JAMES EARL RAY, 00416

AUG 26 1965

Petitioner,

vs.

No. 1016

WILLIAM P. SEEINWAGSER,

Respondent.

ORDER DISMISSING A PETITION FOR A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

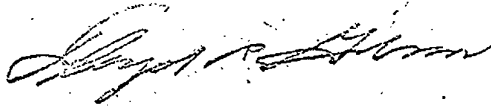

Petitioner is an inmate of the Missouri State Penitentiary in Jefferson City, Missouri, serving a 20-year sentence for robbery in the first degree. Petitioner appealed his conviction based upon a jury verdict to the Missouri Supreme Court and was denied certiorari by the United States Supreme Court. Thereafter, petitioner filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in this Court. The petition was dismissed without prejudice to allow petitioner to exhaust available state remedies. Petitioner alleges that on February 9, 1965 he filed a "motion to recall and vacate mandate" in the Supreme Court of Missouri. This motion was treated as a writ of habeas corpus by that Court and denied on the merits according to petitioner.

Petitioner is now again seeking relief in this Court by petitioning for a writ of habeas corpus. It is petitioner's contention that the motion before the Supreme Court of Missouri on February 9, 1965 exhausted his state remedies.

The Court cannot agree with petitioner. The Missouri Rules via Rule 27.26 allow a petitioner to collaterally attack a conviction by proper motion before the trial court. It is this Court that is best able to ascertain the merits of a petitioner's claim. This untried remedy is readily available to petitioner, and until it is exhausted with any adverse ruling appealed at least to the Missouri Supreme Court, the available state remedies have not been exhausted. Donnell v. Nash, 323 F.2d 850 (2d Cir.1963). Since petitioner's application shows that state remedies have not been fully exhausted, this Court is unable to rule on the merits of petitioner's allegations. Title 28, U.S.C. §2254. Therefore, petitioner is granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis, but his petition for a writ of habeas corpus is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

MISSOURI STATE PENITENTIARY,

ORDER DENYING CERTIFICATE OF PROBABLE CAUSE

Petitioner's application for a federal writ of habeas corpus was denied by the District Court on the ground that the Missouri state courts should be afforded the opportunity to pass upon the federal constitutional violations alleged by him, through a proceeding under Rule 27.26 of the Missouri Supreme Court or in state habeas corpus.

This ruling was in accordance with our holding in Mahurin v. Nash, 8 Cir., 321 F.2d 562, and Pennell v. Nash, 8 Cir., 323 F.2d 850, that, as a matter of proper federal-state relationship the Missouri state courts are entitled to a present opportunity to deal with alleged federal constitutional violations in conviction, sentence, or restraint of state prisoners, upon the basis of the concepts and standards of Wong v. Maig, 372 U.S. 391, and Townsend v. Saig, 372 U.S. 293, through the filing of a motion to vacate sentence under Rule 27.26 of the Missouri Supreme Court Rules of Criminal Procedure, and that in our opinion the Missouri courts would decline and would assume the responsibility of thus dealing with such situations.

The application of petitioner to have a certificate of probable cause issued by a judge of this court to enable him to take an appeal from the District Court's denial of his application for a writ of habeas corpus is accordingly hereby denied.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE CRIME AND OF PRISONER'S COMMITMENT

The State's evidence in the trial of James E. Ray, showed the following:

Ct. No. 1427-H:

That Ray and one James Loama Owens left Ray's rooming house about 8:00 or 8:15 AM on 10-10-59 in a '58 Plymouth, the property of Owens, and proceeded to steal a '50 Ford near the Kroger Store at 3417 Ohio Ave. The Two men then proceeded to the Kroger Store in this '50 Ford, parked a short distance from the front door and both men entered. Ray went to the cashier's office and held an automatic on the cashier and demanded that the safe be opened. After some discussion back and forth to the effect that it took two people to open the safe, Ray became nervous when he saw a second man approach the cashier's cage and he turned and started out of the store, stopping at a check-out counter where he displayed the pistol and demanded that the cashier at this counter open the drawer, which she did. Ray then took about $120 from the drawer.

During this time, Owens stood inside the front door acting, by his own admission, as the look-out. Owens also had a pistol, but kept it in his suitcoat pocket. After Ray took the money from the cashier's drawer, the two men fled from the store, re-entered the '50 Ford and drove about four blocks where they abandoned the Ford and got back into Owens' Plymouth and proceeded back to Ray's rooming house.

After the two bandits left the store, the manager and one customer got the license number of the '50 Ford, followed the Ford, and saw the switch of cars take place after the robbery, and one of these men obtained the license number of the Plymouth at the time of the 'switch'.

About 30 minutes after the robbery, the police 'spotted' the Plymouth in front of Ray's rooming house, and a short time later arrested Owens while he was getting into the Plymouth, and Ray was arrested in the rooming house after he gave the officers considerable resistance. The two guns, the money and the clothing were recovered in the rooming house.

Both defendants were ident. by the people in the store, and by the two men who pursued them from the scene.

Ray and Owens gave police signed statements admitting their guilt in this holdup.

Ct. No. 1429-H:

On 8-7-59 about 8:45 PM while the victim, Vincent Hromadka, several clerks and customers were in Vincent's IGA Food Market, 1102 Park Ave., two men, later ident. as James Earl Ray and an elderly man who wore sunglasses, entered the store. Ray's accomplice went behind the liquor counter, pointed his revolver at the victim and said, "This is a holdup, keep cool and give him (Ray) the big money," and Ray then walked up to the right of his accomplice, and the victim opened the safe. Hromadka emptied the money from a canvas bag into a large IGA carry-out paper bag while Ray went into the office and took about $150 from a desk drawer. Ray then went to another cash register from which he took only currency of large denominations, at which time the check-out clerk saw Ray's gun while he was putting the money in his trouser pocket. Ray and his accomplice then deliberately walked out of the store.

While the holdup was in progress a customer ran to his place of business and reported this holdup to the police, and after the robbers left the scene the victim pressed the button on the 'holdup alarm', grabbed his rifle, ran out of the store and after being told by a boy who had seen the robbers run to their auto which was parked in the alley, he fired several shots at the car while it was being driven away.

The victim reported his loss as $484.66, and $310.34 which was the property of the Am. Exp. Co., derived from the sale of money orders.

The victim while standing about a foot from Ray while at the check-out register, described him as wearing a Panama hat, dark beard, coal black hair, blue eyes, a Roman-type nose, about 35, 150#, 5'9"

After Ray's arrest, the victim and one of the clerk viewed him at the station, and both agreed that Ray was one of the robbers. Ray would make no statement, and the police officers reported he sat there with a silly grin on his face and said, "I cannot deny it and I won't admit it."

Investigating officers found Ray's Panama hat lying in the alley behind the store.

Ct. No. 1428-H:

On 10-9-59 about 5:45 PM the victim, Gene Hejna, parked his '50 Ford in front of his home at 3166 Oregon St. (The victim stated his car could not be locked, but he had removed the keys from the ignition) The victim was unaware that his car had been stolen until about 9:30 the following morning when the police arrived to tell him his car was found parked at Indiana and Potomac Sts. He went there, and noted that a jumper had been applied to the ignition.

The victim viewed Ray at the station after his arrest, and he refused to say anything.

This automobile was used by Ray and James Laoma Owens as the get-away-car in the Kroger Store holdup (Ct. No. 1427-H), and two witnesses from the Kroger store ident. Ray as the driver of the car while leaving the scene of the holdup, as they had followed them in an auto, saw them park and get out of the '50 Ford and enter Owens' Plymouth.

At the time of Ray's arrest in his room #5 at 2023 Park Ave. where the two guns were recovered, Ray admitted ownership of the two guns, and said, "I guess you want me for that Kroger store stick-up."

Five witnesses in the Kroger holdup positively identified Ray as one of the holdup men, as did a nother man who saw Ray and Owens when they came out of the store.

The owner of the rooming house viewed Ray and Owens at the station, and identified ~~Ray as the occupant of Room #5 in her rooming house, and Owens as one of Ray's~~ visitors.

Owens had six $10 bills in his trouser pocket when arrested, and admitted this money had been given him by Ray as his share of the Kroger holdup.

In connection with the holdup of Mr. Hromadka's IGA Store, police reports reflect that Hromadka took a series of photos of the two bandits during the holdup and while they were leaving, by means of a camera leased to him by Dave Nathan of the Dubl-Check System, and the following day Mr. Nathan turned over to police officers several views of the bandits in operation of the holdup. Subsequently one JOSEPH ELMER AUSTIN, (W-M-60 yrs.) was arrested by Alton, Ill. police after a ~~super market~~ super market holdup in that city on 8-21-59. Several photos of Austin were positively ident. by Hromadka and his clerk. Austin was later ident. by H. and his clerk while in custody in Alton, Ill. In connection with the robbery of the Alton super market on 8-11-59, Lt. C.A. Roberts of Alton brought three witnesses to St. L. to view Ray, and two of them positively ident. him as Austin's accomplice in the Alton, Ill. holdup. (This accounts for the 'hold' the Alton, Ill. Police Department have on James Earl Ray.)

Ray and his accomplice then deliberately walked out of the store.

While the holdup was in progress a customer ran to his place of business and reported this holdup to the police, and after the robbers left the scene the victim pressed the button on the 'holdup alarm', grabbed his rifle, ran out of the store and after being told by a boy who had seen the robbers run to their auto which was parked in the alley, he fired several shots at the car while it was being driven away.

The victim reported his loss as $484.66, and $510.34 which was the property of the Am. Exp. Co., derived from the sale of money orders.

The victim while standing about a foot from Ray while at the check-out register, described him as wearing a Panama hat, dark beard, coal black hair, blue eyes, a Roman-type nose, about 35, 150#, 5'9"

After Ray's arrest, the victim and one of the clerk viewed him at the station, and both agreed that Ray was one of the robbers. Ray would make no statement, and the police officers reported he sat there with a silly grin on his face and said, "I cannot deny it and I won't admit it."

Investigating officers found Ray's Panama hat lying in the alley behind the store.

Ct. No. 1428-H:

On 10-9-59 about 5:45 PM the victim, Gene Hejna, parked his '50 Ford in front of his home at 5166 Oregon St. (The victim stated his car could not be locked, but he had removed the keys from the ignition) The victim was unaware that his car had been stolen until about 9:30 the following morning when the police arrived to tell him his car was found parked at Indiana and Potomac Sts. He went there, and noted that a jumper had been applied to the ignition.

The victim viewed Ray at the station after his arrest, and he refused to say anything.

This automobile was used by Ray and James Laoma Owens as the get-away-car in the Kroger Store holdup (Ct. No. 1427-H), and two witnesses from the Kroger store ident. Ray as the driver of the car while leaving the scene of the holdup, as they had followed them in an auto, saw them park and get out of the '50 Ford and enter Owens' Plymouth.

At the time of Ray's arrest in his room #5 at 2023 Park Ave. where the two guns were recovered, Ray admitted ownership of the two guns, and said, "I guess you want me for that Kroger store stick-up."

Five witnesses in the Kroger holdup positively identified Ray as one of the holdup men, as did a nother man who saw Ray and Owens when they came out of the store.

The owner of the rooming house viewed Ray and Owens at the station, and identified Ray as the occupant of Room #5 in her rooming house, and Owens as one of Ray's visitors.

Owens had six $10 bills in his trouser pocket when arrested, and admitted this money had been given him by Ray as his share of the Kroger holdup.

In connection with the holdup of Mr. Hromadka's IGA Store, police reports reflect that Hromadka took a series of photos of the two bandits during the holdup and while they were leaving, by means of a camera leased to him by Dave Nathan of the Dubl-Check System, and the following day Mr. Nathan turned over to police officers several views of the bandits in operation of the holdup. Subsequently one JOSEPH ELMER AUSTIN, (W-M-60 yrs.) was arrested by Alton, Ill. police after a supermarket holdup in that city on 8-21-59. Several photos of Austin were positively ident. by Hromadka and his clerk. Austin was later ident. by H. and his clerk while in custody in Alton, Ill. In connection with the robbery of the Alton super market on 8-11-59, Lt. C.A. Roberts of Alton brought three witnesses to St. L. to view Ray, and two of them positively ident. him as Austin's accomplice in the Alton, Ill. holdup. (This accounts for the 'hold' the Alton, Ill. Police Department have on James Earl Ray.)

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This is a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, sought to be filed in forma pauperis by an inmate in the Missouri State Penitentiary and directed against the warden of that institution.

Petitioner was apparently convicted of the crime of armed robbery on December 17, 1959 in the Circuit Court of the city of St. Louis, Missouri, and was sentenced to twenty years upon that conviction.

Petitioner now raises three principal issues:

1. That an illegal search and seizure, not incident to a lawful arrest, was conducted by agents of the State, and evidence which was the fruit of this search was used against defendant at his trial;
2. That, after his arrest, petitioner was held incommunicado by the police for a period of approximately 9 days during which time, a statement or confession was obtained from him which was the result of threat and duress, and that this statement or confession was used in evidence against him at the trial;
3. That false and perjured testimony was elicited at his trial.

It would appear that petitioner has exhausted his state remedies as required by §2254, Title 28, U. S. C., although this issue is not foreclosed, as it appears that the Missouri Supreme Court did not vs. Appeal from the Circuit Court of St. Louis City.

Respondent,

James Earl Ray,

Appellant.

Now at this day come again the parties aforesaid, by their respective attorneys, and the court here being now sufficiently advised of and concerning the premises, doth consider and adjudge that the judgment aforesaid, in form aforesaid, by the said Circuit Court of St. Louis City rendered, be affirmed; and that the said respondent recover against the said appellant its costs and charges herein expended, and have execution therefor. It is further considered and adjudged by the court that the sentence pronounced against the said James Earl Ray appellant herein, by the said Circuit Court of St. Louis City be executed, and that the marshal of this court arrest the said James Earl Ray without delay, wherever he may be found in this State, and deliver him to the Department of Corrections, Jefferson City, Missouri, to be confined in the appropriate penal institution for the period of twenty (20) years, the same being the sentence passed by the said Circuit Court of St. Louis City. (Opinion filed).

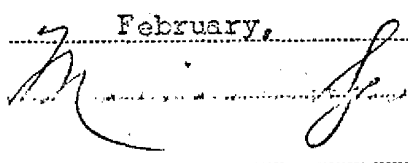

STATE OF MISSOURI—SCT.

I, MARION SPIGER, Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of Missouri, certify that the foregoing is a full, true and complete transcript of the judgment of said Supreme Court, entered of record at the January 62 Session thereof, 19 62, and on the 12th day of February, 19 62, in the above entitled cause.

DEAR SIR,

LAST APRIL I CONTACTED SOME KIND OF ILLNESS WHICH RESULTED IN ME BEING HOSPITALIZED 6 DAYS.

I HAS BEEN RECURRING ON AN OFF EVER SINCE.

HAVE HAD SEVERAL DIFFERENT DIAGNOSIS BY THE CIVILIAN NURSES AND WHAT MEDICAL TREATMENT I HAVE HAD HASN'T BEEN TO HAVE DONE ANY GOOD ABOUT 4 MONTHS AFTER THE FIRST TROUBLE I WAS EXAMINED BY ONE OF THE DOCTORS FROM OUT IN TOWN. HE SAID IT WAS PROBABLY MY SYMPATHETIC NERVES AND PRESCRIBED A MEDICINE CALLED LIBRIUM FOR 30 DAYS. ALTHOUGH I WAS GIVEN ONLY ONE 150 MG. CAPSULE PER DAY IT SEEMED TO HELP. SOMETIME AFTER THE EXPIRATION OF THE 30 DAYS THE ILLNESS RETURNED.

WHAT I WOULD LIKE TO DO WITH YOUR CONSENT IS TO HAVE MY BROTHER (WHICH HE HAS WRITTEN ME HE WOULD DO) SEND ENOUGH MONEY EITHER TO MY ACCOUNT OR THE STATE'S TO PURCHASE A 90 DAY SUPPLY OR WHAT EVER IS NECESSARY OF THE MEDICINE MENTIONED ABOVE, OR IF THAT IS NOT POSSIBLE THEN LET HIM SEND A DOCTOR IN FROM OUT IN TOWN TO EXAMINE ME. EITHER WAY IT WOULD BE NO EXPENSE TO THE STATE. WON'T BOTHER YOU WITH THE SYMPTOMS EXCEPT DURING HIS PERIOD I HAVE LOST 25 LBS. ALSO THAT I HAD NEVER BEEN CHECKED IN TO THE HOSPITAL IN THE 5 1/2 YEARS I HAVE BEEN HERE PREVIOUSLY.

THANKS FOR ANYTHING YOU CAN DO ON THIS MATTER.

James Ray

the Librium referred to in the letter above was ordered Dr. Asel, Skin Specialist, for a period of thirty (30) days. The inmate received this medication as ordered. No further treatment indicated. No return visit necessary. (Dr. el). CDE/rak
