MADE IN U.S.A.

One upon a time
there was a kind shoemaker who worked very hard
and was very honest
but he could not seem to make enough money to take care of his wife and himself.
One day he found

Then one night, instead of material for shoes, the shoemaker and his wife put on the table

finish the shoes
which he had cut
out the night before. Again, he found that the shoes were finished. They were even more beautiful than the ones before.
The stitches were
so tiny that it

As soon as the clock struck midnight, in came two jagged tiny elves; they jumped
on the shoemaker's

for the better.
In the morning
after breakfast,
the shoemaker went
to his table to

The shoemaker and his wife decided that they owed so much to the little men
that they should do something in return.

They had spent
very much for some time about
the matter in which the shoes were made, but they were afraid to investigate for fear that it would stop
but they were so grateful they agreed
