which he listened to police radio messages. He asked me once what they were talking about because he could not understand French. This car also had a police siren and Louisiana licence plates. When I told him how I felt about negroes, he changed the subject and never brought it up again. He told me he was the son of a US Senator but I checked with the American Embassy and found out it was not true. I told him so and he said there were a lot of Senators in Louisiana and his father was involved in state politics. He also told me that he could hypnotize people and that he helped a doctor curing people with it. I told him not to try it on me. He said that he studying psychology at McGill University but I found that this was not true either. Some time he told me he did not have any money to take me out. When I told him that I had none myself, he used to go away for about an hour and came back with plenty in his pockets. Once, I managed to take him with me to mass at the St. Joseph Oratory. When we returned to the boarding house, there was a note from the Canadian National Telegram Office telling him that there was a telegram for him at the station. We went there and after he read the telegram, he said: "There are things that we did and that we should not have done". I asked what was he talking about and he answered: "Never mind". I once asked him where he got his money from and replied: "That is none of your business". He told me that he had tried some narcotics and made other people try it but that he gave it up. He also told me that he was in a airplane accident and had a big scar on his chest. This scar, I saw. In the beginning, he used to come to my room to use my phone and make long distance calls. Later, I received a bill for $40 from the Bell Telephone people for these calls which he never paid. All the calls were made to New Orleans. I knew he had some friends in the area but I never met them. I believe he left the boarding house suddenly on the weekend after September 20. We were no longer going out together at this time. He and I also went to EXPO and the only thing he wanted to see was the Russian and American Pavilions. After that, he was never away from the house except for a maximum of three hours at a time during the week. He often went away during weekends. He made one weekend trip to Miami by aircraft."

- (d) The phone bill as mentioned by MATHIEU is still in her possession; however, she will not give it to SALWYN but only to the RCMP. SALWYN did not see this phone bill.

7. SUZ further advised that KIMBLE borrowed $5.00 from a Pierre TULMOZZ, age 22, who resided in the next apartment building to KIMBLE. TULMOZZ was contacted by SALWYN and he stated that he never received the $5.00 from KIMBLE and further stated that KIMBLE had a friend living on nearby Sherbrooke Street. He did not know the address as KIMBLE never took him along when he went to visit this male friend.
- o TULMOZZ also stated that he went out with another girl and this girl's name he could not remember. TULMOZZ said that this girl knows the friend who lives nearby Sherbrooke Street.

8. Further investigation by SALWYN resulted in the locating of this girl by the name of Lise ROBILLARD, age 19, white, unemployed, 155 St-Alexis Street, Charlemagne District, Montreal. Before contacting ROBILLARD, SALWYN was able to speak to ROBILLARD's mother who resides with her and she stated that KIMBLE was known to them as a doctor.

9. ROBILLARD was interviewed and the following is the content of SALWYN's interview with her:

"She stated that she met KIMBLE while she was hitchhiking from St. Mary's School to her residence. At this time, KIMBLE was driving the ivory CAMARO. When she was picked up by KIMBLE, they went to a small restaurant on Sherbrooke Street East, which she believes to be the ORANGE JULEP. Then he drove her home. For the next two weeks, he picked her up every morning and took her back every night. During these two weeks, he mentioned that he was expecting a call from a man. This man eventually called and according to the voice on the phone, he was between 30 and 40 years and English speaking. This phone call was received at her residence. There were no names mentioned and the call was believed to be a local one and no place was mentioned. He used her phone only once to make a local call. No names were mentioned and he said after this call, that he was wanted at the Montreal General Hospital on an emergency call where he worked. On one occasion, she went with KIMBLE at which time he told her he had papers to be signed. These were three identical sheets and they were to be signed by a notary which lived on Sherbrooke Street East opposite a Dominion Shopping Centre. After signing these documents, KIMBLE received $250. This he had mentioned to her. He said he was leaving for Florida at the end of the month. He must have left as she had received a call from him later, saying that he was in Florida. This call was not a collect call. He said that he would come back to Montreal. She received another call, this time from New Orleans (not collect) a few days later. He said this time he had an accident and she understood it to be a car accident and was unable to come back to Montreal. He said he was working at a hospital in New Orleans called The MONTELEPRI HOSPITAL, 3rd Department. She phoned him on her own phone and reached him under the name KIMBLE at this hospital. At this time, he offered to pay for her fare to New Orleans which she refused. She received another call later from New Orleans (not collect) from KIMBLE and this was to pass on Christmas greetings. Lise ROBILLARD also stated that she also saw the scar on KIMBLE's chest and it was also mentioned by Mrs. ROBILLARD and Mr. ROBILLARD that they too also saw this scar on his chest. ROBILLARD further stated that she only knows the photo of RAY as having observed it in the newspapers."

10. SALWYN made further investigations and located the notary who is André COUTELLIER and resides at the corner of Léry Street and Sherbrooke Street East, Montreal. COUTELLIER does not recall the name KIMBLE. In the opinion of SALWYN, he states that this notary appears to him of a shady character. SALWYN established at this time that an American male, white, student from Michigan University stayed with the notary during the Summer of 1967. No further information could be obtained by SALWYN.

11. SALWYN advised that MATHIEU resides with a Marie-Claude ROUILLARD, age 27, white, believed to be a school teacher.

12. SALWYN through his investigation with TULMOZZ ascertained that KIMBLE returned to Montreal approximately a month after he had first left, at which time he was driving a yellow CHEVELLE with Louisiana licence plates.

13. SALWYN was advised by his office in Toronto that they had been in touch with GARRISON himself who advised that KIMBLE when last observed in the U.S.A. was driving a yellow CHEVELLE. GARRISON further stated that KIMBLE was wanted for impersonating a police officer. GARRISON further stated that KIMBLE had flown to Montreal on several occasions on an aircraft owned and piloted by FERRY. FERRY was the person who had committed suicide after being involved in the GARRISON PROBE. GARRISON also stated that SHAW who is another person involved in the GARRISON PROBE, was in Montreal meeting with KIMBLE and FERRY in regards to taking Cuban refugees from Montreal to New Orleans and apparently, these transactions were completed; however, the dates were not mentioned and the aircraft used was owned and piloted by FERRY.

14. SALWYN made an investigation at TIP TOP TAILORS on Ste-Catherine Street East where RAY under the name of GALT had purchased a suit. This information SALWYN received through a newspaper story which appeared in the MONTREAL-MATIN on the 12 JUN 68. Photostats attached. The only information he received from TIP TOP was that GALT lived on Notre-Dame Street East and he had purchased a suit on the 19 JULY 67 and that the RCMP had all documents pertaining to this purchase.

15. With this information, SALWYN located RAY's address on Notre-Dame Street East and spoke to a tenant who resided at this address during the stay of GALT. Through this tenant, he received the name QUINTAL and having already known that QUINTAL resided in Windsor, Ontario, this information having been mentioned in numerous newspapers, his Toronto Office phoned QUINTAL; however, QUINTAL would not talk to them and hung up. The only thing that QUINTAL wanted to know was how the TORONTO STAR got his name and address.

16. SALWYN further stated that through his Toronto Office, they were able to obtain from KIMBLE's lawyer, name not known at this time, however lives in U.S.A., that KIMBLE made two (20) trips to Montreal during last Summer, means of transportation unknown. SALWYN further stated that they had made arrangements through KIMBLE's lawyer to speak to KIMBLE at 9:00 p.m. on the 13 JUN 68; however, this did not materialize. Apparently, KIMBLE's lawyer was the only one who knows the present whereabouts of KIMBLE.

15 JUN 68

17. SALWYN is very interested in establishing whether RAY alias GALT, actually lived on St-Germain Street as reported in numerous newspaper articles. He further advised that through his associates in newspaper media field, he ascertained that the information concerning St-Germain Street which appeared in newspapers was obtained from our Headquarters in Ottawa.

18. At the present time, SALWYN is canvassing St-Germain Street in the area where KIMBLE resided in an effort to establish where on this street RAY resided.

19. It will be noted that through Montreal investigations concerning the KING file, the street St-Germain was never ascertained.

20. This report is being submitted under this classification in order to protect the information received from SALWYN in the event that his information is factual and also this report is being submitted as SALWYN once he makes a connection that RAY resided or was an associated of KIMBLE's, he will through the TORONTO STAR have an article published asking why and for what reasons RAY and KIMBLE were in Montreal and the possible connection between the assassinations of President John F. KENNEDY and Dr. Martin Luther KING. Whether there will be any mention of the assassination of Robert F. KENNEDY was not mentioned by SALWYN.

21. SALWYN further stated that prior to the release of his story to the TORONTO STAR, he will give me a copy of his release.

/that

22. At the present time, the only investigation/will be conducted by Montreal G.I.S. will be, contacting Miss MATHIEU in an effort to obtain the Bell Telephone bill(s).

23. Should further investigations be required concerning interviewing of the other persons mentioned by SALWYN, it is requested that instructions be received to do so. It is requested that a photograph of KIMBLE be forwarded to this point for identification by MATHIEU.

The COMMISSIONER, Ottawa

Our File No. 68-C-790-238

1. FORWARDED for your information. Mr. SALWYN is an employee of the Toronto Star. He has not received any information from us with regards to the investigation in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther KING. During our investigation the address supplied by Mr. SALWYN on St. Germain Street was never ascertained.

2. The only investigation being made at this time is that a member will be calling on Miss MATHIEU to pick up the phone bill mentioned in para. 6(d).

Le commis ne se souvient pas de son "fameux" client

James Earl Ray avait acheté un complet rue Ste-Catherine

DES CENTAINES DE FACTURES

C'est qu'au moment de son arrestation, à Londres, Ray était en possession d'un complet acheté à ce magasin en juillet 1967. Les poli-ciers ont repéré cette filière à partir d'un numéro de manufacturier cousu à l'intérieur du gilet. Ce numéro mena les enquêteurs à Toronto, au siège social de la compagnie. A cet endroit, ils apprirent que ce complet avait été mis en vente à la succursale de la rue Sainte-Catherine.

Enfin, après avoir vérifié des centaines de factures, les policiers découvrirent que Ray avait bel et bien acheté ce complet à cet endroit. On réussit même à retrouver le nom du commis qui avait vendu le complet. Ce dernier, toutefois, n'a pu reconnaître son "client", puisqu'il en sert au moins un millier chaque année. De plus, au moment de l'achat, Ray s'était identifié comme étant Eric Starvo Galt, un de ses nombreux alias. C'est d'ailleurs ce dernier nom qui apparaissait au recto de la facture.
