James Squires, Assistant Editor, "Nashville Tennessean," who in the past has been interested in the Warren Commission Report on the Kennedy assassination, advised he is covering the trial of James Earl Ray at Memphis, Tennessee.

Squires advised that he recently received a telephone call from Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, and the caller identified himself as Donald Steward Appell, an investigator, employed by one Richard "Dick" Giesbrecht. According to Squires, Giesbrecht is under the opinion that "Raoul" is identical with a blond Latin seaman that Giesbrecht had overheard discussing the Kennedy assassination in 1964. It is noted that President Kennedy was assassinated in November of 1963 and the conversation was overheard in 1964.

A copy of the communication received from Memphis regarding James Squires is enclosed for the information of Legat, Ottawa.

Bureau files indicate that an article appears in the 1-28-68, issue of the "National Enquirer" newspaper entitled "Suppressed JFK Evidence" relating to information furnished by one Richard Giesbrecht. The "National Enquirer" is a well-known, sex-type newspaper. It is totally unreliable and is known to feature wild sensational stories. The article that appeared in the "National Enquirer" is no exception to this.

The article reports that Richard Giesbrecht, a Canadian insurance salesman, claims to have overheard a conversation in 1964 which proves Lee Harvey Oswald had not acted alone in the Kennedy assassination. Bureau files further disclose that on 2-27-64, Giesbrecht informed one of our Agents that while he was in a bar in the International Airport in Winnipeg, Canada, on 2-13-64, he overheard a conversation between two unknown individuals concerning the Kennedy assassination. The information as provided by Giesbrecht was included in a report which was disseminated to the Warren Commission. Logical investigation by the Bureau disproved numerous parts of Giesbrecht's allegation and failed to confirm verifiable portions of his story.

Bureau's investigation subsequently indicated that Giesbrecht was attempting to sell his story to a radio station in North Dakota. Giesbrecht stated to his radio station that he felt the story he has to sell would be buried by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP), and that the Canadian papers were not big enough to handle it. Personnel at the radio station described Giesbrecht as a beer-drinking type, childlike and one who felt he could possibly obtain some money from his story. Investigation in Canada disclosed Giesbrecht had an arrest record for robbery and theft in 1951 and for possible assault in 1954.

Legat, Ottawa should furnish this information to the RCMP for appropriate check to determine what they can furnish us regarding this matter.

Legat, Ottawa should forward to the Bureau any additional RCMP investigative results relative to the female employed by the Canadian Government that James Earl Ray allegedly consorted with.

Legat, Ottawa should also request the RCMP to furnish us any information they have recently developed concerning Jules Rocco Kimble.

SYNOPSIS:

This is the case involving the murder of Martin Luther King, Jr.

James Squires, Assistant Editor, "Nashville Tennessean," who in the past has been interested in the Warren Commission Report on the Kennedy assassination, advised he is covering the trial of James Earl Ray at Memphis. Squires received a telephone call from Canada and caller identified himself as Donald Stewart Appell, an investigator employed by one Richard "Dick" Giesbrecht. Appell asked questions of Squires concerning the particular aspect of James Earl Ray being approached in Montreal, Canada, by individual named "Raoul." Recent issue of "Look" Magazine carried an account of an individual by the name of "Raoul" in which Ray and "Raoul" were endeavoring to make some type of deal concerning a "joint activity" for which "Raoul" would pay Ray $12,000. Activity not fully described but Ray was to transport packages between United States and Canada, and possibility exists that packages could contain contraband such as narcotics. Appell advised that Giesbrecht of opinion that "Raoul" is identical with a blond, Latin seaman that Giesbrecht had heard discussing the Kennedy assassination (conversation overheard in 1964). We previously had this information concerning the Kennedy assassination and logical investigation disproved numerous parts of Giesbrecht's allegation and failed to confirm verifiable portions of story. RE: MURKIN

DETAILS: This is the case involving the murder of Martin Luther King, Jr.

James Squires, Assistant Editor, "Nashville Tennessean," who in the past has been interested in the Warren Commission Report on the Kennedy assassination, advised he is covering the trial of James Earl Ray at Memphis and has done some research in connection with the Ray matter (nature of research not provided).

Squires advised that he recently received a telephone call from Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, and the caller identified himself as Donald Stewart Appell, an investigator employed by one Richard "Dick" Giesbrecht. According to Squires, Appell began asking questions concerning James Earl Ray particularly the aspect of Ray being approached by a blond, Latin man in Montreal, Canada, named "Raoul."

It is noted that the recent issue of "Look" Magazine carried an article authored by William Bradford Huie and the article in part contains an account of an individual by the name of "Raoul." This individual and Ray, according to the article were endeavoring to make some type of deal concerning a "joint activity" for which "Raoul" would pay Ray $12,000. The specific nature of the "joint activity" is not fully described or identified but Ray was to transport packages (not further described) between the United States and Canada. The possibility exists that the packages could contain contraband, such as narcotics. No mention is made here of "Raoul" providing Ray with funds which would implicate "Raoul" in a conspiracy in the King assassination; however, Huie infers that a conspiracy exists.

Appell further related to Squires that Giesbrecht is of the opinion that "Raoul" is identical with a blond, Latin seaman that Giesbrecht had heard discussing the Kennedy assassination (conversation overheard in 1964). President Kennedy assassinated in November, 1963.

Based upon available data concerning Appell, it is not possible to determine if he is identifiable in Bureau files; however, Squires stated that a few years ago he had met and interviewed an investigator for the House Committee on Unamerican Activities (HCUA) by the name of Donald Appell and he asked the Appell in Canada if he was identical with HCUA investigator and the Canadian Appell said he was not.

The memorandum discusses the need for a comprehensive security program for the CIA and the role of the FBI in this program.

The memorandum is dated 10/10/50 and is signed by J. Edgar Hoover. The subject of the memorandum is the "Security of the Central Intelligence Agency." Our checks in Canada disclosed Giesbrecht had an arrest record for robbery and theft in 1951 and for possible assault in 1954. It was obvious at that time that Giesbrecht was a publicity seeker who was trying to obtain remuneration for a wild allegation involving the Kennedy assassination and it is very possible that Giesbrecht is attempting to accomplish the same thing regarding the King assassination.

RE: JAMES EARL RAY, Aka.;
Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS - CONSPIRACY

Mr. J. Harold Flannery of the United States Department of Justice, has prepared a memorandum dated September 17, 1968, reflecting interviews on June 12, 1968, and August 22, 1968, with Mr. Bill Sartor of Greenville, Mississippi, a contract writer for "Time" magazine.

Sartor states that "Charlie Stein, a petty racketeer connected with organized crime, contacted James Earl Ray in Los Angeles and told him that there were people in New Orleans whom he ought to talk to." Sartor states he does not know whether Stein's initial contact with Ray was accidental or on purpose, but he states that "Ray was told that the people he ought to talk to would help him with money and his fugitive status." Stein's account of his involvement in this matter as well as other investigation relative to Stein is set forth in reports furnished to the Department of Justice.

Sartor tells us that Ray was in touch in New Orleans with "Mafia" representatives who referred Ray to Frank Liberto, described by Sartor as being a Memphis racketeer and a lieutenant of Carlos Marcellos, the southern Mafia chieftain in New Orleans. Sartor then related to Mr. Flannery that one John McFerren of Somerville, Tennessee, on or about the day of King's murder, heard a man say on the telephone "shoot him on the balcony, shoot him anywhere; and go to New Orleans for your money, don't come back here." Information concerning this reported incident has also been furnished to the Department of Justice.

Claude Cockrell, described by Sartor as a segregationist, extortionist, narcotics pusher, and petty racketeer, was an unsuccessful candidate for election to the U. S. House of Representatives in the election of November 5, 1968. Inquiries concerning Cockrell made among knowledgeable members of the Memphis Police Department reflect that he has been suspected of complicity in a moonshine whiskey operation and has a questionable reputation among police officers.

James Earl Ray, Aka.;
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Victim
CR - Conspiracy

Joe Cacameci and Larry Mann, identified by Sartor as professional killers, are unknown to this office. No information to date has connected these individuals with the murder of Dr. King.

According to Sartor, a young Negro boy allegedly heard a shot and saw a man jump up from the bushes behind the rooming house and below the window area from which the fatal shot is thought to have been fired. A thorough investigation was conducted in the neighborhood of this rooming house immediately after the murder and during the days immediately following the murder and no information was developed to indicate that any unidentified person was seen beneath the window from which Ray fired the fatal shot.

All of the individuals, both firemen and policemen, who were stationed in the fire house near the Lorraine Motel have been interviewed regarding the events before and after the murder, and these results have also been furnished to the Department of Justice.

Due to the tense racial situation that existed in Memphis on April 4, 1968, and because of the prominence of Dr. King, the Memphis Police Department had every reason to be in touch with persons at the Lorraine Motel in connection with the protection of Dr. King. There were police officers in and around the Lorraine Motel throughout the period that Dr. King was residing there.

Investigation is continuing relative to individual mentioned in Sartor's information.

MURKIN

William Bradford Huie, author, has written a second article for "Look" magazine concerning the travels of James Earl Ray since Ray's escape from Missouri State Penitentiary on April 23, 1967. The second article appears in November 26, 1968, issue of "Look" (circulated November 18, 1968) and alleges the involvement of an individual by the name of "Raul" in the King assassination. According to the article, Ray contacted "Raul" in New Orleans, Louisiana; Selma, Alabama; Birmingham, Alabama, and in a motel across the border in Mexico.

The following is a listing of these motels and a hotel in the respective areas in which Ray was alleged to have registered as a guest using the name Eric S. Galt or John L. Rayna.

Each division will obtain a list of the guests registered at the respective motels and hotel for a period of three days before, during, and three days after the listed period. This list should include, but not be restricted to, name, address, and identification of any vehicle used by the guests. The possibility exists that a common denominator will appear at the above in order that the identity of "Raoul" will be established.

In addition, the article sets forth that Ray stayed at an unnamed motel in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, 10-7-67. Since it is not known how many motels are located in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, the San Antonio Office should conduct the desired investigation only if feasible. Advise the Bureau and Memphis accordingly.

The Memphis Division, upon receipt of this information from the other listed divisions, will completely evaluate this information for possible identification of "Raoul." The name "Raoul" is Spanish for Ralph and it should be considered that this could be either a given name or a surname.

This is to be handled immediately and results furnished to the Bureau promptly.

NOTE:

Two articles have been written for "Look" magazine. These articles infer that an individual by the name of "Raoul" contacted Ray on several occasions and alleges that the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. ^{WAS CONSPIRACY.} ^{THIS} is not substantiated in these articles, however, we are requesting several field divisions to make inquiries at motels and hotel to determine if a common denominator exists that will be helpful in identifying "Raoul".

Memphis is being instructed to make this evaluation.
