He described JIMMY GALT as a white male American, 180 to 190 pounds, 5'10", and having black hair. He advised he never paid any attention to GALT's eyes. He stated he could not recall any scars on his forehead or hands. He was unable to describe the nose and made no remarks concerning the chin. He advised after seeing GALT with this roll that he decided he wanted to get to know him and to get to know where his residence was located so that he could get the money from him. He advised he intended to burglarize GALT's residence if necessary.

He advised that after talking with GALT at the bar in the Roosevelt Hotel that he eventually told GALT that he was wanted by the police. He advised that he saw GALT several times during a two or three week period. He advised that eventually GALT indicated that he also had done time but had been out for five or six years.

He described GALT as being very quiet, did not like Negro people, and seemed to enjoy gambling.

He related GALT never took him to his residence. He advised it was his belief that GALT lived either with his brother or his uncle in New Orleans, Louisiana. He advised that also in RAY's company was another woman by the name of IRENE and that he believes she might have been from Los Angeles, California, and had some connection with a bar either as an owner or a prospective purchaser.

RUSSELL related that although he met GALT in the bar at the Roosevelt Hotel, that he also saw him in a restaurant or bar across the street from the Royal Orleans Hotel and near Napoleon's Bar. He remarked that the Royal Orleans Hotel had a bar called the Touche Bar which opened after 4:00 p.m. He advised that located on a corner immediately adjacent to the Royal Orleans Hotel was Napoleon's Bar and that further down in the block was a small bar which had a large back room entirely devoted to gambling. He advised that he was in this small bar with the back room for gambling with GALT on at least one occasion and that GALT placed bets in this room with a girl named "PAT."

He stated that a city building was located across the street from the Royal Orleans Hotel and that very close to this city building was a bar called Sinatraville. He advised that the bartender or owner of this establishment would know GALT and would know RUSSELL as JIMMY ALEXANDER.

As the Bureau is aware, early in the course of this investigation, it was necessary for the Minneapolis Division to interview a WILLIAM JOSEPH LEHMEYER of 3503 Fairlawn Drive, Minnetonka, Minnesota, regarding his activity in the Birmingham and Memphis areas during the pertinent periods of this investigation. The results were set forth in Minneapolis teletype to Bureau, Birmingham and Memphis on 4/9/68. During the course of the interview with LEHMEYER, he furnished information regarding his activity in Birmingham, Alabama, on 3/27/68. He had indicated that he spent the entire day in the company of a Mr. RICHARD EVANS, the local Chairman for the Brotherhood of Railway Firemen. To confirm this, the Birmingham Division was subsequently requested to contact Mr. EVANS.

LEHMEYER, who is employed as an investigator for the law firm of DeParcq, Anderson & Pearl explained at that time that his employer has numerous clients throughout the southern part of the United States, and requested that any contacts made by this Bureau be conducted in a most circumspect manner in order to avoid disrupting the relationship that existed between the firm and its clients. He stated that indiscreet contacts could be embarrassing for the firm. He was assured at that time that the FBI handled all of its responsibilities in a mature, businesslike manner, and that there should be no cause whatsoever for any alarm on the part of he or his employer.

On Thursday, June 6, 1968, while leaving a local restaurant in downtown Minneapolis, LEHMEYER stopped me and that that he was "g-- d--- unhappy over the manner in which the Birmingham FBI agents conducted their interview with RICHARD EVANS". He claimed that EVANS was pulled off his job with little or no explanation, harassed, and "pushed around" by the Birmingham Agents. I told Mr. LEHMEYER that I found this a little hard to believe because first of all, the circumstances surrounding the interview with EVANS most certainly did not warrant any such action, and secondly, in any event, the FBI did not conduct itself in such a manner as to require as to the source of his information, and he stated that it was his client, RICHARD EVANS, in Birmingham who had complained. On Thursday, June 6, 1968, while leaving a local restaurant in downtown Minneapolis, LEHMEYER stopped me and that he was "g-d--- unhappy over the manner in which the Birmingham FBI agents conducted their interview with RICHARD EVANS". He claimed that EVANS was pulled off his job without any explanation, harassed, and "quashed around" by the Birmingham Agents. LEI told Mr. LEHMEYER that this is a little hard to believe because first of all the circumstances surrounding the interview with EVANS most likely did not warrant any such action, and secondly, any event, FBI did not conduct itself in such a manner as to cause any such information, and he stated that it was his client, RICHARD EVANS, in Birmingham who had complained. I stated that there were always two sides to a story.

to every story and that I felt sure that he must have been misinformed by EVANS because I knew that he, EVANS, had been contacted in nothing other than a mature, businesslike manner. He then stated that it was obvious to him that I considered him a "liar", and that possibly the best thing for him to do was for him to write to the Washington headquarters of the FBI and complain. I told Mr. LEHMEYER that such action was entirely within his prerogative.

Upon returning to the office, I fully intended to contact both the Bureau and Birmingham regarding this matter, but before I had a chance, LEHMEYER contacted me telephonically to state that possibly his source had been misinformed or misunderstood RICHARD EVANS. I certainly pointed out to LEHMEYER that he had stated unequivocally just a few minutes before that EVANS had made the complaint to him, LEHMEYER, directly and not that the information came from any third party. He explained that apparently I must have misunderstood him, and that in any event as far as he was concerned he considered the matter a closed issue and with that hung up.

I immediately recontacted Mr. LEHMEYER and made sure that there was no doubt in his mind regarding the true facts surrounding this alleged incident, and although quite reluctantly, he did admit that it was he who must have misunderstood or have been misinformed.

In view of the outcome, it is not felt that this incident is worthy of any further action, and is being reported merely as a matter of record.

Subsequent to the public announcement of the arrest of the King assassin, Congressman Dan H. Rostenkowski of Memphis, Tennessee, called the Bureau at 12:45 p.m. Saturday.

Congressman Rostenkowski said he had been in touch with Special Agent in Charge Jensen on this apprehension. He called the Bureau, however, because he wanted the Director to know that he was extremely proud of the work done by the FBI. He said he was issuing a statement to the press along this line. I told him his comments were very much appreciated and would be relayed to the Director.

At 9:10 p. m., 6-10-68, Assistant Attorney General Stephen J. Pollak of the Department contacted Extra-Duty Supervisor H. E. Helgeson. He started his conversation by saying he "wondered if anything had come in recently in connection with Ray from any of our offices here or abroad." He was asked if he had anything specific in mind and he said that on 6-7-68, the Attorney General had requested to be advised in writing of all developments.

He then went on to say that Mr. DeLoach had told him he was sending over a copy of a one-page cablegram from London which came in on 6-10-68, concerning Ray's appearance in court in London, but that he had not received this. He was advised that SA Helgeson was not in a position to know what information had previously been sent to the Department; however, a check would be made. He was asked again if there was any specific items of information he was particularly interested in and Pollak again replied that the Attorney General had requested any pertinent developments be furnished to him in writing. He was asked if he desired any specific action the night of 6-10-68, and he replied "Well, I'll be in my office for a while." He then went on to another topic of conversation.

Assistant Attorney General Pollak called at 11:55 a. m., 6/10/68. He stated he was sending to Al Rosen the draft affidavits in connection with the extradition proceedings. He indicated that the Solicitor's representative from Tennessee, who is now in England, must have affidavits from the FBI in connection with this matter. Pollak stated that such requests will be held to those individuals necessary to prove probable cause.

Pollak asked if we had received any cablegrams, airtels or teletypes from our Legal Attache in London. I told him we had received one brief cablegram simply reporting the results of the Magistrate Court hearing held at 10:30 a. m., 6/10/68. Pollak stated that he would appreciate the FBI sending a copy of the cablegram to him just so he could tell the Attorney General he had received communications from the FBI. I told him we had no objections to this and would send him a copy of the cablegram in question. I added that the cablegram, however, would simply be duplicative of information already in his possession.

Assistant Attorney General Stephen J. Pollak, Civil Rights Division, called and stated he had been reviewing reports very carefully which had been submitted in this case. He referred specifically to the interview at the Bushnell Company on April 5, 1968, with reference to a shipment of binoculars to the York Arms Company in Memphis. It was specifically indicated that the serial numbers had not been recorded by the firm. He said the report concerning the binoculars is important because they would like to be able to tie in more specifically the binoculars to the York Company by serial number if possible. He recognized that in this instance the Bushnell Company apparently does not record the serial numbers of their shipments. He wondered if there was any other record which might be in existence to reflect that serial numbers were recorded by the firm. I advised him this had been completely run out; that I would recheck with our Memphis Office. He would like to back up the witnesses who say the binoculars in question were sold to the subject.

Pollak wanted to know whether we were running out all allegations relating to possible conspiracy. He said the reports do not reflect any information concerning a possible conspiracy. He was advised that so far we have not been able to establish that there was any conspiracy and we have been constantly alert to this possibility. Any allegations or possible leads that might be covered to establish a conspiracy existed are being given preferred attention.

He said there were some allegations in the New York Times about persons who might have known or been in contact with Ray when he was in Canada. I advised him that such allegations are also being run out. These allegations refer to a Chinese woman who says a fat man was in contact with the subject, to a Negro go-go girl, to waiters, etc. The Legat at Ottawa has been furnished this information for immediate attention.

Memorandum to Mr. DeLoach
Re: MURKIN

Pollak mentioned that he would like to be able to have experts identify the photograph of James Earl Ray which depicts Ray with his eyes closed (photograph which Bureau artists drew in eyes later) with a known photograph of Ray. He particularly mentioned the Missouri State fingerprint card taken of Ray back in 1960. He said this would be helpful in supporting any affidavits of identification which might have been based upon looking at the photograph which the Bureau disseminated of Ray. He said that if our experts could state that the photograph which the Bureau disseminated was the same individual who appears in the Missouri prison print, this might be introduced as evidence from an expert witness showing that the picture was identical with a known photograph of Ray.

This matter has been referred to the Laboratory and Exhibits Section of the Administrative Division for consideration.

The Department has prepared drafts of affidavits for execution by certain individuals. We have previously been furnished these drafts on June 10, 1968, and they were called to your attention. Two individuals mentioned, namely, Charles Quitman Stephens, who resides in Memphis, Tennessee, has been out of pocket and he has not been located as yet. They are continuing to look for him so the Department may contact him for the purpose of getting him to sign the affidavits which they have prepared. Stephens is the individual who saw a side view of the subject when he resided in the rooming house in Memphis. This was the rooming house from which the subject fired at King.

We are also looking for John Webster ~~Deshazo~~, who was a customer at the Aeromarine Supply Company in Birmingham, Alabama, where the gun was purchased. He identified a photograph of the subject as the person who purchased the gun. ~~Deshazo~~ is on vacation in ~~Colorado~~. We are presently looking for him.

This is the case involving the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Assistant Attorney General Stephen J. Pollak, Civil Rights Division of the Department, called at approximately 3:50 p. m., and advised the Department had a package of papers they desired to make arrangements to have delivered to London tonight on the 8 p. m., TWA Flight 704 leaving from Dulles Airport. It is noted this flight arrives in London at 8:05 a. m., London time, at Heathrow Airport. Pollak advised he understood from Assistant Attorney General Vinson, who is in London, that the Bureau on occasion with some of its criminal cases had been able to make arrangements with pilots for expeditious carrying of such packages in emergency instances.

An attempt was made to reach Pollak at 4:15 p. m., concerning this matter to let him know the Bureau would make arrangements for delivery of the package. At 5:25 p. m., Bob Owen of the Civil Rights Division of the Department finally advised they did desire help from the Bureau in getting papers concerning the extradition of Ray to Dulles Airport. Nathan Lewin of the Department advised the material that was to be delivered to London should be picked up at the office of Mr. Mark Feldman, Assistant Legal Adviser, Room 5423, Main State Department Building, Code 182, Extension 5066.

In addition, Assistant Attorney General Pollak advised that he had been in touch with Mr. Vinson in London and Vinson was aware this material would be sent over tonight and that it was being taken to the pilot of the TWA plane who would deliver it to a Bureau representative in London and then made available to Vinson.

ACTION:

Arrangements were made with ASAC McDermott, Washington Field Office, for the package to be obtained at the State Department and delivered to Dulles Airport for transmittal to London.

Legat Minnich, London, advised 8:10 p. m., 6-11-68, and will handle.
