SUBJECT: MURKIN

RE: ERIC STARVO GALT

On 4-16-68, FERN TRUCKENMILLER, 1247 Vine St., ^{ABILENE, TEXAS} advised that she has worked closely with her brother-in-law GLEN E. DUGAN 1247 Vine St., as amateur ^{and} Genealogist's in the study of decendants in their repective family. She advised that all of the records such as they maintain are in the hands of MR. DUGAN who could best furnish the data concerning same.

On 4-16-68, GLEN E. DUGAN, 1247 Vine St., advised that thier studies of family decendants reflects the name of GAULT and GAUT in the early histories of the family. He went on to state that his family originated in Scotland and migrated to this country in the early 1800s. He stated that his last trace of the family shows then to be in Pennsylvania. He advised that nowhere in his checking has he found the name to be GALT but always GAULT or GAUT. He stated that the names of ERIC and STARVO are completely foreign to him and in no instance can he find them entering into the family name.

He advised that the only information he has on the GALT family is the private publication "The GALT Famalies Notes on their Origin and their History with Genealogical Lists by HOWARD SPILMAN GALT, DL Ed D. Dept. of Ed. Yenchung University, Peping, China and Printed by the Sheffield Print Shop Yenchung University, Peping".

MR. DUGAN, advised that as near as he can tell this publication was made in about 1936 and there has since no doubt been at least two generations of GALT, which makes the information in this printing somewhat obsolete.

MR. DUGAN, advised that it is his belief that the name of GALT appeared in Denmark back in 1397 and there followed a migration to Scotland and thence to America. He stated that it is his belief that some of the individuals being unable to spell their name or through misunderstanding in recordings of the name the names of GAULT and GAUT appeared.

MR. DUGAN pointed out that the most recent source of information on the name in question is through the records of the Library of Congress, Local History and Genealogy Section, Washington, D. C. and the "Latter Day Saints," Library of the Mormon Church, Salt Lake City, Utah.

DATE: 4/17/68

FROM : SPC CLINTON B. BROWN

SUBJECT: ERIC STARVO GALT;
ASSASSINATION OF DR. MARTIN
CR.

On 4/17/68, at app. 11:15 PM, an anonymous caller advised he was in the VILLA FONTANA, 1315 Skiles, Dallas, approximately 11:00 PM, and observed an individual whom he believed to be possibly identical with ERIC STARVO GALT. The caller observed photos of GALT on 10:00 PM newscast.

Caller stated the Fontana was a "queer" joint, and he would not give his name because of his affiliation with the people who frequent the Fontana.

The caller did not sound drunk, although he appeared to be nervous throughout the call. The caller terminated the call before descriptive data of the suspect could be obtained.

ASAC MOBRE, SA HOLLOMAN, and SA SHERMAN advised of the above.

DL 44-2649

Mr. DUGAN advised that as near as he can tell this publication was made in about 1936 and there has since, no doubt, been at least two generations of GALT, which makes the information in this printing somewhat obsolete.

Mr. DUGAN advised that it is his belief that the name of GALT appeared in Denmark back in 1397 and there followed a migration to Scotland and thence to America. He stated that it is his belief that some of the individuals being unable to spell their name or through misunderstanding in recordings of the name, the names of GAULT and CAUT appeared.

Mr. DUGAN pointed out that the most recent source of information on the name in question is through the records of the Library of Congress, Local History and Genealogy Section, Washington, D.C., and the Latter Day Saints, Library of the Mormon Church, Salt Lake City, Utah.

TO : SAC, DALLAS (44-2649)

DATE: 4/18/68

FROM : SA WILLIAM B. HOLLOMAN

SUBJECT: MURKIN

Re Memo of SPC CLINTON B. BROWN, 4/17/68, re an anonymous telephone call from person at Villa Fontana bar who stated that a person possibly identical with ERIC GALT was in that bar.

SAs WILLIAM B. HOLLOMAN and JAMES SHERMAN went immediately to the Villa Fontana, arriving there about 11:40 pm. There were about 30 to 40 persons in the bar at that time and most of them had homosexual characteristics. Each of the persons in the bar was viewed by the Agents and none was found who resembled the photograph of GALT.

RON HEMBY, bartender, was shown a photograph of GALT and was questioned whether he had seen this person in the bar that evening or at any time. HEMBY stated that he looks carefully at all persons entering the bar because it caters to homosexuals and he is careful about the persons entering to avoid any police trouble. He said he is absolutely sure that GALT had not been in the bar that evening, and in fact he had never seen GALT.

It is recommended no further investigation re this anonymous call be conducted.

CHARGED — The FBI Wednesday released this photo of the man it identified as Eric Starvo Galt, who is charged with the Memphis slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King.

Eric Galt, Brother Named in Complaint

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Mysterious Eric Starvo Galt, graduate of a Hollywood bartender school, was charged Wednesday night with murder and conspiracy—with one other man—in the April 4 sniper killing of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Nobel prize winning minister.

A state warrant charging first degree murder was issued in Memphis after the FBI charged that Galt and a man supposedly Galt's brother conspired in the assassination.

King, 39, was shot to death on the second floor balcony of a Memphis motel the day after he returned to lead garbage workers in another march.

Capital Crime

Murder is a capital crime in Tennessee.

The FBI complaint charges that Galt, a white man who has been hunted for a week, entered into a conspiracy about March 29 in Birmingham, Ala., with a man who Galt claimed was his brother. The FBI warrant was issued in Birmingham.

There was no indication that other persons would be charged with conspiracy, nor was the second man who Galt said was his brother identified or charged.

A Memphis witness said an FBI photo of the wanted man does not resemble the man who fled the scene after the shooting.

Not Same Man

"Unless he was wearing a wig or had had a face lift or something, it's not the man I saw," said Charles Q. Stevens, a resident of the Main Street rooming house from which the sniper was believed to have shot King.

"The hair is too full and the face is too young," said Stevens. He said he only got a side view of the fleeing man,

~~The FBI did not indicate~~ when the photograph was made, but a source said it was taken within the past three months.

In Birmingham, Galt's landlord for six weeks last fall, Peter Cherpes, told the Associated Press that the FBI photo might be a picture of Galt. "It's very near, but I'm not sure," said Cherpes. He remembered his boarder's hair being much lighter. The FBI description said, "Galt has brown hair."

Drawing Identified

The AP reported Monday that Cherpes had identified FBI drawings as the Eric Galt who had lived at the Birmingham rooming house from Aug. 26 to Oct. 7, 1967.

An Atlanta taxicab driver said an FBI picture he identified as a two-block fare the night after the slaying was different from the one released Wednesday. "That is definitely not the man I picked up," the cab driver said.

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, who went to Memphis after the slaying of the civil rights leader, announced in a statement released by the FBI that Galt was being sought as a fugitive on the charge of conspiring to injure, oppress, threaten or intimidate King in the exercise of a federal right, "namely, the right to freely travel from state to state."

Police director Frank C. Holloman of Memphis said a state warrant would be drawn for Galt as soon as practicable.

~~The FBI declined to comment~~ on whether there might be an early arrest or if the filing of the charge and release of information indicated little headway was being made in finding Galt.

It was the first disclosure that authorities had evidence of a conspiracy in King's slaying. An early statement by Clark referred to "one man on the run," though this was dropped from a later statement.

FBI director J. Edgar Hoover said in the Wednesday release that Galt bought a rifle in Birmingham about March 30. Only a few weeks before, the statement said, Galt had graduated from a school of bartending in Los Angeles.

Galt had told acquaintances in Birmingham that he worked in shipyards or on ships, and on a driver's license application he put "merchant seaman, unemployed."

In Hollywood, director Tomas Reyes Lau of the International School of Bartending, said Galt graduated March 2 and disappeared after refusing a job. Lau said Galt was an excellent student.

"He never said anything about Negroes," Lau said. There were no Negroes in the class. King, a Negro, was in Memphis to aid striking garbage workers, most of them Negroes.

The FBI said Galt also was known as "Harvey Lowmyer and John Willard." The assassin registered under the latter name.

The FBI statement said that Galt, on or about March 30, bought a rifle at Birmingham. The bureau did not say specifically that this was the rifle that killed King.

But the statemen said, "a 30.06 rifle equipped with a telescopic sight was found near a rooming house on South Main Street in Memphis immediately after the fatal shooting of Dr. King occurred." The rooming house overlooks the Lorraine Hotel and Motel where King was staying.

Eric Galt Charged With King Conspiracy

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — The FBI charged Eric Starvo Galt Wednesday with conspiracy in the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Joe Gamble, special agent in charge of the FBI office at Birmingham, said he issued the complaint Wednesday.

Gamble declined to comment on whether the FBI considered itself closer to an arrest than before Galt was officially named in the case.

The FBI had named Galt in a lookout bulletin for Galt last week in Florida but withdrew the bulletin four hours later, saying it had been released in error.

The charging of Galt was first announced Wednesday by the FBI in Washington.

In the first official mention of a conspiracy in connection with the April 4 assassination of Dr. King in Memphis, the FBI said the alleged plot involved also a man Galt described as his brother.

And the FBI issued a photograph which it identified as being one of Galt, "also known as Harvey Lowmyer and John Wilard."

The FBI said a warrant was issued in Birmingham, Ala., Wednesday on the basis of an FBI complaint which charged that Galt "and an individual whom he alleged to be his brother, entered into a conspiracy" which began around March 29 at Birmingham and ended about April 5 to "injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate Martin Luther King Jr."

Galt was charged with conspiring to violate King's civil rights.

An FBI statement said Galt has given his date of birth as July 20, 1931, has brown hair, wears his hair in a brush cut, reportedly has blue eyes, a straight narrow nose, is between 5-foot-8 and 5-foot-11 and weighs between 160 and 175 pounds.

The FBI said "the fugitive is said to have a nervous habit of occasionally pulling at an ear lobe with his left hand. His left ear protrudes farther from his head than his right ear."

The FBI statement said that Galt, on or about March 30, bought a rifle at Birmingham. The bureau did not say specifically that this was the rifle that killed King.

But the statement said, "a 30.06 rifle equipped with a telescopic site was found near a rooming house on South Main Street in Memphis immediately after the fatal shooting of Dr. King occurred." The rooming house overlooks the Lorraine Hotel and Motel where King was staying.

FBI agents have determined that the rifle was purchased from a Birmingham gun dealer March 30. The sight also was said to have been bought from the same dealer, whom the FBI did not identify.

The FBI said Galt owns a 1966 white Mustang with Alabama license plates which was found abandoned in Atlanta, Ga., April 11. It was bought from a private citizen in Birmingham last Aug. 30.

The car's odometer showed it had been driven more than 19,000 miles between late August 1967 and early April 1968.

The FBI said "Galt's travel in the Mustang included trips to Los Angeles, Calif., New Orleans, La., Birmingham, Ala., and Mexico as well as to Memphis, Tenn., and Atlanta, Ga. Galt was reported to have been in Memphis on April 3 and 4, 1968, and to have departed from there for Atlanta."

The FBI said also its investigation had disclosed these facts:

—Galt has claimed to have been employed as a cook on Mississippi River vessels and as a merchant seaman.

—He is said to be an avid dancer and took dancing lessons in New Orleans in 1964 and 1965, in Birmingham during September and October 1967 and in Long Beach, Calif., from December 1967 to February 1968.

—Galt left Los Angeles last Dec. 15 and drove his Mustang to New Orleans where he claimed he contacted either an engineering or a contracting firm. He left there Dec. 19 and arrived in Los Angeles Dec. 21.

—While in the Los Angeles area early this year, Galt took a course at a bartending school and was graduated March 2.

An FBI description of Galt said persons who have met him "describe him as a loner and state his language and diction have a rural quality and suggest that he probably does not have a high degree of education. He is said to drink alcoholic beverages and has a preference for vodka and beer. He is a fan of Western and country music."

The bureau warned that "Galt should be considered armed and dangerous," and any information concerning him should be furnished immediately to the FBI.

The FBI gave no further identification of the man Galt has alleged to be his brother, would not say where it obtained the photograph, and would not disclose in what connection Galt used the Lowmyer alias.

SUBJECT: MURKIN

Re memo of SPC JOHNNY D. HARRIS 4/18/68 concerning telephone call from JOHN CHAMBERS. CHAMBERS had stated he had seen a person who could match the description of ERIC GALT at a washateria across the street from the Lakeland Country Club on the evening of 4/17/68.

On the morning of 4/18/68 a survey was made of the area surrounding the Laund-O-Rama, a coin laundry in the Lakewood shopping center. No car fitting the description of that given by CHAMBERS was located.

On 4/18/68 CHAMBERS was contacted by SA HOLLOMAN at his residence, Apt. 309, 4515 Live Oak. He stated that he originally saw a photograph of GALT on television but has since seen the photograph in the newspapers. He said after seeing the photograph in the papers he has decided that the person he saw does not closely resemble GALT and appeared to be about 10 years older than GALT. He said he noticed this man primarily because he was in a car from Alabama and the car had what appeared to be a bullet hole in the windshield.
