ANN MARIE CONDON, photographer, 7557 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California, advised that on Sunday April 28, 1968, she and her escort picked up a hitchhiker on Santa Monica Boulevard and drove him as far as the Hollywood Bowl on Highland Avenue, Hollywood. This was about 1:30 AM that date.

She recalled that he had indicated that he was en route here from the mid-western part of the United States and that his car had broken down in the Pomona area, that he had no money, but was attempting to return there to see if he could get his car fixed. She recalled that he had indicated that he was a school teacher by profession, but that he was seeking work in any position that might be available.

She described this person as white, male, over 6', about 200 pounds, light blonde hair, blue eyes, fair complexion, and that he combed his hair back and slightly to the side.

She recalled that he was wearing a dark blue-grey sports jacket, a checkered shirt and grey pants. She stated that the only luggage that he carried appeared to be a small box similar to that housing an electric shaver.

She stated that on Monday April 30, 1968, she saw pictures in "Life" magazine which reminded her of the person that she and her escort had picked up on April 28, 1968.

She was shown pictures of JAMES EARL RAY and indicated that they were not identical to the hitchhiker previously mentioned.

NELLIE WEBSTER, Manager of the apartment house at 932 South Irolo, Los Angeles, California, advised that about a year ago a man came looking for a furnished apartment and she showed him one but he did not appear interested and did not take it. He walked westerly when leaving the premises and she saw him with no car. He was alone and is described as follows:

Name	Unknown
Race	White
Age	About 29-30
Height	5'4"
Weight	About 150
Hair	Black, cut in ordinary haircut
Build	Broadshouldered
Address	Unknown
Clothing	Dark blue suit, black shoes
Miscellaneous	Appeared nervous; wore dark glasses

Mrs. WEBSTER said that she had not seen this man since, did not know who he is and did not know anyone who knows him. Upon being shown the Wanted Notice for JAMES EARL RAY, she said that this man is definitely not identical with RAY. She said that she had made mention of this man, since the KING murder, to a neighbor across the street but had not mentioned him as a suspect in that case but rather had mentioned him as possibly the prowler they had had in the neighborhood.

Mrs. WEBSTER further advised that she has seen, off and on, for about four months a man, name and address and occupation unknown, who parks his car in a garage facing San Marino Street, and located between Irolo Street and Normandie Avenue, Los Angeles. She said that she had previously thought that he appeared to resemble the profile sketch of the suspect in the KING murder which she had seen in the paper, however, at that time he had not been seen.

FRED MURPHY, also known as Pat Murphy, Night Manager of the Hotel Ambassador, and who resides at 111 South Oxford Avenue, Los Angeles, California, advised that a woman came into the hotel alone and registered for her and her husband. She gave an address on West Olympic Boulevard, Los Angeles, which proved fictitious, and said her husband would be in later. He said he understood another woman also shared the room but said he had never seen or talked to either of the women. After the hotel tried to lock the occupants out of the room, the man, RICHARD O'CONNER, asked him, MURPHY, what was the matter. The man said he would write a check but he said he had no check blanks with him and when asked for identification, he said he had it in his luggage which had not yet been received from International Airport. The man said he would have the money in the morning. Later a call was received from a man identifying himself as O'CONNER. At that time he said he had a credit card for an oil company and said he would have the money in the morning.

MURPHY advised that he saw O'CONNER only the one time and knew of no vehicle O'CONNER or the women had. MURPHY said that he had told O'CONNER that the address on Olympic Boulevard was no good and O'CONNER admitted it. MURPHY said that it is possible that the woman professing to be Mrs. RICHARD L. O'CONNER was not actually his wife.

MURPHY described the man as follows:

Race	White
Age	25 - 30; not believed over 30.
Height	5'7 or 8"
Weight	145 - 150 pounds
Hair	Dark, had ordinary haircut, combed back, no part noticed.
Build	Rather slender

WILLIAM F. GARDNER, Director of Security, Room 62, Ambassador Hotel, 3400 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, advised that a blonde woman registered at the hotel on April 13, 1968, under the name Mrs. RICHARD O'CONNOR, saying that her husband would show up later.

An address of 515 West Olympic Boulevard, Los Angeles, was given and they were assigned to Room Number 421 at $24.00 per day. When the woman appeared at the hotel, she said they would be leaving on April 16, 1968.

Also in the room was another female. The two women were both very young but adults. The one who registered was obviously pregnant. Both were of the white race, both had dark hair and dark complexions. GARDNER said he did not know the color of their eyes nor the name of the one woman. On April 15, 1968, the two women were in the hotel's coffee shop and as they had been drinking they were asked to leave the coffee shop.

GARDNER advised that O'CONNER had a 1965 Mustang parked at the hotel; the parking lot attendant got the license number RYP 356 which, it was determined, was registered to KEN KOBAYASHI, 1326 South Gramercy. GARDNER said that the attendant might have misread the plate.

The groups' unpaid hotel bill amounts to $316.71. They paid nothing and presented no bad check. They skipped out on April 16, 1968. The bill reflects telephone calls, an extraordinary amount of room service, and a charge on April 13, 1968, for $9.45 for Coconut Grove photographs.

GARDNER advised that the man was not at the hotel as much as the women. He tried to cash a check at the hotel through PAT MURPHY, the Night Manager, but had no check blanks or identification. GARDNER said that according to MURPHY, the man was shorter and younger than JAMES EARL RAY. GARDNER said that he did not know of others who saw the man, but said that possibly parking attendants did. O'CONNER telephoned the hotel relative to his bill but never showed up to pay it. The women skipped out leaving their luggage which is still in the possession of the hotel.

GARDNER advised that after the skip, the hotel had found in the room a credit card of the American Oil Company Number [REDACTED], in the name of RICHARD L. O'CONNER. The hotel has this card and called the local office of the oil company and learned that records are maintained in Chicago, Illinois. Thereupon the hotel on April 23, 1968, wrote to that oil company at 165 North Canal Street, Chicago, attention of Issuance Department. GARDNER said that the Los Angeles Police Department was not formally notified of this skip but officers of that department came around and are aware of it. GARDNER advised that to make a formal Crime Report they would need sufficient identification data.

GARDNER said that he himself did not see either the man or the two women. He said that there was the remote possibility that O'CONNER might be identical with JAMES EARL RAY in view of the name "O'CONNER". GARDNER said that the possibility of being identical was not based on anyone thinking the man resembled the photographs of RAY in the papers. He said he had checked with the parking attendant and no one saw the group leave; and that the address given on Olympic was no good. GARDNER said that GEORGE WALLACE, 648 North Martel Avenue, Los Angeles, has the concession for taking photographs at the Coconut Grove located in the hotel. GARDNER said that the customer's name is placed on an envelope and this is returned to the customer so the customer's name is not maintained by WALLACE. WALLACE would have the negative along with the negatives for other pictures taken.

MC CARTHY related there was a strong resemblance between the individual registered at the Huntington Hotel as DENNIS GUTHRIE and JAMES EARL RAY. The resemblance between the two prompted him to contact the FBI.

Mr. MC CARTHY advised that GUTHRIE's description was approximately the same as the identifying information on the wanted flyer for RAY. MC CARTHY described GUTHRIE as follows:

Age	Approximately 40 to 45

MC CARTHY stated he did not know whether GUTHRIE carried his money in a wallet or in his pocket inasmuch as when GUTHRIE paid his rent he would have the money in his hand, ready to pay the rent when MC CARTHY would observe him. MC CARTHY stated the rent was paid in cash. MC CARTHY did not know the denomination of the bills by which he paid the rent. He stated he was sure the bills would not have been larger than a $20 bills or otherwise he would have recalled it.

MC CARTHY stated that the last day GUTHRIE was in the hotel was on April 24, 1968. GUTHRIE's room was held for two days and on April 26, 1968, MC CARTHY cleaned GUTHRIE's belongings from Room 447. MC CARTHY stated that GUTHRIE has not returned to the hotel since his departure on April 24, 1968.

On April 20, 1968, ALLAN ANGELHARDT, Apartment 28, 20909 Parthenia Street, Canoga Park, California, telephonically advised he had just observed an individual that resembled JAMES EARLYRAY leaving a coffee shop at the Rocket Bowl, on De Soto Street, north of Nordhoff in Canoga Park, California.

On April 24, 1968, ENGELHARDT advised that he had seen this man at the Rocket Coffee Shop on April 20, 1968, and he seemed to be tensely engrossed in reading the article concerning JAMES EARL RAY in the local newspaper. He advised that the unknown individual resembled the photos appearing in that newspaper on April 20, 1968.

Mr. JOHN W. RICHARDSON, #8 Mountain View Estates, end of New York Avenue, La Crescenta, California, was interviewed on April 11, 1968, at his residence at which time he furnished the following information:

Mr. RICHARDSON advised that his home telephone number was 213-249-5071. He said that he and his wife, LOUISE RICHARDSON, are the closest neighbors in the rather remote mountainous area to the residence where JAY VERNON formerly resided, at #14 Mountain View Estates. He said the last time he can recall seeing Mr. VERNON was, "about the first of the year, in January 1968."

He said that JAY VERNON lived at this address for about one and one-half years with his wife, who was known to the RICHARDSONS as BONNIE VERNON.

Prior to vacating the premises in Mountain View Estates, Mr. VERNON said he was operating a laundry in Los Angeles with his mother. The exact address was not disclosed. Prior to this he reportedly worked at Weber or Menasco aircraft plants in Burbank, California, and with Electronic Specialties Company, Glendale, California.

Mrs. BONNIE VERNON was last seen about a week before April 11, 1968. She is employed by the Department of Safety, City of Glendale, Glendale City Hall, Glendale, California. She drives a 1966 or 1967 maroon Pontiac Grand Prix, which has a black vinyl top.

JAY VERNON drives a red 1966 El Camino, with "mag" wheels and big tires.

Mr. RICHARDSON identified two photographs of JEROME WILLIS VERNON as the individual he knew as JAY VERNON, who was a neighbor in the Mountain View Estates. He did not know where Mr. VERNON was residing at the present time, but indicated it was his impression that Mr. and Mrs. VERNON were separated.

Mrs. LORRAINE NORMA VERNON, nee BOYCE; who advised she is also known as Mrs. BONNIE VERNON, Mrs. JEROME WALLIS VERNON, Mrs. JAY VERNON, was interviewed April 12, 1968, near her place of business, the Department of Safety and Traffic, City of Glendale, Glendale City Hall, Glendale, California, at which time she furnished the following information:

She stated that she married JEROME WALLIS VERNON on August 21, 1965, in Las Vegas, Nevada. At the time of their marriage she did not know that Mr. VERNON had been previously married and had four children. Subsequent to their marriage she learned that he had been previously married to one LORRAINE MAY VERNON, nee GEISS; who presently resides in Visalia, California.

After she learned that JEROME had been previously married, he told her that he had obtained a divorce from his first wife in Baja California, Mexico. He said that he had spent $110.00 for this Mexican divorce; but she doubted the legality of his divorce, since he told her that he did not have his first wife sign the divorce papers. She said that at the present time she is taking legal steps to obtain a divorce from JEROME VERNON, from whom she has been separated for approximately two months.

She said that JEROME VERNON was presently residing in Upland, California. He was to meet with her on the evening of April 12, 1968, to sign their joint income tax returns. She said that the last time she had seen him was two weeks previously when he said that he needed his honorable discharge papers from his military service, in order to obtain a job in the Upland area.

Mrs. VERNON said that it was quite a coincidence that both she and JEROME VERNON's mother were known as BONNIE VERNON. She said they usually referred to her as "LITTLE BONNIE," and her mother-in-law as "BIG BONNIE." She also noted the coincidence in the fact that both she and Mr. VERNON's first wife were both named LORRAINE VERNON.

The name of ERIC GALT was entirely unknown to Mrs. VERNON.

NETTIE COPE, Kal Craft Aviation, Blythe Airport, Blythe, California, advised that at about 2:00 a.m. on March 19, 1968, she received a call from Mrs. HIMMEL of the Federal Aviation Agency, Blythe, stating that a plane was landing and had requested fuel by radio.

Mrs. COPE advised that she and her son, FRANK COPE, got up and went out on the flight line and a Cessna Skymaster, white in color with blue and yellow trim with push and pull propellers taxied up to the pit.

The plane was occupied by a white male, 28 to 30 years, 5'10" to 6', 180 pounds, olive complexion, dark brown hair, slight indentation on upper lip, no accent, wearing horn rim glasses and dressed in a white shirt, tie, and dark business brown suit. She viewed all the photographs of JAMES EARL RAY and stated that RAY is not identical with the man who piloted the above plane.

This man purchased 30 gallons of gasoline and paid cash. He initially asked if Mrs. COPE would take a Gulf credit card and she said that she preferred a Standard credit card at which time he said he would pay cash for the 30 gallons.

He also asked if she had any coffee and she replied no at which time he said he still had some coffee in his thermos bottle. He commented that the coffee in his thermos had been there since about 3:00 a.m. the previous day. In writing up the sale Mrs. COPE wrote down the craft number on a credit card ticket although the purchase was cash. This ticket with the number has since been sent to the bookkeeper, name unknown, for KALMAN STADLES, President of the Kal Craft Corporation. This bookkeeper lives in Yuma, Arizona and Mrs. COPE did not have her address. She stated that STADLES was currently out of town.

Mrs. COPE further noted that when the plane radioed in for fuel it gave the Federal Aviation Agency, Blythe,
