GOVERNOR CHRISTOPHER S BOND
STATE CAPITOL
JEFFERSON CITY MO 65101

RECEIVED

FEB 6 1976

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

DEAR GOVERNOR BOND

IN ITS JANUARY 26 ADDITION, TIME MAGAZINE CARRIED SOME KEY EXCERPTS FROM GEORGE MCMILLIAN'S UPCOMING BOOK ON THE ASSASSINATION OF DOCTOR MARTIN LUTHER KING JUNIOR, THE FOUNDER OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE IN HIS BOOK, MCMILLIAN CHARGES THAT JAMES EARL RAY, DOCTOR KING'S ALLEGED ASSASSIN, PLOTTED AND FINANCED THE MURDER OF THE FAMED CIVIL RIGHTS LEADER BEHIND THE WALLS OF THE MISSOURI STATE PRISON. MCMILLIAN, WHO SPENT 7 YEARS RESEARCHING FOR HIS BOOK, GOES EVEN FURTHER BY SUGGESTING THAT SEVERAL PRISON GUARDS PROVIDED RAY WITH WHATEVER ASSISTANCE WAS NECESSARY TO MAINTAIN A LUCRATIVE PRISON DRUG BUSINESS. MCMILLIAN CLAIMS THAT RAY HAD EARNED OVER 7 THOUSAND DOLLARS BY THE TIME OF HIS ESCAPE AND THAT HE USED THIS MONEY FOR ASSASSINATION PLANS.

WHETHER OR NOT MCMILLIAN'S BOOK IS COMPLETELY RELIABLE IS SECONDARY. THE FACT THAT TIME MAGAZINE, ONE THE NATION'S MOST PRESTIGIOUS AND WIDELY CIRCULATED PUBLICATIONS HAD ENOUGH CONFIDENCE IN MCMILLIAN TO PRINT THE STORY, IS IN ITSELF WORTHY OF OUR ATTENTION. SINCE THE REVELATION THAT J EDGAR HOOVER USED THE FBI IN A VICIOUS ATTEMPT TO DISCREDIT DOCTOR KING, THE HARRIS POLL REPORTS THAT 60 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION BELIEVE THAT DOCTOR KING'S DEATH WAS THE RESULT OF A CONSPIRACY. THE AMERICA PUBLIC, AS YOU WELL KNOW, HAS, WITH MUCH JUSTIFICATION, BECOME CYNICAL AND SUSPICIOUS. THE STORY IN TIME HAS FURTHERED THIS CYNICISM AND SUSPICION.

IF, AS MANY HAVE COME TO BELIEVE, DOCTOR KING'S ASSASSINATION WAS CONCEIVED IN JEFFERSON CITY AND CONSUMATED IN MEMPHIS, A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION OF RAY'S ILLEGAL DEALINGS AS A PRISON MERCHANT AND HIS SEEMINGLY SMOOTH ESCAPE MIGHT SHED SOME BADLY NEEDED LIGHT ON THIS VERY EMOTIONAL ISSUE.

THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE IS THEREFORE MAKING THE FOLLOWING REQUESTS:

1 THAT THE FINDINGS OF THE OFFICIAL INVESTIGATION OF JAMES EARL RAY'S ESCAPE FROM THE MISSOURI STATE PENITENTIARY BE PRESENTED TO SCLC AND MADE PUBLIC.

2 THAT THE STATE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE EXAMINE THE CHARGES MADE BY MCMILLIAN IN REGARD TO DRUG SALES IN THE PRISON AND THE POSSIBILITY THAT PRISON GUARDS MAY HAVE AIDED RAY IN HIS ESCAPE.

3 THAT THERE BE PUBLIC DISCLOSURE OF ANY ACTIONS TAKEN BY PRISON OFFICIALS OR GOVERNOR WARREN HEARNES AFTER THEY LEARNED THAT DOCTOR KING'S ASSASSIN WAS A MISSOURI STATE PRISON ESCAPEE.

SCLC, NEEDLESS TO SAY IS HOPING FOR A POSITIVE AND PROMPT RESPONSE.

Ms. Heather Kilpatrick
Time-Life Building

Dear Ms. Kilpatrick:

As head of Missouri's prison system, I was disturbed to read the article on the assassination of Martin Luther King in the Time edition of January 26, 1976.

In one section of this article, you used excerpts from George McMillan's unpublished book to make both inaccurate and misleading implications and statements concerning Missouri's corrections system. Concerning James Earl Ray's confinement in the Missouri State Penitentiary, you stated that prison authorities were not helpful in documenting Ray's illegal dealings as a "Merchant." You also stated, "Just the opposite. They can no more admit that they have lost control of the prison, that the prisoners are running it, than they can fly to the moon."

Nothing could be further from the truth than these statements. First of all, Missouri's correctional system has a complete open door press policy allowing complete access to the press at any time except in emergency situations. And I feel that if you were to visit any of our correctional facilities in Missouri, you would learn that we most certainly have not lost control of our institutions. Secondly, the staff here have cooperated completely with Mr. McMillan in obtaining information and most, if not all, information on Ray's confinement in Missouri came from our officials. In addition to this, I was never contacted by Mr. McMillan concerning this situation. Lastly and most importantly, your article referred to conditions of the Missouri State Penitentiary in the early 1960's, but as seen from the above quote from Time, the reader would be led to believe that these same conditions exist today and they, of course, do not.

January 28, 1976

I find this assessment most difficult to comprehend especially in view of the fact that to my knowledge neither Mr. McMillan nor the staff from Time Magazine ever came to Missouri since my arrival here in July of 1973 to personally review the situation.

Very truly yours,

Reverend Emanuel Cleaver
Executive Director

Dear Reverend Cleaver:

Governor Bond has asked me to respond to your Mailgram dated February 5 concerning the James Earl Ray article which appeared in the January 26 issue of Time Magazine. First of all, I have attached a copy of my letter of January 28 to Time Magazine, the contents of which are self-explanatory. You will note that I take exception to the conclusions drawn by Time Magazine as well as some of those attributed to Mr. McMillan.

In response to your particular questions, I have thoroughly reviewed the file of James Earl Ray when he was an inmate in the Missouri State Penitentiary in the early 1960's. I have also reviewed and studied all reports available to the Division of Corrections that might in any way relate to Ray's activities while an inmate and to the escape itself.

My findings are that there is nothing whatsoever to substantiate any conclusion that James Earl Ray financed either his escape or his activities after his escape through any means while he was an inmate at the Missouri State Penitentiary. During the six years that James Earl Ray was an inmate at the Missouri State Penitentiary, he kept primarily to himself and, other than for the fact that he attempted to escape on more than one occasion, he had only one conduct violation during that entire time and that was for the possession of three packages of cigarettes, a ball point pen and one pound of coffee.

During the entire time that he was an inmate, the total amount of money received or earned was $903.39. The majority of these funds were spent in the Inmate Canteen during his years in the Penitentiary.

The inmate that Mr. McMillan quotes extensively - Mr. Curtis - was released from the Penitentiary approximately one year prior to James Earl Ray's escape and was later committed to the Georgia Department of Corrections in July of 1967 to serve 888 years for murder. He is still in their custody.

I have been informed that all of the material available to me at this time was made available to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and I am sure that this material, along with probably much more material, was thoroughly studied at the time of James Earl Ray's trial.

In addition, you might be interested to know that prior to the Governor's receiving your Mailgram, I personally discussed the allegations and conclusions in the Time Magazine article with the author himself, Mr. George McMillan. In the course of our conversation, I pressed him for details regarding drug sales or any other illegal activities in which staff and/or inmates might have been involved. He was unable to give me any specifics but just responded that "it was common knowledge."

In conclusion, I find nothing whatsoever to substantiate the hatching of any conspiracy to kill Martin Luther King on the part of James Earl Ray while he was an inmate in the custody of the Missouri Department of Corrections. If I can be of any further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

Very truly yours,

RE: Investigation of the James Earl Ray escape
and financing of his activities

As well as reviewing James Earl Ray's file and the files of several other inmates and employees, which are listed below, I talked with former Warden Harold R. Swenson and former Senior Correctional Officer Bernard Poiry regarding any knowledge they might have of the activities of James Earl Ray.

On February 26, Mr. Swenson informed me that to his knowledge Ray was not a "merchant" and that he was not involved in any extensive illegal activities within the prison and in fact was a loner. He noted that the only significant point to James Earl Ray's record was his several attempts to escape from the institution.

On that same day, February 26, I had an extensive discussion with the former Chief Yard Officer, Major Bernard Poiry. In essence, he substantiated the conclusions made to me by Warden Swenson and in his opinion, James Earl Ray could not have earned monies while in the prison to support himself after his escape. He was a loner who attempted to escape on several occasions and apparently had little rapport with other inmates. Major Poiry felt that James Earl Ray was able to escape due to the laxity of employees and not due to any dealings between Ray and employees of the institution. The report written at the time of Ray's escape substantiates this conclusion. Major Poiry stated that there were a great many employees in the institution who frequently were lax in their duties and that a handful of employees had to pick up the slack for the majority of the employees who did not pay enough attention to custodial security.

In my own mind, having reviewed all of the files listed and to the discussions of Warden Swenson and Major Poiry, it seems quite clear to me that we have no information that one could base the conclusion that James Earl Ray planned and executed his escape with the direct assistance of staff nor that he secreted through illegal means money to support himself after his escape while he was still an inmate at the Penitentiary.
