SUPERIOR POLICE WORK

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., noted Negro civil rights leader, was murdered in Memphis, Tenn., April 4.

Last Saturday—June 8—the leading suspect in the case, James Earl Ray, was arrested at London airport.

Assistant U.S. Attorney General Fred Vinson is in London now, working for Ray's early—it is hoped—extradition to the U.S.A. Trial in Memphis should follow shortly thereafter.

No one should prejudge Ray. He has not been tried for the King killing; and in this country a person is deemed innocent until proved guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

But it is not too early to extend enthusiastic salutes to the police organizations involved in Ray's apprehension—our own Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, London's world-famous Scotland Yard, and any other group or groups which may have helped on the quiet.

Catching Ray necessitated a lot of brilliant, complex and laborious police and detective work of many kinds. We are delighted that this work got the desired results, and in a comparatively short time.

We're especially pleased with reference to the FBI. It and its great director, J. Edgar Hoover, are hated and feared by certain groups and individuals around the country. Some of these have been putting it about that the FBI was dragging its feet in the King case, if it was working on the case at all. To see these gentry so effectively refuted is a pleasure of the first water.

J. Edgar Hoover

JAMES EARL RAY ADDED TO FBI's LIST

James Earl Ray, a Missouri prison escapee who has been sought under the alias Eric Starvo Galt in connection with the gunshot slaying of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., has been added to the FBI's list of "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives."

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover ordered the special addition of Ray to the list to insure the widest possible dissemination of Ray's photograph and description to help effect his earliest possible location.

Ray has been the subject of a massive and intensive search since the brutal gunshot slaying of Dr. King on April 4, 1968, as he stood on the balcony of a Memphis, Tennessee, motel. One rifle bullet, believed fired from the window of a nearby rooming house, felled the victim.

An exhaustive FBI fingerprint search, comparing latent fingerprints uncovered in the Dr. King case against fingerprints of over 53,000 persons on whom wanted notices have been posted in the FBI's Identification Division, succeeded in determining that Galt and Ray are identical.

A Federal warrant, issued at Birmingham, Alabama, on April 17, 1968 charges Ray, under the alias Eric Starvo Galt, with conspiring to interfere with a Constitutional Right of a United States citizen. Ray is also sought for unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement after conviction for armed robbery, based on a Federal warrant issued on July 20, 1967, at Jefferson City, Missouri. He had been confined at the Missouri State Penitentiary, Jefferson City, Missouri, in March, 1960, with a 20-year sentence following conviction for armed robbery and operating a motor vehicle without permission of the owner. In September, 1966, while serving the sentence, he was confined for a time in the maximum security ward at the State Hospital, Fulton, Missouri. He was reported missing from the Missouri State Penitentiary since April 23, 1967.

Ray, who has an arrest record dating back to 1949 and has been convicted of burglary, armed robbery and forging United States Postal Money Orders, has also been confined in the Los Angeles County Jail, the Joliet and Pontiac, Illinois, State Prisons and the United States Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas.

Ray is a 40-year-old white male, reportedly born in Illinois on March 10, 1928. He is approximately 5 ft., 10 in. tall, weighs from 163 to 174 pounds, has blue eyes and brown hair which he has worn cut short. He has a small scar on the center of his forehead and a scar on the palm of his right hand.

He has been described as having a straight, narrow nose and straight and even teeth and to have a nervous habit of occasionally tugging at an ear lobe. His left ear protrudes noticeably.

Acquaintances describe him as a "loner" and "drifter" whose language and diction reflect a "rural" quality and indicate he has had limited education.

He is reportedly a fan of western and country music, drinks vodka and beer, dresses neatly and claims past employment as a merchant seaman and cook on Mississippi River vessels. He is known to have worked as a baker, laborer and color matcher.

He is known as an avid dancer who has taken dancing lessons. He also completed a course at a school of bartending in the Los Angeles area early in 1968.

Ray should be considered armed and extremely dangerous. Anyone with information concerning this fugitive is requested to immediately contact the nearest office of the FBI, the telephone number of which may be found on the first page of local telephone directories.
