Mrs. HARRIET M. STEELE, 5610 Royal Palm Apartment 71, Houston, telephone 643-6044, advised this afternoon that her car has been missing since 4/1/66 and she believes the person who has her car is identical with an individual she met one day last January at the First Unitarian Church located at Fannin and Southmore in Houston. She said this individual she met appears to be identical with ERIC STARVO GALT. She stated this individual whose name she does not know approached her at the church and attempted to be more than just friendly. She stated, in fact, he tried to lure her out into the church parking lot by stating he had her car. She stated she broke away from this individual and has not seen or heard of him since. She stated she suspects this individual is the one that has her car because when she was talking to him at the church she could tell from his conversation that he was connected in some way with her ex-psychiatrist, HOWARD G. CROW. Mrs. STEELE went on to say that her ex-husband, EUGENE R. STEELE who is a chemist for Diamond Alkali Company, Deerpark, Texas, had her committed to the Austin State Hospital for the mentally ill in August, 1967 and she was released from this hospital in October, 1967. With respect to her automobile that is missing, she said that on April 1, 1968 she had gone into the Methodist Hospital after parking her car in the vicinity of the hospital, and when she came out, it was not there. She stated she has not reported her car missing to the PD for fear that if she did she would be harmed by the individual she met at the church in January. Mrs. STEELE was unable to state why she thought this individual would want to harm her other than the fact that he was working for the psychiatrist who in turn was working for her ex-husband who was out to "get her" for some unknown reason.

Mrs. STEELE was advised to report her missing car to the Houston Police Department.

Office indices negative on Mrs. STEELE.

Memorandum

TO : FILE 44-1509

FROM : SUPV. FRANK E. ROOKS, JR.

SUBJECT: MURKIN

DATE: 4/18/68

On 4/18/68, an anonymous caller advised Complaint Clerk KEN PAUL he was at the Hobby Airport and had just observed a man who he felt might possibly be identical with subject GALT. He said this person went to the Continental Airlines desk and he was overheard to mention Flight 153 which was to depart in the next 15 minutes for San Antonio. The person mentioned above called Mr. PAUL at about 10:15. The caller said only that the suspect was wearing a mustache and appeared to have some Latin American characteristics and was possibly accompanied by another individual who definitely was a Latin American. Before any further information could be obtained, the caller hung up.

I immediately called SAC COLE at San Antonio and apprised him of the above and he said he would have appropriate inquiry made at the airport in San Antonio. He was informed Flight 153 departed Houston at 10:30 AM and was to arrive at San Antonio at 11:16 AM.

On 4/18/68, SAC COLE advised he had Agents meet the flight and they observed two Latin males leave the plane, both of whom were wearing mustaches, but neither of whom even resembled the description or photograph of subject GALT. He said no approach was made to these two persons since there appeared to be no basis for pursuing this inquiry further.

The above is being submitted for record.

PAT MC LAUGHLIN, 1535 Chantilly, Houston, called this afternoon and advised that the Sunday after MARTIN LUTHER KING was shot, he noticed an individual walking east on 43rd. Street in front of the Oak Forest State Bank at about 7:30 AM, who closely resembled ERIC STARVO GALT. He stated his attention was drawn to this man because he was wearing two-tone alligator shoes which appeared to him to be completely out of place for that time of year. He stated the man was neatly dressed in blue trousers and a gray sport shirt. He stated the man had an athletic build and was suntanned. His hair was described as golden.

MC LAUGHLIN is a teacher at Fonville Elementary School.

CHARLES F. YOUNG, 1108 Bomar, Houston, JA 8-0128, appeared at the office this morning at 10:15 a.m. He advised he is a baker and cook by trade and is presently "between jobs." Mr. YOUNG stated in November, 1966, he attended a ten-day class in bakery decorating at the Wilton School of Decorating, Chicago, Illinois. He stated at the conclusion of this course a group photograph which is enclosed with this memo was taken of the people attending this class. Mr. YOUNG stated that he has not looked at this photograph in over a year; however, last night it suddenly came to him that one of the members of this class closely resembles ERIC STARVO GALT. He stated the man resembling GALT is located in the photograph on the back row, the sixth man from the left. He stated this man whose name he does not recall and the man on the far right on the back row were from Memphis, Tennessee and both of them worked for the city of Memphis in either the Health Department or Sanitation Department. They were driving a station wagon possibly a Rambler, year unknown. Mr. YOUNG stated they were "smart-aleck" in class and were called down by the instructor several times for their joking in class. He stated the man who looks like GALT had a "hicky voice", by that YOUNG meant he had a Southern drawl. Also, the man who looks like GALT was supposedly separated from his wife at the time and she was living in Fort Smith, Arkansas. YOUNG stated Chicago had experienced a race riot shortly before he went to Chicago and one day they were discussing this when the man who looked like GALT made the comment "We don't let it happen in Memphis" or words to that effect.

Mr. YOUNG is unable to identify by name most of the people in the photograph; however, the man standing next to him in the photograph is WESLEY WILTON, who was an instructor at the school, and his brother, name unknown, is operating the school. The man to WILTON'S right was working at a country club in Chicago. The man to his right worked in a hospital on the East Coast. The man on the left of the man who resembles GALT is believed to be an operator of a donut and bakery shop in New Jersey. The young man without the coat, second from the right, was the WILTON'S School delivery boy. The woman on the far left side of the photograph was the instructor of this particular class, and her name is believed to be ELLISON or ELLISOR; and she is believed to have a bakery in Phoenix, Arizona. The woman next to Mrs. ELLISOR is from San Diego, California. The woman next to her is believed to be from Minnesota or Wisconsin and attended the class on a scholarship which she had won in a contest. The Spanish-looking woman third from the right is from Houston and was working for a bakery in Pasadena, which is located on Southmore Street. It is a big bakery and the only one of its kind in Pasadena.

Mr. YOUNG stated he did not get acquainted to well with the other members of the class because the class was actually too large for what they were teaching. He stated he does not know where the two Memphis men were living while they were attending the class, nor how they spent their time after class. He stated one thing that does stick out in his mind concerning these men is the fact that they were the only two who did not clean up their work area after class. Mr. YOUNG requested that this photograph be returned to him when it is no longer needed by this office.
