Re: JAMES EARL RAY;
DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS CONSPIRACY

Assistant United States Attorney R. Macey Taylor, Birmingham, Alabama, advised on September 25, 1969, that he had been in conversation with Arthur Hanes, former defense counsel for subject Ray. Assistant United States Attorney Taylor related certain allegations that Hanes had proposed to him to the effect that one James Robert Blow, a former resident of Cahaba Heights, a Birmingham suburb, may have conspired with other named individuals and subject Ray in interstate transportation of weapons to Memphis, Tennessee, where Hanes believed they were intended for black militant groups.

On October 10, 1969, Attorney Arthur J. Hanes was interviewed at his office, 617 Frank Nelson Building, after the absence of a week from Birmingham. Hanes entered into a lengthy discourse of his theories concerning the James Earl Ray case and stated that although Ray undoubtedly was involved, it was his theory that Ray had been led or instructed in his actions by other unknown individuals. He stated that he had two theories of groups who may have led Ray; one being the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and the other being black militant groups. He had no definite information in this connection whatsoever. He also commented that he had, while serving as Ray's defense counsel, observed the bullet which was alleged to have been fired from the rifle involved in this matter, and it was his personal opinion that the bullet was sufficiently intact to be identified as the murder projectile.

Regarding his former client, James Robert Blow also known as Robert Blow, Hanes related as follows.

Re: JAMES EARL RAY;
DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS CONSPIRACY

On December 18, 1968, the residence of Mr. J. E. Woods, III, 2432 Crest Road, Mountain Brook, a residential suburb of Birmingham, had been burglarized, and numerous shotguns, including automatic shotguns together with silver service, had been taken by a local thief, James Warren Carlisle, who is now serving a penitentiary term for burglary. Carlisle had informed Deputy Sheriff Walter Dean, Birmingham, that some of the stolen effects might be located in the residence of James Robert Blow and wife Janice Blow who at that time were living at 3218 Greendale Road, Cahaba Heights. This led to Dean securing a search warrant for the residence and the recovery of the silver service belonging to the Woods family. Blow was subsequently charged with receiving and possessing stolen goods.

Hanes by reference to his file related that on May 15, 1969, he appeared with Blow in the Jefferson County Courthouse at which time Grand Jury action was waived. On that date, Hanes discussed with Deputy Walter Dean possible cooperation of his client Blow in connection with recovery of the numerous guns taken from the Woods residence. Blow agreed to cooperate and in the presence of Deputy Dean and an agent of the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division of the Treasury Department identified a photograph of one Claude Cockrell of Memphis, Tennessee, as being the owner of a Cadillac into which he had observed Carlisle and Cockrell loading the weapons which were then taken to Memphis, and it was the information of Hanes that Cockrell was later charged by the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division with having transported automatic weapons from Birmingham to Memphis. Hanes stated that a local Birmingham hoodlum, Bob Loveless, had also assisted in loading the weapons into Cockrell's Cadillac according to information furnished by his client Blow. He stated that it was his opinion also that weapons such as these had been intended for black militant groups in Memphis, who might have intended to use them in King's assassination. It should be noted that all weapons involved in the transportation by Cockrell to Memphis which had been stolen from the Woods residence were shotguns and not rifles.

Re: JAMES EARL RAY;
CIVIL RIGHTS CONSPIRACY

Mr. Hanes stated that he had read of weapons being brought to the United States through Gulf Coast ports such as Mobile, Alabama, and Pascagoula, Mississippi, and thought possibly some of these weapons may have been intended for use in the murder of Dr. King.

Hanes stated that his client James Robert Blow was arraigned on June 20, 1969, and on August 21, 1969, was sentenced to one year and one day which was suspended and he was placed on probation for two years.

Re Bureau airtel to Birmingham, dated 10/6/69.

Attorney ARTHUR HANES was interviewed by SA HENRY A. SNOW upon HANES' return to Birmingham, stating that he had spent the entire week in eastern North Carolina in the defense of criminal cases there.

During interview, HANES was very indefinite in any of his statements and appeared to merely wish to discuss his theories on the MURKIN case. The information he related as far as gunrunning would appear to in no way relate to JAMES EARL RAY, and for that reason, Birmingham suggests no further action in this matter concerning information furnished by HANES.

On June 13, 1969 Harold Weisberg, a free-lance writer who resides at Route 8, Frederick, Maryland, requested an interview with a Departmental attorney.

Later the same day he visited this Division and discussed certain Haitian exile revolutionary activities. He again visited this Division on October 8, 1969 and continued his discussion of Haitian exile activities. The information he furnished regarding those activities was of no value.

During the course of the interview on October 8, 1969, Mr. Weisberg advised that he had recently received a telephone call from J. B. Stoner, National Chairman of the National States Rights Party. He said that Stoner told him that two men in his Party formerly served as informants of the FBI. Stoner allegedly said that these two men are prepared to testify in court that the FBI offered them $25,000 to frame James Earl Ray for the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. Mr. Weisberg said that the testimony presumably would be furnished in a habeas corpus proceeding.

This information is being forwarded as a matter of possible interest to your Bureau.

MURKIN

Enclosed for each office is a copy of a letter from the Internal Security Division of the Department dated 10-15-69.

For your information Bureau files show that one Harold Weisberg who is probably identical with the Weisberg mentioned in the attached letter, has been most critical of the Bureau in the past. He is the author of several books including one entitled, "Whitewash - The Report of the Warren Report" and has been critical of the FBI, Secret Service, police agencies and other branches of Government. He was one of ten employees fired by the State Department during 1947 because of his loyalty being suspected. He was later allowed to resign. Weisberg by letter in April, 1969, requested information on the King murder case for a forthcoming book. It was approved that his letter not be acknowledged.

J. B. Stoner, one of the present attorneys for James Earl Ray who has petitioned the Supreme Court of Tennessee for a Writ of Certiorari in connection with his motion for a new trial, is a notorious segregationist who continually attacks the Bureau and the Director. On the basis of the information furnished the two alleged former informants referred to cannot be identified in Bureau files.

In view of the nature of the information in the attached letter and the background on Weisberg and Stoner they are not being interviewed regarding this matter.

The Savannah Office which is the office of origin in the case covering activities of the National States Rights Party and Stoner and the Memphis Office which is following the court action in the James Earl Ray case should be alert for any additional information along these lines from any source including future court proceedings and immediately advise the Bureau of such information.

The Memphis Office should advise appropriate responsible Tennessee state officials handling the King murder case of the information from the Department and that there is no basis to the allegation that the FBI offered anyone any money to frame Ray for the assassination of King. Information furnished Tennessee state authorities is to be confirmed in writing.

Dear Mr. Canale:

Regarding our telephone conversation of last week, I wish to request your office to transmit to the Department of State the original certified copy of the transcript of the proceedings in the James Earl Ray extradition case before the Bow Street Court, London, in July of 1968. Insofar as that court is concerned, that transcript was intended for delivery to the Department of State. It was apparently handed to the agents of the United States who escorted Ray from the United Kingdom to the United States.

You have indicated that a certified copy of this transcript is in your possession and I request that it be transmitted directly to the Department of State by registered mail. Upon receipt, I will obtain a photographic copy of the documents which I will transmit to you. This photographic process will not require the breaking of the seals.

Thank you very much for your cooperation in this matter.

On 9/25/69, AUSA R. MACEY TAYLOR, Birmingham, was interviewed, at his request, stating that he had been in conversation with Attorney ART HANES, Birmingham, former defense counsel for subject RAY. AUSA TAYLOR related that the information set forth below, as obtained from HANES, was being passed on for whatever it might be worth.

TAYLOR stated that HANES contends that subject RAY had been engaged in transportation of weapons (rifles and other automatic weapons), and that the reason he was in Memphis was his interest in disposing of such weapons to black militant groups in that city. HANES contends that there had existed a conspiracy in the transportation of such weapons on the part of RAY whom he contends was operating with one JAMES ROBERT BLOW, formerly of Cahaba Heights, a Birmingham suburb, who is supposed to work for some printing company in Birmingham known as the P&L Printing Co., and according to HANES, BLOW had previously been charged in Jefferson County Court, at Birmingham, by Deputy Sheriff WALTER DEAN on some unknown charge, the status of which he does not now know. RAY and BLOW were supposed to have been engaged in their gun transportation details by one BOB LOVELESS, believed from Birmingham, one CLAUDE COCKRELL, believed to be a Memphis resident, and one JAMES CARLISLE, believed to be of Birmingham. According to HANES' conjectures, BLOW and the others were obtaining these weapons through Pascagoula, Mississippi, implying that they were from out of the country.

Aside from the above, TAYLOR stated that during his conversation with HANES, that individual had mentioned that while he was employed by RAY, he had filed a motion in Memphis to observe the physical evidence, and noted that one rifle slug, which had been obtained from the body of the victim, was not mutilated to such an extent that it could not be identified by laboratory examination, although he had been informed that only partial fragments of the fatal bullet were recovered which precluded any positive identification.

As stated above, AUSA TAYLOR did not consider information furnished by HANES to be of material value, but stated that due to HANES' proclivity for publicity, he did not desire to be placed in the position of not having passed on to authorities any information furnished by HANES. He suggested that the Bureau may consider informing the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division of the Treasury Department of information relating to instant transportation of weapons on the part of RAY, BLOW and others.

The Bureau is familiar with the fact that HANES is very closely allied with the UKA and previous information has been furnished to the Bureau that he received a sum of $12,500 as an attorney for Klan members charged in North Carolina, and also met with UKA officials recently in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

A file review of this matter fails to reflect any reference of individuals mentioned by HANES.

REQUEST OF BUREAU:

Birmingham does not intend to contact HANES or otherwise institute further investigation in this matter UACB. The Bureau is requested to advise Birmingham whether the meager information furnished by HANES regarding instant transportation of weapons on the part of those named by him should be given to the Alcohol, Tobacco & Firearms Division.

10/24/69, from Aeromarine, Birmingham, requesting the return of the invoice previously mentioned.

Please discuss this request with a representative of the District Attorney's Office, Memphis, and if agreeable, have them correspond direct with Mr.
WOOD. Note Aeromarine has a new location for its business.

Victim

Peter Goldman, Senior Editor, Newsweek Magazine, 444 Madison Avenue, New York City furnished the following information to Special Agent O. Eugene Smith on November 3, 1969:

He cannot recall having ever met or having ever received correspondence from a John Hamilton Morris. A review of the files of the Letter Department of the Magazine failed to reveal that he ever received a letter from John Hamilton Morris.

He has never heard of anyone referred to as "Big D" in connection with the James Earl Ray case and he has no knowledge of any statement being made that James Earl Ray was paid by "Big D".

He receives numerous "crank" letters which he deposits in the waste basket. No record is kept of these
"crank" letters.

Dear Mr. Wood:

Your letter of October 24, 1969 to the Federal Bureau of Investigation has been referred to this office for answer.

Your Invoice No. 2251A, dated March 29, 1968, was introduced into evidence on a guilty plea of James Earl Ray. As that matter is now on appeal to the Tennessee Supreme Court, the invoice can not be released at this time, and the same must be kept as evidence until the termination of the appeal.

We apologize for this inconvenience, and thank you for your continued cooperation with the Bureau and ourselves in this matter. If you have any further questions, please advise.

Very truly yours,

On 11-13-69, CARL F. ZARTER, Administrative Assistant, U. S. Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas, advised that inmate JAMES HAMILTON MORRIS, #83856, was released to the custody of the USM on 9-11-69 to be produced in the USDC, Los Angeles, California. MORRIS has not as yet returned to Leavenworth. Authorities at Leavenworth are unable to anticipate his return. It is therefore suggested that the interview set forth in Phoenix communication for the Kansas City Division be handled by the Los Angeles Division. Los Angeles should be able to determine whereabouts of MORRIS through the USM's office in that area.

It is to be noted that the copy of the handwritten letter from MORRIS to GOLDMAN is barely readable. If Los Angeles decides a more legible copy is needed, it is suggested they obtain one from the Phoenix Office. Kansas City believes that the individual mentioned in the letter as Big D, who was apprehended in New Mexico two weeks ago is possibly ROBERT DE PUGH, head of the Minutemen organization, who is also currently incarcerated at Leavenworth Penitentiary.

On 11/25/69, Mrs. ANNIE PATTERSON, 320 NE 19th Street, Miami, Florida, made a long distance telephone call to the Memphis FBI Office to advise that she is writing a book and that she knows the real killer of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., to be the same individual who killed the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY and to also be the person who trained the assassin of the late ROBERT F. KENNEDY.

Mrs. PATTERSON talked at great length about the information in her possession regarding Communist plots and threats against the Government. She also mentioned that she has corresponded with District Attorney JIM GARRISON at New Orleans, Louisiana.

Since it appears that Mrs. PATTERSON is a mental case, no investigation is being conducted and this is furnished for the information of Miami in the event she should contact the Miami Office.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Los Angeles, California

December 10, 1969

JAMES EARL RAY;
Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. - VICTIM

On December 1, 1969, John Hamilton Morris was interviewed at the Los Angeles County Jail, Los Angeles, California, regarding information contained in a letter written by him on July 22, 1969, to Peter Goldman, 444 Madison Avenue, New York, New York. This letter contained information that James Earl Ray was paid by "Big D".

Morris stated that he is a journalist, that as a journalist he has his sources, and that as a journalist he does not reveal the identity of his sources. Morris stated it was common knowledge that Ray was paid to kill Martin Luther King. Morris was asked to explain what he referred to as common knowledge. He said that everyone knew that the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) was behind the murder of Martin Luther King. He continued that the CIA backed the Minutemen and Robert De Pugh of the Minutemen. The CIA wanted King out of the way so it had De Pugh make the arrangements. Ray being a small time criminal, was selected to do the actual killing and CIA the brains behind the whole scheme. When De Pugh was no longer needed by the CIA, he was arrested. Morris said that this scheme is common knowledge.

Morris volunteered that he has been declared medically and criminally insane.

Records of Atascadero State Hospital, Atascadero, California, as of April 13, 1959, revealed that John Hamilton Morris, born [redacted], at Martin, Michigan, was admitted to that hospital on September 22, 1958, as criminally insane. At that time, he had a criminal record dating back to September 26, 1940, and had over 20 arrests, including grand theft, car theft, mail fraud, postal loss, forgery, and money postal orders. These records reveal that Morris was not found criminally insane by this hospital and had been turned over to the court in San Mateo, California, for further action.

JAMES EARL RAY,

John Hamilton Morris appeared at U. S. District Court, Southern District of California, Los Angeles, on February 23, 1967, for jury trial. At the conclusion of the trial on February 24, 1967, Morris was found guilty of violation of Title 18, Section 2113 (a), U. S. Code. On March 20, 1967, Morris was sentenced to 15 years custody of the U. S. Attorney General.

Morris filed an appeal of this conviction April 21, 1969, before the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. He based his appeal on his not having been protected under Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 4244, in that under this statute, the U. S. Attorney failed in his responsibility to move for a determination of competency where he had reasonable cause to believe the accused might be incompetent. His appeal argues that under the same section and by Constitutional mandate, it was incumbent on the court to order a determination of competency, where reasonable cause appeared to indicate the accused might be incompetent; said failure violated Morris's guarantee of due process under the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution.

The appellant further argues that the court-appointed counsel failed to provide that assistance guaranteed by the Sixth Amendment of the Constitutional rights of due process in the fair trial.

The final point of the appellant's argument is that the Court's sentencing procedure was both a failure of its statutory responsibility and an abuse of its discretion under Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 4244; and under 4208 (b) which provides for committment of the accused to the custody of the Attorney General for a period of time not to exceed six months, for the purpose of evaluation to assist the trial court in passing a meaningful rehabilitative sentence.

On July 28, 1969, Assistant U. S. Attorney Darrell Mac Intyre, Los Angeles, advised that on July 24, 1969, a decision was received from the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals that the conviction of John Hamilton Morris had been reversed.

JAMES EARL RAY,
Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. - VICTIM

Morris appeared at U. S. District Court, Los Angeles, and entered a plea of guilty to violation of Title 18, Section 2113 (a), U. S. Code. Trial was set for November 4, 1969. Morris was to be afforded psychiatric examination prior to trial date. As of December 9, 1969, the trial of Morris had not commenced.

The Los Angeles Herald Examiner, daily metropolitan Los Angeles newspaper, in its issue of July 5, 1968, carried an article on Page A-1 captioned, "Dynamite Hijack Try Just a Dud", datelined Las Vegas, Nevada (UPI). This article reported that a Federal prisoner identified as John Hamilton Morris, 48 of Martin, Michigan, tried to hijack a commercial airliner, July 4, 1968, by falsely reporting he had dynamite on his person. His high altitude plot failed completely.

The U. S. Attorney at Las Vegas was expected to take this incident before the Grand Jury and ask for an indictment charging Morris with attempted hijacking.

The following is an arrest record of John Hamilton Morris, FBI Number 4 222 144:

Judge to Rule Whether Ray's Solitary Confinement Is Cruel

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — (UPI) — Does the solitary confinement of James Earl Ray, the convicted murderer of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., constitute "cruel and unusual punishment?"

This is what Federal Court Judge William E. Miller will be asked to decide Monday when Ray is whisked into court here amid tight security precautions.

Miller named the issue himself.

It's whether "Ray's present incarceration in solitary confinement constitutes the sort of cruel, unusual punishment which is prohibited by the Eighth Amendment to the Constitution," he said.

ON THE OTHER side of the argument, State Correction Commissioner Lake Russell has said it was in Ray's "best interest" that he be kept in maximum security until settlement of various suits brought in his behalf.

James Earl Ray

Ray and his attorneys differ with the commission on his "best interest."

"I do not believe that I can withstand either mentally or physically this type of imprisonment much longer," Ray said in an affidavit notarized June 23, 1969.

One of his attorneys, Robert Hill Jr. of Chattanooga, compared Ray's imprisonment since his capture in London to Nazi torture.

IN AN emotionally worded brief dealing mainly with Ray's imprisonment in Memphis before his trial, Hill said:

"To systematically strip away all inner psychological defenses through nine months of constant light, sound and observation is as legally diabolical as many of the Nazi practices which we so often condemn."

The Chattanooga attorney was referring to Ray's constant surveillance by closed-circuit television cameras while in his cell in Memphis.

Ray said he was not asking to be let out into the regular prison population. However, he said he knew of jobs he could do that would make his exposure minimal.

THE STATE has said it would seek to prove that Ray's release from maximum security would endanger his life.

In his affidavit, Ray inferred that one of his former attorneys, Percy Foreman, and the prosecution at Mem-this may have made a deal to keep him in maximum security at the state prison.

"I suggest if state officials wanted to keep me in maximum security cells as a form of punishment they should of took (sic) me before a jury and tried to get the maximum penalty instead of dealing with Mr. Percy Foreman," Ray said.

The convicted murderer has also charged that he was placed in maximum security in Nashville because he refused to give certain information to former State Correction Commissioner Harry S. Avery and the FBI.

He did not say what the information was.

IN ANY EVENT, Avery, along with Gov. Buford Ellington, may be required to appear.

The defense has filed a motion requesting that the former correction commissioner and the governor, along with a Vanderbilt University psychiatrist, be present. Miller said he would rule on the motion at the hearing.

When Ray walks into the eighth-floor courtroom in the Federal Building Monday, security will be tight.

U.S. Marshal Leon Campbell said that all persons would be searched before being allowed to enter the courtroom and, that after the hearing has started, no one would be allowed to enter the courtroom.

Ray has been in maximum security at the state prison here since March 11, the day after he pleaded guilty in return for a 99-year sentence — to the King assassination.

He has been in cell No. 4, an isolated six-by-nine-foot cubicle which is one of 43 cells in the maximum security building.

Enclosed is a copy of an article from the "Miami Herald" 12/28/69, in which reference is made to a statement by Ray to the effect that he was placed in maximum security because he refused to give certain unidentified information to a state official and the FBI.

If information available in your files, furnish clarification of this if possible. Also insure Bureau has all pertinent facts relating to Ray's current appeals and status.

SUBJECT: MURKIN

Re Bureau airtel to Memphis, 12/31/69.

As the Bureau is aware, only one attempt has been made by Bureau Agents to interview the subject JAMES EARL RAY. This was an attempt made with Bureau approval by SAC ROBERT G. JENSEN shortly after RAY was transferred from the Shelby County Jail at Memphis, Tenn., to the Tennessee State Prison at Nashville, Tenn., following his plea of guilty to the murder of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING. The subject was uncooperative at that time, and it has not been deemed worthwhile to make any additional efforts to interview him.

The subject RAY was incarcerated under maximum security conditions at the Shelby County Jail while awaiting trial, was transferred to the State Prison with very elaborate security precautions, and has been kept in the maximum security building at the State Prison, all for the purpose of protecting him from both the general public and from other inmates. The State Prison System has been under the direction of two different commissioners during RAY's incarceration, and the prison at Nashville where RAY is confined has had two different wardens during RAY's incarceration. All of these persons have felt it necessary to keep RAY in maximum security in order to prevent his being murdered by other inmates.

Memphis will continue to keep the Bureau advised of all litigation on behalf of the subject RAY.
