Memorandum

TO : SAC (44-561)

FROM : SA Charles R. Wood, Jr.

SUBJECT: MURKIN

DATE: 6-5-68

Regular contacts are being maintained with informants and sources in the Centralia RA familiar with prostitutes and "street bums", migrant worker activity and the like.

All law enforcement agencies have been alerted to the most recent information and all have the wanted flyer identification and various news photographs of subj. JAMES EARL RAY.

The Franklin Hotel in Centralia is a hostelry catering to transient and low class characters, and investigative interest at this source is being pursued through SI 42-9755, HARRY HALL is the contact.

County Coroners in Marion, Clinton, Wahington, Jefferson, and Fayette County, and Sheriff's Offices, have no known reports of unidentified dead.

Police Department at Mt. Vernon, Illinois, is the only law enforcement agency maintaining unidentified latent fingerprints in file and Sgt. ROBERT SNOW of this department has advised none of the latents in the unidentified file are comparable to those of subj RAY.

Contacts with following informant sources negative.

SI 1561-C -- 5/23/68
SI 1603-C -- 5/17,23/68
SI 1632-C -- 5/2,10,20/68

All informants are familiar with police character individuals and will report suspicious persons.

dated 6/10/68.

On 6/11 and 12/68, photographs of JAMES EARL RAY were displayed to LARRY MC INTOSH and former owners of Mens Style Shop, Mayfield, Kentucky. Mr. WATT C. SEAY and EDWIN WILSON all advised that on an average of one year they sell over 40 dozen Royal De Luxe Stetsons and that the pictures of JAMES EARL RAY are completely unfamiliar to them. All advised that more likely the hat purchased at Mayfield, Kentucky, was done so by a cash purchase and no record would be kept of such a transaction. All stated no charge record was available of information concerning the purchase of a Royal De Luxe Stetson.

Further, photographs displayed to COP of Mayfield, Kentucky, Sheriff Graves County, Mayfield, Kentucky, and County Judge Graves County all advised they are unable to make an identification concerning JAMES EARL RAY.

There is no reason to believe he would furnish any different information at this time, however, in view of subject's capture, SL contemplates reinterview with GAWRON to afford him an opportunity to furnish any information he may previously have withheld. RE: MURKIN

REURTEL, 5-3-68.

It was indicated that SL telephone number ME 1-7777 had been called on 3-4-68, by RUBY CARPENTER, step-mother of subject, from Quincy, Ill.

SL coverage of relatives also disclosed this number was called by subject's father, JERRY RAYNES.

SA SPURGEON J. PETERSON determined from MR. T. E. UMPHRES, Area Security Supervisor, SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE CO., SLMO, (PROTECT), that ME 1-7777 is issued to RAY BEZDEK doing business as RAY's SPORTING GOODS, 284 Lemay Ferry, SLMO.

On 6-7-68, RAY BEZDEK, 284 Lemay Ferry, SLMO, advised SA JOSEPH A. DUBJAK that he was unable to recognize the photo of subject as being anyone known to him and that the names JAMES EARL RAY, and aliases used by subject, were likewise unfamiliar to him.

The names JERRY RAYNES and RUBY CARPENTER did have a familiar ring and after some consideration he recalled that in connection with an automobile license application and title transfer service, which he operates in conjunction with his sporting goods business, he was contacted in either Oct. or Nov. 1967, by one JERRY RAYNES who desired to transfer the title of two automobiles to RUBY CARPENTER of Quincy, Ill. The transfer necessarily went through the Mo. State Motor Vehicle Office, Jefferson City and some problems arose in connection therewith which occasioned this receipt of several calls from both RAYNES and CARPENTER. He was of the opinion that RAYNES was the only individual who had ever appeared at his store and he was unable to recall ever having seen CARPENTER.
