FBI File No. 44-38861

Lab. No. D-560661 IH

Specimens received 4/12/68

Q124 A piece of brown wrapping paper containing a label bearing the number 777, a Garber shipping slip containing the number 52360, a three inch slip of paper ripped from the shipping slip, and a piece of cellophane tape

Q125 A piece of brown wrapping paper with a label attached bearing the number 6829

Q126 A cardboard box, postmarked 4/5/68

Result of examination:

The hand printing appearing on the slip of paper comprising a portion of Q124 was searched in the Anonymous Letter File without effecting an identification. Appropriate photographs have been added to this file for future reference.

The cellophane tape comprising a portion of Q124 is of common $\frac{1}{2}$ inch-wide variety, the ends of which appear to have been torn or cut unevenly.

Due to the limited nature of the questioned hand printing on Q124 and because of unexplained variations, a definite conclusion could not be reached whether the hand printing on Q124 is identical to the hand printing appearing on documents attributable to Eric S. Galt, submitted in this case. A number of significant differences were noted indicating this questioned hand printing may not have been prepared by the writer of the hand printing on documents attributable to Galt.

Q124 through Q126 are temporarily retained.
Appropriate photographs of Q124 and Q125 only have been made.

CUBAN PROPAGANDA ACTIVITIES

On April 4, 1968, Martin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee. Prior to his death, King, as President of the SCLC, publicly announced that he would conduct a massive civil disobedience campaign in the nation's capital in the spring of 1968, in an effort to pressure Congress into passing legislation favorable to the Negro.

Statements by Stokely Carmichael

On April 5, 1968, MM T-1, an individual acquainted with certain phases of both pro and anti-Fidel Castro activities in Cuba and in the United States, furnished the following information:

On April 5, 1968, Radio Liberacion, Havana, Cuba, broadcast a statement by Stokely Carmichael that the Negroes should arm themselves with rifles and pistols and take the city streets in the United States by assault. Carmichael was described in the broadcast as the leader of Black Power. He was reported as blaming both Presidential Candidate Robert Kennedy and President Lyndon B. Johnson for the death of Martin Luther King. During this broadcast, Carmichael predicted that as a consequence of the killing of King, there would be executions in the streets and he warned that the violence unleashed by the Negroes because of King's death was meager compared with what will and must occur in other cities of the United States.

CUBAN PROPAGANDA ACTIVITIES

Telephone Interview with Stokely Carmichael by Radio Havana, Cuba

According to MM T-1, on April 5, 1968, Radio Progreso, Havana, Cuba, made a broadcast in Spanish of a telephone interview by Radio Havana, Cuba, with Stokely Carmichael concerning the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. A summary translation of the broadcast is set forth below:

"White America has Rap Brown in jail, and last night they killed Martin Luther King. In murdering Dr. King, they have made a serious mistake, because he had been the leader of a movement which urged United States Negroes not to burn the cities, not to commit acts of violence. Now that King has been murdered, there will be no other Negro leader who can tell his brothers not to burn the cities. This means entering fully into the revolution.

"Last night, there were serious incidents in 35 cities, fires, shooting, fighting and killing, as a consequence of the crime committed against Dr. King. It is clear that other events like these will take place. The guerrilla warfare in the cities will develop rapidly, now that it is evident that we cannot face the police in open rebellion.

"Now there are many people who will support this method of fighting, because it is the only way in which we can answer the violence unleashed against us. With the death of Martin Luther King, we can seriously take the road to revolution, in order to bring about the fall of this system in the United States, so that humanity can live in peace. And we will dedicate our energies to this battle."

Stokely Carmichael ended his statement by sending affectionate regards to the revolutionary people of Cuba and their leader, Fidel Castro.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CUBAN PROPAGANDA ACTIVITIES

According to MM T-1, Radio Progreso and Radio Liberacion, Havana, Cuba, repeated many times the statement of Carmichael and added that Carmichael had said it would have been better to have killed Rap Brown than King because then "they would have been able to say 'he who lives by the sword will die by the sword.'" These broadcasts also reported that Carmichael had said it was necessary for the United States to be completely demolished so that the Negroes could survive.

Statement by Puerto Rican Representative in Cuba

On April 5, 1968, according to MM T-1, Radio Havana, Cuba broadcast a statement by Carlos Padilla, head of the Puerto Rican Independence Movement Mission in Havana, Cuba. Padilla stated that with the assassination of King, "the racists in the United States, placed in the highest government ranks in Washington, D. C., had committed one of the most repugnant crimes in recent times." Padilla added that the life of King and above all King's death eloquently displayed that the Negro in the United States could not gain freedom except by destroying the system which oppresses him, "the white power structure." He concluded by affirming that the murder of King exhibited to the Puerto Rican independence supporters how far the Yankee imperialists were willing to go when it was a question of liberating the oppressed.

Statement by the Dominican Communist Party

On April 6, 1968, according to MM T-1, Radio Liberacion, Havana, Cuba, announced that the Dominican Communist Party had expressed its shock at the assassination of King and urged support of the Negro war of emancipation in the United States. The Dominican Communist Party was reported to be supporting the statements of Stokely Carmichael.

Statement by Floyd McKissick

According to MM T-1, Radio Havana, Cuba broadcast in Spanish on April 8, 1968, a telephone interview with Floyd McKissick, national leader of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). A summary translation of the broadcast is set forth below.

CUBAN PROPAGANDA ACTIVITIES

"The National Board of CORE was horrified and saddened at learning of the death of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in Memphis, Tennessee. The death of Dr. King is a tragedy and horror for all Americans. That this Negro leader, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, and the most outstanding apostle of nonviolence, was shot in the heart of an American city is a sad proof of the racism existing in our present society.

"Dr. King was the last apostle of nonviolence and with his death the ideology of nonviolence has also died. It was not Negroes who killed him; it was white violence and racism. It was the shot in Dallas, repeated in Memphis. Once more, the United States has shown the world that this is a violent nation. With the assassination of a president and now the assassination of a man of peace, dedicated to God, in the same decade, racism and white violence have produced not the American Dream but the American Nightmare.

"I am astonished that the murderer of Dr. King was able to escape so quickly through the ring of police around the motel at the time the crime was committed; and it is still more unusual that the suspected assassin was able to flee in a city like Memphis, which was already on the alert. It is ironic that President Johnson does not mention racism as the root of the problem which provoked the murder of Dr. King. Tragic as it is, the death of Dr. King points up the importance of unity among all segments of the Negro community. We are not warning, we are not predicting, but the American Negroes will not remain as impassive witnesses to the brutal murder of our leaders, our heroes, our people."

When questioned by Radio Havana, McKissick said: "We cannot teach the people not to be violent while we are involved in a violent war in Vietnam; we cannot preach non-

"violence to the Negro people who must face violence in United States streets every day."

Finally, MacKissick told Radio Havana that nobody can predict events in the United States in the next few days.

Statement by Vietnam Representative in Cuba

On April 6, 1968, according to MM T-1, Radio Liberacion, Havana, announced that Juan Vin Son, head of the Mission of the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam in Cuba, had sent a message to Afro-Americans, expressing sorrow and indignation at the assassination of Martin Luther King. He said this crime had shown the truth about the government and racists in the United States, since "Johnson's crocodile tears fooled nobody" and they cannot put down the indignation felt by the Afro-Americans and the honorable people throughout the world. The broadcast also indicated that since Vietnam was a victim of the imperialistic policies of aggression and exploitation, the people of South Vietnam understood very well the situation of the Afro-Americans who suffered today under the cruel segregation policy of the United States. He said the South Vietnam National Liberation Front was resolved to intensify its offensive against the Yankees in order to honor the memory of King.

Statement by Representative of Black Panther Party (BPP)

On April 12, 1968, radio Liberacion, Havana, according to MM T-1, broadcast in Spanish a telephone interview between Bobby Silk (phonetic), official spokesman for the Black Panther Party (BPP) in the United States, and Radio Havana, Cuba. A summary translation of this broadcast disclosed that Silk reported on the health of Averill Clivers (phonetic), described as a leader of the BPP, who was seriously wounded a week previously by the Oakland, California Police Department. Silk alleged that there was still some remains of tear gas in Clivers' lungs and that Clivers had been brutally beaten in jail, although he had been seriously wounded by a gunshot in the leg. Silk alleged that Clivers "was the victim of the same kind of brutal treatment given to all the Negroes in the United States by the white racist policemen." During the broadcast, it was explained that Clivers had been arrested while members of the BPP were distributing arms to members of the Negro community in order that the latter could defend themselves from racist attacks by the police. Those arrested were ordered to remove their clothing and at the same time Bobby Houston was shot while proceeding to a police car. Further, other Negroes were tortured and brutally mistreated by the police during these arrests. Silk furnished plans for the funeral service of Houston to be held that same day, after which a planned demonstration would take place in front of the jail where Clivers was being detained. Silk also mentioned Hius Newton (phonetic), described as a top leader of the BPP, was also under arrest in Oakland.

According to the broadcast, when questioned about the assassination of Martin Luther King, Silk said that in spite of differences in philosophy, the BPP believed King was brutally murdered by racists. He said they had information that King never told anyone privately he would not defend himself and he only supported nonviolence publicly but privately believed everyone had the right to defend himself from racist attacks. He said he attended the funeral of King in Atlanta, Georgia, and believed the racist who murdered King was part of a plan of the "racist power structure" to eliminate him.

With regard to the civil rights legislation which had been approved by the United States Congress, Silk stated the BPP did not consider it effective in solving their problems. He said none of the laws were valid, because they could not be enforced, and for this reason, the Negroes should arm themselves in order to defend themselves. He stated the fight for liberation was intended to bring about the necessary economic and political changes in the decadent and racist capitalist system.

In conclusion, Radio Havana announced that they in Cuba support the fight of the BPP.

Black Power Posters Sent to the United States by Cuba

On April 13, 1968, "The Miami Herald," a daily newspaper published at Miami, Florida, contained an article by William Montalbano, Herald Latin America Correspondent, entitled "Black Power Posters Sent to U. S. by Cuba." This article stated Cuba was mailing to the United States Black Power posters, urging Negroes to initiate "revolutionary violence" in retaliation for the assassination of Martin Luther King. Copies of the poster showing a panther with flaming red eyes, its fangs bared, with the words "Black Power" inset in its mouth, were received by mail in Miami. A slogan, in English, French, Spanish and Arabic appears in the poster's lower left corner and reads: "Retaliation to Crime: Revolutionary Violence" (Response to the Assassination: Violent Revolution.) These posters were being distributed under the auspices of the Tricontinental Peoples Solidarity Organization, a communist group with headquarters in Havana. Accompanying the poster was a mimeographed message, signed by the Executive Secretariat of the OSPAAAL, which reads as follows: "On the occasion of Dr. Martin Luther King's assassination we have published a poster that is now being circulated all over the world. We are sending you here-with a certain amount of these posters, which may be used in your country for the activities to be carried out in this regard."

The article continued that the OSPAAAL Secretariat is an outgrowth of a meeting of revolutionaries from Africa, Asia and Latin America held in Havana in January, 1966. A "spin-off" group called LASO (Latin American Solidarity Organization) met in Havana last summer in a conference attended by several hundred Latin American revolutionaries. American Black Power leader, Stokely Carmichael, was among the honored guests.

On April 12, 1968, MM T-2, an individual acquainted with certain phases of both pro and anti-Fidel Castro activities in Cuba and in the United States, furnished a plain brown manila envelope, approximately 7½ inches by 10½ inches, which had been delivered via the U. S. Mail. This envelope bore the return address on the flap of the envelope: "Ramon Echavarria, Apartado 6012, La Habana, Cuba" (Box 6012, Havana, Cuba.) This envelope did not contain any postage, but the words "Port (illegible--possibly paye)" (Postage Prepaid) were rubber stamped in the upper right hand corner on the face of the envelope.

Enclosed in this envelope was a copy of the aforementioned poster, which is approximately 13 inches by 22 inches. A reproduction of this poster is as follows:

Additional Statements from Cuba Inciting Racial Violence in Imperialist Countries of the World

On April 15, 1968, MM T-1 reported Cuban radio stations have continuously repeated messages from various parts of the world concerning the death of Martin Luther King.

A message from the Joint Committee of the Union of Communist Youth (UJC) and the Federation of University Students (FEU), signed by their Presidents, Julio Cesar Castro Palomino and Jaime Crombet Baquero, stated they supported the just decision of the Negro movement to answer the reactionary repression of Yankee racist imperialism with revolutionary violence. This message was sent by the Cuban youth to the Negro youth of the United States through the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

The message also related that the assassination of King had served to show that Yankee imperialism did not differentiate at the hour of treacherous assassination between a fighter, who preached a violent fight like Malcolm X, and a person like King, who adopted a position of peaceful resistance. The message referred to inciting racial violence in imperialist countries throughout the world.

Message from Cuban Women to Negro Women of the United States

On April 15, 1968, an article appeared in "Granma," official organ of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba, printed daily in Havana, Cuba, captioned: "Message of the FMC to the Negro Women of the U. S." This article indicated the Cuban women, members of the Federation of Cuban Women, had watched with fervor the growing progress of the fight of the Negro in the United States. It reflected the Negroes were recruited to serve as cannon fodder for the most unjust and criminal war being waged by the United States Government against the people of Vietnam, as well as the merciless exploitation of the Negro.

Vilma Espin, wife of Raul Castro, Vice Minister of Cuba, is a member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba and the organizer and leader of the FMC.

Cuban Propaganda in the United States and Throughout the World

MM T-1 advised that since the first part of January, 1968, Radio Progreso, Radio Havana and other radio stations in Havana, Cuba, have continuously reported on activities concerning Vietnamese in Cuba and Cubans in Vietnam. He noted a scheduled air flight travels between Vietnam and Cuba weekly.

MM T-1 further stated that Radio Havana, Cuba transmits a program in English on the 49 meter band, 7150 kcs., called "The Voice of Vietnam." He stated this program can be heard nightly in the United States and in northern Europe. He also advised that Radio Havana broadcasts this program in various languages to all parts of the world at various times throughout the day and night, including Guarani, Quechuan, Portuguese, Spanish and Creole to the Caribbean and South America; in Arabic to the Mediterranean; and in French to the Mediterranean, Europe and Canada. MM T-1 described Radio Havana as a very powerful radio station, having 100,000 watts, which transmits via short wave throughout the world in various languages violent anti-United States propaganda. It is the official voice of the Fidel Castro communist government of Cuba.

With respect to "The Voice of Vietnam" program, Radio Havana also transmits this broadcast at 9:10 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. on the 31 meter band, 9525 kcs., at 11:40 p.m. on the 49 meter band, 6130 kcs., and at 2:40 a.m. on the 31 meter band, 9655 kcs.

A representative of the United States Post Office, Miami, Florida, has advised that mail arrives from Cuba via Mexico weekly, generally on Tuesday. He stated that in accordance with postal union agreements with practically all nations of the world, mail is accepted and delivered if received from a country which is a member of this union. He advised Cuba is a member of this union, as well as the United States, and therefore all mail received in the United States from Cuba is accepted and delivered. There is no additional postage required once Cuban mail has been received in the United States. Concerning the afore-mentioned Black Power poster, he advised the United States Post Office had received word this poster had been sent to the United States from Cuba via the mail system. However, he was unable to state the extent of its distribution.

On April 16, 1968, MM T-1 reiterated that Radio Havana, Cuba and "Granma" have repeatedly announced statements by Stokely Carmichael that there should be many "Vietnams" in all major cities in the United States. Also, after the death of Martin Luther King, the Negroes were again instructed by Carmichael to make violent revolution throughout the imperialist nations of the world. It is noted the great activity of burning and looting occurred in the United States after the Carmichael statements broadcast by Radio Havana, Cuba. MM T-1 also speculated it was not outside the realm of possibility that the assassination of Martin Luther King was possibly planned and perpetrated by anti-democratic factions outside the United States.
