

Honorable John Melcher

NOTE: Senator John Melcher's letter enclosed an article from "The Review of the News," a publication printed in Belmont, Massachusetts. This article discussed former King associates and their Communist connections and states that King's "public record" illustrates good reason for the FBI to have considered him "dangerous". The article is supportive of the FBI's investigation of King and criticizes the Senate Intelligence Committee, under Senator Frank Church, for refusing to release the FBI file on King and electronic surveillance results, which "proved that Martin Luther King was indeed a person of low moral character who had fallen under the control of the Communist."

In his letter, Senator Melcher believes that if electronic surveillance records existed on King they should not be kept secret and that the files and facts must be made public.

Although Senator Melcher does not request a reply, it should be pointed out to him that allegations of Communist influence on King and his associates have been investigated and that a Federal court has ruled regarding the results of our electronic surveillance of King being made public.

Delay in responding occurred because Senator Melcher's enclosure did not arrive with his original letter, and a copy of the enclosure was not provided our Congressional Liaison Unit until 4/21/77.

FROM : SAC, CINCINNATI (157-1893)

SUBJECT: MURKIN

Mr. WILLIAM G. IAEGER, 25 Stockens Grain, Knebworth, Herts, England, an official of Moral Rearmament, called at the office on 5/9/77 and during the conversation stated that one ANDRE SHERVINGTON, who was formerly with Rastafari, an Ethiopian terrorist organization who worked with one MICHAEL X in Trinidad, had made the statement two days prior to the murder of MARTIN LUTHER KING that KING's trip to Memphis would be his last journey there. Mr. IAEGER stated that SHERVINGTON has broken with the terrorist group and is now residing in the Nottinghill Section of London, England.

Mr. IAEGER advised that he did not know any other details but that it appeared strange to him that SHERVINGTON would have made such a statement and then KING was murdered shortly thereafter.

Enclosed is a copy of a self-explanatory memorandum submitted to SAC, Atlanta by SC KELLEY, who was handling complaints in the Atlanta Division on 5/12/77. Also enclosed is a copy of a newspaper article regarding MARK LANE and his current book. Extensive background data regarding LANE is available to the Bureau.

LANE was in Atlanta in connection with a publicity campaign surrounding his new book, and was interviewed on the afternoon of 5/12/77, on a local radio station. Interview of LANE by local television newsman as mentioned in paragraph 1, page 1, of the enclosed memo, took place in public space outside the reception room of the Atlanta Office.

Based on LANE's background and his obvious desire to obtain publicity for his latest book, UACB, no reply to questions raised by him, as set forth on page 2 of attached memo, is being sent by SAC to LANE.

For the additional information of the Bureau, I received a telephone call on 5/13/77, from a member of the news media in Memphis, Tennessee, who advised he had interviewed LANE on that date in Memphis. LANE mentioned to this individual a "complaint" he had filed with the Atlanta Office of the FBI and also made a statement to this individual that the FBI was involved in the death of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. I acknowledged that LANE had visited the Atlanta Office seeking certain information and I described his charge against the Bureau's involvement in KING's death as ridiculous.

On 5-12-77, LANE, 105 2nd Street, NE, Washington, D.C., telephone 202-546-7500, after concluding an interview with PAUL SHIELDS, TV 5, outside the main entrance to the Atlanta Office, approached the counter and stated he had a complaint to file and wanted to talk to the Special Agent in Charge.

LANE presented his complaint to the writer while PAUL SHIELDS was present. At the outset LANE played a tape which was approximately 1½ - 2 minutes in length stating it was a recorded interview of ARTHUR MURTAUGH, former SA of Atlanta Div., presently practicing law and teaching in Constable, N.Y.

MURTAUGH was describing events at the time it was announced that KING had been shot and killed. There were no other voices on the tape and the voice attributed to MURTAUGH sounded identical to the writer's recollection of MURTAUGH.

MURTAUGH stated he and the relief supervisor of the squad were walking down the hall to place their salmon cards in the slot which told they were going home and it was either five till six or five till seven when the announcement was made over the radio in the office that KING had been shot. The relief supervisor was described as jumping for joy and exclaiming how they got the commie son of a bitch. MURTAUGH states how the discussion with this unnamed relief supervisor continued while they walked to the parking area about three blocks from the office. MURTAUGH used a great number of flashy adjectives in his description but always ended in stating "or something to that effect".

At the conclusion of the tape LANE remarked that the writer was not taking notes and inquired as to if the room was bugged. LANE was advised that the room was not bugged and that it was more important that I listen to the tape in order to determine what is said and that if he would furnish the question he would like answered and a location

1) Who the relief supervisor referred to by MURTAUGH is and is he still employed by the FBI

2) Was any punitive action taken against the individual and did the FBI condone its employees acting in such a manner over the death of an ~~indiv~~ individual.

LANE stated he could be reached at WRNG Radio station from 3-6PM, 6-7PM at the home of CHUCK McGIVEIN, telephone 934-8262. He stated his residence address as listed above and it was determined that this address is for Citizens Committee of Inquiry, WDC, when furnished by LANE on WRNG Radio.

When the writer asked PAUL SHIELDS for his name SHIELDS replied that he was just a reporter. It appeared as if SHIELDS did not in fact want to participate in the matter but was duped into it by LANE.

Author Mark Lane Claims FBI Plotted Against King

By CAROLE ASHKINAZE

Why was Martin Luther King Jr.'s police protection removed on the day of his assassination, and by whom?

Why was the same FBI squad which had originally been assigned to discredit King (whom they code-named 'Zorro') later directed to investigate his murder?

In what way has the most reliable witness been prevented, perhaps forever, from testifying in court?

These are some of the questions raised in "Code Name 'Zorro': The Murder of Martin Luther King Jr.," a chilling new book by the author of "Rush to Judgment," which 10 years ago poked holes in the Warren Commission's findings concerning the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

And Mark Lane, who collaborated with black comedian and civil rights worker Dick Gregory in the research and writing of "Code Name 'Zorro,'" said Thursday that their findings have led them to the grim conclusion that the FBI, under J. Edgar Hoover's direction, was deeply involved in a covert campaign to "destroy" King.

For example, Lane said in an interview in Atlanta, "Dr. King was subjected to electronic surveillance every minute of his life, starting in the early 1960s." Basing his allegations on information supplied by former FBI Special Agent Arthur Murtagh, who is widely quoted in the book, and others, Lane gave this account of one such episode:

"A microphone concealed in a hotel where King stayed picked up sounds of a party at which he was present," indicating "sexual activity." The trouble, Lane wrote in a segment dealing with the activities of an alleged "Destroy King" FBI squad, was that "it did not really relate King to the sexual activity and one could barely hear King's voice."

Lane: Still Probing

So Hoover ordered the FBI laboratory to "improve" or doctor the tapes so that King's voice could be clearly heard in a context that would prove embarrassing. He then ordered the tape "sanitized" to remove all fingerprints, had it placed in a package which was also sanitized, together with a threatening, typewritten letter, and directed that it be mailed to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference "from a Southern state," which entailed dispatching an FBI agent to Florida who mailed it, and then flew home.

Hoover's intention, Lane writes, was "to precipitate a separation between Dr. King and his wife in the belief that the separation would reduce his stature."

Hoover also ordered agents, assigned to investigate King and other civil rights activists, to say that the investigations had been ordered by an assistant attorney general "because Hoover didn't want to be connected with any civil rights investigations," Lane quoted Murtagh. "This was the only time when we told anyone that the Justice Department was ordering us to conduct an investigation," Murtagh said. "In any other kind of case, the Bureau would be glad to take credit."

"It was an organized vendetta," in which the Atlanta, New York and Washington FBI field offices took part, Murtagh told Lane at another point. "The concentration of effort against King was greater than any other single investigation that I saw take place at the Bureau and I saw a lot of them in 20 years. There was a crew of people who did almost nothing for... seven or eight years, except investigate King and try to destroy him....They were going to get King in one way or another.

Lane charges that the removal of Detective Ed Redditt, who had been assigned to provide security for the civil rights leader during his fatal trip to Memphis on orders from "Washington," the commitment of an important witness to a Tennessee mental institution, and the deployment of "Destroy King" squad members in the ensuing murder investigation, were other elements of that vendetta.

Lane, who now directs the Washington-based Citizens Committee of Inquiry, an organization committed to urging Congress to investigate the murders of both King and Kennedy, does not know if the full extent of the FBI involvement in those events will ever be known. But Lane, who said he has personally received 254 threats against his own life since he began his independent investigation into Kennedy's assassination 14 years ago, says that he does have faith in the Senate Select Committee, which is now conducting its own investigation.

"There will be a moment of truth," he declares, "when they ask the FBI and the CIA to make certain documents available to them, and are refused."

Lane, a former New York State legislator who also founded the Wounded Knee Legal Defense Committee, says however that he has already embarked on his next project. It will be an investigation of "monumental importance," he says, delving into the backgrounds of Americans who provided Fidel Castro with the weapons used in the Cuban revolution.

Dear Mr. Kelley:

Thank you for your April 26 response to my letter about allegations against the late Reverend Martin Luther King.

I have not requested the actual electronic tapes or other material gathered during the Federal Bureau of Investigation's surveillance of Dr. King and his associates. I am asking that the FBI's analyses of the investigations, which you say "have been made available to the Department of Justice and other interested agencies of the Government" be made public.

I look forward to hearing from you again on the availability of the investigation results you mentioned in your letter.

Thank you.

 Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Melcher:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your communication dated May 2, 1977, in which you requested that results of the FBI's investigation of Martin Luther King, Jr., be made public.

For your information, any decision which involves the release to the general public of FBI investigative results in the King investigation, would rest with the Attorney General. You may, therefore, wish to correspond directly with the Attorney General concerning your request.

There are, however, a number of ways in which results of our King investigation are publicly available. Under the Freedom of Information Act, individual requesters may gain access to some aspects of our King investigation. As you are aware, in its final public report, the Senate Select Committee To Study Governmental Operations With Respect To Intelligence Activities discussed in detail our King investigation. The assassination of King is currently under review by the House Select Committee On Assassinations, which no doubt in the future will release to the public a report of its findings. Lastly, a Department of Justice Task Force, which recently conducted an extensive review of our King investigation, issued a publicly releasable report. Copies of this document, stock number 027-000-00487-3, can be obtained by request through The Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402.

I hope the above information will be of assistance to you.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: In April, 1977, Senator Melcher wrote, enclosing an article from "The Review of the News", a publication printed in Belmont, Massachusetts. This article supported the FBI's investigation of King and criticized the Senate Intelligence Committee for refusing to release the FBI file on King and his electronic surveillance results. Melcher did not request a reply, but stated that allegations of Communist influence on King and his associates should be investigated and that surveillance records on King should not be kept secret.

In response to this letter, we outlined the basis for our investigation of King. We stated allegations of Communist connections have been investigated, with results furnished appropriate agencies of the Government. Regarding Melcher's reference to surveillance records, we referred him to a recent court decision which ordered all tapes and documents obtained from our electronic surveillance of King to be sent to the National Archives and not to be made public for 50 years, except by court order. This decision was rendered in two civil suits filed against the FBI by a former assistant to King and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which King headed until his death.

In his second letter, Melcher states he is not requesting actual electronic tapes or other material gathered during our surveillance of King and his associates. He asked that results of our King investigation be made public.

This matter was coordinated with SA R. C. Dennis, Freedom of Information - Privacy Acts Branch.

On May 25, 1977, Rufus J. Hayson, West 1419 Water Avenue, Spokane, Washington, 99201, advised that he subscribes to Post Office Box 1721 at the Riverside Station, Spokane, Washington, 99210. He resides at West 1419 Water Avenue in Spokane, and has no telephone and is not employed. He recalls that in about April, 1977, he did write a letter to the Police Department at Memphis, Tennessee, propounding his views of the killing of Martin Luther King. His views are derived entirely from newspaper accounts and he has no acquaintanceship with James Earl Ray, Martin Luther King or anyone who knows either of these people personally. He has never been in Memphis, Tennessee.

His views of the murder of Martin Luther King are that James Earl Ray did not kill Martin Luther King, but rather that some unknown person or persons killed Martin Luther King and thereafter, lured James Earl Ray to a bathroom, from which the shot which killed King was allegedly fired, and thereafter, made their escape while Ray remained and was captured. He has no basis for his theory other than newspaper accounts, but felt that he should communicate with the Memphis Police Department and advise them of his considered views.

SUBJECT: Martin Luther King Assassination

On April 7, 1977, James Travis Buckley, J.B. Stoner and I met in the United States Attorney's office in Jackson, Mississippi, to complete discovery and work out stipulations in United States v. James Travis Buckley, Criminal No. J76-54(N). On May 14, 1977, Buckley, an attorney, was convicted on five counts of failing to file income tax returns for 1970 through 1974 and three counts of tax evasion for 1970, 1973 and 1974.

During the conversation on April 7, 1977, J.B. Stoner mentioned that he had recently received his Federal Bureau of Investigation file covering 1483 pages under the Freedom of Information Act. He stated that the file reveals that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had bugged his automobile and his telephone. He mentioned that the F.B.I. had treated him like Martin Luther King. Stoner went on to say that in 1957 or 1958, he had been approached by the head of an Alabama Klavern of the Klu Klux Klan. Stoner said that everyone knew that this man was an F.B.I. agent. Stoner said that this individual offered him $25,000 to hire a rifleman to kill Martin Luther King. He remarked to me that he did not mind the F.B.I. killing an individual like Martin Luther King but he did resent their attempt and the attempt of the House Committee to pin the murder on a scapegoat, James Earl Ray. (J.B. Stoner had represented James Earl Ray on his appeal).

J.B. Stoner is one of the leading white supremacists and anti-Semites in the nation. He is the president of the National States' Rights Party and edits a racist newsletter, Thunderbolt, in Marietta, Georgia. Special Agent William Jack Sykes of Jackson, Mississippi, was also present when Stoner made these comments.
