RE: MURKIN
(OO: Memphis)

On 5/2/68 Mrs. A. M. WITTEN, 901 Dabney, Corpus Christi, Texas, advised as follows:

She was formerly employed by Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, 4th Floor, Milam Building, San Antonio, Texas. This company had in its office an album of professional insurance claimants, which she believes was compiled and maintained by Southwest Index Bureau. Recently upon seeing newspaper and television photographs of subject, it seemed to her she had observed a photograph in the album of professional insurance claimants at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company office which was that of subject, or someone who looked very similar to him. Further, she thought possibly the name JAMES EARL RAY was included in the above index and album.

April 26, 1968

New York, U. S. A.

Gentlemen:

Please permit me to refer briefly to the assassination of Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING.

With regard to the contradictions in the evidence as presented by the FBI concerning JAMES EARL RAY wa.
ERIC STARVO GALT as the only subject in this case, and with regard to other mysteries and questions as published, I would like to call your attention to this:

From the first, the information reported which I read seemed to me to be absurd, confused, and, perhaps,
"prepared".

Permit me to suggest, or rather, to ask, if you have conducted an appropriate investigation of the man or men who saw the presumed assassin fleeing from the hotel from which the shots were fired.

Also I would like to suggest an inquiry of the hotel owner regarding the truth concerning the income of the suspect, his stay in the hotel, etc., as well as an inquiry regarding the two principal characters who backed him as I believe this will turn up a lead resulting in the apprehension of the criminal.

Very respectfully yours,

Señores F.B.I.
New York U.S.A.

Muy señores míos:

Permítame que moleste la atención de ustedes, para referirme brevemente sobre el presunto asesino del Pastor Martin Luther King.

Según las contradicciones en testimonios observados por F.B.I. acerca de James Earl Ray, alias Eric Starvo Galt, como único culpable y otros misterios e interrogantes publicados, quiero manifestar ante sus Autoridades, que desde las primeras informaciones que lei, me parecieron absurdas, intrincadas y quizás preparadas.

Me permito sugerir o preguntar, si han investigado debidamente a aquel hombre u hombres que vieron huir al presunto asesino del hotel desde el cual hicieron los disparos.

Igualmente una investigación bien detenida a la propietaria del hotel, sobre la veracidad del ingreso del supuesto hombre, su estadía, pago de los ocho dólares, etc., estos dos personajes principales y otros que secundaran, creo que conducirán a la pista directa a seguirse para encontrar al criminal.

De ustedes muy respetuosamente.

On 5/2/68, NATALIE MAZZOLLA, 5703 21st Place, Hill Crest, Maryland (requests protect identity). Advised SAs ROY G. WETZEL and JAMES GORDON HALL that on 2/12/68, while traveling alone by automobile through the state of Georgia, she met three men in a restaurant, the name and location of which she does not recall. She conversed with these individual's names was BUDDY CHRISTIAN, age 40. One of the other men was CHRISTIAN's younger brother, whose age is approximately 28. The third man gave his name as JAMES CRAIG.

MAZZOLLA drove along the same highway that these men were traveling for approximately eight hours as they headed for Florida. These men were driving a red Dodge, about three or four years old, license number unknown. MAZZOLLA had a brief conversation with these men at a gasoline station where they both stopped to refuel. MAZZOLLA stated that during this conversation CRAIG stated that the three of them were going to Naples, Florida to do construction work. CRAIG stated that he could be located in care of a friend or relative by the name of MAC RICHARDS, 2364 Bayside Drive, Naples, Florida, telephone number MI 9-9058.

MAZZOLLA furnished the following description of CRAIG after being advised that the information she furnished would be maintained in the strictest confidence:

Height:	5'7"
Weight:	150 lbs.

... And Struck with a Single Shot

By ROBERT GRUENBERG

Times-Union Special Service

Memphis — The tragedy that was to envelop Memphis and the nation began to unfold on South Main Street on the afternoon of Thursday, April 4.

In a cheap rooming house at 422½ S. Main, a stranger about 6 feet tall, with a prominent nose and sandy-to-dark hair, suddenly appeared at the second floor flat of Mrs. Bessie Brewer, the fiftyish work-worn landlady on the premises. It was between 3 and 3:30 p.m.

He was well dressed, but she could not recall much beyond that.

"He wanted to rent a room," she said. Mrs. Brewer showed him a neat, clean room, No. 8, that rented for $19 a week. It had a stove and refrigerator.

He rejected it. "I don't need a stove and refrigerator," he told her.

Mrs. Brewer showed him a second room in a second building — connected to 422½ by a second-floor walkway. It was Room 5B, a tawdry place near the end of a 50-foot corridor, and about 10 feet from the bathroom at the corner of the building.

He barely glanced at the second room, she said. "I'll take it," he told her. She motioned to the bathroom down the hall. "There's the bathroom," she said.

Room 5B had one important difference from Room 8. It had a window which, by leaning out, one could get a clear view of the Lorraine Motel, where Dr. King was staying.

The bathroom, at a corner of the building, also provided an unobstructed view of Dr. King's quarters, through the sparse branches of trees.

Back at her own apartment, she collected $8.50 from the stranger. ("I always collect in advance"), and the stranger paid with a $20 bill.

She made the receipt in the name he gave her: "John Willard."

That was all. She had no reason to doubt him. He didn't tell her where he came from, where he was going, and it's not necessary to ask needless questions.

She returned to her cooking, and that was the last she saw of "John Willard."

A few minutes after 6 p.m. she heard what she thought was a shot and "somebody hollering." To her husband, Frank, it sounded like a firecracker.

They rushed to the rear of the rooming house and saw swarms of police at the Lorraine Motel, a half block away. An officer shouted to them, "get back! Get back!" They did.

Meanwhile, Charlie Q. Stephens, 46, a tubular pensioner in Room 6B, next to the bathroom, also heard what he thought was a shot. He had been trying to repair his table radio.

He went to the door and, opening it, saw a

—UPI Telephoto to The Times-Union

A Memphis Commercial-Appeal staff artist compiled this composite sketch from descriptions furnished by several persons who said they saw a man run from cheap hotel in Memphis.

man about 5 feet, 10 inches, with dark sandy hair, running down the hall. He seemed to be carrying "something wrapped in newspapers," Stephens recalled.

Moments later, Guy Canipe, 58, owner of an amusement machine shop at 424 S. Main St., saw a man drop a zipper bag and a long package wrapped in "old green curtains or a bedspread" in the alcove entrance of his shop.

Canipe went out to examine it, and before the police came, he saw that the carton, open at one end, contained a rifle.

Between 20 and 35 police were on the scene, but the man who dropped the package — "John Willard" or anybody else — slipped away down Main Street.

With the zipper bag police found a pair of binoculars purchased in Memphis that day, they said, and a box containing some cartridges.

The shot that had been fired — from a Remington rifle with telescopic sights — traveled 205 feet, 3 inches.

Dr. King had been standing on the balcony of the Lorraine, talking to Ben Branch, a Chicago musician who was to play at a rally that evening, and Solomon Jones, his chauffeur.

"Don't forget to wear your topcoat," Jones called up to him. "It has turned chill."

At that moment the bullet crashed into Dr. King. He fell backward silently, blood gushing from his neck, as the Rev. Jesse Jackson, an aide, leaped toward him.

Dr. King lay silently, bleeding. At the hospital, minutes later, the doctors said it was too late. He was dead.

Early-Arrest Talk Cools

Memphis (AP) — Finding the person who killed Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. apparently has settled down to the police routine of sifting every clue and checking every lead.

There was no talk of an early arrest, as there had been shortly after King was assassinated Thursday night. Robert G. Drewry and John C. Moore, the U.S. commissioners in Memphis, said they had not been approached by either the FBI or the U.S. attorney to issue a fugitive warrant.

As federal officials pressed the manhunt, there were reports of arrests in various parts of the country and of a widespread search in Mexico.

The Mexico rumor started after Rolando Veloz, the Mexican Consul in Memphis, told authorities there was a resemblance between a composite sketch carried in a local newspaper and a man who applied for a tourist card the day before King was shot.

The man turned out to be a 19-year-old student at Memphis State University, Memphis police said. They dismissed the possibility that he was connected with the case.

If I am arrested, Percy Foreman might figure some way to accuse me, and convince the

Then have me judged, and sentenced to die,
Then you would have two perfect crimes on your hands, MINE, and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Maybe you should "Not use the

If I am subpoenaed as a witness, I can beat him by calling him a Bounty Hunter.

I would be subpoenaed only, to tell the court that I did send to you two of my pictures, which I hoped, would help The F.B.I. to collect Evidence.

The main reason, was, a sanctuary within the Law, to protect me and my family from a lawful Mistake, which could be fatal to me, and sadding and an insult to me, my family, and friends.

If your facts are straight, you will get all of the right people in the conspiracy, Let Percy Foreman make a mistake, and Dr. Martin Luther Kings, Mrs. Trail, will go on forever. The only thing that I am afraid of is a simple Damn Mistake. God, only knows how much you have to back me up in front of a man like Percy Foreman.

Allow Percy Foreman, to reply to the Associated Press.

Figure out where All of your fact finding Caps are, and have them covered by the time James Earl Ray goes on trail for the Murder of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

You can put out this propaganda, when you figure you are set up to handle your fact finding Mission.

Dear Sirs,

I have read and meditated a great deal since reading, "The Strange Case of James Earl Ray," by Bernard Gavzer. I'm none the wiser, and I cannot answer any thing without knowing what or how to answer.

I could call the names of people that I have worked with in 1967 and 1968, but if Lockheed-Georgia Corp, has on file the photo's of employees that have worked there, would be much better to work with, but I don't think anyone was really never mad at me, or any one that could create a conspiracy against the United States individually, maybe by the mump numbers.

Those may be a few in the S.I. (Steve) Williamson's Group, one who's home is in ^{shot the Buff about large caliber Pistols etc,} Huntsville, Alabama. Most of the others are like myself. Gov't Contract runs out, and I get laid-off.

one went to Seattle, Wash. - lived in same Apt. Bldg. at 347 Lake Drive, from Florida.

Then there is the Englishman, Rogers, in H.V. HANSEN's Group that said, before he got laid-off, he was going to quite, go to the Las. Angeles Area, and lay low, I ask about to find other work, and passed the ~~conser~~ conversation off by saying he was not for sure what he was going to do. Entered the U.S., I think by, Canada, either via Canadair, Inc. or direct to the U.S. to Lockheed-Georgia, something, like he could legally stay in the U.S. as long as he was working, etc.

C. D. Montalvo, ^{sp} Puerto Rican, has been here in the U.S. 19 to 23 yrs, and not a legalized citizen yet. Then this Passageorge - he must really have been a Big-Big Boss of some sort, He could lay-off any one, and I thought him to be a real "fogy" sort of person. But since I've been laid off there at Lockheed, I have written to President ^{"former"} Johnson, summing up ~~to~~ what I considered to be real legitimate "Grips".

I guess I liked Steve Williamson as a Boss or Supervisor better than any of them.

I've written to ^{"former"} Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey several times, lots of people in D.C. about things I liked, or dis-liked. ^{former} Honorable ~~to~~ Lindley Beckworth, of Gladewater, Texas, has read some of my grips at the Civil Service and MISC. things.

Nothing involves my Secret (Army & N.A.S.A.) Security Clearance, but if he still has his records, I guess he could tell you.

You F.B.I. People are the Best, I guess. I have never been so Confused about one Crime, (Assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King) in my life.

My sending to you my two photographs of me when I ~~as~~ was in the Army, is more the result of "Re-Action," rather than Action or involvement into Dr. King, Dr.'s Assassination I said that wrong, or it came out wrong, I don't know now if I said it wrong.

Remember back, when you got married, the Vows of Holy Matrimony, I DO, etc. etc. - - - - - And let "NO MEN put you Under."

That was the reason why, and How I sent the pictures of myself to the F.B.I. I did not want you F.B.I.'s jumping on me or my Family or myself, and or even suspicion on me or my Brother. So you see,

I'm not even a half a ~~Hero~~ Hero.

but I can say emphatically, Dr. King had his rights, and here in the United States, his rights are guaranteed, etc, etc.

All of you F.B.I. guys are the Best, because all of you tracked James Earl Ray half around the world, and to my knowledge, never fired a shot getting him back to Memphis, Tenn.

Sincerely yours,

Donald R. Smith

in the past four or five months she received a collect call, long-distance, from some unidentified person from somewhere in California. Mrs. COOK stated she did not accept this call inasmuch as she did not recognize the voice of the caller and did not recognize the name furnished by the operator. She stated that she did know that the voice of the caller was not that of her son, and she therefore refused to accept the call. Mrs. COOK stated that her son formerly resided in Granada Hills, Calif. several years ago. He is divorced from his former wife BETTY, and BETTY is now remarried, name and place of residence unknown.

Mrs. COOK and her son, JAMES F. COOK, 1412 SE Riverside Dr., Evansville, Ind., who also happened to be present, both advised that they do not know where ALBERT F. COOK, JR. is residing nor where he is employed. They both stated that they have no way of contacting him and the only contact they have is when he occasionally calls Mrs. COOK.

Mrs. COOK advised that she does not know JAMES EARL RAY nor anyone by the name of ERIC STARVO GALT and knows of no way that anyone could have her telephone number in Calif. other than her son. She stated that it was possible that the person placing the call which she did not accept may have been placing the call for her son. She noted that her son when she last talked to him stated he had no permanent residence and was traveling and lived at various hotels.
