Re Memphis telephone call to Los Angeles 5/9/68.

Enclosed for the Bureau are four copies of a photograph of RITA STEIN taken 5/18/67.

Referenced Memphis telephone call advised that information received by Memphis Office indicated that two elderly women, 40-42 years of age visited JAMES EARL RAY while he resided at the Harkey Apartments in Montreal, Canada. Apparently this information was contained in a portion of a Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) report received by the Memphis Office. This RCMP report noted that possibly these women were identical to RITA STEIN and MARIE MARTIN.

The Los Angeles Division is not in possession of a photograph of MARIE MARTIN.

The following investigation was conducted by SA WILLIAM LEE BOLYARD at Panama City, Florida on April 23, 1968:

DUD HASTINGS, operator-owner, Treasure Island Motel, Panama City Beach, Florida, furnished the following information:

On March 25, 1968, a Mrs. JASPER WARD and a Mrs. GEORGIA DAVIS came to his motel seeking a room.
He pointed out to them that he was at the motel carrying out certain maintenance details in preparation for opening the motel and that he was not at that time ready to rent any of his units in that he was still in the process of painting and carrying on other maintenance details. Thereafter, Mrs. WARD and Mrs. DAVIS left and returned within a short period of time stating that they liked his motel the best of any locations they had observed on the beach and requested that he rent them a room, if possible, for several days vacation. He explained to them that he was willing for them to rent his motel room if they were aware that the office to the motel was not opened and there would be no telephone service as a result of the office being closed. Both agreed that they desired to rent the room and thereafter he rented them Unit Number 4 which unit at that time was available for occupancy.

Mrs. WARD registered, listing her address as 2540 Ransdell Avenue, Louisville, Kentucky. At the time they registered, Mrs. WARD and Mrs. DAVIS were driving a 1967 Cadillac convertible. Mrs. WARD identified herself as a State Senator in the Kentucky Legislature. At the time they registered they indicated that they would be there from two to three weeks. They also indicated that they anticipated another guest arriving within several days who would join them at the motel.

On April 1, 1968, he came to the motel to continue his maintenance duties at which time he observed an individual seated on the patio of Unit Number 4 drinking a can of beer. This individual introduced himself as Reverend A.D. KING. Reverend KING checked into Unit 5 as a part of the party of Mrs. JASPER WARD and Mrs. GEORGIA DAVIS. They remained at the motel until April 3, 1968 when Reverend A.D. KING checked from the motel. Mrs. WARD and Mrs. DAVIS did not check from the motel, but stated they were leaving enroute to Memphis, Tennessee to participate in a demonstration march with Doctor MARTIN LUTHER KING. Mrs. WARD indicated that she and Mrs. DAVIS would return to Panama City Beach to complete their vacation.

Mrs. WARD returned to the motel on April 6, 1968 at which time she checked herself and Mrs. DAVIS from the motel. Mrs. WARD was alone at the time.

During the time that these individuals stayed at the Treasure Island Motel, he had very little conversation with them as they remained on the beach most of the day, during which time he was in the general area conducting maintenance work on the motel. He did not observe any of these individuals having any visitors during the time they were at the motel, and they used the pay telephone located outside the motel office during their stay at the motel office was not opened. He recalls that they made numerous telephone calls and that they had numerous incoming calls through the pay telephone during the hours that he was in the general area conducting his maintenance duties.

Mr. HASTINGS advised that he has no information whatsoever pertaining to the death of Doctor MARTIN LUTHER KING.

By communication dated April 25, 1968 the St. Louis Division advised that DAVID LINDSEY WILSON, Serial Number 14357317, enlisted in the U. S. Army September 20, 1950, and served on active duty until October 8, 1952 when issued General Discharge as Private, at Fort McPherson, Georgia, by reason of unsuitability due to character and behavior disorders.

Specific details regarding his discharge are not shown as the record contained a neuropsychiatric examination dated April 2, 1952, wherein he received diagnosis of "Emotional Instability Reaction," moderate to severe with four months combat duty in Korea and suffered environmental difficulties since. His condition was characterized by strong, uncontrollable tendencies toward regression and furor actions, pathological dependencies on his family and wife, depressiveness, intolerance to anxiety and pre- and intrapsychic stress. He went AWOL because of his own nervousness and because of emotional demands being made on him by his wife and parents. Gave history of crying when treated roughly or having temper tantrums or furor and in being emotionally tense at all times.

It is noted his condition was not amenable to hospitalization treatment, disciplinary action, training, transfer to another station or reclassification. Considers to be not insane, posed sufficient mental capacity to know difference between right and wrong and considered mentally responsible for his actions.

It is further noted he showed straight, forward immaturity reaction, that this constitutional psychopathic was not considered a medical disability in a condition for which he would receive treatment in military.

The psychiatrist was of the opinion that considerable leniency was desirable in dealing with WILSON since origin of trouble began with battle-incurred wound. It was then recommended that he be separated from the military because of unsuitability.

WILSON was tried and convicted by special court martial April 4, 1953 for absence without official leave and sentenced to three months confinement at hard labor and forfeiture of $25.00 for three months.

The following investigation was conducted by SA C. RICHARD WARNER, JR., on April 23, 1968:

Inquiry at the Galles Restaurant, Flagstaff, Arizona, determined that this establishment was not open after 2:00 AM on Friday, April 19-20, 1968.

GEORGE PRICE, Manager, Yiyi's Coffee Shop, Flagstaff, Arizona, advised that he was on duty by the cash register throughout the evening of April 19-20, 1968.
He noted that the cash register is located within ten feet of the public telephone. He said that, on the night in question, there was a heavy snowfall and the restaurant was extremely crowded. He said he recalls seeing no one answering the description of WILSON either as a patron or as a telephone caller from the restaurant. He said the two waitresses on duty that night are DAWN JOLKIN and KATHY SWEET.

DAWN JOLKIN advised that she was waiting on tables during the night of April 19-20, 1968, at Yiyi's Restaurant.
She observed four photographs of DAVID L. WILSON and advised that she can recall serving no one of that description on the night in question. She noted, however, restaurant was extremely crowded that night owing to a heavy snowfall.

KATHY SWEET advised that she was working as a waitress at the counter section of Yiyi's Restaurant on the night of April 19-20, 1968. She observed four photographs of DAVID L. WILSON and advised that the face is familiar to her. She said she can not recall when she saw it and could not positively state she had seen it on the night in question. She noted that the restaurant was extremely crowded that night.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date April 30, 1968

Mrs. DOROTHY MEYER was telephonically contacted at her place of employment, The New York Central System, Saline, Michigan, telephone number 429-9380. Mrs. MEYER advised that she is the older sister of DAVID L. WILSON and has helped him out of numerous personal problems throughout the past several years. She advised that she had been contacted by telephone two or three times since the previous Friday, by WILSON, and has been puzzled as to the full cause of his "peculiar" behavior. She said she would welcome any contact by an FBI Agent in her city and would be more than happy to cooperate in any way she could, by furnishing necessary background information on her brother.

Mrs. MEYER advised that she wired her brother $50.00 cash in Phoenix on Monday night with the understanding that he would use the money to transport he and his family to Michigan where they would reside temporarily with her. She said she has been kept in the dark with regard to his present turmoil but that his behavior is not at all inconsistent with his past behavior, in times of stress. She said that, when he last phoned her, WILSON said he was receiving threatening telephone calls and has received threatening notes at his residence. She said he told her that his wife was in danger and the lives of his family members were also in danger. She said he did not elaborate any further but merely indicated that he was in great fear.

Mrs. MEYER advised that her brother, DAVID WILSON, does have a history of hospital treatment for mental disorders arising from a battle wound suffered during combat in the Korean conflict in 1950 or 1951. She said that she knows his condition has been diagnosed as paranoia with some indication of schizoid tendencies. She said a record of his treatment and diagnosis can be obtained through the military hospital records. She said her brother served in the United States Army, entering on duty at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, in 1950 or 1951. She said he received treatment at a federal hospital in Pennsylvania and at another hospital in Kentucky and was finally discharged from the hospital. She said she was not personally acquainted with all the details of his condition but knows that it has had a definite bearing on his personal problems and criminal behavior throughout most of his adult life.

She said this condition contributed to the destruction of his first marriage to MARY HAMMOND (phonetic) of Clinton, Tennessee. She said HAMMOND would have a much more precise recollection of the details of WILSON's condition and could probably be located through her father, BILL HAMMOND, Deputy Sheriff, Clinton, Tennessee. She said MARY would at least be acquainted with the hospitals in which DAVID was treated.

Mrs. MEYER advised that, because of her brother's mental disturbance, he has never seemed able to avoid trouble. She said he has a habit of blaming all his problems on other people and has frequently been convinced that he is the victim of one vicious attack or another. She said he has never been in serious trouble but has constantly been involved in a long series of smaller scale brushes with the law. She noted that WILSON has a tendency to make major problems out of small incidents and observed that his arrest at Lebanon, Missouri, during the summer of 1967 is a perfect example of this. She said that according to her information, he went to the aid of a friend who was confronted by the police for being intoxicated and, in his defense of the friend, managed to get himself arrested.

Mrs. MEYER advised that she can account for her brother's whereabouts from the time of his release from jail in Lebanon, Missouri, during August of 1967, until his return to Flagstaff, Arizona, in late November, 1967. She said that WILSON came directly to her home in Michigan upon his release, and sought employment at the then striking Ford plant. She said he remained with her until the early autumn then traveled to the home of their parents in Dade City, Florida. She said that, in Florida, he acquired work with a trucking firm for which he had worked in the past. She said he drove a truck from that firm to a point in Texas then hitchhiked to Flagstaff.

Mrs. MEYER advised that, if deemed advisable, she would be happy to listen to the tape recorded voice of the anonymous caller in an effort to establish whether or not it is in fact her brother. She noted that she has known WILSON since childhood and is acquainted with speech mannerisms and conversational expressions of which others may not be aware. She further advised that, at one time, WILSON was considered an excellent story teller. She said his talent for telling tales was so good that she had occasion to make a number of tape recordings of his voice. She said she may still have some of these tapes around her home and would be most agreeable to furnishing them for voice comparison tests.

Mrs. MEYER advised that she resides in a trailer on Ann Arbor Street in Saline, Michigan, near the New York Central Depot. She said she is employed as a traveling agent for the New York Central System and can be located through the office at any time. Mrs. MEYER advised that she would contact the FBI immediately upon hearing any further word of her brother's whereabouts.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1Date April 30, 1968

Mrs. EDNA WILSON was contacted at the home of her sister, TILLIE HERNANDEZ, 2 Woodland Circle, Flagstaff, Arizona, and furnished four photographs of her husband, DAVID WILSON, for circulation purposes. She said she has not yet been contacted by her husband since interviewed earlier this date. She said she would contact the interviewing Agent immediately upon receipt of any word concerning her husband's whereabouts.

Mrs. WILSON advised that, thinking back to the events of the night of Friday, April 19-20, 1968, she recalled that her husband finally returned to her at the home of her mother, Mrs. JUANITA CASADOS, between 2:30 and 3:00 AM, Saturday morning. She said he had been drinking heavily and was somewhat intoxicated by that time. She said that, upon his arrival, he did mention having stopped at a restaurant either Yiyi's or the Gables, between his departure from the HERNANDEZ home and the return to the CASADOS' home.

She noted that this period of time coincides almost exactly with the time in which the anonymous telephone call was received by the Coconino County Sheriff's Office early Saturday morning.

Mrs. EDNA WILSON was contacted at the home of her sister-in-law, TILLIE HERNANDEZ, 2 Woodland Circle, Flagstaff, Arizona, and advised as follows:

She and her husband, DAVID WILSON, and their children travelled from Flagstaff to Phoenix, Arizona, on Sunday, April 21, 1968, in the car which her husband had rented in Phoenix two days previously. They left the home of TILLIE HERNANDEZ shortly before noon and returned to their residence at 2129 West Lincoln, Phoenix.

WILSON returned to work at the Continental Body Shop, Phoenix, as usual on Monday morning. Upon his return from work he told her that he had received a number of threatening phone calls and that men in cars were staked out watching his place of employment. She said he told her that his life was in danger and that her life and the lives of their children were also in danger. She said he telephoned his sister, DOROTHY MEYER, in Saline, Michigan, that evening and she wired him $50. She said WILSON then abruptly moved her and the children from the Lincoln Avenue address to an address on Polk Street. She said he then left her and returned awhile later in a taxi cab, stopping briefly to give her $20 and to tell her that he was "getting lost." Mrs. WILSON said her husband instructed her to take the children via bus back to Flagstaff and remain with her family in this city. She said he told her that he would recontact her as soon as possible. She said the last she saw of him he was riding away from her in a taxi cab.

Mrs. WILSON advised that he had been interviewed the previous day by an FBI Agent at Phoenix, Arizona, and in that interview, had listened to a tape recorded voice which named her husband as an associate of JAMES EARL RAY. She said that, in that interview, she tentatively identified the voice as that of her previous husband, RICHARD HARRELL. She said she named HARRELL as it is the only other male in her acquaintance who speaks with a pronounced Southern drawl. She said that she actually has very little reason to believe that the voice was HARRELL's although it could be.

Mrs. WILSON said that actually upon listening to the voice again, she is almost certain that it is the voice of her husband, DAVID L. WILSON. She said this thought occurred to her the first time she heard the recording, but she was afraid to mention it thinking that it might get her husband into deeper trouble.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

RONNIE HERNANDEZ, 2 Woodland Circle, Flagstaff, Arizona, advised that he does recall an incident which occurred approximately one week ago at the Snack Shack Restaurant in Flagstaff, Arizona, when DAVID WILSON appeared and offered him a ride home. He said that, on this occasion, there was another person in the restaurant who asked him about WILSON's car but this person was no stranger. He said this person's name was ALBERTO CONTRAROS, a personal friend who resides at 608 South O'Leary, Flagstaff.

RONNIE HERNANDEZ listened to a tape recorded voice of an anonymous telephone caller who identified himself as a mutual acquaintance of DAVID L. WILSON and JAMES EARL RAY. He said the voice is unfamiliar to him although it does strongly resemble the voice of DAVID L. WILSON, himself. He said he could not make a positive identification on that basis but can think of no one else who speaks in exactly that manner.

The parents were not cooperative in providing information concerning R. B. HARRILL, but provided information concerning various relatives.

J. C. HARRILL, brother of R. B. HARRILL, was interviewed at Abernathy, Texas on April 24, 1968 and he advised that he had last heard from his brother, R. B. HARRILL, three years previously when the latter took his pickup truck and left Abernathy. He believed that R. B. HARRILL was driving to California, although R. B. has not communicated with him since that time. When R. B. took the pickup truck he was travelling with a woman, name unknown, and her children.

Communication dated April 26, 1968 from the San Francisco Office advised that on that day Mr. OTIS (Buddy) HARRILL, Buddy's Auto Repair, Willow Creek, California advised that R. B. HARRILL is his cousin. He said that R. B. HARRILL was last at Willow Creek two years previously and at that time was travelling in an old truck with a camper built on it and was with his brother, PAUL HARRILL. HARRILL and they do not associate with him. He said that since R. B. was 16 years of age he has been an outlaw, and had spent time in Florence, Arizona Prison and other institutions. He said that R. B. HARRILL is a vagabond who follows fruit picking work and is nearly illiterate.

RICHARD HARBELL, her sister, EDNA's, previous husband. She advised EDNA divorced HARBELL in 1954 or 1955, but prior to that time HARBELL was a frequent visitor to her residence. She said that HARBELL does speak with a Southern drawl and she is reasonably certain she would recognize his voice if heard. She said she has seen HARBELL only one time since his divorce from EDNA. She said this was during the summer of 1965 when HARBELL appeared at her house attempting to locate EDNA and their daughter. She said that on this occasion HARBELL was belligerent and antagonistic in his attitude and she had harsh words with HARBELL and threatened him with a police complaint. She said she has not seen or heard from or about him since. She said she is almost certain HARBELL and DAVID WILSON have never met. She viewed a photograph of HARBELL and said it was a good likeness of him.

Mrs. HOLLY HARBELL, Clerk, El Diente Grocery Store, 618 South Clay Street, Flagstaff, Arizona, advised that she is the wife of PAUL HARBELL, cousin of RICHARD B. HARBELL. She said her husband is presently in Moab, Utah, working in a mine. She said her husband has been in Utah for approximately four months.

Mrs. HARBELL viewed a photograph of RICHARD B. HARBELL and said it is a good likeness of her recollection of him. She said she last saw RICHARD HARBELL in 1957 and is certain he has not been in contact with her husband because of a serious falling out between the two men. She said she is aware that HARBELL paid a brief visit to the home of JULIE HERNANDEZ, sister of his former wife, in 1965, but that incident is the last she has heard of him since his departure from Flagstaff in 1957. She said RICHARD HARBELL made no contact with either she or her husband during his 1965 visit to Flagstaff.

Mrs. HARBELL advised that she has no idea what establishments RICHARD HARBELL normally frequents in Flagstaff, nor the identity of any of his friends. She said that he and her husband have no mutual relatives now living in Flagstaff.

Mrs. DAVID WILSON (EDNA) was contacted at her request at 1149 East Polk, the residence of a friend. She related that on the previous day her husband, DAVID WILSON, told her that he had received a phone call at the Continental Body Shop where he works in which a man asked him if he were WILSON. When he said he was, the man said that he was just calling to be sure that WILSON was still there. She said the caller then hung up, according to her husband, and her husband was very fearful as a result of this. She stated that her husband also claimed that strange cars were driving by the house frequently and as a result of this, he moved his family out of the house at 2129 West Lincoln to 1149 East Polk.

Mrs. WILSON stated that they planned to leave for Flagstaff, Arizona, by bus at around 10:00 that morning but that her husband had to wait for the money. She said that his sister was sending money and it did come later. She said that her husband came to 1149 East Polk by taxicab and gave her the money for the bus trip to Flagstaff but at this time declined to go with her or even to wait and take her to the bus depot. She said that he left by cab and gave her no indication as to where he was going or when she would see him again.

Mrs. WILSON stated that until this weekend she had never heard WILSON talk about JAMES EARL RAY and that the only thing he ever told her was that he knew him in prison very briefly while he was being transferred someplace. She stated that her husband never mentioned to her that he had met RAY in Lebanon, Missouri, last summer when he was arrested for Driving While Intoxicated.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 4/24/68

EDNA WILSON, 2129 West Lincoln, advised that a week ago the previous Friday, namely on April 12, 1968, her husband, DAVID WILSON, had taken her to Flagstaff, Arizona, where she resided with her mother and father at 29 Pine Grove Road until she returned to Phoenix that day.

Mrs. WILSON stated that on Friday, April 19, 1968, her husband DAVID WILSON again came to Flagstaff for the purpose of picking her up and bringing her back to Phoenix. She stated that on this occasion when DAVID WILSON came to Flagstaff, she was at her mother's house where her husband arrived at about 12:30 a.m., April 20, 1968. She said that prior to coming to the mother's house, her husband had visited at the home of her sister, TILLIE and JOE HERNANDEZ, which is about four blocks from the mother's home, and that she understood that her husband was there about one hour before he came over to the mother's house.

Mrs. WILSON stated that when her husband arrived at the mother's house at 12:30 a.m., Saturday morning, it was evident to her that he had been drinking some and he told her that he had had a six-pack or two when he left Phoenix for Flagstaff. She stated that her husband probably had at least one beer at her sister's house before coming over to the mother's house. She stated that she fixed bacon and eggs for her husband upon his arrival at the mother's home and that, at that time, he wanted her to immediately return with him to Phoenix, Arizona. She said she refused to go at that time and her husband DAVID then left and went over to her sister TILLIE's house where he drank coffee for a while and then went out and got a hot beef sandwich at either the Gables or Yayas (phonetic), restaurants in Flagstaff, before he returned to the mother's house and went to bed.

Mrs. WILSON advised that she had great difficulty in recalling any associates of her husband, since he had none. She said that the person who might be considered the closest associate of DAVID WILSON was some 21-year-old boy named MIKE, last name unrecalled, who lived in Flagstaff, Arizona, prior to the time that they were married. She said this boy MIKE married an Indian girl at Las Vegas, Nevada, and she and DAVID WILSON stood up for these people at this marriage. She stated that obviously this was a number of years ago and that there has been no recent association between MIKE and her husband, to the best of her knowledge.

Mrs. WILSON advised that her husband had never mentioned the name of CLARK or CLARENCE CLARK to her and that such an individual is unknown to her. She stated that she had no recollection of her husband ever bringing anyone with him whom he had previously known in jail or otherwise, to the residence of her mother or the residence of her sister in Flagstaff.

Mrs. WILSON stated that after her husband had been interviewed by FBI Agent C. RICHARD WARNER, JR., and Lieutenant JACKSON of the Flagstaff Police Department at Flagstaff on April 20, 1968, he told her when he had returned that he had known the man "RAY" who was being sought in connection with the murder of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., in prison in Missouri, though only for a few days. She said her husband said that he was being transferred at the time and therefore had known RAY only briefly. She stated that her husband further told her that he had given someone a ride to Flagstaff on the night of April 19, 1968, but that the person given the ride was not "RAY."

Mrs. WILSON said that she recalled that on the day that she went to Flagstaff as previously related, namely April 12, 1968, a Friday, some man came to the door of their residence knocking for someone else, not her husband, but that she could not recall the name of the person this individual was seeking. She said she did remember that whoever it was, it was someone unknown to her. She said she paid little attention to the matter and that she could only describe the man who inquired as being a white male American, in his early 30s, about 5' 7" tall and of medium build. She repeated that she had no reason to believe that this was any associate of her husband.

Mrs. WILSON advised that on the Saturday morning prior to being interviewed by FBI Agent WARNER and Lieutenant JACKSON, her husband had been drinking heavily. She said that when her husband returned to the house to await the arrival of Lieutenant JACKSON, whom he had contacted for the purpose of being accompanied to the interview with FBI Agent WARNER, he, WILSON, had a bottle of whisky in his car from which he was drinking. She stated that when her husband returned from the interview he cried and laughed alternately, but mostly cried. She said that he talked during this time about being "railroaded as he had been in Florida." She said her husband mentioned no names whatsoever at this time. She stated that WILSON then wanted to talk to his sister in Kalamazoo, Michigan, and he put in a telephone call to her. She said the only reason that he called this sister, so far as she knew, was that they were the closest to one another in the family.

Mrs. WILSON stated that Agent WARNER, who had come to the house, was present when WILSON telephoned this sister in Michigan, and talked briefly to her. Mrs. WILSON said that her husband has a sister in LaFollette, Tennessee, and a brother in Dade City, Florida, though she believed that the brother may have recently moved to someplace the identity of which she could not recall.

Mrs. WILSON stated that her husband DAVID had left her in Flagstaff, Arizona, in May, 1967, and did not return until November, 1967. She said that he kept in touch during this period and that when he first left, he went to Nevada and then returned to Flagstaff where he briefly worked for the Holiday Inn. He then went to Arkansas where he drove a truck out of Elms Springs, Arkansas, and was arrested, possibly in August or September, 1967, in a small town named Lipdon or Limpdon or something like that. She said she recalled that her husband was in jail for a while until his pay check reached him so that he could pay his fine, which she believed was $125. She said that she had received a letter from her husband at this location and she believed she still had it. She checked her effects, however, and said she could not find this letter.

Mrs. WILSON advised that her husband then apparently went to Michigan where he visited his sister at Kalamazoo and from there went to Florida. From Florida he went to Barstow, California, and from Barstow, came to Phoenix.

Mrs. WILSON stated that her husband upon coming to Phoenix, arrived in November, 1967, and obtained employment with the Continental Body Shop, working there until late December or early January, 1968, when he came to Flagstaff and worked a very brief time at the Southwest Lumber Mill. She stated that in January, 1968, they returned to Phoenix and her husband again went to work for Continental Body Shop where he has been employed until the present time.

Mrs. WILSON advised that about three or four weeks ago, on a Sunday night, her husband was arrested in a bar on Buckeye Road and was taken to the City Jail for drunkenness. She said that he came home the following day, a Monday, but did not go to work that day but stayed at home. She said that in connection with this arrest, her husband had left the house about 5 p.m. and about 10:30 or 11 p.m. a man came by and informed her that DAVID WILSON had been arrested for drunkenness. She said she did not see a car at the time this man came to the house and she did not know the identity of this individual.

Mrs. WILSON advised that except for the night that her husband was in the Phoenix Jail, he has been present in her company in Phoenix the complete time since January of this year.

Mrs. WILSON was afforded an opportunity to listen to a tape recording of a conversation wherein a male stated that DAVID WILSON, who was married to a Mexican girl from Flagstaff, Arizona, had made a trip by air to Memphis, Tennessee, or Nashville, Tennessee, a day or two prior to the assassination of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. After listening to this recording, Mrs. WILSON stated that she had definitely heard that voice before and she believed that it probably was the voice of her former husband, RICHARD HARRELL, who is commonly known as JIMMIE. She stated that she had married
