McCARVER a considerable amount of money to eliminate ORVAL FAUBAUS. McCARVER turned this down, but at the time was of the understanding that the offer was made as a result of interest from Representative FULMER.

McCARVER stated that in 12/67, he was back in the Eureka Springs, Arkansas, area visiting. In about 2/68, he was on a drinking spree with GERDON WHITNER (phonetic). WHITNER told him that he was aware of McCARVER's background and also asked McCARVER what it would take to get McCARVER to eliminate MARTIN LUTHER KING. McCARVER told WHITNER he would not get involved in this type of a deal. WHITNER stated, "Well KING will die." McCARVER pointed out that WHITNER has a strong dislike for Negroes and talked in terms of doing the community a service by eliminating KING.

McCARVER stated that after this drinking spree he traveled to the State Hospital, Topeka, Kansas, where he admitted himself and was under the care of Dr. SHAKER for three months. He stated that about a week after he entered this hospital KING was killed.

McCARVER advised that in his opinion WHITNER could shed light on this matter, as well as others involved in KING's murder. McCARVER stated he does not feel RAY did this act alone or of his own volition. McCARVER is of the opinion that GEORGE WALLACE and the Independent Party are actually behind the entire affair, but is of the opinion that it would be impossible to ever associate WALLACE with the actual deed.

McCARVER also stated that he had heard something to the effect that there was a Black Beret in existence in the South, and it was his understanding that this was some type of government organization. He stated that also he heard that WALLACE and FAUBAUS were connected with the Black Beret. He pointed out it is his understanding that the Black Beret was organized to get rid of undesirables by permanent elimination.

On 3/25/69, MORRIS R. McCARVER was contacted personally in Blackfoot, Idaho, and interviewed. He stated at the outset of the interview that he had been drinking considerably, but that it was only after several drinks that he could build enough courage to contact the FBI. He stated he was furnishing this information for whatever it was worth to the FBI and pointed out that if the information was traced back to him, his life would not be "worth a plugged nickel."

McCARVER advised that in 1951, he spent six months in the Arkansas State Prison for involuntary manslaughter.

In 1951, Mr. CHERRY was Governor of the State of Arkansas and ORVAL FAUBAUS was his Lt. Governor. Later, FAUBAUS became Governor and actually ALBERT TALMAGE and GEORGE WALLACE financed FAUBAUS in his political aspirations. An appointee of FAUBAUS to the State Alcohol Tax Department was ROLO FITCH (phonetic).

McCARVER stated that (FNU) FULMER was a State Representative from Eureka Springs, Arkansas, area. In 1953, GERDON WHITNER (phonetic), a cousin of McCARVER's and a "political hack" in northwest Arkansas, who at that time was working as a guard on the dam project on the White River below Gateway, Missouri, approached McCARVER and offered

On 4/14/68, Mr. VIRGIL CROW, Chief of Medical Records, Topeka State Hospital, advised that according to the Topeka State Hospital records, MORRIS E. MC CARVER was a voluntary committed patient at the Topeka State Hospital on 4/8/68. Re Memphis airtel to Bureau, 4/8/69.

For the information of Bureau, it is being pointed out that on 3/25/69, MORRIS R. McCARVER (protect identity), who has furnished insufficient information to determine his reliability, contacted the Butte Division and indicated he had information concerning JAMES EARL RAY which he wanted to furnish the FBI. During interview he indicated he had been drinking considerably, but it was only after several drinks that he could build up enough courage to contact the FBI and discuss information concerning RAY. He stated he was furnishing the information for whatever use the FBI could get from it and emphasized the fact that if the information was attributed to him his life would not be "worth a plug nickel."

McCARVER stated that in 1951 he spent six months in the Arkansas State Prison (ASP) for involuntary manslaughter. He indicated some knowledge of people in political power in the State of Arkansas over the past years. McCARVER stated his cousin, GERDON WHITNER (phonetic), a "political hack" in northwest Arkansas, who resides around Eureka Springs, Arkansas, offered McCARVER a considerable amount of money in 1953 to eliminate ORVAL FAUBUS, former Governor of Arkansas, but McCARVER turned the offer down.

In 12/67, McCARVER was back in Eureka Springs visiting. In about 2/68, McCARVER was on a drinking spree with GERDON WHITNER, during which WHITNER told McCARVER that he was aware of McCARVER's background and asked McCARVER what it would take to get McCARVER to eliminate MARTIN LUTHER KING. McCARVER advised WHITNER he would not get involved in this type of a deal. WHITNER stated it did not matter, as "King would die." McCARVER pointed out that WHITNER has a strong dislike for Negroes and talked in terms of doing the community a service by eliminating KING.

McCARVER stated that after this drinking spree he traveled to the State Hospital, Topeka, Kansas, where he admitted himself and was under the care of Dr. SHAKER for three months. McCARVER stated that about a week after he entered this hospital KING was killed.

McCARVER felt that GERDON WHITNER could shed light on the killing. McCARVER stated he would be available to answer additional questions if necessary, and again requested his name not be linked to the investigation.

It is noted that in Memphis airtel they instruct the Butte Division to furnish the information in a form suitable for dissemination; however, if the information is disseminated, WHITNER would not have any difficulty determining where the information came from. This would greatly jeopardize the life of MORRIS R. McCARVER.

It would appear that if the information must be disseminated to outside sources, such as the Memphis PD, it would be safer to disseminate the information verbally and not make mention of MORRIS R. McCARVER or the offer made to him by WHITNER.

UACB, Butte Division will not set information out in a form suitable for dissemination, as to do so might very possibly jeopardize the life of McCARVER.

Re Kansas City airtel to Director 2/7/69.

On 4/22/69, Mr. KARL RAPP was interviewed at his office, 208 Nichols Road, Kansas City, Missouri. RAPP advised he had just returned from a vacation in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, and is now residing at 103rd and Mores Road, Overland Park, Kansas.

RAPP advised that he could furnish no information regarding JAMES EARL RAY, or any conspiracy against MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.; however, he did furnish the following information regarding HEINZ MANGER whom he met in Puerto Vallarta during 1965. RAPP advised that he and his family were vacationing there and they met MANGER at the Hotel Coronada in Puerto Vallarta. They became friendly and had dinner and drinks together on several occasions. MANGER advised them that he had been a former Colonel in the German Army and served under General ROMMEL in the desert of North Africa.

RAPP remembered one incident that took place down there; they bought a painting from a local artist and MANGER wrote on back of the canvas, "To my good friends from HEINZ MANGER." RAPP advised that his wife showed this painting to a Reverend DALE POLLOCK, Kansas City, Missouri, and POLLOCK reportedly determined from a handwriting comparison that HEINZ MANGER was a former SS General by the name of HEINZ MULLER. RAPP could not elaborate on this.

RAPP further advised that when he left Mexico in 1965, he was contemplating purchasing some property in the area of Puerto Vallarta, and for this reason, maintained correspondence with a JOHN MATHIESON, a retired American living in the area. MATHIESON was in his 70's but periodically wrote letters to RAPP. RAPP stated that in a letter written January, 1967, MATHIESON stated that HEINZ MANGER had left Puerto Vallarta and was no longer living in the area. A subsequent letter determined that he had moved to Guadalajara.

RAPP felt that inasmuch as MANGER left Puerto Vallarta before January, 1967, he could not have been there during the time JAMES EARL RAY was in Puerto Vallarta.

RAPP advised that he would like to help the Bureau in any way possible, and any information that comes to his attention, he will immediately contact the Kansas City Office.

Re Kansas City airtel to Director 2/7/69.

On 4/22/69, Mr. KARL RAPP was interviewed at his office, 208 Nichols Road, Kansas City, Missouri. RAPP advised he had just returned from a vacation in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, and is now residing at 103rd and Mores Road, Overland Park, Kansas.

RAPP advised that he could furnish no information regarding JAMES EARL RAY, or any conspiracy against MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.; however, he did furnish the following information regarding HEINE MANGER whom he met in Puerto Vallarta during 1965. RAPP advised that he and his family were vacationing there and they met MANGER at the Hotel Coronada in Puerto Vallarta. They became friendly and had dinner and drinks together on several occasions. MANGER advised them that he had been a former Colonel in the German Army and served under General ROMMEL in the desert of North Africa.

RAPP remembered one incident that took place down there; they bought a painting from a local artist and MANGER wrote on back of the canvas, "To my good friends from HEINE MANGER." RAPP advised that his wife showed this painting to a Reverend DALE POLLOCK, Kansas City, Missouri, and POLLOCK reportedly determined from a handwriting comparison that HEINE MANGER was a former SS General by the name of HEINE MULLER. RAPP could not elaborate on this.

RAPP further advised that when he left Mexico in 1965, he was contemplating purchasing some property in the area of Puerto Vallarta, and for this reason, maintained correspondence with a JOHN MATHIESON, a retired American living in the area. MATHIESON was in his 70's but periodically wrote letters to RAPP. RAPP stated that in a letter written January, 1967, MATHIESON stated that HEINE MANGER had left Puerto Vallarta and was no longer living in the area. A subsequent letter determined that he had moved to Guadalajara.

RAPP stated that the visit this year was the first time that they had been back to Puerto Vallarta since 1965, and JOHN MATHIASON was no longer living there, nor was HEINZ MANGER, and their whereabouts was unknown to him. RAPP felt that inasmuch as MANGER left Puerto Vallarta before January, 1967, he could not have been there during the time JAMES EARL RAY was in Puerto Vallarta.

RAPP advised that he would like to help the Bureau in any way possible, and any information that comes to his attention, he will immediately contact the Kansas City Office.
