this capacity for several years. After viewing an artist's conception of an individual exhibited to her by SA J. T. ARNETT, she stated that this artist's conception reminded her of an individual she knew only by the name of "BOB". She stated that she has not seen this individual for several months, but recalls that quite some time ago, the exact time she cannot recall, IDA GOODE, who was at that time employed at the Parliament House as a barmaid, dated this individual, and she should be able to furnish his complete name. She advised that IDA GOODE is now employed at the Domino Lounge, Homewood, Alabama. She advised as best she can recall, "BOB" was a salesman from Memphis, Tennessee, who came to Birmingham approximately every two weeks. She advised she recalls that "BOB" related to her on one occasion that he had three children and his wife had been killed in an automobile accident. She said subsequent to this, IDA GOODE had informed her this was not true as on one occasion she had called BOB's home and had talked to his wife.

The following investigation was conducted by SA's NEIL G. MARTIN and J. T. ARNETT on 4/8/68:

IDA GOODE, 1264 49th Place South, Apt. D., Birmingham, Alabama, after viewing an artist's conception exhibited her by SA J. T. ARNETT, advised this artist's conception did resemble an individual known to her as "BOB", however, it was not an exact likeness of "BOB".

She described "BOB" as a white male, age 30-32, height 5'9", weight 150 pounds, slender build, gave impression of being skinny, fair complexion, and eyes light colored. She stated that she met "BOB" approximately 2½ to 3 years ago, and she dated him three times. She stated she could not recall BOB's last name, but he is a salesman and works out of Atlanta, Georgia. She stated that "BOB" had informed her that his wife was dead, having been killed in an automobile accident, and he had three children. He advised her he had a housekeeper who kept the children. She stated "BOB" claimed he had fallen in love with her and had given her his home phone number. She stated she did not believe "BOB"'s story about his wife, and she telephoned the number he had given her in Atlanta, Georgia, and the woman who answered the phone stated she was BOB's wife. She advised that the woman stated that it was not unusual for women to call there stating that "BOB" had informed them that he had fallen in love with them. She advised it was a most unusual conversation. In fact, the woman even suggested they go shopping together when she accompanied "BOB" to Birmingham.

She advised she does not get off from work until 2:00 A.M. in the morning, and there is not many places to go at that time. She recalls they went to George's Club which is now closed, but at that time it was located on 1st Avenue North, Birmingham. She stated that "BOB" drove an old stationwagon, she believed a Chevrolet, and this stationwagon was loaded with black suitcases which contained articles connectioned with "BOB"'s employment. She stated she cannot recall the merchandise or articles "BOB" sold but does not believe it was anything in the clothing line. She advised that "BOB" was not checked into the Parliament House Motor Hotel, as on the occasions they went out they would go in her automobile and she would return him to his stationwagon which was parked near the Parliament House.

"BOB" informed her that when he left Birmingham, he traveled to Montgomery and Mobile. She stated he would be in Birmingham approximately every two weeks. She advised that she has not seen "BOB" in approximately two years. She advised that she has recently dated HAROLD SARGENT from Sylacauga, Alabama, a white male, 34 years old, 6'2", 200 pounds, long black hair. She has also dated JOHN AMES, Birmingham, Alabama, who is 6'1" and 200 pounds. She advised that SARGENT has a good friend in Birmingham by the name of "JIM", who slightly resembles the artist's conception, however, he is in his early twenties and she believes his name is JIM GRAHAM, and he is employed at the Original Equipment Auto Parts Company, Birmingham, Alabama.

BH 44-1740

She advised that ELIZABETH GORDON, Barmaid at the Court Room, Parliament House Motor Hotel, is acquainted with all of these individuals with the possible exception of "BOB" and may be able to furnish information regarding JIM's last name, but she believes his name is GRAHAM.

ELIZABETH GORDON, Barmaid, Court Room, Parliament House, Birmingham, Alabama, home address 603 Morris Boulevard, Birmingham, Alabama, advised that JIM GRAHAM who is age 23, is employed at Original Equipment Auto Parts Company, Birmingham, Alabama. She was furnished an artist's conception and advised the individual's hair should be combed up and straight back. She stated that there were numerous individuals who come to this bar fitting this description, however, she recalls a man in his late thirties who was in the bar during the previous week about 4 P.M. in the afternoon. She stated she could not advise whether he was identical to the person in the artist's conception.

JAMES F. CARR, JR., Doorman, Parliament House Motor Hotel, advised that he was not on duty during the previous week, but during the past several weeks he has observed a green Chevrolet stationwagon parked near the Parliament House Hotel which contained black suitcases, about 4:00 P.M. in the afternoon. He stated that from where the stationwagon was parked the operator was not a guest at the hotel, and usually the stationwagon would leave after a short period of time. He stated he could not recall observing the individual who owned the stationwagon.
