The figure illustrates the experimental design through a series of steps. It begins with a 'Stimulus' phase showing a 3x3 grid of dots. This is followed by a 'Response' phase where one dot is missing from the grid. The 'Feedback' phase shows the same 3x3 grid with one dot missing. The process then repeats for 'Trial 2' and 'Trial 3', each starting with a new stimulus and followed by a response and feedback phase. The sequence ends with a 'Final' phase showing a 3x3 grid of dots.

MARTIN LUTHER KING....AT COMMUNIST TRAINING SCHOOL

The above picture was made by an employee of the State of Georgia, at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee during the Labor Day week-end of 1957. The photographer was sent to the Highlander Folk School by the Georgia Commission on Education. The Highlander Folk School was abolished by an act of the Legislature of the State of Tennessee at a later date because it was charged with being a subversive organization.

Those numbered in the picture are:

1. Martin Luther King, Jr., of the Montgomery boycott and the Birmingham riots. Karl Prussion, a counterspy for the FBI for twenty-two years, charges that Martin Luther King belongs to sixty Communist-front organizations — more than any Communist in the United States. He is promoted and encouraged by the Kennedys.
2. Abner W. Berry of the Central Committee of the Communist Party.
3. Aubrey Williams, President of the Southern Conference Education Fund, Inc., The Transmission Belt in the South for the Communist Party.
4. Myles Horton, Director of Highlander Folk School for Communist Training, Monteagle, Tennessee.

These "Four Horsemen" of racial agitation have brought tension, disturbance, strife and violence in their advancement of the Communist doctrine of "racial nationalism."

Rev. King is the hero. I am the one that got hurt—a real American.

SELMA AND VICINITY

Outside Selma, Alabama, but in the same county (Dallas), there is an enormous plantation - the Minter plantation - which stretches for miles and miles along the highway and the county roads. This is one of the plantations which existed back in the days of slavery; it has passed on to succeeding generations of Minters. A large number of Minter tenants are now suffering because Mr. Minter has not liked their participation in the freedom movement.

Mrs. Bertha Lee Perkins, pictured above with her husband and five of her 13 children, participated in the Selma marches at the time of the Pettus Bridge bloodings, and spent time in jail. Her family is one of those whom Mr. Minter will be evicting after the deadline of December 31.

Mrs. Pearl Moorner, second from the right in the back row, has participated in many phases of the struggle. She is a central figure in the Minter plantation group of tenant farmers which has been receiving Operation Freedom aid during the past year. On Mrs. Moorner's right is Arthur Brown who has spent his life on this plantation and who picks cotton by feeling for it, as he lost the sight of one eye years ago, and has nearly lost the sight of the other. Piles of cotton can be seen in front. Mr. Brown and the Moorers are among those who face eviction on December 31.

This is the Moorner family (two children are away at school). Mrs. Moorner is at the left of the truck's tailgate, and her husband, Mr. Will Moorner, is at the right. The sign on the back of their truck says "Vote Independent," a very unpopular sign with the white landowners who not only are seeing Negroes go to the polls and vote but are seeing them campaign for office against the party machines. The three boys in the truck attend the formerly all-white elementary school.

Pictured above are the nine children who are attending the formerly all-white schools in Wilcox County, outside Selma. Sherryl Threadgill (who lives in Camden) is standing second from the right in the back row. She was struck a hard blow on the nose by a white boy at school. Fearing her nose had been broken, her parents took her to Selma for an examination. Fortunately it was not broken. Sherryl returned to Camden undaunted and more determined than before to remain in school. Seated on the car to her left is her father, Rev. Thomas Threadgill. At the extreme left is Albert Gordon, who drives the children to and from school, since busses for white children refuse to pick up Negroes.

"Yankee"

MRS. VICTORIA A. CRAIG, SENATOR FROM PENNSYLVANIA
Mrs. Victoria A. Craig, Christian States Senator representing Pennsylvania, has been called a modern Joan of Arc, because of her struggles to save Christian America. Although a dedicated right-wing patriot, she knows most of the leading politicians. John F. Kennedy and Robert Kennedy, friends. Ted is also. She grew up with their brother, Joseph, in Brookline, Mass. Mrs. Craig says: "Let's get together and stop the falsehoods against our true American right-wingers! The Internal Revenue penalized me because I would not stop fighting Communism within that bureau. I intend an all-out fight by my Yankee Division of American Women in all 50 States against any government official making a false charge. In my government branch. Living as we do today in this rich and mighty nation, we've become unthinking puppets controlled by automation—and in our soft selfishness we forget stern discipline, and in our pleasure seeking we no longer frown on sin. Dear God, we must rededicate our lives to you before it is too late."

MRS. VICTORIA A. CRAIG, SENATOR FROM PENNSYLVANIA
When our founding fathers finished writing the sacred documents of our Constitution, that document all our ministers of government are required to swear to uphold. Now unmistakable signs appear that we may fail to keep the form of government, Republic, which Benjamin Franklin, and others, gave the people. A new breed of self-appointed leaders is being hatched in Communist training centers and by many brainwashed instructors. They issue Ph.D's to the super brainwashed who display ability to further the moron ideology. These new hatching Ph.D's infiltrate our schools, take over instructions of journalism, theology, political science and other subjects. These super intellectuals say that everything this nation has done from its founding was a mistake. All wrong is our Constitution, Bill of Rights, the Bible, etc. They now have, thru the second generation of their breed, hundreds of newspapers, radio and tv stations thru which to conduct their campaign of education which is nothing short of super brainwashing propaganda.

In the late fall of 1965, Operation Freedom representatives met the Saulsbery family in Camden, Alabama. In retaliation for the family's participation in numerous marches, the landlord riddled their outside water pump with bullets (their only source of water), and ordered them to vacate their house.

The family then secured a piece of ground from a friend and, with money sent by Operation Freedom to purchase materials, built the house pictured above. Members of the Saulsbery family did the construction work.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

All contributions to Operation Freedom go directly to the people you are trying to help, none going to defray administrative costs.

Send your contribution to Operation Freedom, 932 Dayton Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45214

Also, if you can use additional copies of this brochure to do your own mailing to a list of friends or to enclose in a regular mailing to your own organization, please write. We can send all you need without charge.

Last spring a group of displaced families in Wilcox County, some thirty miles south of Selma, secured an acreage of land, and planted their first crop of cucumbers. A neighboring processing plant purchased all they could produce. These families look forward to the formation of a vegetable co-operative, and want to secure a larger acreage for their planting next spring. The processing plant assures them that it will buy their entire crop. Last spring, Operation Freedom made a grant to these displaced families for the purchase of seed and fertilizer.

In the above picture, Wallace Nelson (left), member of the national board of Operation Freedom, Albert Gordon (center), chairman of Wilcox County Operation Freedom committee, and Jesse M. Brooks, local farmer who is working with the group in the formation of the coop.
