Ray Appeals Conviction in King Murder

James Earl Ray, convicted killer of civil rights leader Martin Luther King, Jr., is before the Sparring Court yesterday to receive the law, claiming he was set up to take the rap for a crime he didn't commit.

Rogers' second wife, he was "trained" by the FBI and local police and then covered it for some attorney to place suits against his wife.

James C. Baker, the Washington attorney representing Ray, who is making the case to reverse Ray's conviction. The charge is that those who did not do so are still at large instead of part of the unwillingness of the courts to face these unrepentant killers.

The problem did not originate in the vesting of the title, known to the House after the enactment of 1914 and 1915, but in the PURPOSE: The purpose of this memorandum is to advise that Ladislas Farago, who is completing a detailed biography of J. Edgar Hoover, has requested copies of the recently released pages from the FBI's investigation of the murder of Martin Luther King for a book he plans to write lauding the Bureau's investigation of that case.

DETAILS: Captioned individual visited the Bureau today to tie together the few loose ends which remain in the research and writing of his forthcoming detailed biography regarding J. Edgar Hoover. He stated that his manuscript will be in the hands of his publisher by next month and that the book will be published next spring.

During his visit, Farago made reference to recent newspaper articles that are based upon the 442 pages from the FBI's investigation of the murder of Martin Luther King which have been released under the Freedom of Information Act. TA

He requested--and was afforded the opportunity--to peruse this material, after which he submitted a formal request, together with a check for $44.20, for copies of the 442 pages.

Mr. Farago said that his perusal of these pages convinces him they contain sufficient detailed material upon which a comparatively short book laudatory of the FBI's investigation of this murder can be written. He plans to write such a book and have it published so that it will be on the book stands by late winter or early spring of 1977.

RECOMMENDATION: For information.

Luther King, Jr. (Jim) Lesar, Requester

Per my phone conversation with you today, attached please find your copy of the April 4, 1968, request-for-information memorandum, the original request letter from Mr. Lesar, and the release recommendation memorandum, dated November 26, 1976, from the Martin Luther King, Jr. Review Task Force.

Since the Civil Rights Division's Martin Luther King, Jr. Review Task Force will ultimately be releasing a voluminous report in response to Lesar's request, the documents which you referred to the Division's FOI/PA Unit are being returned for the Bureau's direct release to the requester.

It is generally the policy of the Civil Rights Division, upon receipt of a referral of documents originating within this Division, to make the appropriate release determination and to respond directly to the requester without reference back to the Bureau. In future, please send a copy of the original request letter with any documents originating within the Civil Rights Division so that we may make the appropriate release determination and respond directly to the requester.

Thank you.
