MAURICE KAHN, 11216 Mc Donald Street, Culver City, California, furnished the following information:

On April 17, 1968, MAURICE KAHN advised SA WILLIAM N. HEARD that he first met DONALD TANNER at their place of employment, Avnent, 10916 Washington Boulevard, Culver City, California. He stated that he knew TANNER as well as anyone in the area but did not know too much about him. TANNER had some relatives in the area, but he did not know their names or addresses. He could name no friends or girls that TANNER had dated. He saw TANNER the latter part of March, 1968, and then presumed he left to see his wife in the South (unknown to him) and to return to an Army base. He stated he did not know of the list of names furnished to his mother by TANNER. He does not know how to contact TANNER. He believes TANNER came from Minnesota originally.

He furnished the following description:

Name	DONALD TANNER
Race	Caucasian
Sex	Male
Nationality	American
Height	6'
Weight	160 pounds or more
Hair	Brown
Eyes	Blue

Mrs. MARVIN G. KAHN (SHIRLEY), 11216 Mc Donald Street, Culver City, California, telephone number 838-2962, furnished the following information:

On April 17, 1968, Mrs. MARVIN G. KAHN (SHIRLEY KAHN) advised that she is not the mother of DONALD DAVID TANNER. TANNER is a friend of her son, MAURICE TANNER, and has visited in her home on occasions. She stated that TANNER had been in Vietnam but returned the latter part of March, 1968. TANNER had dinner with them on the second day he was back in the States according to TANNER. TANNER stayed his first few nights in the Los Angeles YMCA. She believes he was in Los Angeles for approximately four days before he left to visit his wife in Louisiana or Kentucky, before returning to his Army base of assignment unknown by her. TANNER is adopted by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. or I. TANNER, 4422 Central Avenue, N.E., Minneapolis, Minnesota, telephone number 508-8868. He has had discord of some nature with his parents in the past. She does not know why TANNER should list her as his mother on his Army records. The address 4273 Sawtelle Boulevard is not familiar to her. She believes that TANNER has been in the Army for about eighteen months. She believes that TANNER was married in Shreveport about a year ago just before he went overseas and is still married. She stated that TANNER was formerly employed by Avnent, 10916 Washington Boulevard, Culver City, California. She believes that TANNER had forty-five days of leave plus five days travel time before returning to his new assignment. To her knowledge, TANNER did not own an automobile and has been known to hitchhike his way across the country in the past.

Before TANNER went overseas he left a list of people and telephone numbers with Mrs. KAHN which is as follows:
