A Xerox copy of each motel registration has been made by the Jackson Division, and copies of these registrations are being maintained in the bulky exhibit file of Jackson File 157-9586.

It is noted on the registrations that there is registration from Saskatchewan, Canada, at the Round-Town Motel, and a registration from Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, at the Holiday Inn, during the pertinent period. It is being left to the discretion of Memphis, the Office of Origin, as to whether appropriate LHM should be submitted to the Bureau to have these individuals identified in Canada.

The names of those individuals appearing on the motel registrations who reside within the Jackson Division are being identified through indicés; check in the Jackson Office and appropriate credit and criminal being conducted within the cities in which they indicate they reside.

LEADS:

ALL RECEIVING OFFICES

All offices receiving copies of this communication will review the FD-302s which they have received for names of those individuals who reside within their respective divisions and will review the names through the appropriate office indices and will identify the individual through appropriate credit and criminal check, and if deemed advisable, will interview the individual if there is a possibility of any association with JAMES EARL RAY.

 SUBJECT: MURKIN

By airtel dated 4/7/69, the Bureau advised that in a third "Look" magazine article, WILLIAM BRADFORD HUIE stated that JAMES EARL RAY had spent the night of 4/2/68 in a motel near Corinth, Miss. The Bureau instructed Jackson to review motel records in and around Corinth to determine the identities of individuals registered there during the period 3/29/68 to 4/3/68. By airtel dated 4/18/69, the Jackson Office advised the Bureau that motel records at Corinth, Miss., had been reviewed under the subject's true name and aliases and had been reviewed for subject's Alabama license number. Nothing identifiable with the subject was located.

By airtel dated 5/7/69, copies of which were not furnished the Bureau, the Jackson Office set out leads for those offices to whom copies of this communication are designated. These offices have been requested to interview several hundred persons who spent the night in motels at Corinth, Miss., on or about 4/2/68.

In view of the fact that more than a year has passed since these persons stayed over night at Corinth, and since similar investigation of this type in this case has previously been unproductive, and since HUIE has admitted that RAY frequently is untruthful in statements to him, and further since it is not believed that it is of any particular importance to establish whether or not JAMES EARL RAY stayed over night at Corinth on 4/2/68, all offices will disregard the leads set out in Jackson airtel dated 5/7/69, unless specifically advised by the Bureau to cover same.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. ASSASSINATION
CIVIL RIGHTS

On February 24, 1978, Special Agent THOMAS J. WILSON, Federal Bureau of Investigation, appeared at the headquarters of the Select Committee on Assassinations, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. A staff attorney named WILLIAM WEBB advised Agent WILSON that he wished to ask Agent WILSON some questions concerning Agent WILSON's investigation into the allegation made by LEON POWELL in Atlanta, Georgia. WEBB advised he had read the Federal Bureau of Investigation reports concerning this investigation; however, he wished to personally interview Agent WILSON regarding this investigation. WEBB made the following inquiries:

During Mr. WILSON's interview of RAYMOND GODFREY, Mr. GODFREY stated that on the day of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.'s assassination, he was "shacked up" in Nashville, Tennessee. However, during the interview with the Committee, GODFREY advised he never said that, and furthermore, he was probably home with his wife at that time. Agent WILSON advised Mr. WEBB that in view of the fact that the words "shacked up" were in quotation marks, he was positive that GODFREY had stated it just like that. Agent WILSON further advised that during this initial interview, GODFREY indicated that he would be willing to take a polygraph examination. Agent WILSON intended to ask GODFREY about his alibi during this polygraph examination, and thus during the initial interview, no further questions regarding the identity of the female party were asked.

WEBB inquired of Agent WILSON his thoughts and opinions on RAY GODFREY. Agent WILSON stated that GODFREY seemed to be an upstanding citizen in the community, and most of the people who knew him thought highly of GODFREY. However, in view of GODFREY's refusal to take a polygraph examination, Agent WILSON was not able to make any determination as to whether or not GODFREY was telling the truth.

The next line of questioning was regarding the bar where the alleged conspiracy transpired. WEBB inquired as to how Agent WILSON was able to establish who owned the bar during the pertinent time. Agent WILSON advised he had reviewed the records of the Atlanta Police Department Liquor Control and had used these records to show who owned the bar during what period of time. Agent WILSON further advised that he had contacted the widow of PETE DAVIS and established from her that her husband owned the bar during the pertinent time. DAVIS advised that her husband had since died. DAVIS further stated that she could not recall if there were any records of the bar in existence at this time. WEBB further inquired if a list of patrons was ever obtained. Agent WILSON advised that it was almost impossible to obtain a list of employees, let alone a list of patrons. Agent WILSON stated that some of the employees, who were working at the bar during the pertinent time, were contacted and interviewed; however, none of the employees could remember the alleged incident.

WEBB also inquired into the investigation surrounding the attempt to identify the well-dressed individual whom LEON POWELL claimed contacted him. Agent WILSON stated that to the best of his recollection, no one in the bar, other than a female employee named DIANE BRADY, could remember a well-dressed individual ever coming into Bill Bailey's Bar. DIANE BRADY was contacted and shown the composite picture that LEON POWELL had made up. BRADY advised that to the best of her recollection, this was not the individual she remembered as the well-dressed individual who went into Bill Bailey's Bar. BRADY was contacted numerous times; however, she was never able to provide any clues as to the identity of this well-dressed individual who used to give her $50 tips at Bill Bailey's Bar.

WEBB now delved into Agent WILSON's opinion of CLAUDE and LEON POWELL. WEBB wanted to know Agent WILSON's opinion of why CLAUDE and LEON POWELL would stick with this assassination conspiracy theory. Agent WILSON advised that if he knew that answer, the investigation could be concluded one way or another. Agent WILSON stated that he had contacted LEON POWELL numerous times and had advised LEON POWELL of the penalty for providing false information. LEON POWELL continued to stick with this conspiracy story. Agent WILSON advised Mr. WEBB of CLAUDE POWELL's wife's opinion regarding this story. Mrs. POWELL advised that both CLAUDE and his brother LEON liked to drink, and while they were under the influence of alcohol, had a lively imagination. Mrs. POWELL stated that she would never believe LEON POWELL. WEBB advised that CLAUDE POWELL was now refusing to cooperate with the Committee any further. WEBB was currently considering bringing contempt charges against CLAUDE POWELL. WEBB asked Agent WILSON's opinion regarding the refusal of CLAUDE POWELL to cooperate. Agent WILSON advised that he had no idea why CLAUDE POWELL would refuse to cooperate any further. Agent WILSON stated that during his investigation, he found it very difficult to contact either CLAUDE or LEON POWELL. Messages were left numerous times at their residences, and neither one responded. However, as to the reason for these actions, Agent WILSON was unable to give an opinion.

WEBB advised that GODFREY now denies going into Bill Bailey's Bar after 1965 or 1966. GODFREY told the Committee that he had given up his drinking either in 1965 or 1966. WEBB wanted to know who would be in the best position to verify this claim. Agent WILSON advised that an individual named BILL LOWERY, who was a manager of SINGER's and who handled RAY GODFREY for a while, seemed to know a lot about the personal life of RAY GODFREY. The Committee could contact him or GODFREY's brothers regarding GODFREY's drinking habits.

WEBB stated that his Committee has the ability to call people to testify under oath, and has two investigators working for them, one of whom is a former Atlanta police officer. WEBB asked Agent WILSON in view of these abilities of the Committee if Agent WILSON had any names of individuals whom he would like to see the Committee interrogate.

Agent WILSON stated that he would continue to mull over in his mind his investigation of the allegations made by CLAUDE and LEON POWELL and the resulting investigation. Mr. WEBB stated that if Agent WILSON had any further thoughts regarding this investigation, he could contact Mr. WEBB at telephone number 202-225-9713.
