Re El Paso airtel to Bureau, 4/30/68.

The following investigation was conducted by SA ROBERT
A. DAVIDSON:

AT EULESS, TEXAS

On 5/6/68, MR. ROBERT BOGASH, District Claims Supervisor, Allied Van Lines, Pipe Line and Highway 157, advised that telephone No. 817-283-1541 is the number for this Allied Van Lines office, which is the check point and dispatching office for a five-state area which includes New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Texas. He advised there are no records kept of incoming calls and he would therefore have no way of knowing the details of a call made to the above number on 12/16/67.

He further stated that drivers for Allied Van Lines are required to check in once a day at the nearest check point, and that the drivers pay for these calls at the time they are made, and that it is generally customary to place the call person to person in order for them to speak to a specific dispatcher. In view of the above, BOGASH concluded that the call made on 12/16/67 from either Van Horn, Valentine or Sierra Blanco, Texas was probably a routine check-in by one of their drivers.

She advised that the 12/12/67 phone call to their resides in Allegheny, Calif., and he is reportedly employed as a building manager in that area. His contact with the family has been limited in recent years.

However, he holds 100 shares of AT&T stock and calls every several months to ensure that the dividend checks are forwarded to him from Sharon Hill. Mrs. SPATZ is not certain, but she believes that that was the reason for the call of

The following investigation was conducted by SA
ROBERT S. KENNEMUR:

On May 7, 1968, RANDOLPH D. JONES, Pure Oil Station, Americus, Georgia, reviewed the credit card purchase slips which were obtained from the Chicago Office regarding purchases at his station on April 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1968. Mr. JONES advised that all of the purchases which were recorded in his name could be eliminated by him as persons who are known to him with the exception of a purchase made by GEORGE B. FRANKS, Pure Oil Credit Card Number [REDACTED]. Mr. JONES observed that this credit card was to expire in July of 1968, and he believed that this was possibly the person to whom he had sold the gas who resembled the photograph of JAMES EARL RAY.

The Pure Oil Company, Retail Department, Palatine, Illinois, had furnished the address of Mr. FRANKS as 707 Virginia Avenue, Glennville, Georgia.

Mr. BRUCE RAE, Consul, Australian Consulate General, 350 Post Street, San Francisco, on 4/30/68, advised that there was no way of determining who called the Australian Consulate from Los Angeles, California in December, 1967. He advised a check of the records of the Consulate did not disclose any reference to RAY under his name or aliases.

On 5/1/68, it was determined that telephone number 365-9763 was a public coin-box phone in a booth outside the Whipple Avenue Lodge.

Mrs. ROBERT FAEZ, Temporary Manager, advised on 5/1/68, that the records of the motel did not indicate that RAY had registered at the lodge on 2/19/68 using his name or any of his aliases. She advised the photograph of RAY was not familiar to her.

NICK A. CORN, Owner, Whipple Avenue Lodge, on 5/2/68, advised after reviewing the register of guests for 2/19/68, stated that he knew most of those registered on that date as they were frequent guests of this motel and none of them resemble RAY in any respect.

HELEN GUILLES, formerly HELEN JOLICOEUR, 242 C, Redwood City, on 5/1/68, advised she received no calls from the Los Angeles area on her phone. She suggested that a former tenant, RON FORBES, might be able to furnish some information.

RON FORBES, 1489 Kansas Street, San Francisco, Calif., on 5/2/68, advised he had resided with HELEN JOLICOEUR. He advised he does not recall receiving telephone calls on the dates in question. He advised his former wife who resided in Los Angeles did call him about the pertinent time. He stated she was in Miami, Florida at this time, not in Los Angeles.

RON FORBES on 5/7/68, advised that since furnishing the above information, that he checked some records and determined that the telephone calls in question were undoubtedly telephone calls he received from his estranged wife who is at the present time, suffering from a severe mental condition. He said that on one occasion when his wife called him at his residence, that he suggested she call him at a pay phone located in the neighborhood. He stated that the pay phone was located in the vicinity of the Whipple Avenue Motel.

FORBES advised that the names JAMES EARL RAY or ERIC STARVO GALT mean nothing to him and he only knows of them because he read about them in the paper.

On 4/30/68, FRED DAHL advised he has not received any telephone calls from Los Angeles but suggested that a younger man by the name of ROBERT FRASER, who lived with him at one time, might have received these calls.

On 5/4/68, FRASER <sup>EMPLOYED by Village Cab</sup> advised that in February, 1968, he received several telephone calls from Los Angeles, Calif. from his sister JULIE WANDREY. He advised that he had no idea from what telephone these calls were made, but advised that his sister was having marital problems at the time, was very upset and kept calling him.

On 4/30/68, LEONARD A. WIDEN, 943 Brentwood, San Jose, Calif., advised there is no one in the family named LENORE and further advised he does not recall receiving a phone call and does not know RAY or GALT.

On 5/2/68, LEONARD WIDEN advised that he had determined that his wife's sister, HARRIET COLLASINO, of New York City flew into Los Angeles on 2/19/68 to visit her mother. He advised the mother had no telephone and Mrs. COLLASINO placed a long-distance call to his residence in San Jose on the same evening from a public phone.

Bureau airtel to Boston, 5/9/68.

On 4/19/68, ROBERT GREEN, 50 Bradshaw St., Dorchester, Mass., advised that on the evening of 4/16/68, at approximately 9:10 pm, he picked up a person, whom he believed fit the description of ERIC STARVO GALT with a girl companion in his taxicab. He stated that he picked up these two individuals across the street from the Boston City Hospital and was told by the man to take them to Beacon St., to the best of his recollection, to the 300 or 400 block. As they were proceeding to that destination, when they reached the corner of Commonwealth Ave., and Massachusetts Ave., Boston, the man told GREEN to let them off there, stating that he planned to pickup something at the liquor store, across the street.

According to GREEN, the man had a southern drawl and seemed to be feigning an Irish or Scottish accent when he talked. GREEN could not remember any of the conversation carried on between the man and the woman while they were in his taxicab and when questioned closely concerning the original destination of the couple, he stated that he was not at all sure that it was the 300 or 400 block on Beacon Street, but that somehow those numbers stick in the back of his mind. GREEN furnished the following description of the man:

Race:	White
Height:	5' 10" - 5' 11"
Weight:	170 pounds
Age:	36
Hair:	Dark, combed straight back
Build:	Medium
Complexion:	Medium
Characteristics:	Seemed to walk with a limp
Clothing:	Wearing a dark rain or shine coat, with no hat and no tie - neat appearance.

GREEN could furnish no additional information concerning this individual.

By personal observation of the area around Commonwealth Ave., and Mass. Ave., it was noted that the only liquor store was Fennell and Co., Liquor Store, at 59 Mass. Ave., Boston, Mass.

On 4/19/68, NORMAN GILBERTSON, Fennell and Co., Liquor Store, 59 Mass. Ave., advised that he is the manager of the liquor store and that he was on duty on the night of 4/16/68. He stated that he could not recall a man and a woman coming into that store that evening who fit the description furnished by GREEN. GILBERTSON advised that he has been conducting the management of this liquor store for several years and after seeing photographs of GALT, he advised that he knew of no one in the area who resembles the photos. He stated, however, that he would be on the lookout for anyone resembling GALT and would notify the FBI expeditiously, if anyone came to his attention resembling GALT.

On 4/19/68, CY KASSEL, and GLADYS SPRAGUE, Kenmore Pharmacy, 65 Mass. Ave., Boston, Mass., were interviewed for any information concerning the unsub, and his companion with negative results.

BS 157-644

On 4/19/68, Mrs. ANNE BURNS, Clerk, Information Center, Boston City Hospital, 818 Harrison Ave., Boston, Mass., checked hospital records for all individuals who were discharged from the hospital on 4/16/68. She advised that no one was discharged from the hospital on that date under the name ERIC STARVO GALT or any of his aliases.

On 4/19/68, the following individuals were contacted for any information concerning the unsub and his companion with negative results:

WILLIAM ABRAMS, 343 Beacon St., Boston

ABBEY RAINEY, 333 Beacon Street, Boston

BRUCE CARRUTHERS, 334 Beacon St., Boston

THOMAS KEARNEY, 443 Beacon St., Boston

ANDREW BELANGER, 443 Beacon St., Boston

In view of the unspecific nature of complainant's information, and the fact that investigation to identify the suspects, based on complainant's information was unproductive, no additional investigation in this matter is contemplated by Boston, UAC.

Re Springfield airtel to Bureau, 5/1/68.

INVESTIGATION CONCERNING ROBERT HOOD STRADER WHO ALLEGED KING ASSASSINATION PLOT IN BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA, AREA SUMMER OF 1967.

Investigation was conducted at Baton Rouge and New Orleans, La., during the period of 5/7 - 9/68, to locate RAYMOND HENRY STARNES. STARNES was located and interviewed on 5/9/68, in New Orleans, La., at which time he furnished the following information:

STARNES is a native of Denham Springs, La., and is currently associated in a business partnership with EARNEST C. DONNELL, Owner of the Earnest C. Donnell Construction Co., at Denham Springs, La. Denham Springs is located nine miles distant from Baton Rouge, La.

STARNES is well acquainted in Denham Springs and knows nearly all of the businessmen in that community including those who are reportedly members of the Ku Klux Klan and who are considered to be strong segregationists.

STARNES was in Denham Springs in the Summer of 1967, at which time there was considerable racial strife taking place, including marches by Negro groups and opposition being presented to these marches by those individuals with strong segregation beliefs. STARNES stated that he himself is a liberal in his view towards Negroes and that he did not participate in any of the activities that took place in Denham Springs in the Summer of 1967. He stated, however, that he did frequently converse with individuals whom he considered to be members of the Ku Klux Klan, these persons having been individuals that he grew up with in Denham Springs.

STARNES stated that at no time during this period did any information come to his attention that there were businessmen in Denham Springs, La., or in Baton Rouge, La., who were taking up a collection to obtain money to have MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., assassinated. STARNES does not recall of having heard the name of KING even mentioned during the Summer of 1967, nor does he recall any information which would indicate there was a plot to kill any particular Negro or any individual of any race for that matter.

STARNES is against violence and if any information such as a plot to kill anyone had come to his attention, he would promptly notify an appropriate law enforcement agency.

During the Fall of 1967, STARNES recalls that an individual subsequently known to him as ROBERT STRADER appeared at the Earnest C. Donnell Construction Company in Denham Springs making claims to EARNEST DONNELL that he could obtain considerable financing from a SHAPIRO family in Miami, Fla. DONNELL became interested in STRADER's proposition and ordered STARNES to accompany STRADER to Miami, Fla., which he did and at which time he and STRADER met with a Mr. and Mrs. SHAPIRO. It developed, however, that STRADER did not previously know the SHAPIRO family and further that STRADER actually had no contacts or was not in a position to obtain financing for the Donnell Construction Company.

It was during the trip to Miami, Fla., that STARNES realized that STRADER had an apparent mental problem.

NO 157-10673

STARNS recalled that while staying in motels in Fla, STRADER at times became most irrational and envisioned that he was being followed by Federal Agents.

After the Florida trip, STRADER continued to hang around the Donnell Company in Denham Springs, La., at which time STRADER's wife was also present. In STARNS' opinion, STRADER's wife is also an irrational person.

On one occasion, STRADER who was doing some work for the Donnell Company, took STARNS' personally owned vehicle with the permission of STARNS on a business trip. STRADER's wife accompanied STRADER on this trip and they did not return as scheduled. The vehicle was subsequently located in Mississippi in an abandoned position. Also at this same time, STARNS and EARNEST DONNELL discovered that STRADER had stolen some property from the company, such as a portable electric typewriter, a brief case full of valuable engineering fittings, a telephone credit card and other miscellaneous items. Also taken from the STARNS vehicle was a .38 Police Special Revolver which was a sentimental keepsake which had been given to STANS by his father.

The theft of these items was reported to law enforcement agencies but DONNELL subsequently decided not to press charges. The revolver has never been recovered by STARNS and he does not presently know its whereabouts.

STARNS heard from some unrecalled source several months ago that STRADER either was or is presently confined to a mental institution. He has not seen STRADER since late Fall of 1967.

STRADER was a braggart by nature, frequently announced his animosity towards Negroes but was never known to STARNS to have specifically mentioned MARTIN LUTHER KING or any other particular Negro. STRADER frequently bragged that he had contacts with the underworld but never specifically mentioned anyone by name.

STARNS concluded that he is at a loss to explain why it is alleged that he possessed information concerning a plot to raise money to kill MARTIN KING. He stated that he wanted to cooperate fully with the FBI, which agency he admires considerably and that if any further recollection concerning the Summer of 1967 in Denham Springs came to him, he would promptly advise the New Orleans Office.

STARNS described STRADER as a white male, 6'2" tall, 36 years of age and possessing blond wavy hair. During the Summer of 1967, STARNS personally owned a 1967 Oldsmobile, white over black, bearing Texas license KLX or KLN 491.

New Orleans indices contained no identifiable information in the name of RAYMOND HENRY STARNS or ROBERT HOOD STRADER.
